THE DAILY EVENING TELEGRAPH-PHILADELPHIA, FRIDAY, MARCH 11, 1870.

City Affahrs.

-A meeting of the Managers of the Penn-hylvania Baptist Educational Society was held yesterday.

-Mrs. Margaret English, residing at Ninth and Federal streets, fell in the yard of her house yesterday, and broke one of her legs.
-John Stokes, 80 years of age, residing at No. 237 Bainbridge street, was badly burned last evening by his clothes taking fire from a lighted candle. He was removed to the Hormital the Hospital. -- The alarm of fire last evening, at 7 o'clock, was caused by the slight burning of some materials in the cellar of a house of Joseph Lewis, Marlborough street, below Belgrade street.

-In the Wilmer case the Coroner's jury yesterday rendered a verdict that Hester Wil mer came to her death from injuries received at the hands of Levi Wilmer, and the hus-band was committed for trial.

-Policeman B. Mullen, of the First dis-trict, was yesterday put under $2500 bail by Alderman R. R. Smith, to answer the charge of having committed an aggravated assault and battery upon Mrs. Elizabeth Fishbourn, residing at No. 1615 Shippen street. -On Tuesday next the Committee of Councils on House of Correction will visit the River Farm, at the mouth of Pennypack cresk, containing eighty acres of upland and sixty acres of meadow land, which is offered as a site for the proposed House of Correction for $25,000.

-Last night the twenty-third anniversary of the Juvenile Missionary Society of the Green Street Methodist Episcopal Church Sunday School was held in the church, Green street, above Tenth, which was filled to its greatest capacity. Rev. J. B. McCullough, pastor, presided, and the exercises were edifying and pleasing.

-The closing exercises of the Night School for Artisans took place at the Central High School last evening in the presence of the Controllers of the Public Schools and a large number of the friends of the institution. Addresses were made by James H. MacBride, M. Hall Stanton, Hon. Daniel M. Fox, Edward Shippen, George L. Buzby, and Pro-fessor George I. Riche.

-At a meeting of employing house painters the following resolution was adopted: "Resolved, That the standard wages to be paid bythe members of this association be fixed at three dollars per day of ten hours from the 1st day of March until the 20th day of October, and at $2:50 per day from the 20th day of October to the 1st day of March, to be paid only to such journeymen house painters as may be worth that sum, all others to be rated in accordance with their worth.'

-A meeting of colored persons took plac -A meeting of colored persons took place last evening at the Spring Garden Hall, Thir-teenth and Spring Garden streets, for the purpose of devising plans for the celebration of the day to be set apart in commemoration of the adoption of the fifteenth amendment to the Constitution of the United States. Reynolds Price was appointed chairman, and G. De Young, secretary. A preamble and resolutions were adopted setting forth the object of the meeting, and expressive of their gratitude for the freedom of the colored race. An address was made by Isaiah Wears, after which the preamble and resolutions were adopted.

-Last evening farewell services took place -Last evening farewell services took place in the Central Presbyterian Church (N. S.), Coates street, below Fourth, on which occa-sion addresses were made by Rev. J. Y. Mit-chell, pastor; Rev. Samuel Duffield, and Elders Sanderson and Griest. There was a large congregation present. This church was built thirty-six years ago, and has been sold to the German congregation. St. John sold to the German congregation, St. John street, below Green, for $18,000. The mem-bers of the Central Presbyterian Church will worship in their new and handsome building tial list of the persons murdered by Indiana in that Territory since March 4, 1864. The list con-tains the names, so far as they could be ascer-tained, of 163 victims, and the Miner expresses the opinion that if it could obtain the manes of all the persons killed in the Territory since its rettlement, at least 300 more would be added to it, while 200 have been wounded, more or less seriously, since the beginning of 1864. The Miner does not care to inquire into the robbe-ries committed by the Indiana, and consoles itself with the thought that "hundreds of the murderous race of savages that intest the Terri-tory have been sent to their long home, and will trouble the white men no more."

Domestio' Affairs.

-Gold closed yesterday at 1111. -Senator Sherman expects to pass his Funding bill to-day. —It is likely General Butler's Georgia bill will pass the Senate.

-Missouri has ratified the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments.

-General Alcorn was yesterday inaugurated

Governor of Mississippi. --The Mechanics' Bank, St. Louis, resumed

specie payments yesterday. —The prosecution of General Burbridge, of Missouri, has been abandoned.

-Taxes on fire insurance companies will be reduced by the Ways and Means Committee.

-General Butler has prepared a bill for the admission of Texas on the same terms as Virginia.

-An Indiana schoolmaster has killed one of his pupils by striking him on the head with an iron poker. --Colonel Baker's action in respect to the Indians is fully indorsed by the citizens of Montana Territory.

-A war party of Gros Ventres and Assini-boine Indians has set out to take vengeance on the Piegans for stealing their horses last winter.

-By an accident on the Erie road, near Wellesburg, N. Y., yesterday morning, one man was killed and a number of others seriously injured.

-On Tuesday next the Reconstruction Committee will again discuss Tennessee affairs. It is believed a majority is in favor of reconstruction.

-A discussion relative to the State Treasury investigation took place in the Senate yesterday, and it was decided to compel General Irwin to testify.

Foreign Affairs.

-An international exhibition of fans is to be held in London. What next? -Espartero is expected in Madrid, and is spoken of as a candidate for the throne.

Mountainous icebergs were encountered by the steamer New York on her voyage from New York to Southampton. -Charles Dickens visited Queen Victoria by invitation yesterday. It is said he has been tendered a peerage or baronetage.

-Ex-Governor Letcher of Virginia has pub-lished a statement respecting the proposed monument to Stonewall Jackson, saying $50,000 is needed, and that no local or sectional views is needed, and that no local or sectional views restrict the scheme-that it is national in its design, and the North has cordially responded to the appeal, and the East and the West are moving. It is proposed to creet a memorial chapel at the Virginia Military Institute in Lex-ington, and, should the funds collected parmit, a statue in heavier or marble. We transmit to a statue in bronze or marble, "to transmit to coming generations the features, form, and expression of one whose name and virtues are alike known and honored throughout the civil-ized world, and who was a bright exemplar of whatever was true and noble, and of good re-port among men."

Incidentals.

-The Winsted (Conn.) Herald is enraptured with the lee, "from a foot to eighteen inches thick, clear and hard as crystal, and free to all comers," now being taken from a lake in its immediate neighborhood.

-A writer, who is more newspaper corres-pondent than clergyman, but who has nearly swung around the circle of the denominations as the latter, says in a recent letter that the people in this region are so fitful and fickle, and there is so little permanency in settlements, that the wonder is that any man who can shovel coal or drive an express wagon is willing to run the risks of a pastorate.

-Judge Carponter decided at Charleston, S. C., on the 4th inst., that a note drawn payable six months after the declaration of peace be-tween the United States and Confederate States of America could not be collected, as no peace had been declared "between those Govern-ments." Exceptions were taken, on the ground that the close of hostilities was a virtual declaration of peace. -A Connecticut reporter, who recently at--A Connecticut reporter, who recently at-tended a wedding, apparently for the first time, writes that when he looked upon the bride "in her sweet grace and with her gentle ways, he felt like going into the shadowed gardens of imagination, and gathering there the rareat roses of language-roses half asleep in their buds and half awake as they swelled to bloom from slumber-and adorning her wedding wreath, already full with the blessings and re-peated blessings and bridal offerings of loving friends."

Triends." —The Selma (Ala.) Times chronicles with evi-dent satisfaction "a righteous judgment and swift punishment" by "Providential interposi-tion," a negro having stumbled while attempt-ing to carry off a stolen sack of corn, and the weight of the corn having broken his neck. But the Times adds that his negro accomplices took the corn and carried it off. It seems strange that they should have escaped without similar swift punishment under such peculiar circumstances
