CITY INTELLIGENCE. HAGGERTY.

Bre Makes Elis Escape from the Officers of the Shortly after neon to-day, the prison van, containing the notorious Jimmy Haggerty, drove into the passage-way alongside of the old Court House, and halted. There was standing about the entrance to the court-room an indiscriminate crowd of loafers, who seemed to manifest the usual interest concerning the exit-of those who are brought up to court. These fellows assembled around the rear of the van, and as Tipstave Thomas opened the door, and Haggerty stepped on to the pavement, there was a cry of "fire" from among the crowd. Taking advantage of the excitement occasioned by the cry, Haggerty, all things having been arranged beforehand, darted through the doorway. Mr. Thomas gave tae alarm and started in pursuit, but he was jostled se around that it was some time before he succeeded in getting through. He however kept Haggerty in sight. That scoundred ran out into Chesnut street and across that thoroughfare to the restaurant door of the American Hotel. Here there was another jam, but the fugitive was allowed to pass through without being molested. The officer, in pursuit yelled, "Stop him!" and on arriving at the door their further progress was again delayed by the crowd, who get up a sham fight. When dit was too door their further progress was again delayed by the crowd, who got up a sham fight. When (it was too late, however) the court officers went into the barlate, however) the court officers went into the flat-room, they found that Haggerty had ran down into the bath-room, from which he had escaped to Minor street, and how he then proceeded is not known. The supposition is that the whole thing had been previously planned, and that a carriage was in wait-ing in the rear of the hotel, into which he got and was then driven off.

was then driven off.

This is by far the bottel, into which he got and was then driven off.

This is by far the boldest attempt to escape ever made in this city, alengside of which the effort to get Haggerty out of the cell at the Central Station, some time since, sinks into insignificance. At a matter of course there was considerable excitement on Chesnut street, and the police found some trouble in https://doi.org/10.1009/10

The matter was called to the attention of Mayor Eox, who immediately directed the fact to be telegraphed to every police station, and the officers to se on the lookout. It is questionable now whether he will be recaptured, as his confreres will do everyther it their mover to secrete him. thing in their power to secrete bim.

FRE.—Last night about 11 o'clock a fire broke out in the Union Star Mills of James Greenwood, at Forty-fourth and Ludlow streets, West Philadelphia. In the place, a new three-storied stone building, 147 feet long and 48 feet broad, are manufactured woollen blankets and carpet yarn. The structure was divided into two compartments, separated by a wall and fron doors.

The fire originated in the picker-room, in the

The fire originated in the packer-room, in the second story, and extended thence to the first and third stories, destroying about one-third of the southern end of the building. The machinery in that portion of the mill was all ruined, and the stock, of which, fortunately, but little was in storage there, was entirely consumed. Loss, $15,000; insurance, $41,000, divided between the Royal, Delaware Mutual, Merchants', Hartford, and Security, of New York, as follows:—On machinery, $22,000; on building, $10,000; on an outside smaller building not touched by the on an outside smaller building not touched by the Charles Wadsworth has declined the call extended to him to become pastor of the Alexander Presbyterian Church of this city.

THE LATE WILLIAM WERNWAG, Esq. -William Wernwag died on the 22d instant, aged seventy. Mr. Wernwag came to this city many years ago from Mr. Wernwag came to this city many years ago from Germany, and was actively engaged in the bread baking business on Chesaut, west of Seventeenth street. He acquired a large competency by his probity and business energy, and purchased largely of lands located on the line of the Philadelphia and Eric Railroad, the rapid increase in the value of which added to his fortune. Mr. Wernwag was noted for his benevolence, especially in adding his destitute countrymen, and his death will be much regretted by a large circle of personal and business regretted by a large circle of personal and business friends. He leaves several children.

"Our Paper."—We have received the first number of a little sheet entitled Our Paper, to be published monthly by the Young People's Association of old "Old Pine Street" Presbyterian Church, for gratuitous distribution. The selections are well made, while the original articles are pithy and telling. Such a publication cannot but tend, while edited in a spirit of fraternal charity, to benefit its own especial congregation, and to sirr up the "Young People" into the needed active work of evangelization in home districts. The expenses of publication are borne by subscriptions, and a gift of one dollar entities to a contributing membership.

THE MISSING "KELLY."-For the purpose ascertaining whether the missing witness in the Brooks case, Officer John Kelly, of the Seventeenth Police district, was secreted on any vessel in the Delaware or Schuyikill rivers, Lieutenants Jacoby and Smith, of the Harbor force, were ordered by the head of the department to make search. They started in their row-boats, but afterwards precured the steamtug Dallman, and boarded every vessel in the two rivers as far down as League Island. They didn't find him. Policeman Kelly's name was this morning stricken from the roll by order of the

The next Monday afternoon Union Prayer Meeting for the Holy Spirit will be held at the Church of the Covenant, Filbert street, above Seventeenth, October 25, at 4 o'clock. Ministers, Christians, and all others are cordially invited to attend.

A HOTEL THIEF.—Early this morning a chap named William Woods was discovered in the Eagle Hotel in the act of operating upon the locks of the room doors. He had a pick and a pair of nippers in bis hand. The proprietor of the place, Mr. Cum-mings, called in a police-officer and had William taken into custody. He will have a hearing this afternoon at the Central Police Station.

ELECTED.—We are pleased to notice that George L. Buzby, Esc., Republican, was elected on the 12th inst. by a handsome majority to represent the Ninth ward in Common Council, instead of Mr. Legget, Bemorat as reported.

A TESTIMONIAL.—Lieutenant Pritchard, of the Eleventh district, has been presented with a gold watch and chain by Father Kieran, on behalf of the members of St. Anna's Parish.

A Coming Wedding. Deepatch to The Evening Telegraph.

Washington, Oct. 23.—On dit, that a wedding is to take place at Vice-President Colfax's mansion about the first of December. His half-sister, Miss Matthews, and Colonel Hollister are the parties. Butterfield and Boutwell.

Boutwell says the statement of yesterday's Com-servical that General Butterfield had written him a speculation, is true. He received the letter this morning. The letter is a full, explicit denial of any connection whatever, remote or otherwise, with the late gold corner. General Butterfield further states that he has never, on any occasion, speculated in Our Debt.

Of the bonds outstanding on the last debt statement, $1,332,440,600, were coupon bonds and $775,496,200 were registered.

FROM THE DOMINION.

Earthquake in New Brunswick. St. John, N. B., Oct. 22.—At fifteen minutes before 6 o'clock this morning a severe shock of earthquake was felt here, preceded by a rumbling noise and vibrations, and lasted about twenty seconds. Houses shook violently, everybody was awakened, and many rushed from their houses in alarm, but no ma-terial damage was done. In other parts of New Brunswick, Frederickton, Woodstock, Miramiche, and St. Andrews, the shocks appear to have been more severe, throwing down chimneys and cracking the walls of houses. Similar shocks were felt in Halifax, Annapolis, and Kentville, Nova Scotia.

He urged, as usual, the im-perative necessity of conquering in Cuba, acknow-ledging at the same time the duty of the Govern-ment to allow to the Cubans all the liberties ac-corded to Spaniards, adding these memorable words:—

I do not think that any nation loses prestige when "I do not think that any harder leaves from her centre, provided that time and circumstances have united to give that nationality the strength and energy sufficient for sustaining itself." This would seem to imply that Spain, after satisfying the cravings of national pride by gaining one or two important victores over the rebels, is prepared to citter into tories over the rebels, is prepared to enter into arrangements by which the Cubans can possess their

What is it, and what will cure it? It is a fact that will not be controverted that Dyspepsia is a national disease, to be found from the Presidential mansion to the humble cottage along the marshes of the Atlantic. Symptoms-There are scarcely two cases of Dyspepsia alike. The symptoms vary. In one case they may be cold hands and feet, oppressive soreness and pain in the pit of the stomach, drowsiness after meals.

In another, costiveness, heartburn (so called), tormenting feelings, both mental and physical.

In a third, nervousness, the spirits depressed, a foreboding of evil, the mind so depressed that in some cases there is extreme melancholy, and the sufferer is led to commit suieide. In another, harassing belchings, saliva or a watery substance profusely running from the mouth, throat irritated with a dry cough, skin dry, then cold, the stools clay colored, restlessness at night, sleep easily disturbed, frightful dreams, at one time bowels constipated, then diarrhea or dysentery, caused by foul matter in the stomach, causing apoplexy and other diseases beyond the power of human skill to control. What will cure it? By indigestion the food lies in the stomach and is decomposed by heat, etc., into a mucus;

this mucus adheres to the walls of the stomach until a false membrane is formed, which paralyzes the functions of the digestive organs. To perform a cure this false membrane must be detached, and the stomach healed and brought back to natural tone; without effecting this, it is impossible to effect a cure, and in this mode of treatment lies Dr. L. Q. C. WISHART'S wonderful cures of the Dyspepsia. The Dyspepsia Pills remove the false lining, and the Pine Tree Tar

Cordial heals, making a perfect cure of this

THE VIRTUES OF TAR.

A very ingenious "sell" upon the Royal Society of Great Britain was perpetrated by Sir Charles Hanbury Williams, a wicked wag of the age, during the furore caused by the discovery of the wonderful healing powers of TAR

WATER Sir Charles sent a communication to the President relating the circumstances of a sailor's breaking his leg on board of the guard-ship at Chatham, and its perfect union and cure by an application of spun oakum soaked in tar.

After the communication had been read and printed in the Royal Transactions, he sent a second letter, stating that he had forgotten to state in the former correspondence that the leg was a wooden one! Although this joke was a sore one for the society, it did not injure the reputation of Tar as a remedy, for its legitimate cures were so wonderful that odes were written in its praise, and the celebrated Bishop Berkely published two voluminous works describing, endorsing, and registering its virtues. From the failure of scientific men, at that period, to extract and concentrate the curative principle from the crude tar, its nauseousness caused it to fall into disuse, and its great healing powers were lost to mankind until Dr. L. Q. C. Wishart succeeded in depriving the specific of its unpleasant and cruder particles, and in his PINE TREE TAR

CORDIAL offering to the afflicted all that was valuable, while the other parts were eliminated by its careful preparation. As soon as this was accomplished the remedy was again endorsed by the faculty, and the cures were such as to convert its enemies and firmly establish it as one of the greatest blessings to suffering humanity. Its success was immediate and wide-spread, and its Earthquakes in New Brunswick-The Ticket which Drew the Coliseum.

FROM NEW BRUNSWICK.

More Earthquake Shocks. St. Jouns, N. B., Oct. 23 .- This morning, at 5.45 o'clock, a severe shock of earthquake was felt in this city, lasting for thirty seconds. The whole city was aroused from sleep, beds, doors, and windows shaking violently. The morning was remarkably gloomy, with a strong gale from the south. The shock was also felt at Halifax. A high freshet prevails in the river St. John, and the wharves, at Fredericton and Woodstock are under water.

SOHENCK'S DOLUMN.

CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED.

READ THE EVIDENCE.

"Facts are stubborn things," and it is to facts alone that it is desired to direct the attention of the readers of this article.

Many years of severe and thorough practical trial have demonstrated beyond the peradventure of a doubt the fact that the medicines prepared by me, and known as SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS, SCHENCK'S SEAWEED TONIC, and SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, have proved extraordinarily successful in the cure of diseases of the Pulmonary organs, or what is usually termed CONSUMPTION.

I am fully aware that there are many persons whose prejudices rule them so completely that "proofs strong as Holy Writ" would fail to convince them of the efficacy of my remedies; and that there are others who, under no circumstances, could be prevailed upon to admit their merits, simply because such an admission would prove detrimental to their particular personal interests. Fortunately for the welfare of mankind, these doubting people form a comparatively small portion of the community at large. They are to be found here and there, but, compared with the great mass of the world's population, their num-bers are so small that I dismiss them, and address myself to those who are willing to listen to the dictates of reason, and who are disposed to admit the strong logic of well-established facts. We are told almost daily that Consumption, the scourge of the American people, is incurable; that a man whose lungs are diseased must be given over to die; that he must abandon hope; and that the arrangement of his temporal as well as spiritual affairs should claim his earliest attention. If there were not fac;s as undenlable as that the sun will shine in a clear heaven at midday to controvert these random and not unfrequently harmful assertions, I should feel un-willing to take up the gage of battle against them; but, fortified with results—facts—which them; but, forthled with results—Jacks—which neither theory nor mere assertion can overturn, I propose to prove that CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED, and that the medicines I prepare—THE MANDRAKE PILLS, SEAWEED TONIC, and PULMONIC SYRUP—will, it used in strict. accordance with the directions, in a majority of cases effect that which the faculty pronounces impossible—they will cure Consumption.

An ounce of solid fact is worth a pound of theory. Let me, therefore, present the facts connected with my own individual experience. Many years ago I was a confirmed consumptive, and, like thousands of other unfortunates, was given up to die. Eminent physicians pro-nounced my case a hopeless one, and told me nounced my case a hopeless one, and told me that if I had any preparations to make for the final solemn event, that I had better make them speedily. I believed this just as confidently as did the persons who thus affectionately informed me that my days were numbered and that recovery was impossible. Still, the desire to live lingered in my bosom. I was young, and clung to life with the same tenacity that young men, and old men too, ordinarily do. I did not feel willing to abandon hope as long as a single ves-tige of it remained. I had full faith in the sad information conveyed to me by my physicians, but still there was a lingering belief that some-thing could be done, though I knew not in what direction to seek for the much-desired relief.

It was at this gloomy and eventual period of my history that I first learned of the roots and herbs from which my remedies for this dreaded disease are now prepared. I procured and used them, and, to the utter amazement of all-physicians, friends, and neighbors—began to im-prove. My entire system commenced to undergo success was immediate and wide-spread, and its manufacture became of great importance and a source of wealth to its reviver. A long life was spent for the welfare of mankind by Dr. Wishart in perfecting his discovery and promulgating its in perfecting his discovery and promulgating its I ate freely of such food as was palatable to me, usefulness, and at his decease (which took place but recently) the method of preparation an wholesome. Expectoration became less copious and less offensive; exhausting night ceased; the racking and harassing cough abated: the fever broke; the pain departed; flesh planted celerity, and is the only preparation which approaches to a specific. It does not cover and patch up, but eradicates disease by removing itself on my sadly-wasted frame, and with flesh came strength and full health. From a mere skeleton I became a stout, strong, robust man, and I have maintained both strength and flesh to this day. I weigh two hundred and thirty-five pounds; I am blest with an appetite vouchcatarrhs, and consequently of the incipient stages of consumption, is the only certain remedy in the pharmacopeia. It would be a waste of safed to but few men, while my digestive organs are amply equal to all the requirements of a healthful condition of my system.

Now, be it remembered, all these wonderful changes were wrought by the use of the medicines I prepare—MANDRAKE PILLS, SEAWEED TONIC, and PULMONIC SYRUP. A cure seemingly so miraculous naturally created astonishment in the minds of those who knew me. I was literally besieged on all sides. I had visitors daily who besought me to give them the remedies which had wrought the wonderful restoration and had wrested me from the very jaws of death. Letters were received by scores importuning me to impart the secret and inform the writers where the specifics for consumption could be obtained. Others, who were too weak to travel, not satisfied with writing, sent for and consulted me in regard to their cases. To all these applications I responded as I was able.

I had fully regained my health, and gratitude I had fully regained my health, and gratitude for the happy result prompted me to turn my attention to the science of medicine, with the hope of thereby being able to be of service to my suffering fellow-creatures. I devoted myself closely to my studies, and more especially to that branch of them relating to the terrible disease from which I had suffered so long and so much. I investigated it in all its fearful phases, in order to assure myself that my case was not in order to assure myself that my case was not an exceptional one. The closer my investiga-tions the more satisfactory were my conclusions. I felt convinced that tens of thousands of my fellow-creatures were dying annually from consumption whose cases were not as desperate and apparently hopeless as mine had been, and I argued from this that remedies which had proven so effective with me would prove equally so with others. I prepared my medicines in a pleasant and attractive form, and announced them to the world. The results are well known. Thousands of suffering men, women, and children, who were on their way to the grave, have been cured, and are to-day living evidences of the fact that CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED; and I think I may say, without arrogating to myself any more than is justly my due, that I have had as much experience in the treatment of consumption as any other person in the country, and that my success has been wonderfully

Let the reader remember that these are not mere fancied statements. They are positive living facts of which I am the living evidence. There is an old adage which says, "What has been done may be done." I have been complately cured of consumption by the remedies I plately cured of consumption by the remedies I now offer to the public. Thousands of others have testified to similar happy results from their use, and thousands of others still might be benefitted as I have been could they but be prevailed upon to try the virtue of The Mandrake Pills, Seaweed Tonic, and Pulmonic Syrup. All that is necessary to convince the most skeptical of their merits is a fair trial.
