THE DAILY EVENING TELEGRAPH-PHILADELPHIA, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1869.

NOVEMBER 2.

STATE ELECTIONS. THE

New York, New Jersey, Maryland,* Massachusetts, Wisconsin, Minnesota, and Illinois.

The Contests of Next Tuesday-The Candidates-The Prospects.

Tuesday, the 12th of October, merely witnessed the preliminary skirmish; Tuesday, the 2d of November, will be the grand political field day of the current year. On that day elections will be held in the following seven States: -New York, New Jersey, Maryland, Massachusetts, Wisconsin, Minnesota, and Illinois. Below we give comprehensive details of the candidates and prospects in each of these States:-

NEW YORK.

The election in this State involves the choice of a Secretary of State, a Comptroller, a Treasurer, an Attorney-General, a State Engineer and Surveyor, a Canal Commissioner, an Inspector of State Prisons, and two Judges of the Court of Appeals-one in place of Charles Mann, who was appointed on the 20th of January last to fill the vacancy caused by the death of William B. Wright, and the other In place of Lewis A. Woodruff, who was appointed on the 4th of January last to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of John K. Porter, whose term of office will expire on the 31st of December, 1871. The Candidates for these several positions are the following :-Democratic.

Republican. FOR SECRETARY OF STATE. Homer A. Neison, Franz Sigel. FOR COMPTROLLER. Horace Greeley. William Allen.

FOR ATTORNEY-GENERAL, Martin L Townsend, Marshall B. Champlain. FOR STATE TREASURER. Thomas I. Chatfield. Wheeler H. Bristol.

FOR STATE ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR. William B. Taylor. Van R. Richmond. FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER. Stephen T. Hayt. William W. William W. Wright

FOR INSPECTOR OF STATE PRISONS. Daniel D. Conover. Fordyce L. Latlin. FOR JUDGES OF THE COURT OF APPEALS.

John B. Lott, Robert Earl. Tharles Mas ewis Woodruff. The present incumbents of the State offices are the Democratic candidates above named, with the exception of the Canal Commissionership and Prison Inspectorship, the former position being now held by Stephen T. Hayt, and the latter by John Hammond. Judges of the District Supreme Courts are also to be elected in each of the eight Judicial Districts of the State. The Vote of the State

during past years has been as follows :--

The State, Legislative, and County Elections, In Maryland there will be, on November 2, an election for a State Comptroller, members of the General Assembly, Sheriffs, Surveyors, County Commissioners, and School Commissioners. The Republican candidate for Comptroller is Colonel William A. McKillip; the Democratic candidate, Colonel Levin Woolford. The election of the following is assured, in view of the following figures, showing the recent votes of the State .---

MASSACHUSETTS.

In this State there will be an election for State officers and members, of the Legislature. Three State tickets are in the field, one being denominated the Labor Reform ticket : but there is no prospect that this third ticket will materially interfere with the success of the Republican candidates, although it may diminish their majority somewhat. The temperance question is also mixed up with the other issues, but not sufficiently to put the result of the election in doubt.

The Legislature.

The complexion of the last Legislature, which may be taken as an index of the coming one, was as fol-WS:-

have entered the field with a full ticket, but without much hope of affecting the result. The State Tickets are made up of the following names :-Democratic. Republican. FOR GOVERNOR. Horace Austia. George I FOR LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR, William H. Yale, George L. Otts. J. A. Wiswell.

But the situation is not sufficiently complement But the situation is not sufficiently complicated by these three tickets to suit the politicians of the extreme Northwest, and so it is rumored that the irrepressible Ignatius Donnelly has gotten up a secret movement to advance his own interests in a Congressional direction, and at the same time defeat the aspirations of General C. C. Washburn, into whose hands it is claimed that the control of the party will fall, if the straight Republican ticket is elected. It is reported that Donnelly and his retainers are attempting to secure their object by the election of a mixed ticket, made up from the two regular tickets. and comprising the Republican candidates for Lieutenant-Governor, Treasurer, Chief Justice, and Clerk of the Supreme Court, sandwiched between the Democratic candidates for Governor, Secretary of State, Auditor, and Attorney-General. It will be impossible to detect the strength of this alleged movement until the election is passed, but as Donnelly has already, by his insubordination, caused the Republicans to lose one of the Congressional districts, it would not be surprising if he were again at his tricks. If there were no disturbing elements at work, the following table, giving the vote in the State at the recent election, would afford a fair index of the probable result :--Tsar, Office, 1864-President. Ma). 7,616R 3,471B 10,208B

The Constitutional Convention. In this State there is no election for State officers this year, but the members of a State Constitutional Convention are to be elected on November 2. The convention will consist of eighty-five members, the same number as is comprised by both houses of the Legislature. This body is divided politically between 58 Republicans and 27 Democrats, and it is probable that the convention for revising the Constitution will be made up in about the same proportions.

County, municipal. and township elections are also to be held on November 2.

The Chicago Municipal Election

is the most important of these, and in consequence of the peculiar divisions in the Republican ranks in that city; a great deal of interest is attached to the result. As soon as the so-called regular Republican nominations were made, they were repudlated by nearly every Republican journal in that city, and from this opposition sprung a movement which resulted in the nomination of a Citizens' Reform ticket, composed about equally of Republicans and Democrats. The Republicans who have gone into this movement have done so with the avowed object of wresting the control of the party in that city from the corrupt "rings" who are endeavoring to use its machinery for their own aggrandizement and profit.

rule of assessment and taxation of real and personal property, and another removing the property qualification now required of colored men as a requisite for the exercise of the elective franchise.

It is claimed that the amended Constitution restores in great measure the power which was vested in the Governor by the Constitution in force from 1823 to 1847. Previous to the adoption of the Constitution of 1823, there existed a Council of Revision. composed of the Chancellor, the Judges of the Supreme Court, and the Governor, which body held a veto power over the acts of the Legislature, and enabled the Executive to control the legislation of the State to an alarming extent. At this time there was also a Council of Appointment, composed of the Governor and four Senators, which was the source of all the patronage of the State offices. Both these councils were abolished by the Constitution of 1823. which placed the veto power, subject to an overruling by a two-thirds vote of both houses of the Legislature, in the hands of the Governor alone, and vested in his hands also the power of appointment subject to the approval of the Senate, or in the Legislature as a body. By the Constitution of 1847, another vital change was effected, the Governor being nearly despoiled of his appointing power. The term of the members of the Senate was also reduced to two years. The amended Constitution, if adopted, will bring about a counter-revolution, as it restores to the Governor and Senate a large share of the appointing power formerly possessed by them, and extends the term of the Senators to four years, with a provision that one-half of them shall retire from office every two years.

The Two Platforms.

The Republican platform asserts that the public debt shall be paid in coin; that taxation should be equal; that the Government should protect its citizens, native and foreign born; favors equal suffrage; the adoption of the fifteenth amendment; sympathize, with the oppressed of all nations, particularly Cuba, who are struggling for liberty sgainst an arbitrary and oppressive government; favors the acquisition of that island whenever her people desire it, and congratulates the country upon the rapid reduction of the national debt.

The Democratic platform maintains unswerving fidelity to the principles and pledges of the Democratic party; demands the restoration of all the States to their so-called "rights" in the Union, and a general overthrow of the Congressional policy of reconstruction; arraigns the administration as false to true principles and measures and to its pledges to give the country peace; demands the protection of all American citizens, whether natu, ralized or native-born, especially in Cuba and Great Britain ; pronounces in favor of the fulfilment of all legitimate contracts made by the Federal Government; denounces the multiplication, complexity, and uncertainty of taxes, and the exemption of the moneyed class from the burdens of State and municipal government; endorses the course of the present Democratic State government; opposes the proposed afteenth amendment to the Federal Constitution; and declares against the amended State Constitution.

On these issues, and with the candidates above named, the two parties go before the people of New York on Tuesday next. From the figures given above, it will be seen that the hopes of a Democratic victory are not without foundation; but the Republicans are working earnestly, and will be defeated by a much smaller majority than at the last Prestdential election, even if they are not the winning party.

· NEWJERSEY.

WISCONSIN.

In this State a full State ticket and members of the Legislature are to be elected on November 2.

The State Tickets, after considerable tribulation, finally settled down as follows :---Democratic, Republican, FOR GOVERNOR. Lucius Fairchild. Charles D. Robinson. Thaddeus C. Pound. Harrison H. Gray. FOR SECRETARY OF STATE. Amasa G. Cooke. FOR TREASURER. John Black. Liewelyn Breese. FOR ATTORNEY-GENERAL. Silas U. Pinney Henry Baetz. S. S. Barlow. FOR STATE PRISON COMMISSIONER. G. F. Wheeler. POR SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION. A. J. Craig. Carl M. Bardoe. PUBLIC INSTRUCTION. Peter K. Gannon. The Republican nominee for the Secretaryship of State was Eli A. Spencer, who has been Assistant Secretary during the past year. But certain "irregularities" were discovered in his administration, and he was therefore requested by the Republican State Central Committee to withdraw. He complied with this request, and Llewelyn Breese was placed upon the ticket in his place. But Mr. Spencer afterwards thought better of his chances and withdrew his resignation, announcing that he was still a candidate for the position. This has made a full ventilation of Mr. Spencer's "irregularities" necessary. The State, however, will lose nothing by his shortcomings, as the funds misappropriated by him have all been restored.

The Republicans are laboring under another little cloud in the canvass. Mr. Breese, who has been made the candidate for Secretary of State, aspired to the position of Treasurer, and on one ballot his friends claimed that he had a fair majority. But his opponents claimed that, as there were more votes cast on this ballot than there were members in the convention, his alleged nomination was fraudulent. Another ballot was taken, and on this Mr. Baetz received the majority, Mr. Breese being comforted with the Secretaryship of State, when the peculations of Spencer were brought to light. The vote of the State since 1864 has been as fol-

THE SHIVERING SEASON. - It is impossible to suppose that any human being can consider an attack of Fever and Ague a light visitation. And yet thousands act as if such a calamity was of no consequence; while thousands who are actually suffering from the distressing complaint negect to adopt the certain means of cure. It ought to be known in every locality subject to this scourge, or which is infested with remittent fever, or any other epidemic produced by malaria, that HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BUTTERS, taken in advance or at the commencement of the un healthy season, will fortify the system against the atmos phorie poison which generates these distempers. This ad mirable invigorant-harmless, agreeable, and possessing rater medicinal virtues than any other tonic at present known will break up the paroxysms of intermittent or remitteni fever in from forty-eight hours to ten days. Such is the universal testimony from districts where periodica fevers have been combatted with this powerful vegetable Chologogue. In a thievish neighborhood wise men bar their doors and windows, yet strange to say, if the same neighborhood happens to be pervaded by arial poison they saldom take the trouble to put their bodies in a state of defense against the subtle enemy. Shivering victims endeavoring in vafa to warm your blue hands over the fire, or in this State a triangular contest over the State | consuming with the fever that follows the chill, remember fullible question for your distressing malady,
