Eighth street, on last Saturday evening.

—The trial of skill between the steamers of the Good Intent and Resolution Fire Companies came off in Camden yesterday. The steamer of the former company was disabled in the contest. The Resolution was declared the winner —Charters have recently been granted for organizing the following Councils of the Order of United American Mechanics:—Pocahontas Council, No. 225; Coal City Council, No. 226; Wilkesbarre Council, No. 227; Chambersburg Council, No. 228; Scranton, No. 229; Newberry, No. 230, and Bainbridge

—The annual report of the Philadelphia City Institute shows that during the past year 9448 books were taken out of the library, an increase over the preceding year of nearly 2000 volumes, or 26 per cent. On the 8th of last November a night school of the Institute was opened by the permission of the Board of Controllers of the Public Schools in the Northwest Grammar School, Henry B. Whittington acting as principal, and kept open sixty nights. The number of pupils regis-tered and in attendance during the term was 441. The average attendance per night was 160; the greatest on any one night, 229. The ages of the pupils ranged from 12 to 60 years;

the average age 20 years. The steamship Tonawanda, of the Southern mail line, left this port on Saturday for Savannah, Ga., and encountered a terrific storm when about fifty miles this side of Cape Hatteras. The wind blew a hurricane and the rain came down in torrents, rendering it almost impossible for the vessel to be worked. In the midst of the storm, about 4 o'clock on Sunday morning, the motion of the ship caused a displacement of the boilers, breaking off the steampipe, and at once filling the fire and engine room with steam, and driving the firemen and engineers from their posts to the spar deck, one or two of them being slightly scalded. The Chief Engineer at once rallied the men, leading them back again, and at the same time a donkey engine was used to throw water into the ship. Reaching the fire-room, the live coals were hauled out from the furnace into the water, which by this time was of sufficient depth to extinguish them, and by extraordinary effort and courage the vessel was prevented from taking —Early last evening, a fire was discovered in Greenly's tobacco factory at Eighth and Mountain streets, in the First Ward. Fortunately it was discovered in time to prevent it extending and but little damage was done. -Between 6 and 7 o'clock last evening, smoke was discovered issuing from a storehouse in the rear of No. 118 South Delaware avenue, occupied by Messrs. Koons, Brother & Co., dealers in provisions. Upon the place being entered, the fire was seen to be on the second floor, and before it could be checked it had spread to the third and fourth floors, destroying or greatly damaging a large stock of cheese and a number of bags of peanuts. The storehouse fronting on the avenue is chiefly occupied by the firm above named. Messrs. Isaac B. Benners & Co., dealers in fruit, have the first floor. All the damage in this building was to the stock by water, and the loss in both storehouses is covered by insurance. The rear building is owned by Mr. Joseph R. Evans. About a quarter to 11 o'clock last night a fire broke out in Greenly's tobacco factory, at Eighth and Mountain streets, which had been on fire early in the evening, and the flames spreading rapidly through the structure is was burned out before their progress could be arrested. There was some machinery and considerable stock on hand, and the loss has been roughly estimated at $8000.

Domestic Affairs. —Gold closed yesterday at 111§.

-Secretary Boutwell is in favor of giving Baltimore an Assistant Treasurer. -Colonel Taylor's majority in the Fifth Pennsylvania district is given in Mr. Cessna's report as 72. -The time for the ratification of the San Domingo treaty has been extended for thirty days from to-day. -A resolution that Canada purchase Alaska and the State of Maine has passed the British Columbia Legislature. -From the resolute bearing of the miners at a meeting at Pottsville, on Saturday, there is now no doubt that work will be suspended on April 1.

-Twelve men were frozen to death in the northwestern part of Iowa during the storm of the 15th inst. Six others, it is feared, met a similar fate.

-The Ways and Means Committee have struck from the Funding bill the clause permitting the exchange of greenbacks for four cent. bonds. -Last evening's proceedings in the House at Harrisburg were of the most disgraceful character, bills being rushed through on the mere reading of their titles.

-It is proposed by the friends of the San Domingo treaty that a Congressional commission be sent to the island to examine into its desirability for annexation.

-The great Democratic meeting did not come off in New York last night, the Tammany Society closing their hall, fearing a disturbance. Indeed, as it was, only the presence of a strong force of police preserved the peace, so evidently were the roughs bent on mischief. An indignation meeting was held by the Young Democracy. During the afternoon the Tammany sachems met, and appointed a committee to try and restore harmony between the opposing factions.

Foreign Affairs. -Both the University crews are in wretched

-Lopez is still leading the Brazilian troops a weary dance. -Prince Bonaparte's acquittal is much commented on in London. -Ollivier submitted to the French Senate, yesterday, a project based upon Napoleon's

-Transatlantic steamers sailing from Liverpool have been ordered to take a southerly course, to avoid itebergs.

—A California paper chronicles with satisfac-tion the fact that the State Senate has rejected a bill to create a Democratic Vaccinator-General of the Chinese at $10 a head-or arm.

-Bostonians suggest a grand tea-party on the centennial anniversary of the day on which the tea was thrown overboard, to which all native-born Bostonians shall be invited. -Speaking of the Albany free soup-house the Journal of that city gives the following statis-tics for Tuesday:—"Visitors, 10; number in family, 1960." They apparently have large families at the State capital.

INCONSISTENCIES. Por The Evening Telegraph.

When will our prominent writers and orators, loving peace as they profess to do, be consistent?

The Press said a few days since, advocating the Coolie bill:-"If the children of the soldiers of this war are neglected, dishonoredtheir labor contracted out-whence will come the soldiers of the next war?"

Let no child be neglected. But the reason assigned is in the interest of war, the fruitful cause of destitute orphans, and to speak of the "next war," and by predicting and preparing for it, it is hastened and made imminent. Rather say take such good care of the children that we educate them to believe deadly force should never be resorted to, and war will be rendered impossible.

Last evening our Academy of Music was filled with a delighted audience, justly appreciating our good and true friends in the temperance cause, Governor Geary, Hon. Schuyler Colfax, Vice-President of the United States, General O. O. Howard, and D. P. Newman, D. D.

That we may rise to a higher degree of enlightenment and Christianity I refer to some unfortunate passages in the remarks of each speaker:-

Vice-President Colfax said:-"If you wish to strengthen the military arm of the country embrace the divine cause of temperance."

Now, intemperance makes wars and intemperance upholds armies, and if temperance is "to strengthen the military arm of the country," it is a moral agent doing an immoral work, for it would uphold that system which subverts the ten commandments, the beatitudes and the teachings and example of Jesus Christ. Let us hope that the spread of temperance will render war so unpopular that it will be impossible and the "military arm" unnecessary.

Governor Geary introduced General Howard as the "Christian soldier," words strongly paradoxical: for if a "Christian," he is a follower of Christ, and Christ denounced war and every semblance of war; and if a "soldier," he is in league with man wounding and man killing. Let these two words never be nsed together except in mockery of our boastful Christianity.

Then Howard, so noble in his work for the freedmen, opened with those glowing words, "Love the Lord thy God with all thy heart and thy neighbor as thyself," and it caused a close inquiry whether the profession of a soldier accorded practice with precept.

Far be it from me to arraign unkindly the honesty of purpose of those who lived up to their highest convictions of duty, even in engaging in war, for without charity we are poor indeed, but there are times when a word may be fitly spoken, and I do it now for good.

General Howard had been in the army, and had influenced others to engage in that which I cannot but conceive to be antagonistic to the teachings of that Book from which he quoted, and which also enjoins upon us:-"Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you," etc., injunctions incompatible with burning towns, tearing off the limbs of human beings, cutting off supplies of water, and shooting and stabbing unto death.

Next a reverend, D. P. Newman, D. D., of tergood & Co. Washington, spoke, and although a minister, he thought to compliment the soldier by saying "he carried the sword in one hand and the Cross in the other." Oh! how swiftly the thought was presented to me that it would be appropriate then to whisper, "Let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth."

This "sword," the emblem of hate, torture, and death to some poor creature, and this "Cross," the emblem of love, forgiveness, and immortal life to all. One hand using the weapon of destruction, protecting oneself by killing a brother, the other saving and selfsacrificing, by suffering rather than causing suffering, and dying rather than killing.

How can the advocate of the New Testament utter such sentiments? He spoke beautifully when he said the mother taught her children "not to lie, not to steal, not to kill," and yet I could not help thinking, and my love for the right will not permit me to withhold the thought that the frequent and perhaps unguarded prestige given to that system which is full of lying, stealing, and killing, especially when given by eminent statesmen, philanthropists, and ministers, is destroying the home teachings and is a sad mistake, and one which I trust time and serious reflection will cure; and were it not that I feel these friends of temperance to be so good and true that they accept criticism kindly, and that it may open the eyes of professing Christendom to the real principle of "peace on earth," I should regret expressing these convictions of my heart. A. H. S. Philadelphia, 3d mo. 26th, 1870.

NEW JERSEY M. E. CONFERENCE.

Thirty-fourth Annual Session - Fifth Day's Proceedings. LONG BRANCH, March 28 .- The conference was called to order at the usual hour, the Bishop presiding. J. S. Heisler reported that the Treasurer of the Conference Missionary Society had received the full amount collected, and asked permission to pay it over to the Treasurer of the parent society, which was granted. S. W. Thomas addressed the conference in relation to arrangements which had been made by which the preachers could procure their tracts from Philadelphia when it was inconvenient to get them from New York.

H. M. Brown moved that the tract money usually paid over to the Treasurer in New York be paid, if the preachers find it more convenient so to do, to the Treasurer of the Tract Society in Philadelphia, which was agreed to. S. E. Post, Treasurer of the Conference Educational Society, reported that the collections for the past year amounted to $1035.72, and requested the conference to order the annuity to Dickinson College paid, and the balance turned over to the Educational Society, which was so ordered.

C. W. Heisley moved that a committee of five be appointed to make nominations for the usual Conference Boards of Trustees, which was carried, and J. Vansant, C. W. Heisley, S. M. Hudson, B. S. Sharp, and E. Green were nominated and elected as that committee. At 12 M. the conference adjourned. A FATAL LEAP.

A Delirious Patient Jumps from the Top of a House and Kills Himself. William Morgan, of Oakland, Clinton county, Ohio, has for some time been a patient in Dr. Williams' Ophthalmic Hospital, north of and ad-joining Washington Park, on Elm street. Recently he has been afflicted with crysipelas in addition to his eye disease. On Saturday night he grew delirious, and was with some difficulty kept in his bed. The nurse had got him pretty well quieted by 10 o'clock Saturday night. Half an hour later, when the nurse was occupied in a distant part of the ward, his back to the patient, the latter stole from his cot, crept softly to the south window, opened it, and bounded into the park. None of the patients who witnessed the scene had the least surmise of the delirious man's intention until it was too late to counteract it. He was hopelessly hurt by the fall from the second story to the ground. The attendant had him conveyed to the Cinciunati Hospital, where he died an hour after midnight.

VOX POPULL Brooklyn Assemblyman Barned in Emgy-Sold Out for $7500. The reception of the Brooklyn Assemblymen who voted against the New York city charter was anything but flattering on their return home on Saturday. Those who were conveniently absent when the vote was taken were viewed in the same light, and were roundly abused wherever they made their appearance in public. One of them had a placard pinned to his coat tail bearing the inscription "Sold for $7500," which afforded no little amusement about City Hall square. Another was burned in effigy at the intersection of Myrtle and Franklin avenues. A placard attached to the figure was labelled "Sold us out for $7500." A large crowd of men and boys made themselves jolly over the de-struction of the "man of straw." The bolters, one and all, had a very hard time of it, and yesterday kept away from the places they usually frequent on their return from Albany.
