NEWS SUMMARY.

City Affairs. -About half-past 2 o'clock vesterday after-noon Mary Braycroft, aged thirty years, was hadly bruised about the head and her nose broken falling into a cellar at No. 413 N. Third street. She was removed to St. Mary's Hos-

-The schooner A. M. Flanagan, while lying at the wharf at the Kensington Water Works, on Thursday night, was left on a rock by the reeeding tide, and broke in two. She is a total loss. She was to sail for Savannah yesterday, with a cargo of coal and railroad car wheels. -A fire broke out last evening, about halfpast 10 o'clock, in the cigar store of Wilt & Gale, No. 140 North Third street, damaging the stock to the amount of about $500. The flames originated near the stove. Loss fully covered by insurance.

A young man who was arrested on Friday night of last week, on the charge of breaking into a house on Watkins street, above Ninth First ward, and who gave the name of James Corman, has been identified by Policemen Kuhn as the man who robbed him several months ago, when he was attacked and beaten, and had to use his pistol. The prisoner's name is said to be John Gray.

-The Presbyterian Board of Education held a meeting yesterday afternoon, at the rooms, Arch street, above Ninth, when the annual report was read. Up to the present date there have been about 4000 new candidates for the ministry. The register of the board shows that while the rule of the Assembly permits the reception of students as early as the age of fourteen, yet few have been so oy ung at the time, and the largest numbers have ranged from eighteen to twenty-three years of age, when their purpose would be likely to be fixed, and their qualifications for study somewhat matured.

-The private watchman on Church street, about 9 o'clock last night, found the basement door opan No. 204, occupied by Messrs, Carr & Lucas, importers and dealers in silk and fancy webbing. He had tried it about 8 o'clock and found it closed, as did also Officer Taney. Sergeant Whelan and Officer Campbell, of the Fourth district, thoroughly examined the premises, and found the fire-proof on the first oor opened and thoroughly ransacked. Several checks were scattered around, among which one for $10,000 was found, The desk drawers were all pulled out and gone through. After investigating Messrs. Carr & Lucas' store, the thieves bad ascended through the After hatchway into the upholstery and shade trim-ming store of Messrs. Hansell Brothers. The drawers had been thoroughly searched, and the fire-proof had been tried with the key belonging to Messrs. Carr & Lucas, but they were unsuccessful in their attempt to open it. One of the Hansell firm arrived at the store about 10.30, but did not discover any loss. A tin box taken from Messrs. Carr & Lucas' safe was pried open with a chisel, and found in the basement. The loss of Messrs. Carr & Lucas is unknown, as they were not present. The thieves were evidently intent on cash only.

—The ladies belonging to the different Methodist Episcopal churches throughout the city, seeing the necessity of providing a home for the aged and infirm members of their church, some time ago formed an association having that object in view. They purchased some seven acres of land on on the northeast corner of Thirteenth street and Lehigh avenue. At present they own and use a structure on this ground for this purpose, but having accumulated some $40,900, they design erecting a handsome and costly structure. The edifice will consist of a main building fronting on Thirteenth street, a wing, and a chapel fronting on Camac street. The main building will have a frontage of fifty feet, with a depth of fifty-six feet. The wing will be forty feet in depth, and have a frontof eighty-four feet. The entire structure will be of brown stone, the main building three stories in height and the wing two stories, the whole surmounted by a Mansard roof. On the first floor in the main building are to be three parlors, in the wing fifteen bedrooms with the necessary bath-rooms, etc., while in the rear of these, immediately under the chapel, located a large and airy dining-room. with a kitchen in the rear. On the second floor of the wing will be fifteen more bed-rooms, and on the second and third floors of the main building will be six large sleeping apartments. The second story of the rear building is designed for use as a chapel, with servants' rooms in the rear. The building will be finished in about one year, and will tend vastly to improve this section of

CETY ITEMS.

THE BLIND CAN OPERATE THEM WITH RASE. - Permit me to add my testimony to the superior qualities of the Grover & Baker" Sewing Machine. I am totally blind, and have been from childhood. Some-time since I concluded to purchase a sewing machine. In making my selection it was necessary for me to pro-cure the simplest as well as the lightest running and essiest managed machine. After testing the various machines, I was fully convinced that the G-over & Baker had all these required qualities combined. I purch sed one, and in a very short time could hem, fell, tuck, and do all kinds of sewing with the greatest ease. One of the many great advantages I find that the Grover & Baker has over all other machines is, you can sew from the finest to the coarsest fabric without change of tension. I cheerfully recommend it to all who desire a first-class machine

MISCELLANY. Captain Gary, of bark Almoner, at this port yester-day from Matanzas, makes the following report:— The cargo we carried out to Matanzas consisted The carge we carried out to Matanzas consisted principally of cooperage, with several articles of general cargo, viz.:—315 kegs nails, 23 cases fron tacks, 156 dozen corn brooms, etc. These articles not being properly described on the certified manifest, and fine of $25 was imposed on the vessel, the Collector refusing to take a bond or clear the vessel until the fine was paid. Finding that a large portion of the American vessels in port had been fined, and had paid their fines, under the impression that it was useless to resist or to make any further appeal to the United States Government for protection from these outrages, I also paid the fine. But I would state, for the benefit of the uninitiated who may contemplate a trip to Cuba, either on charter or seeking business, to add to their estimated expenses in Cuba at least $100, to cover their probable fines, as the Spanish merchants themselves say that fines on American tonnage have become so general that they should be considered a part of the port charges.
