-The regular meeting of the Franklin Institute was held last evening. The minutes were read, including the notice of the organization of a microscopic section, after which the resident Secretary, Professor Morton, read his report on novellies. In this mention was made of novel points and improvements in the Suez Canal, and various light houses, bridges, tunnels, canals, etc. There was then exhibited a new lock up safety valve and a water supply regulator. Both these were shown in operation on a small boiler, and by pictures projected with a lantern; the adding machine, the mechanical finger devised, black diamond cutting tools, and countless other items of interest. Mr. J. E. Mitchell made some interesting remarks on the subject of diamond stone cutters, and the President explained that steps had been taken to secure the centennial celebration in Philadelphia.

Domestic Affairs.

-Gold closed yesterday at 1143%. -Congress, it is said, will certainly adjourn before the middle of July.

-The President is still hopeful of the confirmation of the St. Domingo treaty. -A large number of postal changes were made by the Postmaster-General in Pennsylvania yesterday. -Nearly $91,000 are paid for rent of private buildings in the District of Columbia by the Government.

-Mr. Joseph H. Bradley yesterday publicly assaulted District Attorney, late Judge Fisher, in Washington, in payment of an old grudge. An unseemly fight ensued.

-Chief Justice Wilson, of Utah, had the door of his Court in Salt Lake City shut against him on Tuesday by the Mormon authorities, but in a little while they thought better of it.

-An order of the Commissioner of Pensions, requiring an attorney to refund an excess over the legal fee of ten dollars for prosecuting a pension claim, has been sustained by the Secretary of the Interior.

-General Sherman writes a convention of persons in favor of "a more Christian policy" toward the Indians, now in session in New York, that if they adjourned to Fort Sully or Bell he would be tempted to join them. They could not possibly know anything of the condition of the Indians while remaining in New York.

-In the Senate yesterday, after the close of our report, the bill to enforce the fifteenth amendment was discussed. Mr. Cragin speke at an evening session in advocacy of the bill to prevent polygamy in Utah. In the House the Naval Appropriation bill

THE ASSEMBLY.

The Upening Season of the Presbyterian As-sembly the Preliminary Organization. Below we give sketches of the distinguished divines who, by virtue of the offices they held in the last Assemblies, act as officers of the General Assembly of the Reunited Presbyterian Church which met this morning, until permanent officers stre elected:-

The Rev. Melanethon W. Jacobas, D. D., 6.L. D., who, as Moderator of the last 'Old School" Assembly, acts as senior presiding officer, puts all questions and decides all points of order as they rise, was bo n at Newark, N. J., September 19, 1816, entered Princeton College at fifteen years of age, and was graduated with the highest honors at eighteen years of age. After a year's interval he entered Princeton Seminary, and on his graduation was retained as assistant to Dr. Addison Alexander, in the department of He-brew instruction. In 1839 he took charge of the First Church of Brooklyn, and, in a successful pastorate of twelve years, placed that church on a strong foundation as one of the most important in that city. His labors there were such as demanded respite and recuperation of health, and his people granted him leave of absence for one year, at the same time supplying his pulpit and awaiting his return in the hope of his resumption of the charge. He travelled exten-tively at that time in Europe, Egypt, Palestine, and Syria. He also made another foreign tour a few years ago.

During his first absence he was elected by the General Assembly Professor of Biblical Litera-ture and Exegesis in Allegheny Theological Seminary, a position which he still holds. He has illustrated it by the fruits of study in several volumes of commentaries on both Testaments, which have been widely circulated in this country, and in part republished in Scot-land. In addition to these labors, he undertook a pastoral charge in Pittsburg, and has built up one of the new and leading churches of that city. In 1852 he received the degree of D. D. from Jefferson College, and in 1866 LL. D. from Princetor. His urbanity of bearing, united with his tact and promptitude in the moderatorship of the last Old School Assembly, contributed greatly to the excellence of its proceedings, and earned for him additional praise in the churches.

The Rev. Philemon H. Fowler, D. D.

who, as Moderator of the last "New School" Assembly, presides jointly with Dr. Jacobus, and preaches the opening sermon, was born in Albany, N. Y., February 9, 1814. He graduated at Hobart College in 1832, and immediately afterwards acted as tutor in his Alma Mater. His theological studies were pursued at Princeton Semicary, where he graduated in 1836. The Presbytery of Albany licensed him to preach in 1835, and ordained him sine titulo in 1836, in which year he was called to the Second Church, Washington, D. C. He remained there until 1889, when he was called to the First Church, Elmira, N. Y. From that field of labor he re-moved, in 1849, to the First Church of Utica, N. Y., of which he is still the honored pastor. He has been uninterruptedly engaged in the pastoral work for thirty-four years, with the exception of two years' vacation spent in Europe in 1848 and 1868.

The high esteem in which Dr. Fowler is held in the ecclesiastical and educational world is manifested by the fact that for twenty years he has been a corporate member of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, a trustee of the Auburn Theological Seminary and member of its Prudential Committee, and a trustee of Hamilton College and member of its Executive Committee. He also served on the Reunion Committee from first to last: and the Doctorate of Divinity has been conferred on him twice-by Norwich University and by Williams College. The Rev. Alexander T. McGill, D. D., LL. D., who acts as one of the Stated Clerks of the Assembly until his successor is elected, by virtue of having been Stated Clerk of the last "Old School" Assembly, was born at Canonsburg, Pa., in 1807. He graduated at Jefferson Col-

Church, West Philadelphia. His pastoral relation there, which was a very successful and happy one, was dissolved in cousequence of greatly broken health in 1868. Since that time he has been Corresponding Secretary of the American and Foreign Christian Union, of whose work he has entire charge.

was resumed in Committee of the Whole, and finally passed in evening session. It now goes to the Senate.

Foreign Affairs.

-Outrages by brigands are reported from Naples and Sardinia. -There is a report that the Austrian and Hungarian Premiers have agreed to forbid the promulgation of any papal infallibility decree. -Yesterday the Corps Legislatif counted the vote on the plebiscitum. The result was received with enthusiasm by both "centres" and the "right." An interpellation was submitted by Jules Simon.

The Diocesan Convention,

The convention reassembled yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock and proceeded to the order of the day, which was the election of the standing committee.

Judge Thayer called attention to the fact that the fifteenth canon required the convention should elect delegates at every stated meeting. A lively debate occurred, which was participated Rev. Drs. Hoffman, Claxton, Howe, Paddock, Judge Thayer, and Mr. William Welsh. The order of business was then taken up being the election of standing committee. The Chair appointed the following tellers:-

Revs. A. Wadleigh, A. A. Marple, A. P. Brush, Messrs, L. Coffin, A. Ricketts, and P. Baldy, Jr.

During the counting of the votes by the tel-lers, Rev. J. A. Harris, chairman of the Com-mittee on Parochial History, read the report of the committee for the past year. The report showed that many churches had sent to the committee sketches of their parish history.

The report of the Standing Committee was also read. The report showed that the commit-tee was organized on June 2, 1869, by the election of Rev. Dr. Morton President, and Charles E. Lex, Esq., Secretary; and that it had recommended during the year five candidates for the order of priesthood and twenty-eight candidates for the deaconate. They have also recommended twelve candidates for ordination to the priesthood and twelve candidates for ordination to the deaconate. They have also approved the charters of seven new churches.

The report of the Committee on Christian Education was read by Rev. Dr. Goodwin. This report shows that reports have been received from 74 parishes and 2 institutions not parochial, giving a total of 1425 teachers and 14,566 pupils in Sunday schools; 118 teachers and 2373 pupils in Bible classes; 28 teachers and 495 pupils in parish schools; $14 teachers and 3925 pupils in other schools under church control. The committee regret to state that the statistics furnished them are too meagre to be considered as a correct statement. Among the resolutions submitted to the convention by this report is the following, which was passed -Resolved, That there is no sufficient reason of duty or of policy to impel this Church to set herself in antagonism to the system of common schools established by the State for the instruc-tion of all the children of the people in the most important elementary branches of secular knowledge. The following was also offered:-Resolved, That the Church should welcome this system as an invaluable aid in the accomplishment of a part of the work which would otherwise devolve upon her, and accomplishing it with vastly greater thoroughness and efficiency than with her present resources she is capable of. She should and she will heartily co-operate with the system, endeavoring to infuse into it and to engraft upon it as much as possible of religious life and sound religious principle. The tellers having completed the counting of the votes for Standing Committees, announced the votes for Standing Committees, announced the following as the members elected for the ensuing year:—Rev. G. Emlen Hare, D. D., Rev. Dr. R. Goodwin, D. D., Rev Henry J. Morton, D. D., Rev. M. A. DeWolfe Howe, D. D., Mr. John Bohlen, Mr. Wm. F. Griffiths, Mr. Thomas Robins, Mr. R. S. Smith.

Rev. Benjamin Watson, D. D., and Mr. Charles E. Lex were elected by the lay yote, but not concurred in by the clergy. The convention then adjourned.

lege in 1826, studied law and was admitted to the bar in Georgia, where he held several im-portant appointments by the Legislature, which he, however, relinquished in 1832 in order to enter the ministry. In 1885 he was ordained in the Associate Presbyterian Church and settled at Carlisle. In 1838 he transferred his connec-tion to the Old School General Assembly. Declining the Presidency of Lafayette College, to which he was elected on the first retirement of Dr. George Junkin, he accepted in 1842 an elec-tion to the Professorship of Ecclesiastical History and Church Government in the Allegheny Theological Seminary. In 1848 he was Moderator of the Assembly. In 1850 he was chosen Permanent Clerk, from which office he was in 1862 transferred to that of Stated Clerk, so that he has been officially connected with the body for twenty years. In 1854 he was transferred from Allegheny to the professorship which he still holds in Princeton Seminary. He has clung to the work of theo-logical instruction through many urgencies to take the presidency of colleges and the pastoral charge of important churches—declining the latter only on account of feeble health. The degree of D. D. was conferred on him in 1842 by Marshall College, Pa., and LL.D. by Prince-ton in 1868.

ton, in 1868. Dr. McGill is very popular as a theological instructor, as a preacher he is possessed of great force and eloquence, and he is one of the best church parliamentarians in the denomination. In his position as Stated Clerk he has been the right-hand man of the Moderator on questions of order.

The Rev. Edwin F. Hatfield. D. D., who acts as Dr. McGill's coadjutor, having been the Stated Clerk of the last New School Assembly since 1846, was born at Elizabethtown, New Jersey, in 1807, and graduated at Middlebury College, Vermont, in 1829. After studying at Andover Theological Seminary, he settled in St. Louis in 1832. In 1835 he became pastor of the Seventh Church, New York. The abundance of his labors and the success of his ministry in that field are attested by the fact that in twenty years he delivered not less than 6000 sermons, lectures and funeral addresses, baptized 563 adults and 1270 infants, performed the marriage ceremony in 1121 instances, and received into the communion of the Church 1556 persons on examination and 663 on certificate. In 1856 he established the North Church in New York, and continued its pastor until 1863. He is now the very efficient Secretary of the Freedmen's Com-mittee of the late New School branch. He has the reputation of being very fond of antiquarian research, and is a special expert in the field of Hymnology.

The Permanent Clerks of the Assembly, until successor is chosen, will be the Rev. William Schenck, D. D., and the Rev. J. Glentworth Butler, D. D.

The Rev. William E. Schenck, B. D., became Permanent Clerk of the "Old School" Assembly in 1863. He was born at "Princeton, N. J., March 29, 1819; entered Princeton College in 1834, and graduated in 1838. After studying law he entered Princeton Theological Seminary, from which he graduated in 1842. Subsequent to his licensure in that year he spent some months as a missionary in the coal regions of Eastern Pennsylvania. In 1843 he was settled as pastor of the church at Manchester, now in Ocean county, N. J. In 1846 he was called to the Hammond Street Church, New York, from which he removed, in 1848, to the First Church of Princeton.

There he labored nearly five years, during which large numbers were gathered into the Church. The Presbytery of Philadelphia, in 1852, appointed him Superintendent of the Church Extension operations. He became Secretary of the Board of Publication in 1854. and, in addition, editor of its issues in 1863; and he still discharges the onerous duties of his two-fold office. Jefferson College gave him the degree of D. D. in 1859. He has, in a great degree, the methodical habits which are so essential in the offices which he now holds.

The Rev. J. Glentworth Butler, D. D. has been Permanent Clerk of the "New School" Assembly since 1864. He was born in Brooklyn, N. Y., in 1823, and studied theology in Union and Yale Seminaries. In 1853 he was ordained and installed as pastor of the Walnut Street

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

The Austrian Government has given notice that from the 1st day of March, 1876, a light would be ex-hibited from a lighthouse recently erected on Galiola rock, Gulf of Quarnero, Mediterranean. The light is a fixed and fashing red light, showing a fash every thirty seconds, elevated 71 feet above the level of the sea, and in clear weather should be seen from a distance of 13 miles. The illuminating apparatua is dioptric, or by lenses of the fourth order. The tower is 31 feet high, built of iron, on a stone base, 33 feet above the rock, octagonal shaped and

Also, that a light is exhibited from the fort, at the point nearest the harbor of Curzola, visible nearly the whole length of the channel to the W.NW., as well as from the eastward, and that the light hitherto shown from the extremity of the Grand mole has been discontinued.

The Spanish Government has given notice that a fixed red light will be exhibited from the lighthouse on Cape Creux during the repairs of the machinery of the fixed and flashing light. By order. W. B. SHUBRICK, Chairman,
