NEW-YORHISMS.

From Our Own Correspondent.

NEW YORK, Nov. 24, 1369. "Cheap and Respectable." Boarding houses, I mean. Where are they to be had? Consult the newspapers, and they mention any quantity. Go to see the places, and you will and them cheap-and nasty! Not many years ago single women could obtain good board for $2.50 per week, and a single man for $3. Now $5 is the very lowest price at which any sort of board is obtainable. These exaggerated terms are not growing smaller. Almost every head of a family is a boarding-housekeeper on a large or a small scale, and what between making her rent and laying up for that rainy day whose sure arrival is only a question of time, she has no opportunity to grow soft-hearted. Her empty pocket is a cloud continually hanging over her, and who can blame her for trying to give it a silver lining? What the citizen of moderate means cries after is a good boarding-house, where there are neither delicacies on the table nor indelicacy at the hend of it, but where the weekly sum demanded does not run away with all his earnings. That boarding-house has not yet been forthcoming. New York has not yet evolved it from its interior consciousness.

Oliver Dyer

is not dead, neither is Paskard's Monthly. He has been to Sing Sing, preaching to the spirits in prison. First he preached to male convicts and then to the females, and was equally successful in subtracting tears and fostering the spirit which leads to good resolutions. At Sing Sing, particularly, he is said to have been more instrumental in the paving of hell than in any other locality-only the pavement, like that on Fifth avenue, don't last long. It wears out and shows the bare places. By-the-by, the Methodist Christian Advocate has been pitching into Mr. Dyer lately, holily sneering at him as a lecturer, and more than insinuating that his name ought not to be mentioned even in advertising columns. The luminous views entertained by religious newspapers in regard to the ethics of advertising are at all times amusing.

The Thackaberry Question.

Miss, Mrs., or Master Thackaberry, in regard to whose sex so much mystery exists, is stated to be required at the bedside of a sick sister, but the gentleman who acted as her agent and introducer during one of her recent scances authoritatively states that as soon as she can leave her post she will be ready to claim the one hundred dollars which a delicate minded female promised her if she should prove to be a woman after a searching examination. What is the sex of Thackaberry ? is the present test question. When Ella Zoyara was in this city, some years ago, making all the men in love with her on the assumption that she was a woman, and half the women in love with her on the suspicion that she was a man, she hardly excited a greater sensation. Only Mademoiselle or Master Ella (for I don't pretend to advance an opinion on this sexual subject) was much better managed than the Thackaberry has been. The mystery that surrounded the lovely hybrid was artfully magnified and fostered until every man and woman who nurtured the passion was in doubt whether he were bestowing it upon a "legitimate object. Meanwhile, it is noteworthy that a correspondent, whose name is the same is that used by one of the Thackaberry attaches some days ago. has written to one of the newspapers, claiming that his name had been fraudulently employed, inasmuch as he had never seen the lad or the lady (whichever it might be), and never attended one of the searces.

Mr. Fisk Agnin.

Mr. James Fisk, Jr., has been in court again-this time at the suit of Letitia Jackson, ballet-dancer, to recover damages for injuries sustained in falling through a tran-door during a rehearsal of Lurline. From the examination, it is very evident that Mr. Fisk has no connection with the Academy of Music, and never had. He says so. There is the fact simply and quickly stated. What more does one want ? The only interest he can possibly be said to have had in it was a desire to assist his friend "Max," during the dreary effort to give English opera and Italian opera upon alternate nights, to the extent of four or five thousand dollars. It was during this season that Miss Jackson fell through a trap-door, and incapacitated herself from appearing for several weeks. At the representation of her counsel, she

NOTES FOR DECEMBER, ADDRESSED TO THE FREELE AND DEBILITATED. -This is a trying season for invalids, indeed for all who are not blessed with robust constitutions and iron frames.

Cold has come upon us suddenly, sealing up the open pores, and scaling in, as it were, any seeds of disease that may have been lurking in the system, but which remained undeveloped so long as the waste matter of the body and all acid and unwholesome humors were freely discharged by evaporation from the surface and through the bowela. A tonic, aperient, and alterative medicine is now needed to invigorate the vital powers depressed by a low temperature; to stimulate and purify the secretions, and to fit the body to endure, without inconvenience, pain or danger, the sudden climatic change which ushers in the winter. The only preparation which will fully meet this almost universal need, and will thoroughly and safely perform the important work, is the leading tonic and alterative of the age, HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular specific improves the appetite, invigorates the digestive organs, regulates the flow of bile, enriches the blood, calms the nerves, relieves constipation, pro motes superficial circulation and evaporation, and being composed solely of wholesome vegetable elements, with a pure stimulant as their diffusive vehicle, may be taken by the weakest without fear. The flavor is agreeable, for although the BITTERS are a potent medicine, they contain no nauseating olement.

SOONER OR LATER & neglected Cold will develop a constant Cough, Shortness of Breath, Failing Strength, and Wasting of Flesh-the avant coursus of Consumption. In some instances the same cause will produce Bronchitis, a disease of the branches of the windpipe. In all affections of the Pulmonary Organs, as well as in Bronchial Affections, JATNE'S EXPECTORANT is both a palliative and a curative, as the testimony of thousands and its worldwide reputation attest-while in Coughs and Golds it acta speedily, and, when taken according to directions, promptly removes them. Why not give this standard remedy an immediate trial? Sold by all Druggists.

SUNNYSIDE-ORIGINALFIRE-PLACE STOVE AND WARM-AIR FURNACE COMBINED.—The only Fire-Place Stove ever invented that will warm the room in which it is situated.

All others fail in that particular. We have embodied in THE SUNNYSIDE all the LATEST and DEST-KNOWN FRINCH-LES of consuming coal with ECO-NOMY, and have discarded all the numerous imperfections that are being used in the Baltimore and New York Fire Place Heaters.

THE SUNNYSIDE will produce MORE WARM AIR with LESS FUEL than any other Stove, and is acknowledged, by all who are using them, to be SUPERION IN EVENY PARTI-CULAR to the Baltimere and New York Fire-Place Heaters, which they had heretofore used.

Do not be deceived by misrepresentations in regard to THE SUNNYSIDE, but call and examine it, and see the large number of testimonials from those who have them in use, No. 900 ARCH ST., PHILADELPHIA,
