Signor Barili will be assisted by a number of his pupils and several eminent professional artists.

Incidentals.

-San Francisco papers report large receipts of strawberries, of tolerably good quality, but as yet undecided in flavor. — For twenty years California has been pro-ducing gold. silver, copper ore, hides, and other articles used in manufactures, transporting them to her seaports and sending them thence to New York, Boston, or Liverpool, to be manufactured and returned over the same thousands of miles, enhanced in cost very largely in addition to the expense of manufacture. Now California pro-poses to go into the business of manufacturing for herself.

A wise conclusion. -The St. Paul Press prints a long communi-cation from a lady who opposes female suffrage, and who, in her enthusiasm, breaks into parodic poetry at the close, of which the following tanza is a specimen:

"The vote that all are praising Is not the vote for me; Its claims are so amazing, I'd rather far be free. But there's a vote in vonder crib A baby vote, clear, shrill, and glib, That vote is worth the raising. And that's the vote for me Oh! that's the vote for me!'

-A letter from Jackson, Mississippi, to the Springfield Republican says: -"Two murders a week are our regular rations. Sometimes we have more, sometimes less. It depends on whether the whisky for the week is imported from Yazoo flats or from Vicksburg. As I came up into the city, near the corner of Pearl street, I saw two men with shot guns. I wondered what game there might be in the vicinity. Having reached the corner of the First National Bank, reached the corner of the First National Bank, however, I came suddenly upon a crowd of men who were watching these two gunners. From exclamations that were dropped as I passed through, I concluded that if those knights of the shot guns were waiting for bipeds, they were not feathered. They were indeed waiting for a man named Dalgreen to come out of a drug store. Sometimes these men miss fire. drug store. Sometimes these men miss fire that is why the street was drained of passengers as I came up."

NEW FACES .- Since we started our spring ball, and $10 all wood spring suits and 85 and 87 spring overcoats, be sides our old customers we see daily hundreds of new faces, attracted to our store by the wonderful display and the exceedingly low prices at which the beautiful stock is buing disposed of. All appear to appreciate the sconomical manner in which we manage our business, which enables us to accommodate the public on the low price principle. Remamber, a full supply of the $10 all wool spring suits to morrow. Call early, before the ROCENTLL & WILSON'S rush commences. BROWN STONE HALL, Nos. 603 and 605 Chesnut street.

TO SAVE MONEY and avoid delay, place all your orders for uphoistery work, such as putting down carpots, up-holstering and covering furniture, furniture slips, bedding, ourtains, shades, etc., in the hands of Albertson & Oo., Fifteenth and Chesnut, who make it a main feature of theirs to insure full and entire satisfaction to every customer.

MR. WILLIAM W. CASSIDY, the jeweller at No. 8 S. Second street, has one of the largest and most attractive stocks of all kinds of Jewelry and Silverware in the city. He has also on hand a large assortment of fine American Western Watches. This entire valuable stock is now being sold out below cost, preparatory to removal. Those who purchase at this store at the present time are certain to get the worth of their money.

DRY FEET .- The most effectual way of guarding one's health is to keep the feet dry, and that can only be done by the use of India Rubber Overshoes, and as the inclement season is upon us, we would advise our reader buy none but the best quality, which can only be had at GOODXEAR'S Headquarters, No. 308 Chemnut street, south side, Philadelphia,

CITY ITEMS.

Ohesnut street, last evening, attracted a good company, but, with very few exceptions, the prices realized were exceedingly low, and a majority of the works were sacrificed. The sale was conducted by Mr. B. Scott, Jr., with his customary skill, but the results were far more satisfactory to the purchasers than to the owner of the pictures. The following were some of the prices obtained :- No. 30, "Tiroli," by Oarl Jungheim, $265; No. 31, "View near Fmmettsburg," by George Hetzel, $67'50; No. 55, "View near Galaia," by G. W. Nicholson, $55; No. 84, "Evening Twilight," by O. Leichert, $70: No. 36, "Farm-yard and Cattle," by Van Marcke, $300; No. 39, "Austrian Pickets," by Christian Sell, $180; No. 41, "Highland Sheep and Shetland Ponies," by A. R. Jones, $295; Nos. 42 and 43, "St Quentin" and "St. Croce," by C. Kuwasegfils, Silu each; No. 44, "In the Forest of Fontainebleau, by Paul Weber, $450; No. 48, "The Farewell," by Otto Erlmann, $300: No. 53, "The Deserted Home," by J. O. Raton, $300: No. 56, "In the Tyrol," by Carl Millner, $350; "The Escort to the Bath" by W. Boulanger, $1500; No. 69, "Ponte Mamelon, near Rome," by O. Achen bach, $1900.

The balance of the paintings will be put up this evening, the sale to commence precisely at 7% o'clock. It should be remembered that this sale is positively without reserve, and that every work in the catalogue is to be dis-

THE THREE DYSPEPTICS .- Here is an extract from a letter received by Messrs. Drake & Co., November 2, 1869:-"Three friends must one day in the latter part of last September in the rotunda of the Astor House, Your correspondent was one of the three. We were all suffering from the 'national disease'-indigestion; and all agreed on one point, viz., that nothing agreed with ws. We discussed medicines. One had tried blue pills, another extract of dandelion, another almost every variety of purgatives. In fact, we had made apothecaries' shops our insides; but nothing had done us any good. I said I wondered if your PLANTATION BITTERS help us any. After some talk we concluded to try it, and meet again at the same place that day month, to com-pare notes. We did so. It was a jovial meeting, I can tell you. We scarcely knew one another. Each had gained flesh ; each reported a good appetite, sound sleep, an easy stomach, and a regular habit of body. The change was marvellous. It was agreed to report the facts to you and I was appointed to make this communication. You can publish it if you choose, and refer all skeptics for particulars to yours truly, t#"At a meeting of the Board of Managers of the Pennsylvania Institution for the Instruction of the Blind, held on Thursday, May 5, 1870, Vice-President John C. Cresson, Esq , in the chair, on motion of Dr. Caspar Morris the following resolutions were unanimously adopted :-

Resolved, That it is with the deepest feeling of affectionate regard for the memory of our late highly esteemed President, Franklin Peale, Esa, that the board has received information of his decease. During thirty-four years he had, by his indefatigable devotion to this institution and its pupils, manifested his interest in the welfare of the blind. and his desire to promote the objects for which we are associated, and as President of the Board discharged the duties of that post not only to the entire satisfaction of his colleagues, but in a manner which secured their grateful respect, proved the depth of his interest in the education of the blind, and promoted in an eminent degree the accomplishment of that object.

Resolved, That the Secretary of the board he directed to communicate to the family of Mr. Peale the expression of our sympathy in their sorrow and of our high esteem for the memory of our late respected President. Resoured, That this board, in a body, will attend on the occasion of the funeral services of our deceased friend.
