CITY INTELLIGENCE. GERMAN REFORMED SYNOD.

Proceedisms of the General Synod of the Reference Church in the United States.

At the meeting of the Reformed General Synod periorday afternoon a discussion of some length took place on the case of a member who considered almself injured by his district synod. The member moved that the report of the Committee on Minutes of District Synods be recommitted, with instructions to insert an item bearing on his case. The Synod refused to recommit.

The complaint of the member was referred to a special committee.

The compaint of the Member was fortice to a special committee.

Rev. Dr. Stork addressed the Synod as a delegate from the Lutheran New School General Synod.

The Synod reassembled last evening, when the Committee on the Official Reports of Classes submitted their report. A motion was offered requesting the President to continue, as heretofore, to appoint movers of resolutions chairmen of the committees on the same. Declared out of order. The mover appealed from the decision of the President. The Synod sustained the action of the Chair by a vote of 75 to 58.

The meeting this morning opened with religious

The Synod sustained the account of 75 to 58.

The meeting this morning opened with religious exercises conducted by Rev. Mr. Millet.

The Synod acknowledged the presence of various members of sister Churches.

Delegates were received representing the Reformed Church in America.

Ti was moved that the Synod hear the delegate of the Reformed Church in America, Rev. Dr. Ferris, at the opening of the afternoon session. Passed.

Dr. Zacharias presented from the publishers three copies, in different styles, of the new Reformed Church Received with thanks, and presented. copies, in different styles, of the new Reformed Hymn Book. Received with thanks, and presented, one to the Seminary at Mercersburg, another to that of Time, and the third to the institution at Howard's Grove.

The report of the Committee of Finance was received. The amount received, including a balance from last report, was $722.50. The expenditures were $1054.59. Balance due the Treasurer, $332.59. The sum necessary to meet the current expenses of the Synod will be $1300. The committee made the following assessment:—Synod of the United States, $775; Synod of Ohlo, $350; Northwestern Synod, $175. The special fund known as the German Hymn Book fund amounts, exclusive of the principal, to $216.57. und amounts, exclusive of the principal, to $216-57.

It further appears that at the first annual meetings of the classes held after the submission of the amendment, only seven voted against the amendment, namely:—St. Joseph's, St. John, Sheboygan, Milwankie, Erie, Indiana, and Philadelphia. Dr. Williard said that the memorials which had come before the synod on the liturgical question did not represent the whole Churh. He thought the liturgy should go down to the classes for action in order that its adoption might take place sooner than it would do by any other method of proceeding. The Church was heartly tred of the controversy, and the sooner it was completed the better. He offered the following resolution in place of those in the committee's report:

A PLEA FOR UNION. r. Stork, as the delegate of the General Synod of Lutheran Church in the United States to the neml Synod of the Reformed Church, yesterday ming made an address before the latter, now holdits sessions in this city. After presenting the ristian salutations of his Synod to the Reformed avention, he said the Lutheran Church was not y the oldest but the most numerous of all the convention, he said the Luteran Church was not any the oldest but the most numerous of all the Protestant denominations. According to the account given in the Quarterly Review, by the acknow-ledged statistician of the Church, the Lutheran Canrich is more numerous than all other Protestant lenos inations combined. The Protestant population is estimated at $0,000,000; 47,000,000 are emeraced in the Lutheran Church in different saits of the world. He said the Lutheran Church in the United States, of all saggages, numbers 51 synods, 2000 ministers, 3500 churches, and 400,000 communicants. It has 12 heological se minaries, 16 colleges, and 12 periodial publications. He spoke of the elements of discord and eccles, astical antagonism in his Church, rowing out of an infexible adhesion to all the decise for the Confession by some and the demand or ritualistic innovations. He said that all mere external conformity, all formal bonds of union which do not spring out of the unner life, and from the union with Christ, are deceptive, mere illustrations.

sions of the imagination. He referred in glowing terms to the recent reunion of the two great branches of the Presbyterian Church, and said this blessed fact shows the possibility of spiritual onesses and ecclesiastical unity even where there is diversity of theological sentiment. With this practical example before us, let us aspire to a closer and a more manifest union among all who love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity and truth. Let us feel that, whatever may be our confessional standards or peculiar ritualism, there is no adequate reason in any minor differences for fraternal alienation or antagonism. Let us feel that, whilst we have a tendency to extreme ritualism on the one side, and a seductive rationalism on the one side, and a seductive rationalism on the one side, and a seductive rationalism on the other, we are summoned to this Christian unity that we may contend as one man for truth, for Christ and His kingdom. Let us realize that at this day, and with our vast responsibility, it is a sin against Christ and the souls He has redeemed to waste our energies upon speculative heresies and ritualistic questions, contending about the seamless robe of Christ, under the very shadow of His cross. Let us feel that not to be united before the world as the friends of Jesus for mere frivolous or imaginary heresies and speculative differences is putting in perii the souls we should seek to save, is dishonoring Christ and keeping back like chilling frosts the springtime of His kingdom. May we not invite you to unite with us in the prayer and effort for a profounder Christian unity among all the true disciples of Jesus, and for such manifestation of that unity in fraternal recognition and co-operative agency as will hasten the fulfilment of the Saviour's prayer, "That the world may and co-operative agency as will hasten the fulfil-ment of the Saviour's prayer. "That the world may believe that thou hast sent me." And thus shall we be among those who truly and effectually heip!

"To build the universal Church Lofty as is the love of God— And ample as the wants of man."

TRIUMPHANT.

Victory at Last-No Mixed Clinics-The Board of Managers of the Pennsylvania Hospital

For a week past little or nothing has been heard from the warriors of Jefferson College or the Uni-versity; but, nevertheless, they have been working hard and earnestly. Finding that noise and bombas went for so much charf, some few of those whose in-tellects are somewhat clear assumed the master-ship, and with the skill and precision of veteran main stronghold of the enemy, and the result is victory. Yesterday, a meeting of the managers of the Pennsylvania Hospital was held, at which Mordecal L. Dawson presided, and Wistar Morris acted as secretary. After some little discussion, the following resolution was necessary. lowing resolution was offered and unanim

Whereas, It appears the resolution adopted by the Board at their stated meeting hold 25th uit, authoring the attendance of female students at the clinics of the hospital, has given rise to much dissatisfaction on the part of many physicians and students of this city; and whereas, such opposition was entirely monapected, from the fact that female students had been attending the clinics of the Blockley Hospital of this city, as well as at Bellevue Hospital, New York, Edinburgh, Scotland, and Zurich, in Switzerland, without, so far as we were aware, there being any opposition; and whereas, it is the desire of the man agers of the hospital to avoid giving any just ground of dissatisfaction, therefore

Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed to confer with the medical and surgical staff of the hospital to provide for separate clinical instruction to the female students of medicine on at least one day is each week, and that upon the completion of such an arrangement the other clinical lectures be confined to classes composed of males only.

When the news of this action reached the two

When the news of this action reached the two colleges, a scene ensued which beggars description Some of the students hugged, kissed, and fondled each other; snother squad set up a yelling and a dancing, reminding one of a camp of Camanches; whilst still others sought secluded corners and mutually pledged and vowed, that since they had thus far conquered that terrible (!) enemy, Woman, they would henceforth and forever hold the reins so help them Solomon.

An impromptu meeting was formed and soon a long, lanky specimen of a "Down-Easter" proposed that they should form in a body and proceed to the college to pay their acknowledgments to the Board of Managers. This was immediately voted down. A fellow from the other side of the Alleghenies then proposed that the students of the Female Medical College be treated to a serenade, and that a com-mittee of five be appointed to secure tin pans, dish kettles, and penny trumpets for that purpose. This was received with deafening cheers, and was on the point of being unanimously adopted, when some chap yelled out, "I've just got a pound of tobacco," Had a 100-pounder exploded in their midst, it would not be a pound of tobacco, and the contract of the c not have produced a much greater effect. Women clinics, and studies were all for the time being for gotten, and with one simultaneous rush they went for the "fellew with the tobacco" like a squad of policemen for a bootblack. When we left they were still squabbling and squirming around him.

TAXATION.

The Rates for 1820—The Controller's Report Undergoing Investigation. Last evening, at the regular weekly meeting of the Finance Committee of Councils, the report of the City Controller, submitting the estimates of the ex-penses and receipts of the city during the year 1870, was submitted and considered, but as the committee found it necessary to make certain changes and corrections in the report, it cannot yet be made public. At 4 o'clock to-morrow afternoon the committee will id a special meeting, and by that time it is thought that the report will be ready for submission to Councils on the following day.

The session last evening was continued to a late

The session last evening was continued to a late hour, and at the adjournment it was announced that the committee had decided to report the tax rate, for 1870, at $1.50, as at present, with the same deductions and penalties as for 1869. As the suburban rate is two-thirds of the full rate, and the farm rate one half that amount, they will therefore be $1.20 and 90 cents respectively, provided the full rate is fixed by Councils at the amount recommended by the committee. Taking the assessments of real estate as submitted by the Board of Revision, we therefore have the following result, as the revenue of the city from taxation during the year 1870:—

full rate.....$427,728,870 at $1.80 $7,699,120 suburban rate .... 23,719,116 at $1-20 284,629 farm rate...... 20,152,279 at 90c.

Total.......$471,600,265

In consideration of fixing the tax rate so low, the committee struck out the appropriation demanded for the new public buildings. Among the bills passed upon favorably by the committee was the ordinance making an appropriation of $3000 to pay road inrors; and another to appropriate $9132-27 to pay District Attorney fees and clerks' fees for 1868 and 1869.

and 1869.

In the appropriations referred by Common Council relative to the school bill, they struck out $6390 towards the building of the school at Seventeenth and Vne streets, in the Twenty-sixth section.

GIRARD ESTATE.

Meeting of the Committee on Investigation-Editors of Newspapers in Demand. The committee to investigate certain charges against the Committee on Girard Estate met yesterday afternoon in Common Council chamber.

Thomas Barlow, Select Councilman from the First ward, presided.

Mr. Henry Huhn, Common Councilman from the With Henry Hunn, Common Councilman from the Fifteenth ward, testified as follows:—
When the Chair stated in Common Council, Shall the bill pass notwithstanding the veto? Mr. Dillon made a speech, in which he made three points:—
First. Power should not be vested in the Superintendent of the Girard Estate. Second, Members of Councils were interested in these leases. Third, The royalty is not sufficient. royalty is not sufficient.

royalty is not sufficient.

To that speech I replied, combatting these three points, showing that the royalty paid by the company which I represent—outside parties in the coal regions—was sufficient.

To this Mr. Dillon replied excitedly. Immediately after this speech I went over to Mr. Dillon, when the following conversation excepts.

following conversation ensued:

I said:—Mr. Dillon, I do not think that you are aware of the necessity and importance of having these leases executed at once, in order to have removed the whisky dealers and squatters who are springing up upon this property, for if you did you would not light this bill with so much bitterness. would not fight this bill with so much officeness. As to any members of Councils being interested in these leases, I do not believe one word of it. I then asked, Do you know of any parties who are interested in these leases? To this he answered no. I then said as to the question of royalty I consider that whole matter settled and determined, and even if we knew of parties who would be willing to pay two or three cents per ton more for a lease, that would not enter into the discussion of this bill. It appears to my mind the proper time to have discussed it was ast.

Mr. Dillon answered:—I cannot agree with you there, because at the time the ordinances granting these leases were brought in, we could scarcely tell what was in them, and I do not know that I paid sufficient attention to them. I replied that I had paid attention to them.

Mr. Smith, Superintendent of the Girard Estate, then gave an explaination of the manner in which the leases were made, and some statistical informalon of a general character.
Upon motion of Mv Shoemaker, it was resolved

Upon motion of Mr Shoemaker, it was resolved that subpoenas be, sened for certain journalists, to have them appear before the committee at the next meeting and testify as to the statements made by them editorially in their respective papers.

Upon motion the committee then adjourned to meet on Monday next, at 4 o'clock P. M.

DARING BURGLARY.

Judges of Silver Ware and Wearing Apparel. Burglaries are nightly on the increase in this city, and with continued freedom from molestation, the actors therein become bolder and more daring Some time between the hours of 2 and 4 o'c this morning, one or more of this portion of community approached the residence of Mr. W. B. Le Van, at the northeast corner of Nineteenth and Arch streets, and with boldness almost unsurpassed, wrenched open the front kitchen window, and entered the building. Once in, they set about their work. In the kitchen they found the whole of the day's wash, which they carefully bundled up. Near by the silver plate and plated ware of the family was found; the genuine plate they reserved, and the imitation they bent and twisted and left there in its lace. They then gathered together all the apparel f the family they could lay hands on, and selecting two of the best suits, donned them, bundled up th two of the best suits, donned them, bundled up the remainder, and hung their own cast-off garments on some chair-backs. After ransacking the whole place for further booty, they left, only forgetting to leave their cards behind. Perhaps the most noticeable feature of the whole affair is that no arrests were made; but the reader will not consider this at all singular, when the fact of the location being so prominent a one is considered.

AMERICAN SHIPPING.

An Important Meeting to be Held Here To-morrow.

At the last session of Congress a committee was appointed to examine into the causes of the decline in American shipping interests, and to report at the coming session the result of their flabors. The committee has since been actively engaged in their duty. Meetings have been held in Boston and New York, at which large numbers of the prominent merchanis, manufacturers, and shippers were present, and gave what aid they could in the shape of experience and advice. The committee is now in this city for a similar purpose, and the first of its sessions will be held to nurrow at 10% colock A. We in the will be held to-morrow, at 10% o'clock A. M., in the Surveyor's room, Custom House building. Hon. John Lynch, chairman of the committee, will preside. As this is a subject which concerns all of our business men, it is expected that they will attend in force, and do whatever in their power lies towards increasing the shipping business at this port.

Several members of the Senate Finance Commit-tee called upon Secretary Boutwell and the Presi-dent this morning relative to the bill for funding the national debt. Senator Morrill, of Vermont, has pre-pared a bill which differs in some respects from that of Senator Sherman. It is probable that a new bill will be drawn up which will embrace some features of both Sherman's and Morrill's bills. Canadian Reciprocity.

Parties engaged in the Canadian reciprocity treaty say that the President is inimical to it, and will pro-bably call the attention of Congress to it, and recommend that no action be taken towards its The Ways and Means Committee. The Ways and Means Committee are in session again to-day on the Tariff bill. It is stated that there is quite a difference of opinion among members as to what articles should go on the free list, and the prospect of getting it through is not good.

The Question of the Bible in the Schools. The Question of the Bible in the Schools.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 30.—The following points occurred in the argument of W. M. Ramsey yesterday before the Superior Court, for the plaintins in the case of enjoining the School Board from expelling the Bible from the schools:—

To show themseives entitled to the relief prayed for, the plaintiffs must establish two propositions—First, that religious instruction in contempla-tions—First, that religious instruction in contempla-tion of the law is an essential element of our com-mon school system of education; second, that the Board of Education of the City of Cincinnati has not the power to establish religious instruction in the schools of the city. These propositions will be met, it may be fairly anticipated, by, first, a general denial, and, second, by the affirmation that, irrespective of any action upon the part of the School Boarl, religious instruction is unlawful.

The argument occupied three hours. Judge Stallo spoke two hours yesterday for the defense, and will conclude to-day. He said that Christiantly was no part of the law of the State, for if it was, certain duttes peculiarly Christian must be enjoined to the state of the state of the state. ortain duties peculiarly Carlstian mass be enjoined upon citizens in relation to certain rites which none but Christians observed. The observance of certain virtues usually called Christian is enjoined by the State laws, not because they are Christian, but because essential for the good order of society. The State enforces no duty as Christian duty. Christians hold no civil rights in preference over persons professing other creeds or no creed. The Jew. for instance, has the same rights as the Christian—the same remedies for wrongs—can suc, hold property or office, or vete. His synagogue is exempt from taxation the same as the Christian church.

He quoted the case of Bloom vs. Richards, 2d Ohio Reports, sec. 387. He said it was no objection, but on the contrary a recommendation to a legislative enactment based on justice and public policy, that it would be found to coincide with the precepts of pure religion; but nevertheless the power to make a law rests in the legislative control over things temporal, not spiritual; for no power over things spiritual had ever been delegated to the Government, while any preference of one religion over another is directly prohibited by the Consti-

WOMAN.

One of the Sex Goes the Whole Thing, Panta-loons, Cont, Whiskers, Etc. A Rich Scene, Jealousy is as potent a power among womanhood as politics among the sterner sex, and the woman who once feels a twinge from the "green-eyed monster" will stop short of nothing this side of eternity to prove her suspicions; and when she succeeds therein, then—look out.

For some time past, one of the demi-monde residing in the neighborhood of the Exchange has had cause to believe that her man or lover has been giving her the go-by.

With a fox-like cunning and a lynx-eyed observance she has followed his trail night after night, but succeeded in everything but that she desired, namely, fixing his duplicity.

Last night, however, she found that the party, whom we shall call P. T. intended, accompanying another fair siren to a ball. Then did her feelings rise to fever heat, and every vein within her filled with the rapid coursings of the blood, warmed by the feeling of the wrong about being done her, she resolved that come what would

Now the object of scrutiny visits a saloon in the neighborhood of Fifth and Walnut streets, and thither she first directed her steps. Arriving at the place, she for a moment stopped to consider as to whether she should enter or await developments; whether she should enter or await developments; but, alas! for human expectations, this moment proved fatal to all her hopes, for standing in the broad glare of a gas-light, an inquisitive character in the shape of a man discovered that something was wrong with the whiskers, as the neck and under part of the chin were as fair as a lily. Now this man is fond of a joke, and to this did he resolve to turn his discovery. A detective officer was sent after, and whilst the jealous one was quietly waiting for the object of her wrath, she was quietly tapped on the shoulder and informed that her presence was desired at the detective office. Arriving thereat a rich scene followed. She plead, raved, wept, and importuned, but all to no purpose. The stony-hearted officials would have an examination. A female was about being sent for, when the fair tion. A female was about being sent for when the fair one gave in and an explanation followed. A Pension Forger.

ALBANY, Nov. 30 .- Jesse T. Reynolds, a lawyer and claim agent, of Watertown, Jefferson county, was arrested to-day and brought before United States Commissioner Frothingham, of this city, charged with forging pension papers. In one case it is charged he had drawn for two years the pension of a deceased person. The fraud is claimed to have been developed through the new system adopted by some pension agents, under the approval of the department, of sending checks directly to the pensioner instead of forwarding them through claim agents. The accused was held to answer in $10,000.

Death Sentence Commuted. Governor Hoffman has commuted the death sentence of David Burke, convicted of murder in Queens county, to imprisonment for life.
