THE DAILY EVENING TELEGRAPH-PHILADELPHIA, THURSDAY, APRIL 21, 1870.

NEWS SUMMARY.

City Affairs.

-The Sanitary Committee of the Board of Health paid an official visit yesterday to Alaska, Baker, Spatford, and St. Mary streets, and the surrounding courts and alleys, for the purpose of ascertaining the condition of this locality, in order to adopt such measures as will secure the health of the residents and prevent any contagious disease from breaking The committee found much abject out. poverty existing there, and traced it in most cases to the free use of intoxicating liquors. They ordered the owners of several houses to have the wells cleaned and the houses whitewashed.

-Daniel Watts, a colored man, residing in Flower street, has been arrested and committed by Alderman Bonsall on the charge of committing an assault upon H. M. Shisler, a gardener, residing on Moyamensing road, near Buck road. Mr. Shisler alleges that Watts has been employed by him for some months, and on Saturday evening a dispute arose respecting some money, when Watts seized a large fork and ran at him, plunging it in his neck, piercing the windpipe, causing three serious wounds in the neck.

-Mr. Jacob Binder, the President of the Second and Third Streets Railway, received a painful though not serious injury yesterday afternoon. He got aboard the Washington through train at New Brunswick, N. Upon approaching Frankford Mr. Binder jumped from the train, but its velocity was so great that he was thrown upon the track. Happily he made his jump from the rear ear, or more serious results might have followed. As it was his forehead was badly contused and his lips were both cut through, beside being considerably bruised about the body. After being removed to his residence at No. 922 Marshall street, his wounds were dressed by Dr. Levis.

-Last night about half-past 11 o'clock the Coroner was notified to hold an inquest on the body of Margaret Connell, sixty years of age, who was found dead on the stairs of her residence, Washington street, above Hipple, Manayunk. It was thought that death was the result of apoplexy. ---The property holders on Darby avenue, or Woodland street, upon which public lamps have been placed, have been notified of the passage of an ordinance requiring them to grade, curb, and pave the sidewalks upon both sides of said street from the city line to Thirty-ninth street, within thirty days.

only to adjourn. General Terry opposes any session while the Georgia bill is pending.

-Further particulars are to hand of the terrible storm at Buenos Ayres, from which it appears there was a great loss of life and immense destruction of property.

-The Senatorial investigation into the alleged attempt to bribe certain Senators to vote against the Georgia bill ended yesterday rather abruptly. The charges were without a particle of foundation.

-An interesting report has been received in Washington from General Sully respecting the Montana Indians. Concerning the talkedof hostilities, the General says he does not think the Indians themselves know what they will do.

-News has been received of the missing steamship Sirius.

-The threatened labor strikes have commenced in Paris in good earnest.

-The plebiscitum was discussed at length in the French Senate yesterday and adopted.

-Prim and Romero were charged, in the Cortes yesterday, with causing the recent outbreak at Barcelona.

-Excitement respecting the plebiscitum is increasing in France. The vote is to be taken on the 8th of May.

-Proceedings have been commenced against a Sheffield paper for asserting that the Prince of Wales would soon reappear in the Divorce Court.

MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC.

The City Amusements.

THE ITALIAN OPERA.-This evening, at the Academy of Music, Signor Brignoli will commence his opera season with Donizetti's opera of Lucia di Lammermoor. Signor Brignoli still maintains his pre-eminence as the finest tenor before the public, and he will be sure of a cor-dial reception from the public of Philadelphia when he appears on this occasion.

To-morrow evening Il Trovatore will be given. with Madame Gazzaniga, for the first time, in the role of "Azucena." This artist has many superiors as a singer, but she is without disput the greatest actress on the lyric stage. As the gipsy "Azucena" she will have a fine opportu-nity to display her powers to advantage, and with so popular an opera as Trovatore a large gathering of opera-goers may be expected to-morrow example. morrow evening.

Morrow evening. AT THE CHESSUT The Field of the Cloth of Gold will be performed this evening. AT THE WALNUT the drama of The Emerald Ring will be presented this evening, with Mr. and Mrs. Barney Williams in the leading parts. AT THE ARCH Much Ado About Nothing and the farce of The Good for Nothing are announced for this evening.

for this evening.

AT THE ELEVENTH STREET OPERA HOUSE "Shoo Fly" will be heard no more after the present week; consequently advantage should be aken of the remaining opportunities. AT DUPREZ & BENEDICT'S OPERA HOUSE Dougherty will deliver his great stump speech on the fifteenth amendment this evening. THE PANORAMA OF "THE PLORIM" will be exhibited this evening at Concert Hall for the benefit of the African U. M. E. Church.

The SENTZ-HASSLER ORCHESTRA will give a matinee on Saturday at Musical Fund Hall. Miss CAROLINE MCCAPPREY will give a grand vocal concert to-morrow evening at Musi-cal Fund Hall. Miss McCaffrey, as all our readers are aware, is an accomplished artist, readers are aware, is an accompliance artis, and, with the fine programme prepared for the occasion, a most enjoyable entertainment may be expected. Miss McCaffrey will be assisted by Mrs. Susan Galton-Kelleher, Miss Helen Mc-Caffrey, Mr. George Simpson, Mr. J. R. Thomas, and Mr. W. G. Dietrich.
