MEWS SUMMARY.

STREET INCOME.

City Affairs. -William Hill, thirty-seven years old, residing at No. 523 Vine street, fell down stairs yesterday and broke one of his legs. -United States Commissioner Henry Phillips, Jr., of this city, has been confirmed by the Senate of New Jersey as Commissioner af Deeds for that State.

-Edward Quinn, forty-seven years old, residing at Fifth and Alaska streets, had a leg broken yesterday by a bale of cotton falling on it yesterday, at Walnut street wharf. Both the sufferers were admitted to the Pennsylvania Hospital.

-A meeting of journeymen carpenters was held last evening in Henry's Hall, Ridge avenue, below Broad street, for the purpose of advancing the interests of the Carpenters' Protective Union. The attendance was large. David Heiser acted as President, and John Thomas as Secretary.

-The Commercial Exchange Association has elected the following officers:-President, Nathan Brooke; Vice-President, William Brice; Secrotary, Washington J. Jackson; Treasurer, Theodore Wilson; Directors, Edward Siter, F. C. Hill, L. D. Baugh, William Massey, J. Edward Addicks, A. J. Andrews, Samuel Hartranft, Josiah Bryan.

-The Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania Knights of Pythias assembled yesterday at Thirteenth and Spring Garden streets. A large number of delegates were present from all parts of the State, and the greater portion of the session during the day was occupied in receiving reports and initiating new representatives. In the evening an election was held for grand officers, and the following were elected:-Grand Chancellor, Philip Lowry, Jr.; Grand Banker, William T. Rose; Grand Recording Scribe, William Blanchois

-Last evening a meeting of the heirs of the Anneke Jans-Bogardus estate was held at the hall No. 725 Race street, at which a report was received from the Committee of Twenty, to the effect that Judge Harris, of Albany, N. Y., had been engaged in the case, and his opinion was that the property held by Trinity Church belongs equitably to the heirs of Anneke Jans. The committee feel that one year more will see the controversy at an end, and the vast property in the hands of the heirs.

-The quarterly session of the Grand Section of Pennsylvania Cadets of Temperance was held last evening in the hall, northwest corner of Seventh and Sansom streets, G. W. P. William Davis in the chair. Mr. B. F. Dennison, Grand Secretary, presented his report, which shows the Order to be in a flourishing condition. Charters have been granted to organize three new Sections since October. An application for a new Section, to be located in the lower portion of the city, was read and granted. Messrs. William Davis and John W. Carson were elected delegates to represent the Grand Section in the Harrisburg Convention.

-In accordance with the resolution passed at the temperance meeting held at the Assembly Buildings on Monday night, in which Mr. Charles Heritage, the president, was empowered to appoint a committee to make arrangements for a meeting to be held on the 22d of February, in compliance with the call issued by the Congressional Temperance Society at Washington, that gentleman has named the following citizens as the committee:—Rev. Charles Cook, D. D.; T. G. Sheppard, Hen. E. M. Paxson, T. S. Arthur, T. M. Coleman, William S. Ringgold, Peter B. Simmons, J. C. Garrigues, Daniel Steinmetz, George F. Turner, William A. Drown, J. R. Sypher, H. P. M. Birkenbine.

-The committee to try the contested election cases of Coxe vs. Hodgdon re-assembled esterday afternoon in Select Council Chamber. Mr. Russell, clerk in the office of the Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas, produced papers, showing the hourly return in the ward to have been as follows:—

ivisions.	Coxe,	Hodgdon,
First	327	243
Second	146	168
Third	149	180
Fourth	227	280
Fifth	129	83
Sixth	183	232
	77.4	1100
Charles of the later of the	1161	1136

From the Seventh division there was no hourly return filed. The only papers of this division in the office were the list of voters, the oath of the officers, and the tally list. The latter showed 240 tallies for Mr. Hodgdon and 198 for Mr. Coxe, which, if added, would make the vote stand:-Hodgdon, 1376; Coxe

The tally list of the First division gave Mr. Coxe one vote more than the hourly return; in the Second division hourly return there was an alteration in this vote of from 15 to 14, and in the Third division an alteration from 23 to 21. Mr. Hodgdon's vote in the Sixth division was altered on the hourly return from 22 to 24; the tally list showed 24

Subpoenas were then issued and made returnable on Friday next at 3 o'clock. The committee then adjourned.

—A meeting of petroleum refiners and dealers opposed to the passage of the "oil" bill now before the Legislature was held at No. 132 South Second street, yesterday. The Chair ap-pointed a committee to draft a memorial to be submitted to the Legislature.

-The Coroner yesterday commenced an inves-tigation into the killing of Dennis Corkrey. when Timothy Sullivan, Timothy O'Leary, George Miller, James Collins, John Fitzpatrick, and other witnesses were examined. The inquest was postponed owing to the absence of certain parties. The prisoner was present, and his manner was quiet and subdued.

The annual meeting of the Drug Exchange was held yesterday afternoon, and the following officers were elected:-President, Robert Shoe maker; Vice-President, William Gulager; Secre-tary, Harrison Smith; Treasurer, H. S. Ziegler Directors, R. Shoemaker, William Gulager, A. H. Jones, H. B. Rosengarten, D. C. Landis, A. C. Ferguson, E. H. Hance, Theodore A. Royal, William M. Wilson, and Henry Rittenhouse.

-The semi-annual session of the Grand Lodge Upited Order of the Sacred Temple of Liberty was held yesterday at the hall, Franklin an Poplar streets. Reports were received from the various Lodges, showing the Order to be in a flourishing state, and a membership of about 500. There are 13 Lodges embraced in the Order in this city, and 90 past officers. Since last semiannual meeting charters were granted to three new Lodges. There were 300 initiations of new members and 20 deaths. The treasurer reported the amount received by initiation of new members at $300; paid for benefits, $500; balance in the treasurer's hands, $3000. -Yesterday was the one hundred and elevently anniversary of Robert Burns, the immortal bard an occasion ever dear to every son of Scotla The preparations for its observance by the Burns Association of Philadelphia were such as to enable all its members to enjoy themselves with the characteristic pleasure ever marking this organization in an eminent degree, and the result was an unusually large "gathering of the claus" at the Wetherill House in the evening to partake of the annual banquet. Domestie Affairs. -Gold closed yesterd sy at 1211.

-A drought is apprehended in South California. The Peabody funeral fleet arrived at Portland, Me., yesterday.

-Yesterday the internal revenue receipte smounted to $643,981.

—The Missouri Legislature want the Branch Mint at New Orleans removed to St. Louis.

-The weather has been so warm in Richmond, Va., lately, that the trees are leafing.

—Yesterday the Committee of Ways and Means agreed to a proposition to admit all coal free of duty.

—A riot occurred in Jersey City yesterday between the Eric strikers and the hands taken on in their places.

The Park supplement bill was discussed in the Legislature yesterday, the bone of contention being the clause authorizing the Commissioners to appoint their own solicitor, which had been stricken out by the committee. Ultimately the clause was reinserted and the bill passed —Another proposal for the publication of the procedings of the State Legislature was defeated in the Senate yesterday, whereupon resolutions for the discharge of all the officers of both houses, except the clerks, also the pasters and folders, were offered, afford-ing members an opportunity of indulging in a few personalities. The resolutions were lost by a viva voce vote.

-Further testimony was taken yesterday in relation to the gold conspiracy of September last. Mr. Corbin did not appear. The committee, being informed that he was in the city, sent'in search of him, but he could not be found. Measures will be taken to compel his attendance. General Butterfield and Mr. Chapin are both summoned as witnesses.

-The Creuzot strike is at an end. —The new Bishop of Oxford was conse-crated yesterday in Westminster Abbey. -The miners of Cheshire, Lancashire, and North Wales have struck for the reduction of a working day to eight hours. -Duke Montpensier has not been elected to the Spanish Cortes from Oviedo, and in all probability will be defeated by his opponent. -A workmen's meeting to promote a closer union of England and her colonies is to be held in London, at which many distinguished men will speak.

A PRESS OF OPINIONS.
The Proprieter of the "Tale of the Dolphin" takes

The Proprieter of the "Tale of the Dolphin" takes pleasure in presenting to the public the following remarkable Testimonials and Certificates: -FROM THE ENGINEER OF THE WATER WORKS.

"I have applied my guage and whistle to the Tale of the Dolphin, and find it capable of producing a laugh of over 300 horse power." A. TURBINE WEIL, Engineer. WHAT THE PACULTY PAY.
"I have small zed the Tale of the Dolphin, and find it purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. Should think no family ought to be without it."

O. HORSESETTER, M. D.

WHAT THE ART CRITICS SAY. "I think your Silhouettes free from the fault of most pictures. The Chiaroscuro is perfect, and they show great depth of color. My friend, Mr. Sully, says their reputation as works of Art must remain un Sully-ed."
FLAKE WHITE, P. B. REMARKABLE CURE OF BAD PITS.

"I used to be subject to bad fits of laughter. Hearing the Tale of the Dolphin but once, I went off into a good one, and have had no bad ones since." NITE RUSS OOKSIDE. WHAT GENERAL GRANT SAYS. "I saw the 'Dolphin' last summer at Long Branch, and think it ranks among boat flesh as 'Dexter' does among torse flesh. I have no doubt but that it would be greatly improved, as with 'Dexter,' by the addition o' a good Tale."

U. S. GRANT. Many more testimonials from all parts of the country cou & be written by the Lecturer if necessary.

N. B.—If it should rain, dont't fail to come and see the "Silly-wets" at the Lecture Room of the New Mercantile Library, TENTH Street, above Chesnut,

On TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY, and THURSDAY EVENINGS, Jan. 25, 26, and 27. P. S.-To those who attend the whole three nights, there will be a reduction made to them in the laugh.
