MEWS SUMMARY.

City Affinire. Mr. Joseph McDowell died suddenly on Saturday last of paralysis, The meeting of the Newsbeys' Home Association held at Concert Hall last evening, was adressed by Charles Gibbons, Esq., President, and Rev. Phillips Brooks, Mr. Dupuy, and C. C.

Tracy.

—A Conveyancers' Association has been formed in this city, with the following named officers:—President, Samuel W. Thackara; Vice-President, Charles W. Robinson; Treasurer, Joshua H. Morris; Secretary, Craig D. Ritchie; Examining Committee, Daniel M. Fox, Mahlon D. Livensetter, Edward Bedlock, Fox, Mahlon D. Livensetter, Edward Bedlock, Benjamin F. Hoeckley, and Elwood Bonsall.

—The soldiers of the Scott Legion will participate in the inauguration ceremonics of Governor Geary. They will carry the flags they bore so proudly through the battles of Palo Alto, Resaca de la Palma, Monterey, Buena Vista, Vera Cruz. Cerro Gordo, Contreras, Chernbusco, Molina del Monterey, Buena Vista, Vera Cruz. Rey, and waved over the Halls of the Montezumas. The following is the Committee of Arrangements:—Captains F. W. Binder, John Spear, William J. Mackey, T. G. Funston and Frank Casey.

-Last evening the Finance Committee of Councils held a meeting in the office of the Clerks of Councils, at Fifth and Chesnut streets. An ordinance appropriating $730.86 to the Sheriff, $1760.75 to Coroner William Taylor; $1760.75 to Clerk Ashton, of the Quarter Sessions; $1200 to pay jurors; and $500 to the Su-preme Court, was ordered to be sent to Councils with a favorable recommendation. The School Appropriation bill was made the special order for next Monday evening. Ordinances creating loans for extending the water-works and enlarging the prison were postponed.

—The telegraph operators on the strike held a meeting last evening. T. B. Lyndall in the chair; E. A. Scott, secretary. The chairman explained the object of the meeting, when Mr. J. L. Wright, a representative of one of the labor organizations, made an address in relation to the value of the union of labor to protect itself against the encroachments of capital. A com-mittee was then appointed to draft resolutions. After a short absence they reported a series of resolutions, which stated the cause of their strike, and the grounds upon which it was based, and the determination of the strikers to hold out until the grievances are adjusted.

Domestic Affairs.

 Gold closed yesterday at 12234.
 The New Jersey Legislature meets to-day.
 General Butler is in Boston trying an important law suit. -The steamer Anna, seized as a Cuban cruiser at Charleston, has been released. —The House Reconstruction Committee meet to-day to consider-the admission of Virginia. -Amedee Savray, French Consul at Richmond, died on Sunday evening from a paralytic stroke.

-A clerk in the Interior Department, who had held office for sixty years, died yesterday in Washington. Secretary Boutwell lectured last night in Washington for the benefit of the Grand Army of the Republic. -The telegraphic strike in Washington has been rendered ineffective there by the importa-tion of a number of operators from this city.

—New counterfeit fifty cent notes of the last series, of a very superior execution, are afloat.

The paper is inferior to that of the genuine.

Hon. John Huyler died in New York on Sunday, from injuries inflicted upon him by a drunken man some weeks since. The deceased was a native of New York, but became a citizen of New Jersey, from which he was sent as a Representative to the Thirty-fifth Congress. He was a member of the Committee on Agriculture, and devoted much time and attention to his duties in that connection. His assailant and murderer is in custody.

— The following were the proceedings in Congress yesterday after the close of our report:— In the Senate, bills were introduced by Mr. Harlan to prohibit sales of public lands, except to actual settlers; by Mr. Stewart, extending the protection of the Civil Rights act to the Chinese; also abolishing franking, and establishing a Government telegraph system; by Mr. Morton, declaring that no State has power to tax passengers travelling through its limits; also to prevent the furnishing of war vessels to foreign powers to be used against insurgent districts; by Mr. Williams, to provide for the redemption of greenbacks in coin, at the rate of $1 in coin for $1.20 in greenbacks. On motion of Mr. Corbett, the Finance Committee were directed to consider the expediency of compelling the national banks to make annual returns of the gold inte-rest paid them by the Government upon bonds held to secure their circulation, until the amount reach the sum required as their legal reserve, and it may be held as a reserve instead of legal-tenders, with a view to resuming specie payments. Mr. Corbett also offered a re-solution directing the Secretary of State to make propositions to Great Britain for the annexation of British Columbia. Referred to the Foreign Committee. The bill for the admission of Virginia was considered; and, after an Executive session, the Senate adjourned. In the House the bill for the admission of Virginia was laid over by a vote of 80 to 66. No other business of importance was transacted. Foreign Affairs.

-The new Spanish Ministry was sworn in on unday night. -Further election disturbances have taken place in provincial towns in Spain.

—A protest against free trade in France has been made by the merchants of Bordeaux. -It was rumored at Paris yesterday that a coup detat had taken place in Madrid on the previous evening. -Ledru Rollin, Tibaldi and others have had the amnesty recently granted for political offenees extended to them. -General L. J. Trochee is spoken of as likely

o take General Lebeuf's seat in the French Cabinet as Minister of War. -Great excitement prevails in San Domingo relative to the annexation question. A vote of the people is to be taken on the subject. —Ollfvier addressed the Corps Legislatif yes-terday, asking for their confidence and aid in establishing a National Government that would insure liberty without license.

—Rochefort's newspaper, the Marseillaise, having made a bitter and slanderous attack on Prince Pierre Bonaparte, that personage for-warded a message of a hostile character to the office. Thereupon two gentlemen called upon the Prince as the seconds of Pascal Grousset, one of the editors, to arrange for a meeting. An altercation ensued, during which the Prince shot one of them dead. He at once gave him-Thereupon two gentlemen called upon self up to the authorities.
