HARRISBURG.

The State Treasury Investigation-Examination of Trensurer Mackey-How the Accounts are Kept. HARMISBURG, Feb. 2.-The Senate Finance

AT BA SHIT THE

Committee, to investigate the manner in which the State Treasurers have for the last ten years managed the State funds, and whether they have made any illegal uses of the same, held a meeting this evening, Senator Billingfeit in the chair.

The Chairman called for the realing of that portion of the Governor's message which alleged that no man had been elected State Treasurer who had not become rich. Senator White inquired whether subpanas had been issued, as required, to ex-State Trea-surers, and to Messrs. Kemble, McGrath, Moore, Irwin, and others, and Chief Clerks Taggart and Nicholson

The Chairman replied that the necessary papers had been issued, and that many of the persons were in attendance, including Messrs. Mackey, Kemble, McGrath, and Nicholson. Letters had been received from Henry D. Moore and Irwin, both expressing their in-ability to be present to-night, but their willing-ness to appear as soon as they could reach Harrieburg.

MR. MACKEY ON THE STAND.

The examination then commenced. Mr. Mackey was sworn and questioned by Senator White.

Question. Are you State Treasurer ? Answer. Yes.

Q. What is the balance in the Treasury now? A. I cannot cell the balance in figures exactly without referring to the books. I think about seventeen hundred thousand dollars. My report gives figures to the 30th of November, and my books will show any day you look at them. SINEINO FUND BONDS-THEIR AMOUNT AND DIS-

POSITION.

Q. What amount of bonds are there in the Treasury? A. Six millions three hundred thousand Pennsylvania Railroad, and thirty-five hun-dred thousand Allegheny Valley Railroad, Q. To what fund do these bonds belong ? A.

Sinking Fund. R. Where are those bonds? A. In the vault. Q. Where have they been during your term of effice? A. They never have been out of the vault, except to show to the Attorney-General.

Q. Did you ever use those bonds for the pur-pose of speculation? A. They never were out of the Treasury, except at the time I mentioned; I never used them in any way.

WHERABOUTS OF MONEY DUE THE STATE. Q. Where is the money that is due the Commonwealth? A. Scattered over the State in various banks. Q. Are the banks belleved to be solvent? I have every reason to believe so, with the ex-

Q. State what these exceptions are ? A. The failure of a bank in 1861 and 1865. One had about seven thousand and one about three thousand. Q. Was the money in your hands ready to be used at any time to meet the demands of the Government? A. Yes, sir; every dollar of it, except the advances made to members of the Legislature and other officers, for which I get no pay. no pay.

THE MONEYS ALWAYS AVAILABLE AND NEVER MISAPPLIED.

Q. With that exception is all the money in the Treasury liable to be called on for the purposes of the State? A. Yes.

Q. Has there ever been a time since you came into office that all the money of the Commonwealth has not been available? A. There has never been a time that every dollar received by me was not subject to call at a moment's notice. Q. Have you ever used money of the Com-monwealth for the purpose of speculation in gold or stocks? A. I have already answered this question; I never did have a dollar of the Commonwealth's money invested in stocks or bonds or anything of the kind.

Q. Have you ever refused to pay any of the liabilities of the Commonwealth on proper de-mand? A. Not when due. I may explain, I do not know we have any authority, but it has been the custom of this office to refuse to pay school warrants of delinquent counties. This was done egal advice as matter of policy. Q. Have you ever used any money of the Commonwealth for the purpose of controlling the elections?

January I, 1870? A. I cannot give you from memory, but can from books.

Q. Give it to us. Have you an approximation of how much it was? A. No, sir. Q. Can you give a detailed statement of how that money was made up, and where deposited, at our next meeting? A. Yes, sir.

THE DEPOSITARIES.

Q. What banks were the principal deposi-tailes? A. Those in Philadelphia, Harrisburg and Pittsburg were the largest depositaries.

Q. What banks in Philadelphia? A. Farmers' and Mechanics', which is the depositary by statute; Jay Cooke & Co., Kensington National Bank, J. E. Ridgway & Co., and the Union Banking Company. These are all I can think of just now

Q. What were the depositaries in Harrisbury? A. Dougherty Bros. & Co., First National Baus, Mechanics Bank, State Bank and Dauphin De-

Q. What were the depositaries in Pittsburg? A. Allegheny National Bank, Allegheny Savings Eank, German Savings Bank and Mechanics' Savings Bank. Q. What was your balance with J. E. Ridgway on the 1st of August last? A. It was never chauged from Mr. Ridgway from which I received it from my predecessor, namely .-- One hundred thousand dollars. Q. That is since you came into office? A. Yes, sir.

AN IMPORTANT QUESTION.

Q. Have you received any consideration for permitting that money to remain there? A. I cannot answer that question if I am to be ar-raigned for supposed malfeasance in office.

Q. I simply want the facts. A. If I am to be arraigned I want to be arraigned according to law; I really want to give you the freest and fullest exhibition of the Treasury as far as I am concerned, but I do not wish to be placed in a false position. Remarks by Wallace:-I have no threats to make and no promises to make. It would be absurd for us to make threats and equally ab-absurd for us to promise that there should be no prosecution. Our duty is well defined. We simply want to know what is the present and past condition of the Treasury. A, While I am perfectly willing to give you the exact position of the Treasury, if it is to involve me in a question of prosecution, I decline to answer this question. question.

MONEYS ON DEPOSIT.

Q. What amount of money was on deposit in the First National Bank of Harrisburg on the first of August last? A. That I could not tell you, sir.

Q. Can you give us an approximate statement?
A. No, I cannot.
Q. Can you furnish us that? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Will you do so? A. Yes, sir.
Q. What amount of money was on deposit in the Allegheny National Bank on the 1st of Annual Last?

August last? A. I cannot answer any of the questions from recollection. Q. Please give us all of them up to the 1st of August last. Senator Billingfelt here suggested that Mr. Mackey give the committee the balances at the end of each month. Mr. Mackey said that he could do it.

Question by Mr. Wallace—Are the moneys at all times liable to draft? A. Yes. Q. Were these depositaries at all times able to sustain the drafts of your department? A. I do not know that they were without giving them some trouble. I do not think that any bank would keep its money idle. .Q. Has not the practical working of the sys-tem been to permit the banks to use it by loan-

Q. Could you not have drawn, at Harris-burg, of whatever balance was there, and have it honored promptly? A. I suppose it might have been honored, but it might have given them a great deal of trouble.

PRIVATE SPRCULATIONS.

Q. In answer to General White, you said you never had put any money of the Commonwealth to your individual use in speculating in stocks and gold? A. I have never speculated with a dollar of any money belonging to the Treasury. Q. Had you a private acco

Q. Can you give us that at our next meeting? Yes, if you desire it. Q. What was the balance in the Treasury on this will have to examine details for that. You know no practice? A. I know my own practice. Q. By White-You speak of practice. You know your own practice. Has it been your practice to select solvent banks for your depo-sitaries? A. I have little interest in that. I have a bond of eighty thousand dollars staring me in the face. Q. Can you state whether in selecting your depositaries you are careful to not select solvent banking houses in the Commonwealth? A. I have never made any deposits that I did not think I was amply secured in. Q. State whether you have inquired as to the current condition of those depositaries as to solvency? A. Being engaged in the business, I ought to be tolerably familiar with most of them; I thought I was; I think so yet; I sthink my successor will get all the money he is cutitled to.

HE FOLLOWED THE ROUTINE OF THE OFFICE. Q. Something has been said about the practice of your predecessors. State whether your policy selecting the depositaries for your balance differed from your predecessors? A. About the same as ever. I have pursued the routine of the office, so far as I know, in most cases. There are some in which I did not. Q. By Mr. Brooks-Did you think those in which you did not were an improvement? A.

I thought so.

HIS IDEAS ON THE SALARY QUESTION.

Q. By Mr. White-There is some talk about a salary of seventeen hundred dollars; I believe that is the salary allowed by the State? A. Yes, eir.

Q. Do you think that is sufficient? A. Not If I had to go through an examination of this kind often.

Q. Do you think a salary of seventeen hun-dred dollars is enough? A. No, sir; I do not. Q. To pay for your vigilance necessary to the proper management of the finances of the State, do you think the salary should be increased ? Certainly it ought to be, beyond a question. Q. Can a man properly discharge the duties of that office travelling from point to point looking after the condition of depositaries of the Commonwealth, and attending to current business, for a salary of $1700? A. Not unless he wanted to work for glory. Q. Then, as an official, would you recommend an increase of salary? A. Certainly; the salary ought not to be less than $4000.

THE SECURITIES.

Q. By Mr. Billingfelt-Are the securities sufficient? A. They ought not to be less than two hundred and fifty thousand dollars under any circumstances. I do not care what system you adopt the Treasurer will handle more or less: his balances sometimes will necessarily be large. He has to pay on the first of August and the first of February over nine hundred thousand every half year. Senator Wallace moved that Mr. Mackey be requestions relating to his books. Adopted.

Ex-Treasurer Kemble wanted his examination to be proceeded with to-night, being desirous to leave for home. His request was not granted. Mr. Kemble urged that the man who made these charges (meaning the Governor) ought to have been present ready to substantiate them.

The committee adjourned to meet again to-morrow afternoon at half-past 2 o'clock.

Answer by Mackey-Do you mean money of the Treasury? Mr. White-Yes, sir.

Answer by Mackey-No, sir; I have spent a little of my own occasionally, but not of the Commonwealth's.

HOW THE MANAGEMENT MIGHT BE IMPROVED.

Q. I would like to have your opinion officially as to the management of the Treasury and funds that should be adopted. Could the management of its affairs be made better by any statute? A. Very materially

Q. Please state by what measures. A. I think the restrictions upon the Treasury are unwise. It is unwise to restrict the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund to part with the bonds of the Commonwealth when they are worth more in the market than their valuation. If money is to be used at all, it is better to use it in lifting our own securities than in any other way

HIS OFINION REGARDING DEPOSITARIES. Q. What do you think of selecting deposita-ries of Government or State funds? A. I never gave it much thought. I do not think there ought to be depositaries nor any money in the treasury. If you exhaust your money you do not need depositaries. As long as you have money on hand you will have a competition for that money. Depositaries will make a fight for balances.

Q. Would it be wise to select depositaries for balances that are in the treasury from time to time to meet school and charitable appropriations? A. You cannot run the Treasury without having some balances. I do not care here to express myself fully, because this is not the place. I need more time for such disquisition. I have no doubt that the committe could prepare a bill to meet the exigencies of the case. Senator Wallace now commenced an examination of the witness, and objected to the de-sultory character which the questioning had assumed.

MANNER OF RECEIVING.

Q. Give us a detailed statement of the way, manner, and time at which moneys are paid into the State Treasury. Does your daily re-port show that? A. Yes, sir; the books show

Q. Do the books show all moneys paid into the State Treasury each day? A. Yes; perhaps not each day, but the exact amount.

Diterruption by State Treasurer Kemble, who said there was a book kept with a detailed state-

Mr. Mackey replied:-Yes, sir. Q. In your Treasury report is there a detailed statement? A. Yes, sir.

HOW THE FUNDS ARE KEPT.

Q. The next branch of this inquiry is where and upon what condition are these moneys kept. When did you come into office? A. On May 3, 1869

Q. What amount of money came into your hands on that day? A. I receipted for about eleven hundred thousand dollars.

Q. From whom? A. From the former Treasuler.

Q. Of what was this eleven hundred thousand dollars composed? A. Moneys deposited in banks, and checks.

Q. Give us the items? A. That I cannot do from recollection.

Q. Can you do it by examination of book? A. I do not know even if I could do that; I can only give gross amount. Q. I want a detailed statement of what that money was made up in; in what condition the moneys were when they came into your hands. You may it was not each? A. Could give you details from books, but not from recollection. It was moneys in banks, sight checks, and some other things.

Q. Can you give us detailed statements of these items? A. I do not think I can.

Q. Can you give us a portion of them ? A accounts of the Commonwealth with these banks? A. I think I have a little account here with Dougherty & Brother, and I have one at my own bank, but none at any other. What is the account of the deposits in the Harrisburg First National Bank ? A. I cannot give it to you, exactly.

Q. Were you ever engaged in speculating with the money that was to your own account in any of these banks during your term of office? A. I had a right to do with my own money as I pleased. I do not suppose being Treasurer would keep me from using my own money as I deemed necessary. Q. What amount of money were you worth when you went into the Treasury ? A. Am I required to answer that question ? Reply-Not unless you see fit.

A. I think I was worth twenty or twenty-five thousand dollars.

Q. What has been the amount of deposits to your private account in the Allegheny National Bank? A. Just as it has been heretotore, all Bank ? along; I could not tell you-there never has been any of the State money to my account. . By Mr. Brooke-Is that the bank with which you were connected before coming here?

A. Yes, sir; and I am connected with it now. Q. By Mr. Wallace-Were you Cashier of it? A. Yes, of course; you understood me to say that there was no public money put to my private account. Q. What amount of money are you worth ow? A. I cannot tell you; I do not think I am much changed.

Q. Are you worth no more money than you were before? A. Not that I know of; I would be glad to know it.

Q. Have you made no profit nor benefit out of the funds of the Treasury other than your salary?

 A. I cannot answer that question.
 Q. Have you used any money of the Commonwealth for your own private purchases at any time? A. No. Q. Have you received any interest or compensation, direct or indirect, at any time for use of any moneys of the Commonwealth? A. I thought the other question covered that.

Q. Any interest or compensation, direct or indirect, for moneys of the Commonwealth? A. For the same reason I decline to answer. If I am to be arraigned I prefer it to be done in the right way.

DAILY BALANCES.

Q. By Billingfelt-Did I understand you to say that these accounts are balanced every day? A. The books are balanced and cash settled every

Q. Did that balance consist of different kinds of moneys and investments and securities? Yes.

Q. By what term do you designate those balances? A. Bank account, drawer account, and vault account. Q. By bank accounts do you mean the moneys deposited in the various banks of the Common-wealth? A. Yes; and by drawer accounts all the moneys in the drawer. Q. Cash that they used in making change within the vault? A. Yes, sir,

Q. You keep your accounts in your books as to what the vaults consist of? A. Yes; keep it as vault account. Q. Do you designate on your books? A. No; ust keep it as vault account each day. Q. Put on the table without naming of what it onsists? A. Yes.

Q. Is there any record, either public or pri-vate, kept of that vault account? A. There is a private record kept always. Mr. Billingfelt-It may be well to inquire of what these vault accounts consisted of at the time those balances were struck, or what they now consist of. I would not press this question now, but in preparation of the detailed state-

BOLVENCY OF DEPOSITARIES.

Mr. Wallace-Q. Under the resolution of the Senate we are required to investigate the prac-tice of the State Treasurer for ten years past. What has been the practice in regard to the use Philadelphia is the largest that will be required within the area of the city. It will have a capacity of 302,000 cubic feet per minute, and will drain an area of 4500 acres. Between Spruce and Pine streets and the Baltimore turn-pike a large force has been employed for some time in cetting through the heavy rocks, so as to form a trench for the sewer, and to obtain material for the energetic prosecution of the work as soon as the weather permits.

-In the matter of the contest of H. Brinton Coxe to the seat of Alexander L. Hodgdon, of the Eighth ward, in Select Council, there were proven yesterday of the last hour's vote 8 for Mr. Coxe and 5 for Mr. Hodgdon. The rote as returned for this hour was 19 for Mr. Hodgdon and 6 for Mr. Coxe. The committee adjourned until Saturday next to allow the contestant to produce further evidence on this point.

-An adjourned meeting of the notaries public was held last evening, and was largely attended. The business transacted was of a private and unimportant character, other than the determi-nation was fully and clearly expressed of using all proper means of opposition to the enactment of any law by the Legislature depriving these gentlemen of their accustomed and recognized right to take depositions, acknowledgments, protests, and other business of a strictly notarial character, and transferring it to the aldermen and constables of the city.

-The sixteenth anniversary of the Merchants' Fund was celebrated last evening in the Academy of Music, John Welsh, Esq., presiding. The andience, which was very large, and composed in a great part of ladies, paid the closest atten-tion to the speakers, whom they frequently applauded. After the reading of the annual re-pert which has already appeared in these colport, which has already appeared in these col-umns, Mr. Welsh addressed the meeting. He was followed by Hon. James R. A short address was also delivered by Rev. J. L. Witherow. During the evening the proceedings were interspersed with music
