MEWS SUMMARY. City Affairs.

-Last evening a dwelling on Seventh street, below Lombard, was slightly damaged by fire. -The Select Council Contested Election Committee, in the case of Coxe vs. Hodgdon, met yesterday afternoon, but in consequence of the absence of witnesses, adjourned until this afternoon.

-A meeting of the City Councils Com-mittee on Finance was held last evening. An ordinance appropriating $1950 to the Board of Port Wardens was passed. The annual appropriation to the Board of Health was dised, but was not finally acted upon.

-George Ryan, aged four years, residing in Nicholson street, in the neighborhood of Sixth and Race streets, was kicked in the head by a horse and had his skull fractured yesterday. He was conveyed to the Pennsylvania Hospital. —James Morrow was taken before Alderman Moore yesterday afternoon on the charge of cruelty to a horse. The animal was very lame in one of his legs, and had been driven from Richmond to Mead alley, with a ton of coal. The driver was arrested, and finally the owner of the animal appeared at the Alderman's office and paid the fine and costs.

-The Baptist Conference met yesterday morning, at the Publication House, Arch street, below Sixth. After devotional exercises a discussion took place on the question of the Church and Amusements. Rev. Dr. Swain, Rev. J. S. Kennard, Rev. Dr. Henson, Rev. Dr. Eacher, and other clergymen took part, denouncing parlor dancing and attendance at the theatre and balls by members of the Church, as inconsistent with their profession.

-Yesterday the Joint Special Committee of Councils, Mr. Shoemaker, chairman, met for the purpose of having a preliminary discus-sion in regard to a plan of operation for the grand centennial anniversary of the Declara-tion of Independence. Mr. Sellers, of the Franklin Institute, was present, and after an interchange of views, it was agreed to meet on Saturday next, when a committee of the institute, and probably also a committee of the Legislature, will be in attendance, and a definite course suggested.

-The annual report of the Board of Trade, just published, contains most valuable information. The following named gentlemen have been elected officers of the board for 1870:-President, John Welsh; Vice-Presidents, Samuel V. Merrick, James C. Hand, Frederick Fraley; Secretary, T. Morris Perot; Treasurer, Richard Wood; Executive Council, Joseph C. Grubb, E. A. Souder, Samuel E. Stokes, George L. Buzby, George N. Tat-ham, D. C. McCammon, J. Price Wetherill, Henry Winsor, George N. Allen, John O. James, C. B. Durborrow, Thomas L. Gillespie, Thomas G. Hood, Christian J. Hoffman, Thomas C. Hand, William W. Paul, William Adamson, John H. Michener, Benjamin Bullock, Israel W. Morris, Jr., James Dougherty.

Domestic Affairs.

-Gold closed yesterday at 1203. -The New Jersey Senate yesterday rejected the fifteenth amendment.

-The laborers on the Jamestown and Franklin Railroad, at Oil City, are on a strike. -Governor Geary has received the Metropolitan Police bill, but has taken no action upon it yet.

-The bill vesting the appointment of high-way supervisors in the Commissioners was passed in the Pennsylvania House vesterday. -A bill was introduced in the House yes terday by Mr. Bingham, reducing the postage rates on letters and newspapers.

-A telegram informed Secretary Fish, yesterday, that a United States citizen was killed and two others wounded in Havana, on San-

day. -The death of Hon. Truman H. Hoag, of Ohio, was a

Schr J. B. Vandusen, hence, at Charleston yesterwhereupon both Houses adjourned as a mark of respect to his memory.

-In reply to a delegation yesterday, the President said he should not interfere with General Terry in Georgia, his conduct so far being entirely satisfactory. —Judge Ingram called upon the Grand Jury, in New York, yesterday, to indict persons who compound felonies on receiving back portions of the stolen property.

-The Senate Judiciary Committee have postponed action on the admission of Missis sippi, pending the receipt of certificates of lion dollars are alleged to have been committed by A. Stevens, an ex-revenue officer, and a number of business men in New York. Stevens has been arrested.

-Resolutions declaring that the Constitution only warrants the laying of duties for revenue purposes, and that Congress should modify the tariff accordingly, were offered in the House yesterday by Mr. Marshall, and defeated.

Foreign Affairs.

-Further disturbances have occurred in Spain.

-Rumors of the serious illness of the Prince Imperial are contradicted.

-Gladstone's Ministry will meet Parliament to-day with an overwhelming majority.

-Last night there was a total interruption of communication eastward on the Irish telegraph lines.

The treaty of peace between Spain and the South American Republics is to be signed immediately.

-It is announced that France, now that personal government in that country has ended, will no longer continue a mere spectator of events in Germany. —There was an excited discussion in the Corps Legislatif yesterday relative to the Rochefort affair, resulting in the sustaining of the Government by a large majority. Rochefort was present. Up to 8 o'clock in the evening he had not been arrested.

The Fifteenth Amendment. A large meeting of colored men was held last evening in the Union Baptist Church, Minster street, above Sixth. Rev. James Underdue occupied the chair, and Thomas W. Allmand acted as Secretary. The President read the call for the meeting, and stated that the object was the consideration of the adoption of the fiftcenth amendment. A committee, consisting of the following, was appointed for the purpose of reporting officers for a permanent organization:-T. B. Main, James Underdue, William Forten,

Daniel Cokey, John Simpson, John Lecont, Andrew Barrett, J. V. Thomas, Alexander Banks, Isaiah Cropper, John Williams, Thomas W. Allmand, Horace Patton, Charles

Bascom, and Reuben Coates. The following preamble and resolution were read and adopted:— Whereas, The passage of the fifteenth amendment has created new political relations for the negro, giving him equal political rights; therefore, be it
