CITY INTELLIGENCE. A PEST HOLE.

The Wissahicken Drive—The Old Log Cabin as a Place of Resort—Scenes that Transpire There—The Necessity of Its Removal.

THE WISSAHICKON CREEK. The principal acquisition by the Park Commission is acknowledged to be the purchase of the Wissahickon creek and the banks one hundred feet or so lying on either side of the stream. This valley cannot be excelled by any other similar tract of territory in this country for the elegance of its scenery. Its beauty is marred here and there along the line of the greaty with rade sirretures in the share of paper. the creek with rude structures in the shape of paper mills, which, under the circumstances attending the mills, which, under the circumstances attending the purchase, can be removed on a comparatively short notice. The commission can afford to allow these ungainly piles of mortar and stone to remain for some time yet, and pay its particular attention immediately to what is not only an eye-sore to the public, but a disgrace to the city, on the lower banks of the stream. None will gainsay that there should be "stopping" places along this magnificent drive, but now that this avenue is under the charge of the city, her representatives should see that these places for the resting of man and beast should be of that order that no gentleman would hesitate an instant about that no gentleman would hesitate an instant about taking his wife within their portals. Unfortunately, there is one at least at which no respectable gentle-man would be willing to allow his wife to mingle with the crowd that patronizes it. For a few years back this institution

HAS BEEN AN ABOMINATION, and its proximity to the finest drive within the city limits has had the effect of compelling those who are accompanied by their families to avoid that portion of the Wissahickon, which in its grandeur of scenery is not surpassed by any other part of the famous stream. Several years ago the old was a famous resort for the first families, and it has been the scene of many a delightful occasion. A narrow foot bridge spanned the stream, and the western bank, shaded by trees whose ages are not known by the oldest inhabitant, during the latter part of the hot summer days was occupied by sportive

BUT NOW HOW DIFFERENT ! From the old cabin a large and commodious lookng establishment has sprung up, and instead of the unpretentious proprietor who used to serve up catfish and coffee, we now have an individual who has acquired a notoriety for maintaining one of the most damaging institutions to the morals of the community in and around Philadelphia, and we are happy to state that the place has received the official notice to state that the place has received the official notice of not only the park officials, but also of the Mayor. Instead of the innocent youth, we now have a crowd of young men, some of whom seem to be candidates for the gallows. In the olden time there were two wid bears which the patrons used to take delight in treating to a bottle of "ginger-pop." Now there is a family of animals comprising monkeys, wolves, and buffalo, some caged and some loose, with nothing but a chain to prevent them tearing to pieces the visitor. The Society for the PREVENTION OF CRUELTY TO ANIMALS will find here a buffalo with a huge ring through his nose, which comes under the category of crueity to animals. At times, the youngsters who frequent this locality annoy this animal and so enrage him that the fearful plunges which he makes, one would think, would tear away the cartilage through which the ring is placed, and if such an event did happen, death would follow. The Old Log Cabin is now the resert of the worst classes of society, and on any fine afternoon the visitor will be disgusted with the most beastly exhibitions. The villainous compound disguised under the name of whisky is the principal ingredient disposed of, and it requires but a swallow or two to show its effect upon the indulger. As the sale of this stuff has been prohibited at the Belmont Mansion, in the new Park, why should it As the sale of this stuff has been prohibited at the Belmont Mansion, in the new Park, why should it not be at this particular place, where no limit is placed upon the quantity sold to any individual? It is said that this rendezvous has been engaged for every afternoon and evening of the coming summer by various associations, and to prevent the revolting scenes that then the driving public will be subjected to demands the early attention of City subjected to, demands the early attention of City Councils. An appropriation should be immediately made by them so that the Park Commissioners can take the necessary steps to rid our citizens of this THESE GLORIOUS (!) OCCASIONS are not only confined to the week-day, but occur on Sundays, and thus early in the season has the day been disregarded by the tenants of the Old Log Cabin. Numerous complaints have been made with reference to the spot, and Captain Chasteau, of the Park Guard, and Chief of Police Mulholland have been witnesses to the manner in which the place is conducted. Sunday last was a beautiful day, and just such a one as to induce a number of our residents to take a drive. Before arriving at the spot and just as it came into sight, the ear was saluted with a heavy thug, as though blacksmiths were at work, and the repeated sharp cracks of a rifle. The cause of these noises is accounted for as you drive nearer. An upright frame to test the strength, and which requires the use of a sledgehammer, explains the one and a shooting-gallery

ON APPROACHING THE CABIN (!) the eye encompasses within a scope of a couple hundred yards a cage containing dis-gusting monkeys, a fox, a bear chained to a tree, and a bear in a cage, a mammoth bloodhound, three buffaloes, a large dancing floor, the strength tester, the shooting gallery, and an improvised lager-beer stand. All this in addition to the main establishment, and all except the dancing-floor in fall blast. The majority of the attendants are boys and girls ranging from twelve to twenty years of age, and the behavior of some of them would be sufficient to shock the feelings of their parents. The older portion of the patrons are content for the time with imbibling of the stimulants, but shortly they resort to the boats on the stream, and whither they go is only known to themselves. This place has been justly denounced as a nuisance and curse upon the morals of the city, and the sooner it is got rid of the

CONCERNING RAILROAD ACCIDENTS .- We have received the following communication, to which we cheerfully give place:-

PHILADELPHIA, WILMINGTON, AND BALTIMORE RAILROAD OFFICE, PHILADELPHIA, MAY 5, 1870.

Relitor Evening Telegroph.—Be kind enough to do Philadelphia raitroads the justice to state that nineteen tweatieths of the casualities reported in your issue of the 4th inst. as having occurred during the year 1869 happened to persons walking on the track or to employes working about the road. Actually but four persons were killed or injured on the cars of the different raitroads centring in this city during the above year. Respectfully.

H. F. KENNEY, Superintendent P., W., and B. R.R.
The list of railroad casualties as published by us was taken from the official reports of the different companies made to the Auditor-General, but we are glad to know that nearly all of them were the result of gross carelessness on the part of the persons in-jured. The habit of walking on railroad tracks, in-deed, is so common that it is surprising there are not more accidents than actually occur.

THE TRINITY PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH .- This building, a fine stone structure, situated at the corner of Frankford road and Cambria streets is soon to be Frankford road and Cambria streets is soon to be entirely finished. The congregation, for some months, have been worshipping in the lecture-room or chapel attached to the main andience room, which is capable of holding about 400 persons. During the past week a festival was held in the main audience room, which, although unfinished, afforded accommodations for a large number of persons. During the evening addresses were made by the paster elect, Rev. Robert A. Brown, and Rev. Dr. Nevin, Rev. William O. Johnstone, and others, and a sumptuous repast was served up. Subscriptions are being solicited for the purpose of finishing the main audience chamber. The congregation within the past few months have succeeded in paying of an eld debt of nearly $3000, leaving but a small sum on the old account to be settled.

Ball March.—The Union of Morrisania, exchampions of base ball, have accepted the challenge forwarded by the Athletics, and will be in this city on Monday. The game will commence at 3 o'clock P. M.

PETTY THEFT.—A chap named Philip Mark last night robbed a farmer's wagon at Second and Pine streets of a blanket and sheepskin valued at $10. He was sent to prison by Alderman McColgan.

THE COAL TRADE.

The Situation of Affairs-The Miners' Demon-Wration in Schuvikill County—The Scattment of the Mass Meeting—Rumors of a Universal

Strike—Quotations, Etc.

The situation of affairs in Schuylkill county is still unchanged. From present indications the prospecta seem favorable for a continuance of the strike through the entire summer; and trouble of a more serious nature, should the strike continue for that length of time, would not be entirely unexpected.

The great demonstration of the striking miners took place at St. Clair on Monday. The procession, including about five thousand men, representing nineteen districts, marched from St. Chair to Port Carbon and Pottsville, and from thence back again nineteen districts, marched from St. Ciair to Port Carbon and Pottsville, and from thence back again to St. Clair, where a mass meeting was held. On passing the office of the Miners' fournal at Pottsville, groans were given by one delegation for that paper, which is accused of being the organ of the operators, but which, nevertheless, has for some time past been endeavoring to beat some little sense into the heads of the bewildered mining community. At the meeting various speeches were made which were calculated to greatly distort the already imperwere calculated to greatly distort the already imperfect views now entertained by the minera. The meeting was presided over by the President of the W. B. A., who appears to be directly the opposite of a clear-headed person, and who opened the exercises with an address terribly denunciatory of the whole Pennsylvania press for not supporting the miners in their movement. To an outsider this address brings very forcibly to mind the simile of a dog barking at the moon, by which action nobody but the dog and those in his immediate vicinity are disturbed. This presiding gentleman, who, by the way, is not even sure about his own name, lives upon $2000 a year paid by the Workinemen's Association for his services. He is not a practical miner himself, and, it is said, could not earn decent wages at the business. He is an Irishman by birth, but himself, and, it is said, could not earn decent wages at the business. He is an Irishman by birth, but came directly from England, which country he was obliged to leave on account of his connection with strikes there.

One of the addresses was made by a miner from Tamaqua, who gave vent to terrible threats of war and bloodshed in case the demands should not be compiled with. "We will have fair play or we will to the battle ground, with rifle for rifle and horse for horse," were his words; and every one who knows anything about these miners knows that these words would not be entirely bravado should the supposed necessity occur. The makers of "coffin no-tices" and other peculiar institutions would be both willing and competent to rush to their own destruc-tion in this manner, involving innocent ones in their general overthrow should they become so blinded as to consider it necessary. This blinding process is now going bravely on under the tutorship of wilfully now going bravely on under the tutorship of wilfully blind leaders.

A report comes to us by telegraph that a determined effort is on foot among the leaders of the strike to persuade the Lehigh and Wyoming men to join them, and thus cut off the entire supply. The leaders are perfectly sensible of the fact that they cannot succeed unless all the important regions supplying Philadelphia suspend, which fact has been self-extilent from the headening. If this mayon. been self-evident from the beginning. If this move-ment, if such a movement there is, should succeed, ment, if such a movement there is, should succeed, there is certainly a slightly better chance for the men, but if it should not, then certainly the leaders will be wise enough to advise a resumption of work. But the Lehigh and Wyoming men are at present receiving fair wages, and in the main are satisfied with them, so that it is very probable that they will prefer to remain in their present condition rather than to enfor the pleasures of dispuses for a serior than to enjoy the pleasures of idleness for a season, as the Schuylkill men are now doing, knowing that such pleasures are not altogether pleasurable in the end. Their fellow-feeling will hardly stand such a

The business of the week has been good. The tonnage for all the regions now in operation has largely increased over that of last week. The Reading Railroad, according to the report published yesterday, has an increased tonnage of 2107 tons, having brought down of all kinds 47,344 tons during the week. At Mauch Chunk there were transported from the Lehigh region over the caual and railroads (the Lehigh Valley and the Lehigh and Susque-hanna), 123,926 17 tons against 91,159 11 tons the week before, an increase of 32,767 (6 tons. The quotations for coal at Port Richmond are unchanged, but are merely nominal, as the stocks are very nearly exhausted. The supply is about equal to the demand, as there appears to be no disposition to the demand, as there appears to be no disposition to accumulate stocks at present prices. The current rates of freights for the week ending May 6 are as follows:—Portsmouth, $2; Boston, $1.95@2; Cambridge, $2; Fall River, $1.75; New Bedford, $1.75; Salem, $1.90; Providence, $1.75; Atlen's Point and tow, $1.70; New York, $1.20@1.30; Troy, $1.70; Washington, $1.10. From Baltimore:—Rhode Island and points on Long Island sound, $2.25; Philadelphia, $1.10@1.20; Boston, $2.50@2.60.

THE MORTALITY OF THE CITY .- The number of deaths in the city for the week ending at noon to-day was 332, being an increase of 14 ever the corresponding period of last year. Of these 170 were adults; 162 were minors; 236 were born in the United States: 67 were foreigners; 29 were people of color; and 13 were from the country. Of this number 44 died of consamption of the lungs; 18 of convaistons; 38 of scarlet fever; 16 of inflammation of the lungs; 23 of debility; 10 of disease of the heart; 13 of 1 ld age; 10 of marasmus; and 12 of relapsing fever. 10 of these deaths occurred in the Almshouse.

ATTRACTIONS AT FAIRMOUNT PARK .- The public will be glad to hear that arrangements have already been completed by the Commissioners by which music is again to be secured in the park. A competent orchestra has been engaged, under the efficient leadership of Dr. Cunnington, who will give regular concerts at Lemon Hill on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons, beginning next Wednesday. It is hoped also that within a short time, when the restaurant and Judge Peters' mansion has been elegantly fitted up, one concert every week will also be given there making three each week. It is understood that one of the railways having termini at the park has already contributed handsomely towards defraying the expense of the music. This example should be followed by the other companies.

The playgrounds in the West Park, a short distance above the bridge, will also be a beautiful feature this summer. Flying horses, velocipedes, croquet, swings, and other such additions will make it a most enjoyable place for the young ones and for the old ones. A neat little restaurant will be here, and, just think of it! the host is under an agreement in black and white to have always on hand a most bountiful supply of pure, fresh country milk. While the New Yorkers add artificial, showy improvements to their park, we are constantly procuring those that are substantial and in every particular good. HAGGERTY THE NOTORIOUS .- The notorious Jimmy Haggerty, who, it will be remembered, made his es-cape from the court officers at the door of the Court House, after being brought in the prison van from Moyamensing, is still at large in New York, where he has figured in several fights and theraby increased has figured in several fights and theraby increased the notoriety gained from Philadelphia offenses. Inquiries are continually being made as to what measures have been taken for the rearrest of this offender. The Chief of Police states that after the escape of Haggerty, he, by order of the Mayor, offered the assistance of the Police Department to the Judges of the Quarter Sessions for the rearrest of the fugitive, which offer was accepted. Having received information that Haggerty was in New York, the Mayor procured from Governor Gesty a requisition on the Governor of New York, and on this requisition the name of one of the court officers this requisition the name of one of the court officers was placed as the person to whom Haggerty should be delivered. The court officer was notified of the receipt of this document, and was told that, if desi-rable, the arrest should be made. The court officer has taken no action in the matter, and the requisition has not been called for. The Chief has done everything that he can do to assist the court in rearresting the man, but beyond this he has no power.

Rowdyism .- Patrick Doyle, a well-known 'rough, who has for years past been a terror to the neighbor-hood of Twenty-third and Market streets, was arrested last night by Officers Mohan and Donahue on arrested last night by Officers Mohan and Donahue on a warrant for assault and battery. Whilst conveying him to the station house, the officers were attacked by a gang of about one hundred "roughs," who attempted to rescue the prisoner. The officers were stoned, beaten, and clubbed, but they managed to hold their man until eight other officers came to their assistance. Doyle was taken before Aiderman Jones, where five separate charges were preferred against him of assault and battery and larceny. The accused was held in $1400 ball for a further hearing.

How a Fire was Discovered.—The fire No. 140 N. Third street last night was first discovered by Lieutenant Pritchard, who happened in the neigh-borhood, and by his promptness in giving the alarm saved the property from much greater destruction.

THE GERMANTOWN OUTRAGE

Capture of One of the Assaliants of the Esau Family.

About one week ago we chronicled the fact of an outrageous assault having been committed on an old couple named Esau residing in Mill street, Germantown. The facts were these:—A party of men in marks entered the residence of the Esau family during the night, beat, bound, and gagged the old pair, and then robbed the place of some $130. On the Sunday followed the cocurrence, about 10 o'clock P. M., Mayer Fox, whilst proceeding along Green street, near Beach, observed Officers Reeder and Lipp, of the Fourteenth district, watching a certain house. Inquiring of the officers their business, they answered that they had cause to believe that at least one of the burglars was concealed in the house named. Hearing this, the Mayor proceeded at once to his residence and issued a warrant for the once to his residence and issued a warrant for the arrest of all parties found in the house.

With this warrant the officer visited the Seventh min this warrant the omcer visited the seventh District Station-house, and procuring a posse of five men surrounded the suspicious dwelling, and ar-rested all the inmates, who were taken to the sta-tion and locked up for the night. About 10 o'clock last Monday morning two of the number, one Adam Miller, and the other a woman named Eck, were brought to the Mayor's office and the Esan couple sent for. Mr. Esau and wife soon arrived, and the former at once recognized Miller as one of the men former at once recognized Miller as one of the men who had beaten his wife, and who had helped to tie her. Another witness present testified to having seen a "jimmy" in the hanos of Miller on the day previous to the robbery, and to seeing the woman Eck making a muslin slip in which to hide it, that he might tie it around his body. Still another witness testified to hearing Miller plan the robbery, he saying that the old couple had a large lot of money. Another witness testified to seeing an unknown party making a "mask" on the same day. Alder-Ean Kerr gave Miller and the woman Eck a private hearing, and committed Killer in default of $6000 and the woman Eck in default of $2000 bail to answer. The villains who assisted Miller belong to a

THE INFECTED DISTRICTS,—Already a radical change has been effected in the infected district comprising Alaska street and its tributaries, in the between Fifth and Eighth streets. A large force of workmen have been engaged in that neighborhood for several weeks, and to-day the Health Officer reported to the Board of Health that Alaska street, between Sixth and Seventh streets, was clean in every sense of the word, and the same with reference to the street between Seventa and Eighth streets, except in a few cases of flithy cesspe The working gang are now employed between Fifth and Sixth streets, which, in the course of a few days, will be in a cleanly condition. So far over two hun-dred nuisances have been removed. The Health Officer has issued one thousand placards requiring the owners of property in that neighborhood to clean and disinfect their properties. These placards have peen posted up in every conspicuous place in the

IN BEPLY to "a denial" of his Honor the Mayor printed in your issue of yesterday's date, J. Crawford Dawes desires to reassert most positively that the morning after his arrest and lock up he called at the office of his Honor in company with William H. Snowdon, Esq., the President of the road, about 12 o'clock M., Mr. Snowdon sending in the joint card. Answer came that his Honor would see us in a few minutes, and we were ushered into the anteroom. The committee to whom he was devoting his time was Mr. Addicks. We waited in this room outside about half an hour, when William B. Thomas, Esq., was announced, and the word came out from the inner office, "General, walk in," and the General did walk in past us, speaking to Mr. Snowdon as he did so, and then we left the office. I am permitted to say that Mr. Snowdon endorses every word of this

INSANE.—About 7 o'clock last evening Officer Carrigan found a man wandering around the neighborhood of Twenty-second and Market streets. He was taken to the station house, when it was found that his name was Deyle, and that he has been missing from his home since the 1st inst. The wanderer is insane. He was removed to his home, Seventeenth and Chesnut streets.

Unsuccessful.—Between 10 and 11 o'clock last night burgiars entered the residence No. 1421 Ridge svenue, occupied by Mr. John M. Hollsworth, by forcing open the trap-door. The movements of the family when about retiring frightened the rascals off. The lower part of the building is used as a tobacce establishment, but it is supposed that the burgiars intended operating in the purpose straight. burglars intended operating in the upper stories.

FALSE PRETENSE .- A chap named Fred. Jacobs was arrested at Delaware avenue and Race street esterday afternoon, on the charge of obtaining pro duce from merchants along the avenue on false pre-tenses. Fred. was taken before Alderman Quirk, who held him in $800 bail to answer.
