

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

INQUIRY IN THE LATE HOMICIDE CASE.—Yesterday afternoon Coroner Taylor commenced an investigation into the circumstances attending the death of John Boyle, who died at the St. Mary's Hospital on Tuesday morning last.

A number of witnesses were examined, and the evidence showed that on the Friday night previous Boyle was set upon by a number of men and beaten at Beach and Laurel streets. After the disturbance Boyle was found lying on the railroad track on Frankford road, above Laurel street.

This morning the inquest was continued to hear the testimony of Dr. Shapleigh, which was to the effect that the Doctor made a post-mortem examination of the body of the deceased at St. Mary's Hospital on the 19th instant; he found both eyes blackened, and there were abrasions over the forehead, both eyes, and bridge of the nose; also, a large bruise extending over the forehead and upper part of the face; on dissecting he found effused blood under the scalp, the scalp being loosened from the skull; the membranes were inflamed and watery effusion at the base of the brain; the orbital parts and the ethmoid bone were fractured.

The jury retired and rendered a verdict as follows: That the said John Boyle came to his death by violence (blows on the head) received at the hands of Thomas Tugman, Francis McBride, and Patrick McFarland on the night of the 15th instant, at Frankford road and Laurel street.

LOCAL ODDS AND ENDS.—It is rumored that Representative Davis engineered the movement by which the bill for the collection of unpaid taxes was prevented being brought before the House. He is a candidate for re-nomination.

—The rosters were out in force yesterday afternoon. —Sam Joseph has always been in favor of the negroes voting! At least so he says. —The O'Byrne, on reading the recent resolutions of the Leech portion of the Democratic City Executive Committee, exclaimed, "Ephraim is joined to his idols; let him alone."

—The impurities in the Park are going on rapidly for Philadelphia. —Representative Smith, of Harrisburg, is anxious for a biographical sketch in a Philadelphia newspaper. —"Bribe Inspector" Dalley wants to be returned to legislative halls.

BURGALRY.—The residence of a Mr. Betts, No. 2017 Ogden street, was robbed on Sunday night last of a lot of silverware and jewelry. It appears that Mr. Betts and family left the residence on Saturday for the purpose of visiting some relatives in the country, and directed their servant to take up a temporary residence with a friend. The latter, instead of so doing, gathered a party of friends to the house, and held high carnival. Two of them have been arrested on suspicion, and committed to prison by Alderman Kerr. Their names are Amelia Genter and Annie Elfricht. One George Briener, who constituted one of the party, and who, it appears, stated to some one that he intended to rob the house, is yet at large, but the officers are on his track.

FEMALE DEPRAVITY.—Emma Weaver yesterday met a female at Coates street, and engaged in conversation with her. Emma stated to her new-found friend that if she would advance $1 she (Emma) would show her a sight. The stranger handed Emma a $2 bill, when the latter conducted her to a house, and held high carnival. The stranger not relishing the turn of affairs, remonstrated, when Emma kicked her into the street. A warrant was then procured and Emma was arrested and taken before Alderman Becker, who held her in $1000 bail to answer.

FAREWELL SERVICES.—The Rev. J. W. Bonham having resigned the rectoryship of the Bishop's Free Church in Philadelphia, on Easter Sunday preached his closing sermons to large congregations. By his urgent request Bishop Stevens has appointed a successor, for whom Mr. Bonham requested a cordial and hearty welcome. A difficulty having been removed, the increasing congregation have the ability to sustain a first-class Protestant Episcopal church. The Rev. E. Owen Simpson will commence his labors on Sunday, April 24.

SUICIDE.—About 5 o'clock this morning an officer of the Third District Police was notified that a man was lying dead in a wood-yard at Dock street wharf. The officer at once proceeded to the spot, and found that the man had committed suicide. He was found propped against a pile of wood, and his head nearly severed from his body. His face was also fearfully gashed, and near him lay his weapon, a small knife covered with blood. In his pocket was found a receipt signed T. J. Thompson, Western Hotel, Dec. 25, 1869.

A WANDERING JUVENILE.—About 3 o'clock this morning the officers of the Seventeenth district found a lad, who gives his name as Jos. Barker, wandering through the streets. On being questioned, he said that he had run off from his uncle on account of ill-treatment by his father, and that he had been made for the latter officer he stated that he had run away from his father. On his person were found powder, shot, and a revolver. He was remanded into custody until his parents can be notified.

PRESENTATION.—This morning Sergeant O'Hara, late of the Ninth district force, was presented with a handsome silver-mounted revolver by the members of the squad he commanded. The Sergeant has been transferred to the Eighth district, and the gift was intended to show the esteem in which the men of the Ninth held him.

THE ACTIVE BALL.—The annual ball of the United States Active Association will come off on Monday evening next, at Washington Hall. Great preparations are being made for this affair, and as the arrangements are in the hands of gentlemen of taste and experience, a most enjoyable entertainment may be expected.

WOOD PAVING.—The contractors for the Stow wooden pavement, at the request of the Citizens Association, this morning commenced taking up a portion of the pavement laid by them last in front of the Custom House in order to demonstrate how easily such a pavement can be repaired.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—Joseph Keenan, residing at No. 918 Gilbert street, employed in the manufactory of William C. Baker, Twelfth and Brown streets, yesterday fell through a hatchway, and sustained serious injuries. He was removed to his residence.

FAT VS. THIN.—The long-talked-of match of half ball between the Fat and Thin nine of the Keystone Base Ball Club will be played on the grounds of the Athletic Base Ball Club, Seventeenth and Columbia avenues, to-morrow. Several new players will make their debut on the fat nine.

FELL DOWN STAIRS.—David Swartz, residing at No. 1 Vincent street, on Monday night fell down stairs and sustained serious injuries.
