NEW-YORKISMS.

From Our Own Correspondent,

NEW YORK, Nov. 3, 1869. Very Much Needed. For the benefit of a chronic sufferer who figures under the solitary initial of M., and the information of a relentless individual named Methlick, who has been publicly appealed to by the former for the last four months, and who disdains reply, I give gratuitous notoriety to the following paragraph extracted from the "Personals" of the Herald, to wit :-

METHLICK.—JULY 12, 1869.—I HAVE BEEN you possibly can immediately, for you are more needed than you can think.

It is scarcely necessary to say the Personals of the Herald are what the majority of well-regulated people glance over every day upon sitting down to breakfast where the damp sheet awaits them. A sort of personal intercourse thus springs up between the habitual advertisers under that head and the habitual readers of such advertisements. With these, M. and Methlick have got to be quite like old friends, or rather old acquaintances, for while everybody sympathizes with the patient long suffering M., the character of Methlick for hardheartedness has been long established. The number of specifics that have been sent to the Herald letter-box addressed to M. would make a medical recipe book of several hundred Every aged spinster and oldest inhab, has raked her and his memory for panaceas that never fall. You will notice that the patient has been getting better ever since July 12, but is "still" very weak. What depths of incapacity he must have been sunk in previous to that date it is beyond the flight of imagination to conceive. You will also observe that Methlick is adjured to come immediately, for he is more needed than he can think. What sternly crystallizing process Methlick's heart must have experienced in its progress towards complete lapidescence I cannot conjecture; but its infrangibility appears to be complete.

What Would Ruskin Say? A gush of beautiful impracticalities, had the author of "Sesame and Lilles" been present, would have awaited the destruction of the tree which has so long stood on the pavement of No. 1161 Broadway. It was planted by one of the earliest Dutch settlers who helped to father this country. The work of removal was commenced on Monday evening, at 5 o'clock, was continued for one hour, and was resumed again yesterday. By afternoon, trunk and branch had alike been borne away. A limb was preserved to be placed beside that of the Stuyvesant tree, kept in the office of Commissioner Brennan, in the Central Police Office. It was a butternut tree very tall, of about ten feet in girth, and hollowed largely enough near the root to suggest its conversion into a public work-box. During a large part of yesterday the cars stopped running in consequence of the razing of the tree blocking up Broadway, and several hundreds of people assisted at the obsequies. The late General Morris' poetic incantation to that memorable woodman was not recited and sung; but the detained passengers and car drivers gave vent to another species of incantation that was anything but sweet and soothing. Mr. Ruskin would say that we despised natural scenery, and that by cutting down this fine old tree we had indicated our sacrilegious presence amid a "white leprosy of new hotels and perfumers' shops.'

The Fat Man's Ball, of which so much has been lately said, is to take place on the 20th of December, at Irving Hall. At the last meeting of the club a long discussion took place as to the band which should be employed, but preference was at last given to Grafulla's, on the ground that fat men preponderated in it. A musical committee, in which fat was the qualification sought after, was appointed, and the new seal of the association exhibited. It represents an exceedingly squabby man with a sombrero-like chapeau, and greasy grin which gives his face an appearance of an apple-dumpling with a mouth in it. Altogether the seal is an impressive piece of ingenuity.

Sleep for Sale. De Quincey says that when he first purchased opium, it was like discovering that pleasure could be bought by the bottle and oblivion by the rules of liquid measure. The New York Medical Society is making known the fact that something very like this has been done in the discovery of the anæsthetic known as clftoral-hydrate. When the indiciously injected, a sound, refreshing sleep ensues, from which the patient awakes with the appetite and resilient spirits which follow the sleep of health. It is said to be superior to ether, chloroform, and morphine, and may be taken with water, mucilage, or orange peel. It is due to the experiments of Dr. Liebright, of Berlin, who first brought it to light last July, and was introduced into this city three weeks ago by Dr. Jacoby. With the exception of the small quantity brought by Dr. Jacoby, there is none in the United States, so that its success among sleepless Americans remains to be tried.

Snowed Up. Now that the legitimate distance by time between New York and San Francisco has been placed at six days, it might reasonably be assumed that a trans-continental tripwould have lost something of its terrors. Not so. "Shall I get snowed up ?" is the first question which the prospective traveller asks himself before setting foot in the depot. How much deszicated meat and how many galions of whisky shall I take with me? is the next question. Old trayellers over that region tell blood-curdling tales of the time when stage-coach passengers were snowed up among the Rocky Mountain fastnesses, and a bevy of highly respectable tourists became improvised into a colony of cannibals. This is not pleasant to contemplate, but it is possible, and during the coming winter we may possibly hear of a sudden precipitate of anthropophagi somewhere between here and San Francisco.

The Hanlons. These handsome and courageous gymnasts are giving a very daring performance at the Tammany. Their "great act" consists in this-that they transform themselves into two trapezes, their limbs and bodies corresponding to the horizontal bars and vertical ropes of the ordinary trapeze. The youngest of them, a lithe and graceful boy, is then flung from one to the other of these human trapezes, at the imminent risk of being dashed to pieces. But it is better that his limbs should be broken than that the Tammany treasury should; infinitely preferable that an athlete's life should be lost than that a manager's senson should. Don't you think so? ALI BABA.

MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC.

The City Amusements. At the Chessur Tom Taylor and Charles Reade's comedy of Masks and Faces will be performed this evening. This piece attracted much attention when it was produced at the Chesnut a few weeks ago, and Miss Keene has received numerous requests to give it again. It is a charming work, and it is repre-sented at the Chesnut in admirable style. The "Peg Woffington" of Miss Keene and the "Triplet" of Mr.

Woffington" of Miss Keene and the "Triplet" of Mr. Sheridan are very artistic performances, and the comedy is one that is well worth seeing.

On Friday Miss Keene will have her first benefit since assuming the management of the theatre, when she will appear as "Lady Teazle" in Sheridan's comedy of The School for Scandal. The first performance of this standard play by the present company ought to attract a crowded house.

At the Walnut Miss Lucille Western will appear this evening in East Lynne. Oliver Twist is all-nounced for performance shortly.

At the Arch the new drams of Lost at Sea will be performed this evening.

AT DUPREZ & BENKDICT'S OFERA HOUSE, Seventh street, below Arch, an interesting ministrel performance will be given this evening.

AT THE ELEVENTH STREET OPERA HOUSE an attractive programme of Ethiopian comicalities will be presented this evening.

HERRIANN WILL APPEAR AT THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC this evening, with an entertaining variety of astonishing control of the company of the control of the ing feats of legerdemain. Herrmann stands at the head of his profession, and his performances are head of his profession, and his performances are very amusing.

MAD'LLE CARLOTTA PATTI will give a grand concert at the Academy of Music on Saturday afternoon. Tickets can be procured at Trampler's.

THE PONRYVILLE LECTURES.—Mr. William La Dennis will give the second of his humorous Poneyville Lectures, at the Assembly Building this evening. Subject:—"Social Fossis at Poneyville."

ORCHESTHAL CONCERTS.—Mr. Theodore Thomas announces a series of three grand orchestral concerts at Concert Hall, commencing Thursday, November 11. Mr. Thomas orchestra is now giving concerts in Boston with much success, and as the combination is a strong one, it will receive a cordial welcome to this city.

A CARD .- To Dentists and all whom it may concern-From certain publications which have come to my notice during the past few months, I deem it proper to say that during all this time no dental operations (except the extraction of teeth) have been performed at our office, nor have we received one dollar for any such work done by any other dentist.

It has ever been our endeavor to do business in a fair and honorable way, and we have never interfered in any manner with the patients of other dentists, whether sent to us by them or not. Respectfully, SUNNYSIDE-ORIGINALFIRE-PLACE STOVE AND WARM-AB FURNACE COMBINED.—The only Fire-Place Stove ever invented that will warm the room in which it is situated.

All others fall in that particular. We have embodied in THE SUNNYSIDE all the LATEST and REST-KNOWN PRINCIPLES of consuming coal with Eco-NOMY, and have discarded all the numerous imperfections that are being used in the Baltimore and New York Fire-Place Heaters. THE SUNNYSIDE will produce MORE WARM AIR with LESS FUEL than any other Stove, and is acknowledged, by all who are using them, to be SUPERIOR IN EVERY PARTI-CULAR to the Baltimore and New York Fire-Place Heaters, which they had heretofore used.

Do not be deceived by misrepresentations in regard to THE SUNNYSIDE, but call and examine it, and see the large number of testimonials from those who have them in use, which will convince any person of its superiority to all others, at the Warming and Ventilating Warercoms of GEORGE P. Shoch & Co., No. 333 N. Second street.

BECAUSE A PERSON HAS A BAD COUGH it should not be inferred that Consumption bas set in, although a case of Consumption is rarely met with unaccompanied by a distressing Cough. Where, however, a predisposition to PulmonaryDisease exists, a Cough, if left to itself, strains and racks the Longs and wastes the general strength, and soon establishes an incurable complaint. In all cases, then, it is the safer plan to get rid of a Cough, or Cold, or Hoarseness without delay, and for this purpose no remedy acts more promptly or surely, or with more benefit to the organs of the Chest, than Du. D. JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT, an article scientifically compounded from carefully selected drugs, and which, on trial, will always be found worthy of its world-wide reputation. Sold by all Druggists.

IMPAIRED DIGESTION .- All the organs of the body are, so to speak, the pensioners of the stomach. In that living laboratory is prepared the nourishment required to sustain them, and by the vessels and ducts connected with the digestive apparatus, that nourishment is conveyed to every part of the system. Upon the quality and quantity of this element of life, and upon the manner in which it is distributed and apportioned, physical health mainly depends, and as the mind inevitably sympathizes with the body, the vigor of the one is absolutely necessary to the well-being of the other.

It is because HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS accomplishes this double object that it enjoys a reputation as a preventive and curative never heretofore attained by any nedicinal preparation. But its direct beneficial operation upon the weak or disordered stomach is not its sole recommendation. It is the most comprehensive of a known remedies. It tones, strengthens, and regulates the discharging as well as the assimilating organs; gently moving the bowels, promoting healthful evaporation through the pores, rousing the inert liver from its torpor, and inducing harmonious and natural action in the whole animal machinery. This benign result is not produced by any of the reactionary drugs which are used so lavishly in the old school practice, founded by Paracelsus; but by mild, safe, and agreeable vegetable agents intermixed with a pure and mellow stimulant which diffuses their in fluence through the system, and renders their sanitary properties active and effective.

CAUTION BEWARE! FURNITURE:

THE TRICK OF TRADE EXPOSED. THE TRIOK OF TRADE EXPOSED.

It has been a plan of certain small houses in the Furniture trade to give 5 or even 10 per cent, commission to parties from other trades and stores bringing or sending customers to them, and then charging the purchasors a higher price for their furniture, or else sending them an inferior article.

This is to caution parties not to go to stores where they are thus alily recommended by these interested advisers Mesars. Gould & Co. do not pay any commission to carpet stores, or any others, and can therefore afford to sell cheaper, and give their customers the full benefit of this saying.
