THE DAILY EVENING TELEGRAPH-PHILADELPHIA, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1869.

MEWS SUMMARY.

Oity Affairs.

The third anniversary meeting of the Peace Society was opened yesterday afternoon in Har-monial Hall, northwest corner of Eleventh and Wood streets. Alfred H. Love presided, and Dr. Henry T. Child and Miss Lydia A. Schofield acted as secretaries. After the transaction of routine business the following officers were President-Alfred H. Love. Vice-Presidents-Lucretia Mott, R. W. M. Townsend, Isaac Mendenhall.

Secretaries-Henry T. Child, M. D., Lydia A. Schofield.

Treasurer-T. Elwood Chapman. Treasurer-T. Elwood Chapman. Executive Committee-Earah T. Rogers, Henry M. Laing, Mary A. Wise, Clayton B. Rogers, Joseph M. Truman, Jacob L. Paxson, Dinah Mendenhall, Mary E. Lightfoot, Sarah T. Betts, Rebecca S. Hart, Mary H. Child, Francis Parker, Samuel Townsend, Mahlon B. Linton, Lydia A. Price, Lydia H. Hall, Rebecca T. Ma-gill, Sarah Ely, Mary Beans, Elwood Longshore, Martha Hencock. Martha Heacock.

-Near ten o'clock last evening a fire broke ont on the first floor of No. 21 North Third street, occupied by Messrs. Saurbeck & Schwarz, dealers in fancy goods, and was confined to the room in which it originated. The stock of pocket-books, meerschaum pipes, and other goods, was much damaged. In the basement were stored in boxes a stock of shirts belonging to Rosenbeck & Co., which was saved from damage through the efforts of the Insurance Brigade. The loss of Saurback & Schwarz is covered by insurance.

-The twelfth anniversary of the Noonday Prayer Meeting was held in Rev. Dr. Crowley's Church, Broad street, above Chesnut, yesterday afternoon. Rev. Herrick Johnson, D. D., presided, and made an interesting address, as did, also, George H. Stuart, Esq., Rev. Mr. Mingum, Superintendent of the New York City Mission, and others. The annual report was given by the Secretary, "Father Martin," showing the unin terrupted progress of the organizations, and the occasion was a highly interesting one. —The Mayor has adopted rules for the gov-ernment of the special district officers of the Police Department. One of the specials is to be assigned to each district as an auxiliary to the detective force. It will be their duty to aid in the discovery and prevention of crime. The rales very fully set forth the special services re-quired of them. They are to report daily to the Lieutenants, and to keep a sharp lookout for all offenders against the law. -Such of our business men or other citizens as have correspondence with Newfoundland and Nova Scotia may be interested in the following: —Mails will be despatched by steamers from Boston every other Saturday for Newfoundland, beginning November 27. These steamers stop at Halifax, Nova Scotia. Mails will also be despatched from New York every other Tuesday for Newfoundland, beginning November 30. —The first anniversary of the Trinity Union Mission Sunday School, inceting in the hall on Eleventh street, above Girard avenue, was cele-brated last evening, in Athletic Hall, Thirteenth strect, above Jefferson.

Domestic Affairs.

-Gold closed yesterday at 12612. -Hon. Ben Wade wants the President to recognize Cuba.

-General Sheridan is confined to his bed with fever in Chicago.

-General Ihrie has been elected as delegate to Congress from Alaska. —An allidavit is to be made in the case of the Hornet, by the Cuban Junta, with a view to securing her release. —General Butler gave bail yesterday in $15,000 to answer the charge of misappropriating the Twiggs swords and certain plate. —A Peabody Monument Association was organized at a meeting of influential merchants and bankers in New York yesterday. -Four men have been arrested in Brooklyn, N. Y., charged with forging a will depriving an only daughter of $100,000, left by her father. -Hon. Ben Wade thinks there is not enough currency in the country to meet the necessary and legitimate demands of trade.

-The expenses of collecting customs for the fiscal year were $14,000,000. The fines and penalties for forfeitures were $700,000, against $400,000 last year.

Introduced by Mayor Banks in a few pertinent remarks. On coming forward, Mr. Colfax, after brief prefatory remarks, continued:-

A work of benevolence and of humanity towards our brethren like this should enlist every heart that is touched with the feelings of human infirmity. There is a question that comes down to all of us, through the centuries, from the very birthplace of mankind, full of momentous interest to every one upon the foot-stool of God. It is that question which Cain asked of the Almighty; not as a question, but as a defense against the arraignment for his crime to his brother. It was, "Am I my brother's keeper?" In every civilized land throughout the globe, in every civilized nation and State, and commu-nity, the answer comes back to that question, You are your brother's keeper. It is a respon sibility that some of you can deny or evade. Every statute that you find in your statute-book for the punishment of crime and fraud is the answer to the question, "Am I my brother's keeper?" Every jail and prison that cast their gloomy shadows over the land, every sheriff and police officer, is the answer that the commu-nity makes to the question as old as man-kind itself, and besides this, and better than this, every reformatory and ameliatory institu-tion that blesses this land joins in the answer that we give to the question that comes to us almost from the Garden of Eden itself. In the institutions of which we are so justly proud, where the mind is restored to those whose reason has been dethroned; in the asylum for the insane; in those institutions where the blind are almost made to see, the dumb to speak. blind are almost made to see, the dumb to speak, and the deaf to hear; in every institution for the relief of the poor and distressed, we have the answer of society to the question, "Am I my brother's keeper?" and in this nosle work which you have inaugurated here to-night for those who have been the deluded and self-destroying victims of temptation, that even the most gifted in our land bring the answer of the be-nevolent in the State of Maryland, that they are their brother's keepers. God speed you! God bless you in this noble work! * * * In this great world offours, sprining as we all do from the hand of a common Creator, believing as we do in the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man, every one whom you meet on your pathway is your brother. He may be poor, he may be penniless, he may be humble; but they are bretkren of the same dust, pilgrims of the same family, travellers to the same tomb. If God has blessed you with strength of will, that you have been enabled to fortify yourselves, it is for you to lift him up from that depth to which he has fallen and put him upon his feet, and to redeem him, if possible, from a living death, worse even than the death of the tomb.

After alluding to the brilliant intellects that have fallen victims to intemperance, Mr. Colfax continued:-It is the miser, It is the stingy, and the penurious, and tight-fisted, who are free from this evil; it is the large-hearted, the social man, who cannot resist the temptation of the social glass; the genial man, the generous man, whom this tempter finds its victims. It assalls all classes allke; you can find it crouching at the hearth-stones of the poor, and it casts its gloomy shadow over the marble mantels of the rich. I tell you, my friends, there is only one way in which you can resist the temptation. There is only one talisman, and that is, "Touch not, taste not, handle not" the unclean thing. In the earlier years of my manhood, when I saw a young friend who had been travelling the same pathway with myself, when I stood by his bedside and saw his soul leave his body, calling upon God to damn his soul in his defirium, for one resolved that I would turn my back upon it henceforth and forever. It is the true pathway in private life, in public life, in social life, and in individual life.

OBITUARY.

Rev. John P. Dunn. Rev. John Patrick Dunn, pastor of St. John's Catholic Church, Thirteenth street, above Ches-nut, died at the parochial residence adjoining the church yesterday afternoon, after a short illness. He had been for many years subject to a palpitation of the heart, and for the past week he has been especially feeble, showing symp-toms of increasing malady from a complication of causes, and on Sunday last he was so dangerously ill that prayers were offered for his re-covery in several of the churches. He con-tinued to grow worse during all Sunday night

President's Proclamation.

The following was issued from the Executive Department yesterday: By the President of the United States,

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, By the proclamation of the Presi-dent of the United States of the 12th of June last, the levying of the discriminating duties on merchandise imported into the United States in French vessels from the countries of its origin was discontinued; and whereas, satisfactory information has since been received by me that the levying of such duties on all merchandise imported into France in vessels of the United States, whether from the countries of its origin or from other countries, has been discontinued-

Now therefore I, U. S. Grant, President of the United States of America, by virtue of the anthority vested in me by an act of Congress of the 7th day of January, 1824, and by an act in addition thereto of the 24th day of May, 1828, do hereby declare and proclaim, that on and after this date, so long as merchandise imported into France in vessels of the United States, whether from the countries of its origin or from other countries, shall be admitted into the ports of France on the terms aforesaid, the discriminating duties heretofore levied upon merchandise imported into the United States in French ressels, either from the countries of its origin or from any other country, shall be and are discontinued and abolished.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the scal of the United States to be affixed. Done at the city of Washington, on this twentleth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, and of the independence of the United States of America the ninety-fourth. U. S. GRANT.

By the President. HAMILTON FISH, Secretary of State.

ALC: NO.

The Inchrinics' Asylam of Baltimore-Speech of Vice-President Colfax. A fair to aid in the establishment of an inc-briates' asylum in this city, under the auspices of the ladies of Baltimore, opened in that city last night. The three Commanderies of Knights Templar were present in full regalia, and an imsons present was Vice-President Colfax, who was and Monday, and yesterday afternoon death put an end to his sufferings.

Father Dunn was a clergyman much respected and was one of the oldest priests in the Diocesc of Philadelphia. He was born in the city of Dublin, Ireland, in the year 1805, and was edu-cated at the celebrated Maynooth College. He was ordained priest by Archbishop Murray, of Dublin, and after being on the mission in Ireland for several years, he came to this country when quite a young man, and locating in Phila delphia, he was stationed at St. Mary's Church, Fourth street, above Spruce, where he was associated with Very Rev. Dr. Bauer (the then) Father Peter Richard Kenrick, now Archbishop of St. Louis, Right Rev. Francis Patrick Kenrick, (then) coadjutor Bishop of Philadelphia, and other dignitaries of the Catholic Church. He built the Church of St. Philip de Neri, on Queen street, above Second, and being its pastor during the memorable riots of 1844, he made a narrow escape with his life from the infurlated mob.

He subsequently went South, and on his return to Philadelphia was appointed pastor of the Church of St. Charles Borromeo at Kellyville, subsequently of St. Teresa's, Broad and Catharine street, and finally of St. John's.

As an extempore speaker, Farher Dunn had but few equals, and the eloquence of his sermons on Sunday afternoons, with the instruction to be derived from them by his flock, caused an at-tendance at vespers at St. John's which could not be found in any other church of the diocese. He was a man of great firmness of character, and unsually dignified. He was a member of the Bishop's Ordinary Council, and his opinions carried with them weight and significance. While the entire Catholic community will mourn his loss, the congregation of St. John's will, in a particular manner, regret his decease as that church was the scene of his more recent active labors in this diocese.
