CITY INTELLIGENCE.

RAILWAY ACCIDENT.

Two Men Killed on the Camden and Amboy Railroad, near Camden, while Walking on the Track.

Two men were killed last evening on the Camden and Amboy Railroad, near the Fish House, above Camden Station. They were walking on the down track, and stepping off to get out of the way of a freight train, were struck by a passenger train going up the road. Both of them were instantly killed. From papers found on one of the unfortunate men, who was aged about thirty years, his name was ascertained to be Brown, and that he had previously been a Second Assistant Engineer on the United States steamers Water-Witch and Gertrude. Letters were found on him addressed to Lombard street, Baltimore. The other man was aged about forty, but nothing was found on his person which gave a clue to his name.

LOCAL ODDS AND ENDS.—There were a number of fine road horses on the Point Breeze drive yesterday afternoon.

—"Harry D." was the winner of the trot at Point Breeze yesterday.

—"Goldsmith Maid," the famous trotter, has been taken to New York.

—Plants have been placed in the urns surmounting the water fountains.

—The Moyamensing Hose Company is no more. Allah! Allah! Achbar!

—The Numismatic Society adjourned last night for the want of a quorum.

—Joseph A. Bonham, Esq., was serenaded last night by Beck's Philadelphia Band.

—The South Penn Hose excursionists leave on Monday next for their Eastern trip.

—Whoever saw a Quaker, other than the "Squire," attend, or offer a bet on, a horse race?

—Hetzell, of Common Council, is on the war path, and desires the scalps of the Highway Committee.

—Where has Henszey located his headquarters since the disruption of the junk shop on South Fourth street?

—Citizens receiving harsh treatment at the hands of the police should furnish the particulars to the newspapers.

—The Legislative Junk Shop Association has deserted the South Fourth street establishment. Rumor says for non-payment of rent.

—The fight for the nomination of Register of Wills has become very lively. Bunn, Campbell, Clark, and Bonham claim to be ahead.

—Which of the Foxes has prohibited the detectives and lieutenants from gracing the American Theatre with their presence?

—Wanted to know——who stole them eighty loads of cobble stones? Address all communications to Common Councilman Hetzell.

—"Rockett," the animal that trotted at Suffolk Park on Wednesday, went through the Rebellion as the charger of a Rebel soldier.

—The Siamese Twins, the "Squire" and M. Hall Stanton. Is the Squire to "colonize" the city on the night of the Republican delegate election?

—Hon. Charles O'Neill, in about 1860, appeared as counsel in a slave case—not on behalf of the poor slave, but as the representative of the owner.

—A large number of citizens of Germantown seem bent on keeping General Wagner at home this fall. Whether they will be successful in the matter remains to be seen.

—The subscribers to the capital stock of the "People's Bank" met yesterday at the office of A. K. McClure, Esq., No. 144 South Sixth street, and elected officers.

—The provision prohibiting wagons of burden with tires of less breadth than six inches driving through the park should be extended to the boulevards on South Broad street.

—Notwithstanding the numerous reports of the bad conduct and the misdoings of the police, but little heed seems to be given to them. There is a time when forbearance ceases to be a virtue.

—The Fifteenth ward young Democracy floored the "fossils" last night by applauding the course of S. Gross Fry in opposing the anti-negro resolutions of the City Executive Committee.

—As far back as the 14th ult. his Honor issued an order abolishing the "special officer system," yet not one of these "political pets" has as yet donned a uniform. Has his Honor ever written a farce?

—The Board of Health and Citizens' Association have been notified of the filthiness of the alley in the rear of Eleventh and north of Master street, yet nothing has been done towards remedying the evil.

—George Hutchinson and James P. Gregory were names that became very familiar as corporators in the hundreds of incorporation bills passed last winter. Do they represent city members of the Legislature?

—Marshall C. Hong desires to take up his residence again in Harrisburg, but as he owns a fine house on Chelten avenue, and is a first-rate mechanic, the people of Germantown intend keeping him amongst them.

—Mrs. Oates and her company generously volunteered their services for the benefit of the Richmond sufferers, and fixed yesterday for the time. We are sorry to say that Philadelphians as generously (!) refused to attend.

—What has become of "them $15,000" which an ex-City Treasurer loaned (!) to a certain couple, and which were placed in the hands of an official to await Governor Geary's action on the Police bill? How was it shared? $5500 each, eh?

—The first match of the season between the first eleven of the Germantown and Philadelphia Cricket Clubs will be commenced on the Germantown ground near Wayne Station, to-day, at half-past 2 P. M. The play will be continued to-morrow, commencing at half-past 9 in the morning.

—Transformation! A grand scene was witnessed the other day in the Mayor's office. A couple of police lieutenants in citizen's dress noticing the approach of Daniel quickly slid behind a screen and swapped coats with a couple of patrolmen. Strange to say, they never stopped to examine (!) the garments.

—In Councils yesterday a resolution was passed authorizing the Chief Engineer of the Water Department to have placed in hotels, sugar refineries, large manufactories, and such like establishments, a sufficient number of meters to designate the precise amount of water used therein, on the same general principles regulating gas meters.

SUCCESSFUL ENTERTAINMENT.—Last evening the scholars of the Mission Sabbath School, connected with the West Arch Street Presbyterian Church, gave an entertainment in the school-room, corner of Sixteenth and Pearl streets, which was one of the most successful affairs of the kind ever gotten up in Philadelphia. The recitations of the children were perfect, the dialogues quite natural, and the songs and choruses charming. Miss Fannie B. Rumm presided at the piano with much grace, and performed admirably, and Mr. Charles H. Davis received the utmost applause, as he richly deserved, for the ability displayed in training the little folks in their various musical gems. Altogether, the teachers and officers of this flourishing mission school have great cause for congratulation over the interesting services of last evening. Such fields as this is where Christian laborers realize the full rewards of their work. There is ample room in this city for hundreds of mission schools, in which many rough diamonds might be polished and made valuable to society and the world, and where great good could be done the community and the cause of Christ. Gather all the children into such schools, and soon riot, disorder, murder, stealing, and other crimes will be unknown. These are the places, also, to make the temperance movement flourish.

A FINE COUNTRY SEAT.—Attention is called to the advertisement in another column of the public sale of a handsome country seat situated at Chelten Hills, on the line of the North Pennsylvania Railroad. A perusal of the advertisement will show the great desirableness of the property. The house and grounds are furnished with every modern convenience which has yet been invented for the purpose of making life comfortable. The sale takes place at 3 P. M. to-morrow afternoon, on the premises. The terms are one-third cash. Immediate possession can be had.

THE ADDITIONAL DISTRICT COURT JUDGE—CHARLES E. LEX NAMED FOR THE POSITION.—Charles E. Lex, Esq., a prominent lawyer of this city, has been named for the position of Judge of the District Court. The following letter, which was signed by such eminent men as Eli K. Price, Alexander Henry, Horace Binney, F. Carroll Brewster, W. H. Rawle, Daniel Dougherty, Samuel H. Perkins, N. B. Browne, George Junkin, George Harding, and J. Sergeant Price, representing the bar, and endorsed by Jay Cooke, W. C. Allison & Sons, A. H. Franciscus & Co., Charles Megargee & Co., Elliott & Dunn, DeHaven & Brother, Jessup & Moore, M. Thomas & Sons, Hood, Bonbright & Co., James W. Drexel, J. B. Lippincott & Co., John Wanamaker, Claxton, Remsen & Haffelfinger, and William W. Harding, of the mercantile community, was forwarded to him a day or two since:—

PHILADELPHIA, May 3, 1870.—Charles E. Lex, Esq. —Dear Sir:—The Legislature having passed an act authorizing the election of an additional Judge for the District Court for the city and county of Philadelphia, the approaching convention of the Republican party will be called upon to name a candidate for that position. The undersigned, your brethren of the Bar, from their personal and professional acquaintance with you for many years, and their belief in your legal ability, strict integrity, and patriotic devotion to principle, consider you eminently fitted for that office, and would request permission to present your name as a candidate for the Republican nomination.

Mr. Lex answered the communication as follows:—

PHILADELPHIA, May 5, 1870.—To Horace Binney, Eli K. Price, F. Carroll Brewster, B. H. Brewster, Alexander Henry, Esqrs., and others.—Gentlemen:—I acknowledge the receipt of your kind letter asking me to permit my name to be used for the office of a Judge of the District Court before the approaching convention, and reply thereto that it is at your service, and that if nominated by the Republican party I shall be pleased to submit myself to the suffrage of my fellow-citizens.

With thanks to you for the interest manifested in my behalf, I remain, Yours, sincerely, CHARLES E. LEX.

HEAVY ROBBERY OF CUTLERY.—Some time last night thieves robbed the hardware establishment of A. Justice & Co., No. 14 North Fifth street, of fine cutlery valued at $1000. The scamps secreted themselves in the cellar yesterday afternoon, where they remained until the place was closed up. They then secured a trunk which was in the place, and having filled it and a bag with the plunder, they decamped. Officer Seers, of the United States Secret Service, while hunting after some counterfeiters come across the hardware stowed away in the house of Frank Riley, No. 739 Clover street. He gave information to the Detective office, when Chief Kelley, Detective Franklin, and Lieutenant Smith visited the house, and not only secured the goods, but also three men, who were sitting around the trunk dividing the spoils. They were taken to the Central Station, where they gave the names of John Evans, John Morgan, and John Jones. Riley was also arrested. The prisoners will have a hearing to-morrow afternoon before Alderman Kerr.

SCIENTIFIC MICROCOSM.—The first public lecture under the auspices of this association was delivered last evening in the lecture room of the High School by Prof. E. J. Houston, upon "Statical Electricity." By means of the machine, the Ruhmkorff coil, and a variety of minor apparatus, a variety of most beautiful experiments were exhibited. Of these, the passage of the electric current in vacuo, the charming tints produced by passing electricity through Geysler tubes, and the Gassiot cascade, in which an emerald green vase appears, overflowing with a pink and purple auroral light, were the most brilliant. The next meeting of the Microcosm was announced for June 1.

DOMESTIC BRAWL.—At Thirteenth and Vine streets resides a couple named Bruce. From their constant bickerings one would be led to suppose that their married life is anything other, than pleasant. Yesterday a quarrel originated over some trivial matter, when the husband, whose baptismal name is William, attempted to play a tune on the head of Mrs. Bruce. The lady, who is blessed with an excellent pair of respirators, yelled lustily for help. One of the Sixth district officers responded, and after a severe tussle with William, took him before Alderman Jones, who committed him in default of $600 bail to answer.

PUGILISTIC.—Yesterday Reserve Officer Burns attempted to arrest a disorderly character named Cornelius Gibbons, who by his antics had gathered together a large crowd in the neighborhood of Fourth and Chesnut streets. Cornelius being somewhat pugilistic, gave the officer so severe a beating that he was obliged to call for assistance. A brother officer arriving, Cornelius was taken before Alderman Kerr, who sent him to prison in default of $1200 bail.

THE CENTRAL PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, N. L.—The lecture room of the Central Presbyterian Church, Northern Liberties, recently completed, will be opened with appropriate exercises, commencing on next Sunday, May 8. The new building is situated at the northeast corner of Franklin and Thompson streets. The services will be held on Sunday morning, afternoon, and evening, and on every evening of the week following, except Saturday. Distinguished speakers are announced for each evening.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—Mr. J. Crawford Dawes, Secretary and Treasurer of the Spruce and Pine Streets Railway Company, who was so outrageously assaulted by Sergeant Johnson Major, of the Fifth district, on Wednesday night last, has caused the arrest of the "model Sergeant," and a hearing in the case will take place before Alderman Beitler to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

FIRE.—The alarm of fire about 4 o'clock this morning was caused by the burning of an old unoccupied building situated at the southeast corner of Fifth and Canal streets. The structure, which was partly brick and partly frame, was entirely destroyed, involving a loss of $1000. The premises were formerly occupied by Chas. Griffith as an iron foundry. The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.

MARINE.—Some time this morning river thieves boarded the schooner Harriet Miller, which was lying in the Delaware opposite Kaighn's Point, all ready for sailing, and robbed her of the jib sail. The captain and crew were all aboard at the time, wrapped in the arms of Morpheus. Officer English, of the Harbor Police, subsequently found the canvas at the lower end of Smith's Island.

ATTEMPTED BURGLARY.—Between 1 and 2 o'clock Wednesday morning a burglar attempted to effect an entrance to the residence of Constantine Myers, Bridge and Richmond streets, Bridesburg, by forcing open a rear window-shutter. This bungling operation aroused the family, who reached the window just in time to see the fellow clambering over the fence. Of course he escaped.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—Last night an impecunious scoundrel, named George Cowell, attacked a citizen at Seventh and Race streets, and despoiled him of his gold watch and pocket book. The highwayman was about escaping when Officer Miller took him into custody, and Alderman Godbou sent him to prison.

A DENIAL.—His Honor Mayor Fox emphatically denies the statement of Mr. Dawes, as published yesterday. His Honor has no recollection of having seen the card of Mr. Dawes, and instead of having been occupied with politicians was devoting his time to the committee for the relief of the Richmond sufferers.

A HERO (!)—Lewis Carrigan, who resides on Warnock street, above Girard avenue, yesterday gave an exhibition of his heroism by beating his wife. An officer, hearing her cries for help, entered the house, and arrested the brute. Alderman Hood sent him to prison in default of $400 bail.

OPEN HOUSES.—The police of the Fifth district report finding open during last night the doors of the dwelling No. 920 Pine street, and the northeast corner of Eighth and Spruce streets. The police of the Third district also report seven open houses. When will our housekeepers learn to avoid this criminal carelessness?

CORNER LOUNGERS.—The police of the Twelfth District last night arrested six corner loungers. They were taken before Alderman Hood, who imposed the usual fine. Keep it up, Lieutenant.

DYING HARD.

Baltimore Passing Through a Terrible Ordeal—"Colored Persons Admitted in This Car."

The Baltimore city railroad companies have put cars on the tracks in which colored people are admitted, in obedience to a recent decision of the courts compelling them either to do this or to allow negroes to ride in all cars on the routes. On Monday, cars with the following placard appeared upon the streets at regular intervals:—"Colored Persons Admitted in this Car."

The Baltimore American says:—To the utter astonishment of those persons who predicted that the cars set apart for the colored persons would be run without passengers, they yesterday traversed our streets with about the same quota of passengers as were wont to patronize them before. One of our reporters spent an hour on the corner of Baltimore and Eutaw streets observing the result of the first day's experiment.

There were as many white passengers in the cars to which colored people were admitted as in the other cars. There were not more than four colored persons in any one of the labelled cars, and in most of them there were only one or two, but the full complement of passengers was made up by white people. In very few instances did passengers hesitate to take the first car that came along, utterly regardless and possibly unconscious of the red-lettered label.

It was astonishing during the early portion of yesterday morning to watch the antics of those few persons who objected to ride in the cars devoted to the colored people. On Madison avenue ladies and gentlemen would carefully peer into the cars, and if no person of color was there ensconced, in they would jump, but secretly praying that they might not be disturbed by the entrance of a colored man, woman, or child. One lady, who had entered a car at the corner of Madison and Biddle streets, chanced to seat herself beside a man whose complexion indicated that he was not a pure Caucasian. The lady squirmed for a while, and at last, being unable to restrain her passion, almost screamed into the man's ear, "Why don't you get into the car devoted to persons of your color?"

The man fairly bounded from his seat, so terrific was the screech given, and for a moment seemed to be lost in thought regarding the sanity of the lady. He finally managed to say, "Am I not in the right?" to which she replied, "No, you're not; colored persons ride in a special car to-day, and this car is for white persons." The affrighted man now regained his composure, and said, "Madam, I am a resident of Charleston, South Carolina, and can boast of as good a family, perhaps, as you can, and perhaps if you knew my name, you would be more careful in future how you find fault with persons whose complexions are a shade darker than yours." The lady called upon the conductor to stop the car, and quitted it with feelings experienced by a person who has committed a mean action and been exposed.

Several of the conductors, when they had been informed that their cars had been set apart for the accommodation of colored persons, refused to take charge of them, and resigned their positions. Their situations did not remain idle many minutes, as there are plenty of men on hand who are happy to get an opportunity of earning $21 per week, and who did not object to collect fare from a man because his complexion did not resemble Parian marble.

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE.

Prison Cases.

Court of Quarter Sessions—Allison, P. J.

The prison calender of the May term was resumed this morning.

James Young was tried upon two charges of entering adjoining houses in Moreau street with intent to steal, and though he was proven to have been in the houses at night, yet he was entirely too drunk to have stolen anything, had such been his object, and therefore he was acquitted.

John Mann, an old man, was convicted of the larceny of a white wrapper valued at $10, and was sent below for nine months.

John McBride was acquitted of a charge of open lewdness, but being recognized by the judge as an old offender in this particular line, was held in $1000 bail to be of good behavior for one year.

This completed the day's business, and the jurors were discharged until Monday.

Civil Cases.

District Court, No. 1—Judge Stroud.

George H. Bernadon & Co. vs. Harrison, Havemeyer & Co. An action to recover for five hogsheads of sugar alleged to have been sold and delivered. Verdict for plaintiffs, $752·71.

FROM THE STATE.

The Wilkesbarre Conflagration.

Special Despatch to The Evening Telegraph.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., May 6.—A terrible conflagration is now raging along the line of the Wilkesbarre Mountains, extending from this place to Clark's Green. It originated from some unknown cause at White Haven, on the line of the Lehigh Valley and Lehigh and Susquehanna Railroads, and its fearful progress has proved irresistible. The entire population are out fighting the flames, but thus far their efforts have been futile.

The loss along the route must be very heavy. Accounts already received report the destruction of millions of feet of lumber and cordwood, and miles of fence; nine dwelling-houses, seven barns, a large steam sawmill, and considerable other valuable property. Nothing short of a heavy rain will extinguish this immense fire, which threatens devastation to everything in its course.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Relieved from Duty.

Despatch to the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—A special order, just issued from the War Department, relieves from duty Brevet Brigadier-General Samuel Breck in the Adjutant-General's office and directs him to repair to San Francisco to report to Brevet Major-General William Whipple, Assistant Adjutant-General, for temporary charge of Military Division of the Pacific, until the arrival of Brevet Brigadier-General J. C. Kelton, Captains Harry M. Smith, J. F. Rondlett, Charles Wheaton, Charles Snyder, J. M. Hamilton, and Brevet Major George Q. White, U. S. A., being detailed for recruiting service, and ordered to report to General Reeve, Superintendent of the Recruiting Service, New York city; Captain Emil Adams, Brevet Major William Wilson, and Brevet Lieutenant-Colonel George H. Crain have been detached for the same service, and directed to report to General Stevenson at St. Louis for assignment to duty at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas.

Income Increase.

Returns from the annual list of incomes and special taxes from thirty-six districts, generally small ones, show, as compared with the year 1869, an increase of $84,000.

CONGRESS.

FORTY-FIRST TERM—SECOND SESSION.

Senate.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—Mr. Sumner, from the Committee on the District of Columbia, reported, with amendment, a bill to establish a uniform and impartial system of public schools in the District, and to secure equal rights in said schools.

The bills for the increase of fees of United States Marshals and others of the Western District of Arkansas, and to provide for special terms of the Circuit Courts in the Southern District of Ohio, were reported adversely.

The bill to reduce the number of officers in the army of the United States, and for other purposes, was taken up, and a substitute on the subject proposed by the Military Committee was made the special order for Tuesday next.

The House resolution for a final adjournment on July 4 coming up, motions to postpone and to extend the time to August 1 were lost.

Mr. Sumner, at a few minutes before 1 o'clock, proceeded to speak upon the subject, when

Mr. Conkling expressed his regret that the minority had resorted to filibustering to delay action.

Mr. Sumner disclaimed any such purpose. He thought, however, it was evident the subject could not be acted upon to-day. (Laughter.) He therefore moved to table the resolution, and called for the yeas and nays.

The vote resulted—yeas, 17; nays, 28, when the morning hour expired, and the Appropriation bill came up.

Mr. Hamlin moved to suspend the present orders to dispose of the adjournment question. Agreed to—yeas, 26; nays, 25.

A protracted discussion ensued touching the merits of the pending measures, and the possibility of disposing of them within the limited time indicated by the adjournment resolution.

Mr. Stewart, as a reason for taking up the bill to enforce the fifteenth amendment, said the Chinese had for twenty years been denied the protection of the Government. They were excluded from testifying in our Courts, and denied every other right, and the interposition of the power of the Government was needed to vindicate alike the fifteenth amendment and our treaty stipulations.

Mr. Cragin was apprehensive of the defeat of the Utah Polygamy bill if so early a day as July 4 was fixed for adjournment, and, for sake of the Republican party, he hoped that some remedy would be devised for the system of outrage inaugurated under the dictation of Brigham Young.

On motion of Mr. Chandler the pending resolution was finally postponed until Friday, May 20, the vote being yeas, 27; nays, 25.

At 2·25 the Legislative, Executive, and Judicial Appropriation bill was taken up, and various amendments reported by the Committee on Appropriations were agreed to.

FROM DELAWARE.

The White Man's Convention a Fizzle.

WILMINGTON, May 6.—Only about twenty-five persons, all reported to be Democrats, assembled at Dover yesterday in response to the call for a "White Man's Convention." The attendance being so small it was decided not to organize, and the movement is doubtless dead.

FROM NEW YORK.

The McFarland Trial.

The question then for the jury was as to the mental condition of the accused when the deed was committed. After speaking of the power of a good woman for good, counsel went on to say there were two incidents in the trial well worthy of observation—one was the appearance of private counsel in the case; the other was the objection to three jurors who happened to be countrymen of the prisoner. Those men were good and reputable citizens, eligible as jurors, and their exclusion by the District Attorney was utterly indefensible. Questions asked by private counsel prove that private malice was at the back of the prosecution.

He wished to impress upon the jury that this was a case of murder or nothing. Any such compromise as sending the prisoner to the State Prison would be a violation of their oaths. The jury should remember that a man might be insane towards one individual and sane towards all others. Counsel then read portions of the Scriptures, proving thereby that Richardson had violated the seventh and ten commandment, for, not satisfied with debauching McFarland's wife, he had coveted her for himself. Under the old law adulteresses were doomed to death. The remainder of the speech, up to the hour of recess, was occupied by reviewing the evidence showing insanity, which counsel impressed upon the jurors was fully proved.
