"FAIR TEST"

UNDRUMED AILMENTS .- There are many ailments, trying in their nature, but the symptoms of which are not sufficiently specific to enable physicians to classify them under any particular head. As a general rule they arise from a general debility of the whole organization, but their primary cause, in at least three cases out of five, is a lack of brisk vital action in the stomach and liver. Stimulate and tone the relaxed digestive and secretive organs, and bodily ease, bealth, and vigor will follow the treatment. Among all the medicines which have been recommended as conducive to this end, none has been administered with such uniform and entire success as HOSTETTER'S STOMER BIT-

Its ingredients were selected from the vegetable kingdom, originally, with the view to the invigoration of the physique and the constitution, and also for their anti-bilious and slightly laxative properties. Twenty odd years of experience has proved that these herbal restoratives were wisely chosen and have been indiciously apportioned in this celebrated preparation. Not only as a specific for indigestion and all kindred complaints, but as a Acceptable remedy for all the misor allments incident to humanity, it has obtained a reputation, based on unimpeachable testimony, which fairly selipses that of any other proprietary or officinal medicine in use.

A LARGE COLLECTION of Superb Oil Paintings and other Works of Art is now being sold by suction, without reserve, at the Gallery of Mr. A. S. Robinson, No. 910 Chesnut street. This is the last day of the sale, and consequently the last chance for those who would become possessors of some of those beautiful productions. Among the many really fine paintings which are now being sold we notice a rare copy of the celebrated Madonna of the Chair, which is a fac-simile in color and size of Raphael's great picture in the Petti palace. There is also a carefully copied oil painting,by Gustave Reinhardt, from Correggio's original picture of Mary Magdalene. Near it is an elegantly finished ori-ginal painting, the Lover's Bouquet, by Emile Nocel, of Paris. A humorous and spirited oil painting after Land-seer, of David and Goliath, is sure to attract the attention of the visitor. A Landscape, with Chickens, by F. Van Severdonk, of Berlin, is very elaborately and carefully finished. Dumbarton Castle, on the Clyde, is a finely painted picture in the English school. F. de Bourg Richards is represented by a view of the Head Waters of the Schurlkill, which is one of the finest expressions of that celebrated artist. Besides this great collection of paintings, there are also being sold some elegant Dresden Enamels, painted photographs, all sizes, and exquisite impressions of English engravings. This is the finest collection which has ever been offered to the public. Th pictures are all in handsome frames, and are just the The sale is conducted by the well-known firm of Martin

THE AMERICAN ARTISTS' sale of valuable Oil Paintings continues this evening at 7% o'clock, and to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock, at the Auction Store of Martin BROS., No. 529 Chesaut street. The collection embraces contributions from the Ameri can artists, Paul Bitter, E. C. Coates, George G. Hart-wick, Lotichous, Van Ness, Hart, Stonefield, and several others of equal eminence.

There is also an invoice of fine foreign pictures, after Oarolus, Ostade, Dretrick, De Keyser, Eberle, Vone Hone, Jassin, and copies from the old masters of the Munich and Dreaden Galleries. Among the paintings on exhibition we notice "Even ing on Como Lake," by Lotichous, which is the latest production of this eminent artist. It has lately been on ex hibition in some of the principal galleries in the country and has received the highest approbation from the art critica. The "Home of George Washington," by Hewlett, is counted the best copy of a very celebrated painting which has ever been made. The original was recently sold for twenty thousand dollars. "Romeo and Juliet" and the "Falconer and his Bride" are accurate copies by Professor Bosenberg from paintings in the Munich Gallery. They are considered fac similes of the originals by all who have seen them. A "Scene in the Catakills" is an original of Paul Ritter's, and is one of his bost pictures. The pictures are all finely framed, and the frames and pictures are being sold together.
