DR. SCHOEPPE.

The Case Argued in the Supreme Court. HARRISBURG, May 13.—Immediately upon the convening of the Supreme Court for the Middle District this morning, the case of Dr. Paul Schoeppe, convicted of murder in the Court of Cumberland county, came up on a writ of error under the recent act of Assembly allowing a review of evidence by the Supreme

Mr. Miller, on behalf of the plaintiff in error, filed a motion for a reargument of the case. Justice Agnew observed, during Mr. Miller's address, that the act of Assembly did not allow of the taking of new testimony.

Mr. Miller believed that the sense of the recent act was to take up all the evidence with the record, with such exceptions to the testimony as may bear upon the case. Justice Agnew said that it was manifestly the duty of the Supreme Court to review the evidence in its bearing upon the guilt of the prisoner—in other words, it was from the evidence that the Court must pronounce whether or not the testimony should warrant a conviction; and it was impostant to have the evidence just as it was delivered. Mr. Miller believed that Judge Graham had accurately taken down all the material points of the testimony. Chief Justice Thompson said that when the act of the Legislature authorizing a review of evidence passed there was no case pending. This case was sent back on the 14th of February, and it was not until the 15th that the act was passed. It was now, he thought, impossible to open the judgment again.

Judge Sharswood thought perhaps this act of Assembly might bring up a bill of exceptions. Chief Justice Thompson observed that there must and ought to be an end to every case. The question was when had this case closed, or was it still open?

The following pleadings were then filed by the counsel in this case:— Schoeppe vs. The Commonwealth of Pennsyl-In the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

No. 75, May term, 1870.

The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, by her attorneys, C. E. Maglaughlin and W. J. Shearer, says that the plaintiff ought not to have or main-tain his said writ of error in this court, because, that heretofore, to wit: on the fourteenth day of February, in the year of our Lord 1870, judgment was entered by this Honorable Court against the said Paul Schoeppe and in favor of the said Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in a certain writ of error, taken in the identical cause and for the same alleged errors, for which the present writ of error has been sued out; which said judgment still remains in full effect and not in the least made void. And this the said Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is ready to certify by the records of this court, wherefore maintain his said writ of error. C. E. MAGLAUGHLIN, WM. J. SHEARER, Attorneys for defendant.

the said Commonwealth of Pennsylvania prays judgment, if the said plaintiff ought to have or Replication filed (by Messrs, Miller and Hep-burn, attorneys for plaintiff in error:— And said Paul Schoeppe, etc., ought not to be precluded from being heard, because he says that although true that the indictment and judgment of the Court of Oyer and Terminer in this case was before this Honorable Court, and the said judgment was affirmed on the 14th day of February, 1870, as on a writ of error at common law (as pro ut the opinion of this Court on file), yet he avers that the proceedings, the bill of exceptions to the admission and rejection of evidence, and the exceptions to the charge of the Court, and the answers to the point taken by before this Court, nor has any judgment ever been rendered upon them by this Court. And he further avers in this, his replication, well as the Commonwealth, may, under such regulations as shall be prescribed by law, remove the indictment and proceedings, or a transcript thereof, into the Supreme Court.

And he further avers that at the time said judgment of affirmance was rendered by the Court on the indictment there was no "regulation prescribed by law by which the proceedings, or a transcript thereof" could be removed into this Court.

But so it is, that since that date, to wit: on the fifteenth day of February, 1870, the Legislature of Pennsylvania passed an act entitled "An act to allow writs of error in cases of murder and voluntary manslaughter."

To the end that the defendant, Paul Schoeppe, may have the benefit of this act of Assembly, he claims that this honorable Court shall now examine "the proceedings," the bills of exceptions to the admission and rejection of evidence, and the bills of exception to the charge of the Court and answers to the points taken by him, and sealed by the said Court of Oyer and Terminer, with a view to a correction of the same, if any exist. And this the said Paul Schoeppe prays may be inquired of by this honorable Court, and the plea of the said Commonwealth may be

And for a further replication the said Paul Schoeppe, by his attorney, says:—That although true it is that the indictment and judgment of the Court of Oyer and Terminer in this case was before this honorable court, and the said judgment is affirmed on the 14th day of February, 1870, as on a writ of error at common law, yet he avers that the proceedings, the bills of evception to the admission and rejection of evidence, and the exceptions to the charge of the Court, and the Court's answer to the points taken by the defendant and scaled by said Court of Oyer and Terminer of Cumberland county, nor has any judgment ever been rendered upon them by this court.

And he further avers in this, his replication, that the Constitution of Pennsylvania, article 5, section 5, declares, etc., as set forth in the first part of this replication.

And be further avers, that on the --- day of February, 1870, a bill intended by the Legislature to enable the defendant to bring the "proceedings," the bill of exceptions to the admission and rejection of evidence, to the charge of the Court, and the answers to the points in this very case, before the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania to be examined and corrected, if any errors existed, was passed by both houses of the Legislature, in the words set forth as an act of Assembly in the first part of this replication. That this bill was presented to the Governor on the —— day of February, 1870, who did not ap-prove it, but returned it to the Senate with his objections, that immediately both the Senate and House of Representatives proceeded to reconsider said bill, and, after due consideration, they passed the same by two-thirds and over in both the Senate and House, by which it became a law. And the said defendant further saith that in pursuance of said law and under its provisions the bills of exception taken by the defendant, and sealed by the Court of Oyer and Terminer (never having been adjudicated), are now brought up on this writ of error, and that the full record is now before them to determine whether error has been committed therein; and this the defendant prays may be inquired after by this Honorable Court, and that the plea of said Commonwealth may be dismissed.
W. H. MILLER,

S. HEPBURN, Jr.,

Demurrer .- The plaintiff in error ought not te have or maintain his writ of error, because the said Commonwealth says that the said act of Assembly, passed by the Legislature of Penn-sylvania, did not become a law of the said Commonwealth until after the entry of the judgment

by this honorable Court on the previous writ of error issued in this case; that this case was not then a pending case. Wherefore, judgment is prayed of the said Paul Schoeppe by his present writ of error in this case to have and maintain aught.

To schom it may concern; All the leading medical authorities recognize the value of diffusive stimulants. Numerous eminent physicians and surgeons might be named who have advocated their employment in the treatment of a large class of disorders. No Dispensary is considered complete without them. They are prescribed in all public and private Hospitals, and administered by all becside practitioners. But the difficulty has been to obtain Alcoholic Liquors Pure.

The pungent aroma of the fusel oil and biting acids pre-sent in all of them can be scented as the glass is raised to the lips. The nauseous flavor of these active poisons is perceptible to the palate, and a burning sensation in the stomach attests their existence when the noxious draught bas gone down. Paralysis, idiocy, insanity and death are the permicious fruits of such potations. Medical science asks for a pure stimulant to use as a specific, which while it diffuses itself through the system more rapidly than any other known agent, is brought into direct and active contact with the sear of disease. It is the property of the stimulant to diffuse, and by the aid of its peculiar nutritious compenent parts to invigorate, regulate, counteract and restore, and it is by the happy union of the principle of activity with the principles of invigoration and restoration that enables a

With reference to Notice to Mariners No. 21, dated February 18, 1870, in which the depth of water on the bar of Richbucto river, Guif of St Lawrence, is stated to be 11 feet, the local pilotage authorities have more recently made public the following, viz.: have more recently made public the following, viz.:
that during the last season vessels drawing from 14

They also state that the bar channel, instead of
