

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

FOX'S POLICE AGAIN.

New Burglars are Protected Against the Citizens They Plunder—The Conviction of an Alderman and Police Lieutenant.

In our last issue we gave particulars of the arrest of a supposed burglar in the First Police District by a citizen who had cause to suspect that his house was about to be robbed, and the release of the accused party at the instance of Lieutenant Joseph Henderson, an Alderman of this city, who had given a party for the purpose of the celebration of the arrest of a burglar.

Commonwealth vs. Henry Donnelly.—December 18, 1869, defendant brought by Officer McVey, from information, with a view to the conviction of a citizen with felonious intent. No person appearing to answer to the charge.

Explosion in an Iron Mill.—About 8:30 o'clock this morning a puddling furnace in the rolling mill of the Messrs. Rowland, Delaware avenue, above Poplar, exploded with terrific force, scattering the molten metal in all directions.

Runaway.—At 12 o'clock to-day two horses attached to a family carriage took fright, in front of the Continental Hotel, and dashed madly down the street, breaking the carriage and badly injuring one of the horses before being stopped.

Daring Scheme to Burglarize a National Bank.—The Thieves Attempt to Murder a Watchman.—The Buffalo Express of yesterday says:—A correspondence of this city has the particulars of a murderous attempt, on Sunday night, to rob the First National Bank, in the village of Westfield.

Alumni of Girard College.—The Executive Committee of this society are already making arrangements for the next annual reunion in May, and from plans proposed it will be of more interest than any heretofore.

THE "STAR" COURSE OF LECTURES.—This evening Rev. H. H. Chapin will lecture at the Academy of Music as one of the "stars" in Mr. Pugh's galaxy. His subject will be "The Halls of Honor."

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE. District Court, No. 1.—Judge Stroud. Hill & Jones vs. Isaac E. Mann. An action on a promissory note, dated in Philadelphia, 1868, for $500, payable to the order of Nathans vs. A. C. Manny, Jr. Agree, A. C. Manny, Jr., to try the ownership of certain promissory notes. Verdict for plaintiff.

OUR STATION HOUSES.—Is the Grand Jury presentment handed in on Saturday last the following passage occurs:—"We would respectfully and emphatically call your attention to the presentment of the Grand Jury, which they signed on of repair, needing proper accommodations for the police, and a more plentiful use of water and whistles. The cells were, in most cases, in a fearful condition, not only from a want of proper ventilation, but from the gross neglect and carelessness of the keepers who may apply for shelter during the night, as it is now necessary to place them in cells in the prison quarters."

THE MONARCH.

Description of the Great British Iron-clad. The arrival of the British iron-clad Monarch in American waters has created the liveliest interest in naval and engineering circles, as she is looked upon as a superior type of modern armored vessels.

The Monarch is a vessel of commanding appearance, and is 320 feet longer than the Captain Cooper's turret, with three chase guns of a less calibre, mounted at the extremities and protected by an armor of iron, the weight of the hull, with skin plating and extra girders included, is 5675 tons; the other weights, boilers, machinery, masts, rigging, etc., amount to 4023 tons. The hull which is of iron, is protected by 7-inch iron armor on the most important parts, 12 inches on the other parts, the plating being supported by 12 inches of oak timber.

His funeral will take place on Monday next and will be attended by the board, who on the same day will hold a meeting to take action upon his decease.

LOCAL ODDS AND ENDS.—Our City Fathers meet again to-day. All persons desiring to witness a first-class show will present themselves at 3 o'clock.

Philadelphia propose having a grand celebration in July, 1870. Hadn't the Delaware bridge proposition better be carried out first?

It is proposed hereafter to make sale of tickets for the Girls' Normal School commencement. How many were sold for the last occasion, and who received the certificates?

Burglary.—About 10:30 o'clock last evening, the residence of John Brueck, No. 615 South Third street, was entered by burglars, who pried open a rear window, and robbed of a lot of clothing. The theft being discovered, the police were notified, and the burglars found in the battery room, and their names ascertained.
