'Would Among the Shaker.'—An Elopement and a Wedding.
The Lexington (Ky.) Statesman says:—
Great consternation was created on Thursday in the usually peaceful village of Rose Hill, where our Shaker friends pursue their happy vocations. Among the denizens of this prosperous community were a young man by the name of John Boyd and a maiden called Sarah McCoid, and it seems that under their quiet and apparently calm exterior they cherished an un-Shakerlike attachment for each other, and on Thursday, to the horror of the brotherhood, they eloped. They went to the town of Nicholasville, and having put up at the Veranda Hotel, called in Rev. Mr. Hunt, and were united in the holy bonds of matrimony before a numerous company, among whom was our informant, Captain William Harlan, of Tennessee. As they stood before the reverend divine, he with broad-brim in hand, and with the long blue home-spun coat peculiar to the brotherhood, from which he had had, and she "in a dress of habiliment," they were not an uninteresting couple. Even her horrible costume, as the female spectators regarded it, could not disguise the beauty of the bride, for she was fresh and fair, and the groom was as happy as man could be.

MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC.
The City Amusements.
AT THE CHESTNUT NO performance will be given this evening, in order to arrange for the appearance of the German Euphonic troupe and the Laury family of pantomimists, who will commence an engagement to-morrow evening. The performances of these troupes are spoken of as novel, interesting, and beautiful, and we certainly hope that they will be able to produce some sort of entertainment that will prove attractive enough to fill the benches at the Chestnut.
AT THE WALNUT Mr. Chamfray will appear this evening in a new drama of American life entitled 'The Arkansas Traveller,' written by T. B. De Walden and Edward Spencer. This piece is said to be full of exciting incidents that are calculated to please the popular fancy.
AT THE ARCH Lotta will appear this evening in the drama of 'Heart's Ease.'

AT THE AMATEUR DRAWING ROOM the French Comedy Company will appear this evening in the original 'Frou-Frou.' There is considerable demand for seats to witness this performance, which will undoubtedly be one of the most interesting given by the troupe, and in order to accommodate those who are unable to attend this evening, an extra performance will be given to-morrow.
MISS CARLOTTA PATTI will give two farewell concerts and a matinee at the Academy of Music on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, previous to her departure for California and South America. It will be impossible for this fine singer to appear here for a long time, and it may be that she will never return. The opportunities, therefore, afforded for hearing her will doubtless be made the most of by our music-loving citizens. The sale of seats will commence to-day at the Academy of Music.
AT THE ELEVENTH STREET OPERA HOUSE the burlesques of 'Thomas and Jeremiah,' 'The Wig-Maker,' 'The Streets of Philadelphia,' and other attractions will be given this evening.
AT DUPREZ & BRYAN'S OPERA HOUSE a bill of novelties is offered for this evening which includes the burlesques of 'The United States Mail,' 'Trials of a Bachelor,' 'Fisherman's Luck,' and other amusing features.
STENOGRAPHER, Mr. J. J. COHEN will give an exhibition of magic and ventriloquism at the Assembly Building this evening.

DR. J. SOLIS COHEN will deliver a lecture on the subject of "The Physical Beauties of Musical Sound" at the Amateur Drawing Room on Wednesday evening next. The lecture will be illustrated by a number of new and beautiful experiments.
CITY ITEMS.
SPRING OVERCOATS.
BETTER IN STYLE, BETTER IN FIT, BETTER IN CUT, BETTER IN PRICE, than any others ready-made in the city, at prices from $6 to $20.
BENNETT & CO., FOWLER HALL, No. 618 MARKET STREET.

THESE IS GOOD AUTHORITY for stating that in this country one adult out of every six dies of Consumption; and, indeed, so prevalent and so fatal has this disease become, that it is dreaded as the great scourge of the race; and yet in the formative stages all Pulmonary Complaints may be readily controlled by resorting promptly to the EXPECTORANT of DR. D. JAYNE, which soothes and strengthens the bronchial tubes, allaying inflammation and cleansing them and the lungs of all impurities. It is a certain remedy for Coughs and Cold, which, when left to themselves, frequently bring on Pulmonary Complaints, and it cures Bronchitis effectually if taken in time, and the directions strictly followed. It has maintained its reputation as a curative for over a quarter of a century, and if those who are threatened with Lung Diseases, or any of the symptoms of Bronchitis or Asthma, will at once give this standard remedy a trial, they will never regret it. Sold everywhere.

CONGRESS.
Senate.
Continued from the Third Edition.
Mr. Thurman remarked that for one he was in favor of the early restoration of Texas to her rights, but in view of recent events he feared that a report from the judiciary committee that effect would only ensure the hostility of the Senator from Missouri. He thought the better plan would be to send in an adverse report on the subject, then certain Senators would be bound to vote to admit the State.
Mr. Drake rose to reply, but Mr. Sherman called the regular order, which was proceeded with.

FROM THE PLAINS.
The Piegans Fight—Letter from Col. Baker.
WASHINGTON, March 25.—The following was received to-day at army headquarters:—
FORT ELLIS, Montana, March 25, 1870.—General P. H. Sheridan, Commanding Military Division, Chicago.—In answer to your telegram received on the 23d inst., I report that after having made every effort to get the judgment of the officers of the command, I was satisfied to believe that the Indians who are so near to the extract truth as possible:—
The number killed at the Piegans village was 173, of whom 120 were able-bodied men, and 53 women and children; 14 women and children were afterwards captured and released. I believe that every effort was made by the officers and men to protect the non-combatants, and that women and children were killed were accidentally killed.

FROM THE STATE.
A Miners' Strike Inevitable.
POTTSVILLE, Pa., March 25.—A large meeting of miners was held here on Saturday evening, at which it was voted to adhere to their resolution adopted at a previous meeting, which insists upon the basis of sixty-nine. This places a suspension on the last of April beyond a doubt, and it is believed that the matter will not be submitted to any reduction.

FROM THE WEST.
Pacific Railroad Report.
ST. LOUIS, March 25.—The annual report of the Missouri and Pacific Railroad Company shows the gross earnings for the year ending February 28 to be $3,311,531; increase over last year, $119,939; net earnings, $886,153.

FROM CALIFORNIA.
Compositors' Wages.
SAN FRANCISCO, March 25.—The compositors in the newspaper offices in this city have agreed to a reduction of 15 cents per 1000 ems on their wages.

FROM DELAWARE.
Schonner Ashore.
LEWES, March 25.—Two schooners were ashore at Indian river inlet, fourteen miles below here, names unknown. One has a West India cargo of coconuts, tobacco, etc. Both are breaking up.

—'Ogallala' is the name suggested for a new hotel in Omaha.

Amending the Tariff Bill.
Col. Baker Vindicated.
The Fight with the Piegans.
Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc.

FROM WASHINGTON.
National Safe Deposit Company.
WASHINGTON, March 25.—The Secretary of the National Safe Deposit Company of this city was summoned on Saturday by a sub-committee of the Judiciary Committee, whereof General Butler was chairman. Mr. Bea. P. Snyder, secretary, was before the sub-committee, and gave testimony, the nature of which has not transpired. The statement that the books and papers of the company were submitted to General Butler, chairman of the sub-committee, is untrue. There were no questions asked involving any of the Washington newspaper correspondents.

Amendments to the Tariff Bill.
The Committee of Ways and Means have altered the Tariff bill in the following among other less important particulars, namely: They act to take effect Oct. 1; in lieu of duties now imposed the Secretary of the Treasury is to prescribe and require that samples of sugar shall be taken by inspectors, and each sample of each grade of each package, and that said samples be severally preserved in glass bottles and marked for future identification and reference; and that, in lieu of Brussels carpets, 25 per cent ad valorem, on all carpets, painted, or printed, 60 per cent ad valorem. On all manufactures of mixed materials, silk being the component material of chief value, and not otherwise herein provided for, 35 per cent ad valorem. On wax, 25 per cent ad valorem. On wax and other substitutes for hemp not herein otherwise provided for, 25 per cent ad valorem. On straw, 15 per cent ad valorem. On manilla and other substitutes for hemp not herein otherwise provided for, 25 per cent ad valorem. On iron wire, 20 per cent ad valorem. On iron wire rods, oval, half oval, and half round, more than five-sixteenths of an inch, 15 per cent ad valorem.
