CITY INTELLIGENCE.

PENNSYLVANIA RESERVE ASSOCIATION. PENNSYLVANIA RESERVE ASSOCIATION.—The minth anniversary of the existence of the Pennsylvania Reserve Corps was held yesterday at Lock Haven, Clinton county, Pa., on the line of the Philadelphia and Eric Railroad. The Philadelphia delegation, numbering about fifty, under the marshalship of Colonel William B. Maun, accompanied by the Collegeville Brass Band, formerly attached to the 2d Regiment Reserves, left Philadelphia on Monday evening at 9 45, by the Pennsylvania Railroad, and arrived at Lock Haven at 9 15 yesterday morning. General Haven at 9:15 yesterday morning. General Meade accompanied the party, also General H. G. Sickel, Colonel John H. Taggart, Colonel F. C. Tapper, Major Richard Ellis, and other offi-eers well known in the city.

On their arrival at Lock Haven the town was alive to receive the strangers. The Altoona Brass Band had been engaged by the citizens of Lock Haven, and a Zonave company recently organized there, together with some 200 of the old Reserves living in the vicinity, turned out to receive the Philadelphians.

After marching through the town, with bands playing and flags flying, they met at the Opera House, which was magnificently decorated with wreaths and bouquets of natural flowers, in honor of the occasion.

General Meade was called on to preside, in the absence of General McCandless, the Vice-President, who was detained in Philadelphia on account of sickness. Governor Curtin is the President of the association, but his absence in Europe of course prevented his attendance.

On taking the chair General Meade made an ele-On taking the chair General Meade made an clo-quent address, thanking God that the old Reserves had been permitted to meet again and revive the recollections of the war. He paid a high tribute to their bravery, patriotism, and devotion to the cause of their country, and said he owed his own elevation to his connection with the corps, in which he first commanded a brigade, and from that his promotion was due to the high reputation achieved by the old division.

The Pittsburg delegation did not arrive till after-The Pittsburg delegation did not arrive till afternoon, and the meeting adjourned till 2:30, at which time it reassembled. The main body of the Opera House was occupied by the members of the old division, and the galleries by the ladles and prominent eltizens of the borough; the members of the Town Council being invited to seats on the platform, by the side of General Meade. John L. Clem, the drummer boy of Chickamauga, was also invited
on the platform by General Meade, amid much enthusiasm.

A cable telegram was read from Governor Curtin at St. Petersburg in these words:—
"My spirit is with you, brave and faithful friends,"
This was received with great enthusiasm, the whole audience rising and cheering vociferously.
The election for officers for the ensuing year was held when the following were chosen:

Corresponding Secretary—Col. John H. Taggart.
Recording Secretary—Col. Anthony T. Laws, of Treasurer—Col. John P. Taylor. Orstor next year—Gen. W. H. Ent, of Columbia

Orator next year—Gen. W. H. Ent, of Columbia county.

In the evening a banquet was given at the Fulton House, at which sentiments were proposed and speeches made by Gen. Meade, Col. William B. Mann, and others. The greatest harmony prevailed throughout. The association decided to hold the next annual meeting in Philadelphia. The Philadelphia delegation left last evening at 8 o'clock, and arrived home this morning at 7 o'clock, all well.

A DETERMINED DISORDERLY CHARACTER. Garrett Colter on Sunday last was at Nine-teenth and Hamilton streets, and behaving in such an unruly manner that Policeman McDonald ordered him away. Instead of complying he pitched into the policeman, who was compelled to use force to get him to the station. He was held to answer. Yesterday he again returned to the scene of Sunday's operations and attacked Policeman McDonald, who again necked him. Colter showed fight, and tripped his captor. During the scuille the policeman made good use of his club, and only in that way succeeded in subduing the refractory Garrett. Alderman Pan-coast this morning sent him below.

A WOULD-BE SUICIDE FOILED .- George Miller is a German residing in Saybolt place, be-tween Race and Vine streets. He had become dissatisfied with living, and concluded to take his life. A rope wouldn't suit him, as it might break. He selected a pistol, and loaded it, forgetting, however, to put the ball in. About 4 o'clock this morning he arose, and seizing the weapon placed the muzzle at his mouth. He pulled the trigger, and instead of having his brains blown out, only had his chin torn away. He was picked up and removed to the Pennsylvania Hospital, where his wounds were pro-nounced not dangerous.

PROFESSOR SILLIMAN gives his lecture on the "Yo emite" in the Academy of Music, next Monday evening. The lecture was given recently in New York to an audience of three thousand persons, and created great enthusiasm. The lecture is admirably created great enthusissm. The lecture is admirably illustrated by diagrams taken by the Professor on the spot. These will be thrown by the magic lantern on a mammeth screen, and can be seen in all parts of the house. Mr. McAllister, our well-known fellow-citizen, has charge of the lantern, and we know, therefore, there will be no failure in that part of the entertainment. It is seldom our citizens have the opportunity to hear a lecture combining at once so much that is interesting with so much valuable instruction. We understand the tickets, as they should, are going of rapidly at Gould's.

GRAND LODGE I. O. O. F .- This body reassembled this morning, and after hearing the address of retiring Grand Master Samuel F. Gwinner, proceeded to the installation of the following officers, who are to serve the ensuing Silver, colored, went into the establishment of Francis Quinlan, No. 618 Pine street, yesterday afternoon, and seated himself. He began to be considerably disorderly, when Mr. Quinlan ordered him out. Refusing, he was taken by the shoulder by Mr. Quinlan, when he turned on the latter and struck him several times. A policeman was called in and took the refractory individual before Alderman Delaney, who held him in $500 for trial. CASUALTY.—The schooner Amanda Flanigan, which a few days ago was sunk at the Kensington Water Works, on the Delaware, is now being raised. A German named Roop, on Monday, while looking at the workmen, fell off the wharf, and was wedged in between the wrecking vessel and the logs, head downwards. When released, life was almost extinct.

THE DIOCESAN CONVENTION.

The Pretestant Episcopal Meeting at St.
Luke's Church—Opening Exercises—The Preceedings this Merning—Oenventien Sermou—Annual Aderess of Blehop Stevens.
The opening session of the Protestant Episcopal Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania was held in St. Luke's Church, Thirteenth street, below Spruce, yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock. The proceedings were formally inaugurated with prayer and religious exercises. Rev. John H. Childs, D. D., was then chosen Secretary, and Prof. J. C. Booth Assistant. The roll of clerical and lay delegates was then called, when it was found that the attendance was called, when it was found that the attendance was unusually large.

Bishop Stevens, the President, appointed as the Committee on Charters—Rev. Drs. J. Emen Hare, William Rudder, and William F. Paddock, Judges Hayes and Thayer, and Isaac Hazlehurst, Esq. On Clergymen's Seats—Rev. Drs. Yarnall and Watson and Rev. Thomas Yocum. On Seats of the Laity—Messrs. James M. Aertsen, William Buckler, and J. C. Gunn. Mr. R. P. McCullough was chosen Treasurer of the Christmas fund.

THIS MORNING'S SESSION.

A large congregation assembled this morning at 10 o'clock, the proceedings being opened with prayer by Dr. W. F. Paddock and the reading of the fifth selection of Psalms. This was followed by the reading of the first lesson and the 4th chapter of the Second Epistic of Timothy by Rev. Alfred M. Abel. The creed was then recited by Rev. George W.

The litany was also read by the same clergyman. Rev. Dr. Howe, rector of St. Luke's Church, then announced three stanzas of the fiftieth select Psaim, which were sung by the choir, the congregation f. communion service was next conducted by Home consisting of the recitation of the Rev. Dr. Howe, consisting of the recitation of the Ten Commandments, prayer, and reading of the First Epistle of St. James and the sixteenth chapter of the Gospel of St. John. The convention sermon was then delivered by Rev G. A. Warriner, of Montrose, Pa., who chose for his text the 12th and 13th verses of the 15th chapter of St. John:—

"I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now. Howbelt when he, the Spirit of Truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak; and he will show you things to come."

The speaker started out by saying that there is no error into which we may fall greater than to suppose that while yet imperfect, as we all are in this life, we have learned or can learn enough. The faith in our hearts, however pure and strong it may be, is but the germ of an immortal manhood, gradually developing and strengthening through the impulses of an ever-living spirit. It is but the beginning of our re-formation into the likeness of the Godman, and is built up by the higher perceptions things to come.' man, and is built up by the higher perceptions of truth, imparted by the Spirit of Truth as we are able to bear them. There is a vast difference between truth and the outward form in which it is embodied, while we may truly say that "Holy Scription." ture containeth all things necessary to salvation."
It being the expression of all essential doctrine, it is yet true that all the elements of heavenly life within us, and which we call faith, are the inspira-tion of the Spirit. There can be no enduring faith, no vital piety, no Church that is not progressive in character, and yet we almost blush to use the name, so wickedly has it been abused. Every scheme of fictitious improve-ment, every fresh outbreak of fanatic zeal, every dreamy speculation, every frantic effort to destroy Christianity, every spear thrust at Christ or the Cross, every effort to avoid the restraints of the Gospel and secure a larger indulgence, every rath-less assault upon the sacred menuments and traditions of the past, has been falsely styled progressive. Nevertheless, progress is essential to life in all things; and even as faith is dead without good works, so is the Church cold and spiritless in which truths new to us are not being germinated from the words of Holy Writ; in which old truths, already partly developed, are not being ma-tured into fuller strength and beauty, and which is not being taught the "things to come."

There is nothing more fatal to the religion of Christ than making it a mere tradition, the Church a mere monument erected over the grave of a dead Saviour, and the Gospel but an epitaph inscribed thereon. All history is dead, except in so far as it reveals a living presence, and Christ, too, is dead in vain, unless His spirit is a living presence in the Church, stimulating progress and teaching us

'things to come." The speaker then divided his argument into the following points:—1. The importance of a receptive ness on the part of all, of the influences of the Spirit or in other words, a judgment unbiassed by prejudice, whereby we are all able to bear truths, minds open to conviction and animated with aspirations for the things to come. 2. A growing catholicity is an absolute requisite of progress; for since Christ died for all men it is plain that the impulses of the Spirit must be in the direction of universal redemp-tion, and that every element in the Church that sayors of exclusiveness, narrowness, or in tolerance, is hostile to the reception and the dissemination of the truth as it is in Christ. 3. There can be no progress without freedom, for every noble impulse inspired in the human soul begets hatred of tyranny. 4, and finally, the impulses of the Spirit are militant. As Christ came upon earth "not to send peace, but a sword," it is impossible that His Spirit should inspire the Church without bringing conflict. Christianity can accept of no compromise, and will give the world no peace until the Church is victorious over every form of error.

Truth and faischood must grapple until the Spirit of Truth and faisehood must grapple until the Spirit of Truth is triumphant.

Any impartial observer of the present aspect of civilized society cannot fail to realize that the Church is now passing through the greatest crisis of her history—a crisis in which is involved no party issue and no question of doctrine nor of discipline but of the very existence of Christianity itself Rising from the great unheavals of political, social, and religious agitations in the Old World, crossing the Atlantic, and dashing over the rock-bound shores of New England, a great wave of sceptich at is rolling westward over the earth.

This has not resulted from there having been too little of the Spirit of Truth in the world, for men are thirsting for knowledge; but it is the result of a lack of upity, of freedom, and of real Protestantism among Christians themselves.

The speaker continued at some length, but his remarks are too exhaustive for our space. HOLY COMMUNION.

After he concluded, the bread and wine were blessed by Bishop Stevens, and the Holy Communion partaken of. Then followed post-communion, Rev. Lewis W. Gibson officiating.

ADDRESS OF BISHOP STEVENS. the conclusion of divine service Right Rev. Stevens called the convention to order and Bishop Stevens called the convention to order and read his annual address. After returning thanks to the Almighty that he had been spared another year, the Almighty that he had been spared another year, blessed with good health, he gave a long itemized account of his stewardship, showing the amount of labor performed by him on each day of the year. The report shows that the Bishop has been earnest in laborfand has spent but little letsure time.

The summary of the work thus detailed is as follows:—He has officiated on 231 occasions; has administered the rite of confirmation 126 times; has confirmed 1802 persons; has preached 144 times; has made 112 addresses; has ordained 28 persons, 18 to the disconate and 15 to the priesthood; has married 6 couples; has consecrated 5 churches; has laid 5 cornerstones; has consecrated 5 churches; has listitated 2 rectors; and has travelled about 6000 miles. Church, Lower Merion, Delaware county. The Bishop also announced that there are 48 candidates for holy orders in the diocese.

The Bishop also spoke of the Diocesan Mission work, of the plan which he had inaugurated for city missions, of the proposed removal and enlargement of the "Church Home," of the condition of the Protestant Episcopal Hospital, of the Bishop Potter Memorial Home, and of the contemplated division of the diocese, which he strongly urged. He also feelingly and fittingly alluded to the decease during the past conventional year of Rev. Dr. Dorr, Rev. Dr. Norris M. Jones, Rev. Mr. Pauley, Rev. N. P. Tillinghast, and Rev. Joseph Jaquett. The Bishop size appropriately speke of the death of George M. Wharton and Horace Binney, Jr., whose memories he highly eulogized. memories he highly eulogized.

DISORDERLY CHARACTERS .- Three Norwegian sailors who landed a day or two since got into an intoxicated state last night, and on reaching the vicinity of Fourth and Callowhill streets created such a disturbance as to attract the attention of a couple of policemen. They were arrested and locked up in the Seventh District Station. This morning Alderman Toland imposed a fine of $5 on each, and held them to keep the peace. SAVED FROM A WATERY GRAVE.—About 2 o'clock this morning Schuylkill Harbor Policemen Barry and Cahill discovered a horse attached to a wagon proceeding leisurely down Lombard street whari. On stopping the wagon they dis-covered the driver drunk and asleep. On coming to his senses he stated that he lived in Darby, and, as he thought, was on his way across Chesnut street bridge. ROBBERY.-The house of Mrs. Nelson, No 1524 Master street, was entered on Monday night, during the absence of the family from town, and completely ransacked. It is not as yet known what has been abstracted.

RAL ASSEMBLY. —The first meeting of the General Assembly will be held to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock. The arrivals of delegates still continue. Quite a large number made their appearance yesterday, and were assigned quarters by the locating committee. The session of this the first General Assembly of the Reunited Presbyterian Church will be quite lengthy. Two weeks is thought to be the smallest limit in which any quantity of the work before the Assembly can be performed, and then is can only be performed by the most incessant and arduous labor. By some a month's time is not considered too much for the proper transaction of the business.

The meetings will be held in the First Presbyterian Church, on South Washington square and seventh street, which church was the scene of the former disruption of the Presbyterian body.

It is generally supposed that the Moderatorship will be offered to Dr. McCosh, of Princeton, formerly of Scotland, though nothing can be stated for a certainty on this point until after a vote of some sort is taken. Dr. McCosh's sentiments as a foreigner are entirely free from prejudice on either of the partisan sides, and it is hoped that by electing him all remnants of ill-feeling will be entirely done away with.

Part of the work of the Assembly will be the revision and collection of the rules of order of the two

Part of the work of the Assembly will be the revision and collection of the rules of order of the two former bodies and the arrangement of the various syneds and presbyteries. Even the boards of the different churches have to be reconstructed, which in itself is anything but a light job.

It is understood that those having charge of the arrangements of the Assembly have made an agreement with a choral society of Philadelphia for the production of Handel's Messich at some time during the meeting of the Assembly. The exact time and place of performance have not yet been determined.

GRAND LODGE OF ODD FELLOWS. — The Grand Lodge of the I. O. O. F. reassembled at Sixth and Cresson streets, this morning, at 9 o'clock. The entire morning was taken up with the consideration of a new constitution and bylaws. The installation of officers was postponed until 3 o'clock this afternoon. The session will continue until the end of the week.

THE BOARD OF TRADE REPORT.—From Mr. A. J. Perkins, the Secretary of the Board of Trade, we have received the annual report of that organization in neat pamphlet form. It is filled with important statistics concerning the commerce of the city, but contains nothing of importance to the general reader not already published by us.

More Carelessness.—The police of the Eleventh district reported 13 dwellings which were found open last night. In the Tenth district six houses were found in the same condition. The store at Tenth and South streets was also found in a condition favorable for the operrtions of burglars.

OWNER WANTED.—A gold locket containing the daguerrectype of a clergyman, and having the inscription of "Julia," was picked up last night on Bridge street, West Philadelphia. The article awaits its owner at the West Philadelphia Station.

ARRIVAL FROM AFRICA.—Rev. James W. Priest, who went to Africa in 1836, and became a senator, and was twice elected Vice-President of the republic of Liberia, arrived in this city yesterday as a delegate to the Presbyterian General Assembly.

BAPTIST ANNIVERSARIES .- Thenational Baptist anniversaries commence with an annual address before the Historical Society by Rev. Dr. Osborn, next Monday evening, at the Beth-Eden church, on Broad and Spruce streets.

THE INFECTED DISTRICT.—Health Officer Addicks reported to-day that there were no additional cases of relapsing fever yesterday, and but four occurred to-day. His impression is that the disease is on the decline.

SUDDEN DEATH .- Edward Bennett, a denizen of Alaska street, died suddenly this morning. Coroner Taylor was notified to hold an inquest. FATAL RESULT.—George Miller, who shot himself this morning, has since died.

Special Despatch to The Scening Telegraph.

Athletic Base Ball Grounds, Seventreenth and Columbia Avenue, May 18.—The largest crowd of the season, and one of the largest ever assembled on these grounds, is present this afternoon to witness the return match between the Union, of Morrisania, and the Athletic, of this city. The defeat sustained by the latter cinb a few days since has heightened the interest in this contest to a pitch seldom, if ever, surpassed in a match of base ball.

Another Victory for the Sappho.

The third yacht race between the American Sappho and the English yacht Cambria was wen by the former, as stated in a previous despatch. The evening edition of the Times has the following details of the contest:—"Both yachts were becaimed for a long time. The Cambria was the winner for the first twenty miles of the race, which beat to windward and weathered the Sappho under Bonchurch cliff.

"Between there and St. Catharines she tacked to windward of her fourteen times successively, in working along the island, in short boards, from St. Catherine to the mark-steamer, completing the first side of triangle. The Sappho, from her greater length, forereached and weathered on the Cambria, doubling the mark forty seconds ahead. Here the interest in the race ended. The mark-steamer had to take the Cambria in tow, as she drifted with the tide. A good breeze prevailed for the first score of miles, and the struggle for the weather position occasioned considerable excitement. A dense fog prevailed during the greater part of the time."
