NEWS SUMMARY.

-The Republican members of Conneils met in caucus yesterday afternoon, and nomi-nated Mr. Strickland Kneass for Chief of the Survey Department and Mr. James M. Stewart for Building Inspector.

—Yesterday afternoon John McGuire, residing at No. 8 Southampton court, fell into the Delaware at Mead street wharf and was drowned. The body was recovered.

-The anniversary of the Universalist Sunday-school Union was celebrated last evening at the church on Lombard street, near Fourth, Dr. J. W. White presided. Prayer was offered by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Leonard. An election for officers of the association for the ensuing year took place and resulted as follows:-President, Henry S. Moore; Vice-President, Rev. Dr. Leonard; Treasurer, W. H. Main; Secretary, Clarence Bement.

A large meeting of the colored citizens of the Seventh ward was held last evening at the Masonic Hall, Eleventh street, below Pine. The meeting was called at the instance of Samuel Williams, E. Glasgow, and D. Colly, of the Committee on Organization. Stephen Smith was called to the chair, and the following-named gentlemen were elected as Vice-Presidents, E. Glasgow and James Robinson; Secretary, James Williams; Assistant Secretary, John W. Hughes; Treasurer, Samuel Williams.

The President stated the object for which the meeting was convened, and said that he trusted the colored people would never forget who had been their friends; that it was their duty to support the Republican party, and that a black Democrat had no right to take part in the proceedings.

Messrs. T. Smith, John Dunmore, S. Camell, J. Kelley, and C. Demar were appointed a committee to draft resolutions.

The committee reported a resolution which was adopted, requesting the colored citizens of the Seventh ward to meet on the 26th day of April in front of the Masonic Hall at such time as the Chief Marshal may designate, for the purpose of joining in the procession, and that a committee be appointed to procure music and banners for the occasion

An election then took place for marshals, which resulted as follows:-Chief Marshal, Samuel Williams; Aids, James H. Williams and Peter R. Tuckel. The meeting then adjourned.

—One year ago yesterday the Grand Lodge Room of the Masonic Hall, Chesnut street, was the scene of an imposing, beautiful, and impressive Masonic ceremony, consisting of the constituting of Mozart Lodge, A. Y. M., of Philadelphia, and the installation of its officers. This lodge, as its name will indicate, is composed principally of professional musicians, both instrumental and vocal, but within its fold may be found a large number of prominent and influential citizens, whose musical proclivities urged them to join hands and hearts in the formation of the lodge with their Masonic brethren who make music their

The Lodge has prospered beyond precedent, and the first anniversary of its existance was celebrated yesterday afternoon at the Academy of Music in an appropriate, interesting, novel, and most successful manner. The celebration was an entire innovation on all former Masonic ceremonies of the kind, and, in fact, the aim appeared to be to dispense with Masonie rites altogether, and let the anniversary consist of a grand musical jubilee, which could be participated in not only by the members of the lodge, but by their wives, families, and sweethearts, and the public in general. The idea was happily conceived and most admirably carried out by the Committee of Arrangements, consisting of Joseph D. Murphy, H. R. Hellier, and John S. Paul, whose efforts were ably seconded and assisted by the popular Worshipful Master of the Lodge, Joseph H. Livingston.

The Academy of Music was filled from parquet to dome with as well satisfied an audience as ever assembled within its walls, and a musical and oratorical entertainment was given which gave the most unlimited satisfaction to all who had the pleasure of

An orchestra, composed of sixty-five of our best resident musicians, under the baton of Charles R. Dodworth, volunteered their services, as did also the Mozart Quartette Club, composed of some of our well-known professional vocalists.

At the conclusion of the entertainment the performers, officers of Mozart Lodge, a number of visiting brethren from New York, representing Newburg, St. Cecele, and St. Nicholas Lodges of that State, and several invited guests, repaired to another portion of the building, where a bountiful repast was provided, Joseph H. Livingston, Esq., presiding; and after the removal of the cloth, speeches were made, in response to toasts, by John Blakely, Esq., Past Grand Master Richard Vaux, Past Master George F. Illsley, of St. Cecele Lodge, N. Y.; P. E. Commander G. Fred. Wiltsie, of Newburg, N. Y., and others, and the company were regaled with some very superior vocalization by the Mozart Quartette. The entire affair was creditable in the highest degree to the enterprising Mozart Lodge, whose present officers are as follows:—W. M., Joseph H. Livingston: S. W., John Ritter; J. W., S. Warner Young; Treasurer, L. C. Musselman; Musical Director, Charles R. Dodworth.

-Last evening, after the usual drill of the Sir Knights belonging to St. John's Com-mandery, No. 4, had taken place at their drill-room, northeast corner of Eighth and Callowhill streets, a committee of Sir Knights belonging to Hudson River Commandery No. 35, and stationed at Newburg, N. Y., and consisting of the following gentlemen:—G. Fred. Wiltsie, Past Emisent Commander of Hudson River Commandery; Robert C. Bancroft, Captain-General of Hudson River Commandery; and Thomas W. Purdy, Joseph H. H. Chapman, Arthur W. Wiltsie, Harry C. Duncan, and C. Frank Brown, members of the commandery named—were introduced, and after an interchange of courtesies, Sir Knight G. Fred. Wiltsie, on behalf of Hudson River Commandery, presented to St. John's Commandery a beautifully engrossed and magnificently framed set of resolutions, which set forth an acknowledgment of the kindness extended and cordial reception awarded to Hudson River Commandery, on the occasion of the long-to-be-remembered semicentennial anniversary of St. John's Commandery in this city, on the 15th of June, 1869. The handsome present was received, on behalf of St. John's Commandery, by Sir Charles L. Hale, Eminent Commander of No. 4, in a few appropriate remarks, after which the visiting Sir Knights were invited to partake of an elegant repast, and the evening was spent in social and fraternal enjoyment.

Domestic Affairs.

-Gold closed yesterday at 112. -A number of postal changes were made in this State yesterday.

—The President has nominated Judge Bond for the United States Circuit Court, Maryland

District, in place of Pearre, whom the Senate would not confirm. Judge Bond has every qualification for the position.

—The discussion of the tariff yesterday developed new strength in the House for that important measure.

-Mr. Tanner proposed to the House yesterday that a portrait of the late General Thomas be painted and placed in the Capitol. -The House bill to allow whisky to remain in bond over one year will be killed in the Senate, it is said, through Delano's influence. —Senator Sherman will call up the ob-noxious Income tax bill to-day, by which means he hopes to extend this bad law indefi-

-An unsuccessful effort was made yesterday, in the House, to get from the table Mr. Ingersoll's bill for a new railroad to New

-A scheme for the management of the State Treasury has been agreed to by both branches of the Legislature.

—The bill requiring payment of the interest on the State debt in coin has been amended in the House so as simply to authorize specie payments. -Mr. Julian, the introducer of the woman suffrage amendment, has been defeated in the primary election in the Fourth Indiana —The bill authorizing counties and cities to decide by a popular vote whether liquor shops shall be licensed within their limits, has been killed in the Legislature. -Governor Geary vetoed the General Appropriation bill because it contained no provision for vouchers from persons receiving public funds for charitable purposes. This objection was removed by the Legislature, and the bill again passed. -Mr. Wood has submitted to the House a series of charges against General Howard for his conduct of the Freedmen's Bureau. The matter has been referred to the Committee on Education and Labor. The General, on the first intimation by Mr. Wood of his charges, challenged an investigation.

Foreign Affairs. -Mr. P. Roque is the newly appointed Minister from Greece to the United States. -Mr. Leary Brown, it is said, has been appointed by the Chinese Government to succeed the late Mr. Burlingame.

ANTHRACITE.

The Beginning of the Anthracite Coal Trade. A correspondent, the Hon. H. B. Wright, of Wilkesbarre, Pa., writes as follows to the New York Tribune:-

I wish, through you, to vindicate history as to the commencement of the anthracite coal trade. The statistical tables heretofore published represent the coal trade as beginning in 1820, with a shipment that year of 120 tons by the Lehigh and Delaware rivers to Philadelphia. I inclose you herewith an Account Current of Messrs. Price, Waterbury & Co , of New York of February 1, 1813, with Messrs. Abijah Smith & Co., of Plymouth, in this county, five miles below Wilkesbarre, I having the receipts of two cargoes of coal, its sale, and the names of the purchasers. The coal descended the Susquehanna, in arks, to Baltimore, and thence by sea to New York. As this Account Current is an ancient paper, and contains the names of some of the early New York merchants, I hope you may have the space to publish it entire.

Abijah and John Smith, from Bridgeport, Conn., were the pioneers of the coal trade. They came to this valley in 1808, and from that time they yearly mined and sent coal to market till their respective deaths. Abijah died probably about 1826, and John several years afterward. I knew them both well; and, for the first two years after coming here, they boarded with my father, who resided near their mines. One of the same mines I now own.

The mineral, in their deeds of purchase, is described as "pots of coal." While coal had been used here for smith purposes, before 1808, it had not been sent elsewhere. Judge Jesse Fell of this place is entitled to the merit, that same year, of the discovery of burning it in a grate without an air blastand that same grate is still to be seen here.

You will thus see the commencement of the coal trade was some time before 1820, as the present tables exhibit. I address this note to you, knowing as well as appreciating your care and attention in selecting and preserving statistics of the trade, business, and general events of the country, and in the hope that so important a matter as the coal trade may be properly registered, I am, sir, your very obedient.

HENDRICK B. WRIGHT.

WILEESBARRE, Penna., March 23, 1870. NEW YORK, Feb., 1812.—Messrs. Abijah Smith & co.—Gentiemen:—Having lately taken a view of the co. -tentement: -naving analy taken a view of the business we have been conducting for you this sometime past, we have thought it would be gratifying to have the account forwarded, and therefore present you with a summary of it up to the 18th January, 1813, containing, first, the quantity of coal sold and to whom; second, the amount of cash paid by us from time to time; third, the amount of integet cash, on the previous sums advanced the rest, cash, on the previous sums advanced, the credit of interest on sums received; and, lastly, the quantity of coal remaining on hand unsold. Should you on the receipt of this find any of the items incorrect, we need hardly observe that the knowledge of such an errer will be corrected with the greatest pleasure. As it respects our future place of procedure, we shall expect to see one of your concern in the city some time in the spring, when a new arrangement may be fixed upon. Our endeavors to establish the character of the coal shall not at any time be wanting, and we calculate shortly to dispose of the remaining parcels of coal
