-A public meeting of colored persons was held last evening, at Liberty Hall, Lombard street, below Eighth, for the purpose of discussing the question of forming political organizations. Speeches were made by Messrs. O. Catto, S. Gould, Whipple Natal, and others, urging the necessity of immediate organization.

-The following cases were yesterday ad-mitted into the Pennsylvania Hospital:-John McCallum, of No. 627 Spruce street fractured leg; William Cox, No. 714 Wyatt street, fractured thigh; William Simmons, No. 407 Pleasant street, two fingers cut off; Florence McCarty, collar bone broken; Charles Manning, No. 1918 Erb street, feet injured; Annie Smith, No. 1 Northampton place, fractured arm.

At the time of the occurrence he was ascending a small ladder, placed against the slope of the Mansard roof, and it s ipped from under him.

Yesterday two men entered the bakery of Mr. John Metzgar, No. 907 South Sir-teenth street, and requested change for a bank bill. While one of them engaged the attention of Mrs. Metzgar, the other man went up stairs unperceived, stole two Prussian dollars from a box in a closet, and was detected in the act of descending the stairs. He was handed over to a policeman, and upon being taken to a station and searched, the stolen dollars were found on him, besides a jimmy. In the afternoon he had a hearing before Alderman Kerr, and gave the name o William Scott. He was recognized as an old offender, having served out a term of imprisonment for robbing a man in a shoe store on Race street, near Second, and a ninety days' sentence under the professional thieves law.

Geary as the Chairman of the meeting. The report of the division was read, setting forth that it was represented by sixty-nine members in the Grand Division; and that 1253 members had been initiated since its organization. The present strength is set down at 247 members. The chairman, in a few welltimed remarks, introduced Hon. Schuyler Colfax, Vice-President of the United States. He was greeted with deafening shouts of applause. In opening his address he said this, the silver anniversary of Friendship Division, reminded him that it was also the twenty-fifth anniversary of his connection with the glorious cause of temperance, and in all those years gone by he had not broken his pledge of stotal abstinence. He portrayed in elo-

ing from the use of intoxicatng beverages. He urged his hearers to guard against and avoid the demon, which he characterized as a greater scourge, and spreading more sorrow and desolation over the land. than was occasioned by the late civil strife, which desolated and robbed thousands of families of their loved ones. He wanted to particularly impress on the minds of his audience that safety was alone found in total abstinence from strong drink. He urged them to unite in a grand revival to advance the cause of temperance. He laid before his hearers statistics showing the terrible demoralization caused by the traffic in liquors. He was frequently greeted with applause and took his seat amid vociferous cheers. Major-General O. O. Howard and Rev. J. P. Newman followed in eloquent speeches, which were interrupted throughout with cheers of approbation.

MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC.

The City Amusements.

AT THE CHENUT a matinee will be given to day by the Galton troupe, when "66," Lischen and Fritzchen, and La Rose de St. Fleur will be represented.

This evening Mr. J. H. Jack will have a benefit, when a first-rate miscellaneous programme will be presented. Miss Rosalie Jack will ap-pear as "Little Nell," is a dramatization of The Old Curiosity Shop: Master Julian Reed will give imitations of Forrest, Booth, and other actors; several of the members of Duprez & Benedict's troupe will give some Ethiopian per-formances; Miss Lillie Hall will appear in a bur-lesque entertainment entitled Nell, the Bell; Mr. Jack will recite Judge Conrad's poem, "The Fireman;" and Messrs. Charles Madigan, Kincade, and others will execute some wonderful acrobatic feats. Mr. Jack is a good actor, and with such a variety of attractions he ought to have a crowded house this evening. On Monday Professor Risley's Bio-plastic troupe and the Lauri troupe will appear. AT THE WALNUT there will be a matines today, when Mr. Chanfrau will appear as "Sam." This evening Mr. Chanfrau will appear as "Robert Brierly" in The Ticket-of-Leave Man and as "Jeremlah Clip" in The Widow's Victim. The performance will conclude with the drama of Robert Macaire. On Monday Mr. Chanfrau will produce a new American drama entitled Kit; or the Arkansas Traveller.

AT THE ARCH Lotta will appear this afternoon and evening in the drama of Heart's Ease. AT THE AMATEURS' DRAWING ROOM the French Troupe will appear on Monday evening in the original Frou-Frou. This performance will be a complimentary benefit to the troupe, and as there is much desire to see this piece per-formed by French artists, there will doubtless be a crowded house.

MISS CARLOTTA PATTI will give three entertainments next week, on Thursday and Friday evenings, and on Saturday afternoon, at the Academy of Music. These will be Miss Patti's last appearances previous to her departure for California and South America. The sale of seats will commence on Monday at the Aca-

Much of the apparatus is new and such as has never been seen before in this country. Among the attractive features will be a speaking head of Albertus Magnus, a telephonie circuit, an exposition of the real nature of trampe, as recently discovered by Professor Helmholz, of Heidel-berg, and an original exhibition of the manuer in which sound is converted into thought. The lecture will undoubtedly be in the highest de-
