WDWS SUMMARY.

City Affairs.

-Robert Sweeny, fifty years old, residing at No. 2042 Rittenhouse street, fell down stairs yesterday and fractured an arm.

—Sarah Stewart, sixty years old, residing at No. 2121 Homestead street, fell on the ice yesterday at Tenth and South streets, and fractured one of her legs. Both sufferers were admitted into the Pennsylvania Hos-

-The Coroner held an inquest yesterday on the body of an unknown man, who was found drowned at Green street. He was apparently forty years old, and was dressed in blue army blonse and pants, brown jacket, and grey undershirt. The body had been in the water only a short time.

-An inquest was also held on the body of an unknown white man found drowned at Arch street wharf. He was apparently forty years old, was five feet nine inches high, had black hair, whiskers, and moustache, and was dressed in black cloth sack coat and vest and dark ribbed cassimere pants. The Coroner took charge of the bodies.

-A further hearing was had yesterday, before Recorder Givin, in the matter of the alleged conspiracy between Holmes & Kelly, Thomas Cochran, of New Jersey, Benjamin Thompson, and Ransom Rogers, to defraud Edward M. Satterthwait. Before the opening of the case, the charge against Mr. Rogers was withdrawn. Mr. Kelly was the only defendant present, the other two not having been arrested. After a full hearing of all the facts, the defendant Kelly was held in $6000 bail to answer at Court.

-The Morocco Manufacturers' Exchange of Philadelphia held a meeting yesterday, to take action in reference to the death of Mr. George Bockius, late a member and Treasurer of the association. The President, Mr. Samuel B. Jones, after announcing the death of Mr. Bockius, appointed a committee, consisting of Messrs. Edward Evans, Edward Amer, and Edward S. Deemer, to draft resolutions expressive of the feelings of the members of the Exchange. The resolutions reported by the committee were adopted. The members of the Exchange also passed a resolution to attend the funeral on Wednesday.

-The stated meeting of the Executive Committee of the Board of Trade was held last evening, President John Welsh in the chair. The new members elect were all present. The standing committees were appointed as follows:—Foreign and Coastwise Commerce—Messrs. Winsor, Tatham, Thos. C. Hand, Wetherill, and Gillespie; Inland Commerce and Transportation — Messrs. James, Morris, Allen, Hall, and Hoffman; Domestic Productions-Messrs. Tatham, Mc-Cammon, Stokes, Dougherty, and Bullock; Currency and Banking—Messrs. Wetherill, Grubb, Wood, Souder, and Durborow; Arbitrations-Messrs. James, Souder, Buzby, Hall, and Gillespie. Resolutions by Mr. Buzby, in favor of a postal telegraph system, were referred to the Committee on Inland Commerce and Transportation. The special committee having in charge the subject of the immediate forwarding of goods to the port of desti-nation was continued, with the direction to urge the passage of the bill recently reported by the Committee of Commerce in Congress, The committee of the month are Messrs. Grubb, Souder, and Stokes.

—A special meeting of School Controllers was held yesterday, Mr. M. Hall Stanton in the chair, to consider the draft of a law, reported by Mr. Armstrong of the special committee on the subject of compulsory educa-

The preamble recites that there are reported to be in the city of Philadelphia at least 20,000 children, between the ages of six and eighteen years, who have not attended and ho do not attend any public, private, or parochial school, and who have not and do not receive any instruction in either reading or writing.

The second section provides that no child shall be admitted into the public schools who has not been vaccinated.

The third section provides that the Mayor be authorized to give the Board of Controllers all the official assistance in his power to carry out the law. The fourth and last section authorizes and empowers the board to adopt such measures as will best carry out the provisions of the

The bill having been read, Mr. Cassidy moved its postponement in order that it might be printed for the careful inspection of the members. Mr. Green was of the opinion that the sectional boards should be consulted before action was taken in respect to the bill. After further discussion, the motion to postpone was agreed to. The board adjourned to meet on next Monday week.

In the Senate bills were passed authorizing the erection of a bridge across the Delaware at Philadelphia; providing for better security of passengers on steam vessels, and reorga-nizing the marine hospital service. The New York and Washington Air-Line Railroad bill was taken up, pending which the Senate adjourned. In the House, Mr. Butler, from the Reconstruction Committee, reported the Senate bill removing disabilities from four to five hundred ex-Rebels. On motion of Mr. Whittemore, the House bill, including two thousand names, was adopted as a substitute. Mr. Logan, from the Military Committee, made a report of testimony in regard to the sale of cadetships, implicating Mr. Whittemore, the Representative from the First South Carolina district, the report closing with a resolu-tion for his expulsion from the House. After discussion, at the suggestion of Mr. Butler, a resolution was adopted citing Mr. Whittemore to appear before the bar of the House on Wednesday, and show why he should not be expelled. The House then adjourned.
