MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC.

The City Ammements AT THE CHESTUT a large audience was in attendance last evening to witness the performance of The Field of the Cloth of Gold by the burlesque company headed by the lively Mrs. J. A. Oates. This piece had such a long and successful run when it was produced at the Chesnut last season, that the public are familiar with its characteristics, and it is not necessary for us to go into particulars with regard to it. The burlesque itself is neither better nor worse than some others that have been brought out in this city of late, but the filling in is more attractive, and it makes a first-rate variety performance. The present troupe is a good one, but some of the performers who established themselves in the favor of the public last season are not equalled by the new comers. The vari-as features, however, that are introduced, such the Leon gymnasts, the cow-bell ringers, the burlesque "Japs," the "tumbleronicon" man, and others, aid in exciting laughter and applause. The troupe contains a number of excellent vocalists, and the singing is more than usually good.

The Field of the Cloth of Gold will be repeated

AT THE WALNUT Mr. W. H. Bailey will have benefit this evening, when Old Heads and Young Hearts and Jonathan Bradford will be performed. Mr. Charles Reed will recite Patrick Henry's oration; Mr. Joe Mortimer will given a banjo solo; and Mr. Bailey will sing "The Old Deitcher Gentleman." Mr. Bailey is an excellent actor, and we hope that his benefit will be

To-morrow evening Mr. T. J. Hemphill, the business manager, will present his claims to the favorable notice of the public. London Assurance will be followed by a song in character by Mr. Chapman, entitled "The Tectotal Society," and the performance will conclude with The Serious Family. Mr. Hemphill has been an efficient caterer for the amusement of the public, and the success of the Walnut under his management is an assurance that his efforts are appreciated by the public. We hope that he will have a crowded house to-morrow.

On Thursday Mr. Simon Hassler will present a first-rate bill of attractions for his benefit, on which occasion his numerous friends will of course turn out in full force.

Mr. Lewis Morrison's benefit is announced for

Saturday. AT THE ARCH Frou-Frou will be performed this evening.

OLE BULL will give a grand concert at the Academy of Music this evening, when a first-rate programme will be presented. It is not often that the Philadelphia public have an opportunity to hear a performance by this great violinist, and this concert will doubtless attract a full house. Mr. Bull will be assisted by Miss Hattle Saf-ford, Mr. William Macdonald, and Mr. Edward Hoffman.

AT THE ELEVENTH STREET OPERA HOUSE a variety of comic and sentimental songs, interspersed by dances and burlesques, will be given

AT DUPREZ & BENEDICT'S OPERA HOUSE the irresistible Hunky-Dory will be withdrawn after this week, so that it should receive attention at

NEEDS INVESTIGATION.—The police of the Seventeenth district have concluded to report to the Board of Health as a nuisance the premises No. 628 Alaska street. Within the past three weeks no less than four persons have died suddenly therein, the last death being that of one George Franks, which occurred about 7 o'clock last evening. The poor degraded creatures who infest this neighborhood look upon the particular den named with a sort of holy horror. Some of them state that a disease has been engendered from a late Almshouse inmate dying the den from a fever which she contracted. Others assert that the deaths are the result of a disease known as the "relapsing fever." Whether these statements are true or not re mains to be seen. That the Board of Health should act speedily we think the above facts

HOUSE ROBBER CAPTURED.—On the 22d of February last, theiresidence of a Mrs. O'Donnell, on Thirty-first street, near Oxford, was cutered and robbed of a lot of silverware, wearing apparel, etc. Suspicion pointed strongly to two parties, one of whom, Robert Flood, alias Hackett, vas arrested, tried and convicted for the deed The other party managed to keep out of the way until yesterday, when he was captured at Thirteenth and Callowhill streets, by Officer Mc-Garry. The prisoner's name is James Dowdel he is also known by the aliases Butcher and Reddy. This afternoon he will be given a hearing before Alderman Kerr at the Central Station.

THE ANNUAL ELECTION for officers of the Grand Lodge, I. O. of O. F., of Pennsylvania, now being held in the different lodges of this State, and attracts more than ordinary attention. The leading candidates are:—For M. W. G. Master, John B. Springer, of No. 127; For R. W. D. G. Master, Alfred Slack, of No. 241; for R. Warden, Isaac A. Sheppard, of No. 229; for R. W. G. Secretary, James B. Nicholson, of No. 100; for R. W. G. Treasurer, M. Richards Muckle, of No. 46; for R. W. G. R. G. L. U. S., Robert A. Lamberton, of No. 160.

A WIFE BEATER .- Henry Kelly resides on Ablgail street, below Trenton avenue. Yesterday Henry succeeded in obtaining enough of the called whisky to deprive him of his small share of common sense. Returning home, he commenced smashing tables, doors, etc., and finally attempted to smash the head of his wife. The cries of the poor woman attracted the attention of a police officer, who took Henry before Alderman Heins, by whom he was held in $500 bail to answer.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY. - Some three or four nights ago a chap well known to our police force, named John McGeary, attacked a stranger in Acorn alley and robbed him of his gold watch. The case was at once reported to the Fifth dis trict force, and a warrant issued for the arrest of the culprit. Last night McGeary was captured at Ninth and Locust streets. He will have a hearing to-day before Alderman Kerr, at the Central Station.

LECTURES .- On Thursday evening next Senator Revels, of Mississippi, will lecture at Horti-cultural Hall on "The Press." Miss Olive Logan will repeat her lecture on

"Girls," by request, at the Academy of Music on Saturday afternoon.

Tickets for both of these lectures can be had at Gould's, No. 923 Chesnut street

MALICIOUS MISCHIEF .- An individual named William Lawrence was arrested yesterday at Eighth and Chesnut streets by one of the Reserve squad, and taken before Alderman Quirk, where a charge of drunkenness and malicious mischlef was preferred against him. He was ARRESTED ON SUSPICION.—Alderman Bonsall has committed to prison for a trial at court a youth named Michael Duffy, residing at Twelfth and Fulton streets, on the suspicion of having robbed one Rose McCaulley, who keeps a stall in S. Eleventh Street Market, of $180.

THE GUILLOTINE.

The Adjournment of the Logislature Again starts the Machinery.

The axe has again been set in motion by Mayor Fox, and the fortunate Republicans who have thus far held their offices through the "impending Metropolitan Police bill," may receive, and are now momentarily expecting, their "ticket of leave." This morning George Callanan, a detective officer, who has served the interests of the city under the various administration well and city under the various administrations well and falthfully for the last twenty-five years, was notified that his services were no longer required.

This action will add nothing to the credit of Mayor Fox. Mr. Callanan is long and favorably known to almost all our bankers and banking institutions, and has done more to prevent rob-beries in this particular line than any other officer on the force. He has now reached an advanced age, and to turn him out to battle with the world ise omething for which he is not prepared.

The secret of this movement is this, James J Flaherty, who keeps a drinking saloon at Eleventh and Locust streets, a good working Democrat, and a member of the Eighth Ward Executive Committee, has been striving night and day to supplant Licutenant Campbell. Licutenant Campbell is also a good worker, politically, and to remove him would only have raised a counter-fight. A compromise was therefore fixed on, and Mr. Callanan was removed to make way for Mr. Campbell, and thus Mr. Flaherty becomes Lieutenant of the Fifth Police District If Mr. Campbell the detective is to be judged of by the actions of Mr. Campbell the police lieutenant, then Chief Kelly has no reason to be proud of his new subordinate.

THE PROSSER CASE .- Yesterday afternoon, before Alderman Heins, a further hearing was held in the case of Thomas Prosser, who was stabbed on Saturday night last, by Otto Brandenburg, at the latter's residence, Marshall street, above Dauphin.

Meredith M. Jones, resident physician at St. Mary's Hospital, testified that Proseer was carried to the Hospital about one o'clock on Sunday morning, exhausted from the loss of blood from three wounds, one of which was on the right side, below the nipple, another a little to the left of the median line of the chest, and the third still more to the left and lower; at 1 o'clock yesterday he began to spit blood, which shows a probability of internal hemorrhage; it is supposed the ling is penetrated, as there is an escape of air whenever the region is pressed; he is still in a very critical condition, and although no one of the wounds is necessarily fatal, the man is in danger of dying; he would be enabled to express a surer opinion in four or five days; the wound he thought was made by a pen-knife, or a knifelike dagger. Officer Bird testified that he had arrested Brandenburg, and that the prisoner had acknowledged the committal of the deed.

Robert Brocklehurst, residing at No. 1933 ermantown avenue, testified that he was with Prosser when they went to Mr. Brandenburg's house; they were both in liquor; the first time they went they were told by Mrs. Brandenburg that her husband was out, and they came away; they went back again; Brandenburg was in, and he and Prosser commenced talking in German; then Prosser struck Brandenburg, and he pushed Prosser out; he (Brocklehurst) tried to keep Presser from going back, but he would return; on going in the third time Brandenburg stabbed him, and also cut him (Brocklehurst); no gun was produced; he did not see Mrs. Brandenburg

Upon this the Alderman held the prisoner for a further hearing to await the result of the wounded man's injuries. This morning Proseer was about in the same condition, he having changed neither for better

FROM WASHINGTON.

A Little Colfax.

Despatch to the Am WASHINGTON, April 12 .- Vice-President Colfax, who became a father yesterday, was to-day congratulated by many Senators and their friends on the addition of a son to his family.

Governor Senter, of Tennessee, was again before the Committee on Reconstruction to-day. His testimony about affairs in that State was to the effect that it was necessary, in order to preserve the peace, that he should be aided by the Federal forces.

A. E. Boon will be the next witness. He claims to have been an ex-Confederate officer, but is now a Republican, and asserts that while a candidate for office his friends were prevented from voting for him, and that he was obliged to flee to Nashville.

The Corham Case. The committee of the Senate Republican cancus appointed to take testimony in regard to the personal charges against Secretary Gorham, brought by Senator Cole, reported to an adjourned meeting this morning, and in accordance with their instructions made no recommendations, but read to the caucus the evidence and various statements of the parties concerned in the controversy, including a written defense filed by Mr. Johnson at the conclusion of the latter. The hour of 12 arrived and the caucus adjourned until to-morrow, when final action on the matter is expected.

The Yarn Spinners. Representatives Hoar, Brooks, Davies, and other gentlemen of Massachusetts were before the Committee of Ways and Means to-day in behalf of the yarn-spinners of that State, remonstrating against admitting machinery free of duty for one year. The committee did nothing with the Funding bill.

Rieting in the Key West Squadren. Commander Irwin, of the Yantic, reports to the Navy Department from Key West, April 3, that John Gibney, ordinary seaman of that vessel, was killed on shore on the night of the 2d instant. Also, that Edward Kelly and Richard Keegan, of the crew, were wounded.

It seems that a few of the men had been given an evening of liberty, and Kelly and Shaw, another of the crew, became engaged in a fight. Gibney and Keegan attempted to separate them, when Shaw drew a razor with which he killed Gibney and wounded Keily and Keegan. Shaw was arrested by the civil authorities, by whom he is held for trial.

Naval Orders. Captain George B. Balch is ordered to navigation duty at the Washington Navy Yard; Commander John Walters is ordered to duty as assistant to the executive officer in the Department of Yards and Docks, New York Navy Yard; Lieutenant-Commander Charles Mc Gregor is ordered to signal duty at Washington; Lientenant Francis Gore to duty at the Boston Navy Yard; Assistant Paymaster E. CONGRESS.

FORTY-FIRST TERM-SECOND SESSION.

Washington, April 12.—Mr. Cragin, from the Committee on Territories, reported with amendments the House bill in aid of the execution of the laws in the Territory of Utah in relation to polygamy, etc., and moved to make it the special order for Mor day next, but objection being made the motion was not acted upon.

Mr. Sawyer, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported favorably a bill for the payment of claims of loyal persons who assisted in taking the census of 1850 in the late Rebel States. At 12:30 the Senate took up a resolution for a joint Committee on Indian Affairs, and Mr. Morrill (VL), moved to postpone indefinitely.

He could see no more reason for a joint Committee on Indian Affairs than upon finance or any other

Mr. Sumner remarked that the consideration of Mr. Summer remarked that the consideration of the resolution over and over again, without definite action, reminded him of porpoises in the ocean who appeared and reappeared at systematic intervals; or of degs on the Nile who ran along and took a lap of water here and there, a little at a time, for fear of the crocodiles. He would not say, however, there were crocodiles in the Senate.

Mr. Davis opposed the proposition as an approach

Mr. Howard moved the special order be passed over in order to proceed with the Northern Paciac Mr. Trumbull thought the case of Georgia required immediate settlement.
Mr. Howard's motion was rejected; yeas, 29,

The Georgia bill was then proceeded with. Mr. Stevenson, from the Committee on Elections, called up the Louisiana contested election case of Hunt against Sheldon. He said that Louisiana was represented by but one member, and it was necessary to decide this case in order to bring up the other cases from that State.

Mr. Schenck, of Ohio, objected to its being considered at present, in view of the pressing public business. The question was whether the House would consider it now, and it was decided in the affirmative.

Mr. Stevenson yielded to Mr. McCrary, who intro-duced a bil! declaring so much of the Iowa river, in Iowa, is lies north of the town of Wapello, not to be a navigable or public highway. After explanation

Mr. Bingham, from the Judiciary Committee, reported back the bill to provide for holding annual terms of the United States Circuit and District Courts for the Northern District of New York at Elmira, on the third Tuesday of September. Passed.

The House then (12-30) proceeded to the consideration of the Leuisiana contested election case of Huntagainst Sheldon, the majority report being that Mr. Sheldon, the sitting member, is entitled to retain his seat, and the minority being that the contestant, Mr. Hunt, is entitled to it.

Mr. Stevenson, who made the majority eport, addressed the House is advocacy of it.

Special Despatch to The Evening Telegraph. WASHINGTON, April 13.

Secretary Boutwell returned this morning from New York. He reports a satisfactory condition of the money market in Wall street, and says he noticed that there is a great scarcity of bulls and bears. The Geographical Society of New York has forwarded to Congress a series of resolutions recommending that if any expedition to the Arctic regions is fitted out, Dr. Hayes shall be placed in command of it. Dr. Hayes was before the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations to-day, and made some further statements about the proposed expedition. Governor Senter, of Tennessee, completed his evidence before the Reconstruction Committee to-day. He stated that it was absolutely impossible for him to enforce the laws, except he could get militia, and told the committee that, whatever action they took relative to reconstructing the State, he hoped they would make some provision for the militia independent of the State Legislature. The committee does not propose to take any further evidence with regard to Tennessee, but will now proceed to frame a bill to meet the requirements of the loyal people of that State.

Mr. Wilson withdrew his amendment to make way for a future amendment by Mr. Williams to Mr. Pomeroy's amendment, fixing the election for members of the General Assembly on the Tuesday after the first Monday of November, 1872, and prohibiting any change in the clause of the State Constitution allowing the Legislature to change the time of election by which the term of any office shall be extended beyond the regular period named therein; also requiring the consent of the Legislature to this legislation before it can take effect.

Mr. Tipton then addressed the Senate.

He held that Georgia had already been declared admitted to the Union, that the withdrawal of the military, the turning over of the Government to the civil authorities, and the wimission of Representatives from that State to 4 is in the House at the last session were proofs on the fact. All that the last session were proofs of the fact. All that was now necessary was for the Sanators from Georgia to come forward and take their seats. He attributed the present complication to the ambitious disigns of disappointed office seekers who came before Congress in the hope of furthering their schemes.
