NEWS SUMMARY.

City Affairs.

-A strike occurred among the stevedores yesterday, the strikers demanding $4 per day.

—The journeymen oak coopers met last evening on Lombard street, above Second. Samuel Keefe, John Caton, and Evan Edwards were appointed delegates to the Cleveland Convention.

-The regular meeting of the Board of Guardians of the Poor was held vesterday afternoon at the Blockley Almshouse, President John M. Whitall in the chair. The usual routine of business was transacted.

-A lad fifteen years old was run over by a wagon yesterday, at Broad street and Columbia avenue, and severely injured. James Young, the driver of the team, was arrested and held for an investigation.

-A meeting of the Celtic Association was held at their rooms last night to complete arrangements for the mass meeting proposed to be held with reference to the grievances of the Irish people. A committee was appointed to secure the Academy of Music. -The stock vote taken to decide whether the Mercantile Library should be opened on Sunday was completed last evening, and the result was as follows:-Whole number of votes cast, 3306; in favor of the opening, 1830; against it, 1476; majority for the measure, 354.

—A game of base ball was played yester-day afternoon at Seventeenth street and Columbia avenue, between the Athletics of this city and the Maryland Club, of Balti-The Athletics were victorious, the score being 34 for the Athletics and 16 for the Maryland Club. There was a large attendance.

—A meeting of the Finance Committee of Councils was held last night. The sureties of John L. Hill, as Collector of Delinquent Taxes, were approved. The contract for the erection of a Morgue, at a cost of $2500, was also approved, and the ordinance for the erection of a bridge over the Reading Railroad at Broad street was agreed to. The ordinance creating a loan for the improve-ment of the Park and the paving of Broad street was postponed for two weeks.

-A meeting of citizens of the Fourteenth ward was held last night in the hall, at Thirteenth and Spring Garden streets, James Winters presiding. Addresses were made by Isaiah C. Wears, Major A. R. Calhoun, Captain William Curry, and others. A banner was presented by the white citizens to the colored citizens of the ward. It was made of white merino, bordered by gilt fringe, and bearing a portrait of Hon. William D. Kelley, with the inscription "Friend of the Colored Man" surmounting it.

-The Fourth Annual Tournament of the Pennsylvania Billiard Congress was held last evening at the Assembly Building. The first game was played between Messrs. Hunter and McAleer; the former stood 100 and the latter 64. The second game was played between Messrs. Nelms and Doyle; the former stood 100, and the latter 32. There will be four games played to day, participated in by Messrs. Plunkett, Rockhill, McAleer, Doyle, Hunter, Nelms, and Palmer.

Domestic Affairs. -Gold closed yesterday at 113§.

-Mr. Covode, it seems, was not absent from the House on Friday night.

—The Big Horn expedition is to consist of a thousand men instead of five hundred, as at first proposed. -Postmaster-General Creswell wants the House Appropriation Committee to increase the item for clerks' hire and letter-carriers' salaries. -There is a strong probability of the passage of the bill providing for a free-water channel between the Mississippi and Lake Michigan. -Some important amendments in the Funding bill have been agreed to in Committee of Ways and Means, but their character has not been allowed to transpire.

-The Senate is making considerable progress with its calendar. After it is gone through with, the franking abolition bill will be taken up and amended. The House, it is thought, will not agree to these amendments, so the bill will fail.

-It is understood that the Senate Military Committee have substantially agreed to all the provisions of Mr. Wilson's bill, excepting those relating to officers' pay, on which subject a modification of the House bill schedule will probably be recommended. -Several other members were yesterday excused by the House for absence on Friday. On those not excused a fine of ten dollars each was imposed. General Schenck gave notice that in future he would move for a call at the commencement of every session.

Foreign Affairs.

-Violent quarrels have broken out in the Spanish Cabinet. —The Zollverein Parliament has completed its organization. -Victor Emanuel has recovered from a slight attack of scarlatina. -The constitution de fide has been unanimously adopted by the Œcumenical Council. -Captain Eyre is in London, seeking to have his certificate restored, on the ground of the inconclusiveness of the evidence against
