THE GEORGIA BILL.

The Senate in Session Until 2.15 This Morning-Astoption of Pomeroy's Substitute-Final Passage of the Bill. WASHINGTON, April 19 .- At five o'clock

P. M. the Senate took a recess until half-past seven P.M.

The Georgia bill was then proceeded with, and Mr. Schurz resumed his remarks, and read from a private letter from a Georgia correspondent, that while the colored people were occasionally maltreated, it was untrue that it was caused by disloyalty to the Gov-ernment. That if Governor Bullock's party was continued in office the whole busine prosperity of Georgia would be prostrated, and that the people regarded the Bingham amendment as necessary to preserve their business interests, and for no partisan pur-

Mr. Trumbull closed the debate in a speech of three hours. He said that public meetings bad been held in Washington, and Congress instructed as to its duty. At one of these meetings a member of the Senate harangued the crowd, declaring the Bingham amend-ment atrocious, and that having been accustomed during the war to reconnoitre the lines of the enemy, he had reconnoitred the Senata, and could predict the certain defeat of the amendment; that the radical column had been reinforced by the Senator from Mississippi (Ames) and two votes from Texas. Had this person approached these Senators before their admission and ascertained how their votes would be cast upon the bill?

Mr. Trumbull went on to denounce the species of electioneering resorted to in regard to a measure of legislation deserving of calm and patient consideration.

Mr. Trumbull's closing remarks were fol-lowed by applause in the galleries, which the Chair promptly suppressed. At twenty minutes past eleven o'cleck P.
M. the Senate proceeded to vote upon the pending amendment to strike out the Bingham provision and insert a proviso extending the term of the Legislature until 1872. Mr. Pomeroy moved to amend Mr. Wilson's amendment by substituting therefor his amendment declaring the existing government of Georgia provisional, constituting it the Third Military District, and providing for an election for a Legislature on November

Mr. Pomeroy's substitute was agreed toyeas, 35; nays, 24. Cameron, Gilbert, and Chandler, against the amendment, were paired off with Bayard, Vickers, and Conkling, in favor of it. The question then being on inserting the amendment of Mr. Williams, amended by Mr. Pomeroy, in place of the Bingham amend-ment in the bill, involving the striking out of the latter provision, it was determined affirmatively-yeas, 36; nays, 23.

The bill was therefore amended as pro-Mr. Wilson moved to postpone the consideration of the bill indefinitely. Lost-yeas.

3; nays, 39. Mr. Nye congratulated the Democratic side upon having voted solidly to put Georgia back under military rule. Mr. Drake offered an amendment authorizing the President to suppress domestic violence, to suspend the writ of habeas corpus, and to make municipalities responsible in damages for injuries to persons or property within their limits and not suppressed by them. Rejected—yeas, 30; nays, 31.

Mr. Drake renewed the amendment, omitting the part relative to the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus within the limits of municipalities. Adopted-yeas, 32; nays, 26. Messrs. Trumbull and Edmunds expressed the opinion that the suspension of the writ was included, and Mr. Edmunds moved to add the words, "that nothing in this act shall be construed to authorize such suspension."

Rejected-yeas, 29; nays, 30. Mr. Pomeroy offered an amendment repealing certain laws so as to permit the organization and calling into service the militia of the State of Georgia. Agreed to by a party vote-yeas, 48;

The bill was then read a third time and passed—yeas, 27; nays, 25, as follows:—
Yeas—Messrs. Ames, Anthony, Buckingham, Carpenter, Cole, Corbett, Cragin, Edmunds, Ferry, Hamlin, Howe, Kellogg, Morrill (Me.), Morrill (Vt.), Patterson, Pomeroy, Pool, Pratt, Ross, Sawyer, Schurz, Scott, Sherman, Tipton, Trumbull, Warner, and

Willey-27. Nays-Messrs. Boreman, Chandler, Drake, Fenton, Flanagan, Fowler, Hamilton (Texas), Harris, Howard, Howell, McDonald, Morton, Nye, Osborn, Ramsey, Revels, Rice, Spencer, Stewart, Sumner, Thayer, Trumbull, Williams, Wilson, and Yates-25.
