FROM WASHINGTON.

The Spanish War Cloud.

Special Despatch to The Evening Telegraph.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—It appears that the Government has no information of an official character relative to the movements of the Spanish fleet which t has been stated was about to visit New York. It has been stated was about to visit New York.

The usual monthly report of the Admiral commanding the West India squadron was received at the Navy Department yesterday, but no mention is made of the departure of any Spanish fleet for the North. The report states that there are now six yessels of that fleet in Cuban waters. From this it would appear that a number of vessels must have lefter some other quarter, for, according to the Spanish Minister, the Spaniards had a fleet of some twelve or fifteen vessels in the neighborhood of Cuba. There does not seem to be any ground for the idea that the object of so many men of war in visiting New York was to convoy Spanish gunboats to Cuba, for it would not require more than one ship for that purpose.

Coln and Currency Statement. The coin and currency statement of the Treasury o-day shows there is a coin balance of $108,688,956 to-day shows there is a coin balance of $105,055,056.
Of this amount $55,500,000 represents gold certificates outstanding. The currency balance is over $11,000,000. The reduction of the public debt this month will be about seven or eight millions.

The Paraguayan Investigation. The House Sub-Committee on Foreign Affairs does not expect to be able to make their report on the Paraguayan investigation until after the holidays. The evidence is so voluminous that the committee is compelled to meet daily and compare notes, so as to got the facts for their report. Pacific Rallroad Matters.

The President of the Pacific Railroad has notified the Secretary of the Treasury that the company took formal possession of the road yesterday to Ogden, which is the junction of the two roads. This will realize the bonds which have been in dispute, and which will now be paid over to the Central Pacific.

Explanation of the Naval Report Trouble. It appears that a naval report was prepared by Admiral Porter, but Secretary Robeson declined adopting it as his report. This is understood to be the document which has got into the newspapers. The President yesterday requested all members of the Cabinet to keep their reports private until they are transmitted to Congress. The appearance of this document, therefore, is likely to lead to trouble between Secretary Robeson and Admiral Porter. Explanation of the Naval Report Trouble. Commissioner Delane.

Commissioner Delano has returned from the South, but will not be at his bureau until Monday. The President's Message.

The President's Message.

The President is engaged revising his Message, and refused to see visitors this morning. Secretary Fish had a long interview with him.

The McGarrahan Case.

Despatch to the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27 .- The Supreme Court of the District of Columbia met this A. M. for the purpose of rendering decisions in cases held under advisement. On the opening of the Court the Secretary of the Interior, by counsel, withdrew his motion pre-viously made and argued and held under advisement by the Court, to vacate the judgment and quash the writ of mandamus issued in the McGarrahan case, thus leaving the judgment in full force. The Secretary must therefore obey the writ, and issue to McGarrahan the patents for the Rancho Panoche Grande, in which the new Idica quicksilver mines are situated.

Defrauding the Revenue.

The Internal Revenue Office has a report announcing the arrest of J. H. Whitehurst, proprietor of "Forest Juniper Tar," for falling to properly stamp the bottles containing the tar, by neglecting to stamp two bottles in every gross put up.

NEW-YORKISMS.

From Our Own Correspondent.

The "Tribune" Shooting Affair. NEW YORK, Nov. 27, 1869. NEW YORK, Nov. 27, 1869.

Of course, the talk to-day has been the attempted assassination of Mr. Richardson, and it is safe to say that if that unfortunate gentleman recovers, not a few of the smaller fry of journalists would willingly incur the risk and pain which have been his for the sake of the notoriety which will await him. The telegraph wires have long ere this informed you of the main points of this singular and tragic encounter, and it does not come within my scope to enlarge upon the personal questions which are involved in it. Of course, there are those who insist that the relations between him and Mrs. McFarland were precisely what they ought not to have been, and there are "other" those who equally insist that she is as pure as an angel and he several degrees purer. Be the naked facts what they may, however—and I do not pretend to decide between them—it is certain that the assassin—for such in intention we may call him—was most mean and cowardly in his mode of attack. The relations which McFarland for a long time kept up with his wife prove him to be a weak and vaciliating man, by no means qualified to win a woman's affection and respect. She transferred those emotions, therefore, to Mr. Richardson, and the ci-decant correspondent feit no qualum in appropriating them. In almost everything he is the contrast of Mrs. McFarland's ill-balanced and impulsive husband. Dear me! why will men marry before they have learned how to treat a woman? I believe in the capability of ruling them with an iron hand, provided the velvet gloves are very thick, and never taken off. And as for the luckless lady and the wounded journalist, I think men and women has better never find their "allinities" outside the matrimonal barriers, than find them to meet with loss of life in the one case and Of course, the talk to-day has been the attempted

DOCTOR J. H. RUTTLEY. - The cures being performed by Doctor J. H. Ruttley, the renowned medical practitioner at his office, No. 809 Arch street, are the most astonishing that the present age has ever witnessed. With a single treatment the lame have seen made to walk, the deaf to recover their hearing, and the blind to see. These cases oo, are well attested, and have been accomplished, not in the far-off wilds of the West, but here in Philadelphia, at our very door. The Doctor's rooms are crowded every day with invalids desiring to avail themselves of the benefits of his wonderful power, and many who visit them skeptics are forced, by the evidence of what they see, in the way of the performance of cures, to retire full and unreserved believers in the Doctor's marvelous powers. His system of treatment is fully explained in another column, where certificates of astonishing cures are also published, and the attention of our readers is particularly directed to

WHERE TO GO AND WHAT TO GET. As the winter season comes on apace, our housekeepers are obliged to look around them for table luxuries that in the summer season are never thought of. To all such as are perplexed we have words of cheer to give, thusly :- At the northeast corner of Third street and Carter's alley is a grocery store, or, more properly, a cornucopia, kept by Messrs. Crippen & Maddock. In their extensive establishment will be found almost everything that is requisite for the dinner-table, exceptithe cloth. Fine Almeria Grapes, Dehesa Raisins, New Oitron, Currants, and all varieties of dried fruit there abound, whilst canned fruits are also plentiful. Their groceries are all selected, and their pure Goshen Butter and Gloucester and Neufchatel Cheeses would gladden the heart of the most famous epicure.

DRY GOODS AT GOLD PRICES.-Messrs, Curwen Stoddart & Brothers, the well-known dry goods merchants on North Second street, announce that in view of the early resumption of specie payments, they have made extensive purchases of fine dry goods at a gold value, and have adopted a system of small profits which will benefit the retail purchaser, and at the same time allow them a small margin. This firm possess advantages fover others in more prominent locations, the principal one of which is the comparatively small rental they pay. Purchasers can also always rely on getting full value for their money.

WILBOR'S COMPOUND OF PURE COD LIVER OIL AND

LIME.-The advantage of this compound over the plain oil is that the nauscating taste of the oil is entirely removed, and the whole rendered entirely palatable. The offensive taste of the oil has long acted as a prominent objection to its use; but in this form the trouble is entirely obviated. A host of certificates might be given here to Oil and Lime. But the fact that it is regularly prescribed by the medical faculty is sufficient. For sale by A. B. WILBOR, Chemist, No. 166 Court street, Boston, and by all druggists.
