MINTING.

The following article from the New York Tribune is worthy of careful perusal by those who take any interest in the mining of the precious metals or in the minting establishments of the country. Those who are most familiar with the subject are free to confess their inability to perceive any necessity for change in the laws relating to the "Mints, Assay Offices, and Coinage of the United States."

We have refrained from commenting upon the bill having this object in view, and which is now before the Finance Committee of the Senate, for various reasons, principal among which is the conviction that there is no probability of its passage. It is to be hoped that the San Francisco refining monopoly referred to by the Tribune is the only job covered by the provisions of the bill.

Senators and Representatives should examine closely and act with great deliberation upon so important and delicate a subject We may have occasion to refer to it again, should any serious effort be made towards making it a law of the land.

In the Legislative Appropriation bill, on the 13th instant, the proposition to allow the refining of bullion by private persons, debated so flercely by the Pacific coast Senators, was defeated by a large majority. In 1868 Congress passed the following law :- "That the Mint of the United States, and branches, shall continue to retine gold and silver bullion, and no contract to exchange crude or unparted bullion for refined bars shall be made until authorized by law." The attempt to exclude refining from the San Francisco and clude refining from the Sau Francisco and other Mints has proved a failure. The private persons interested in monopolizing this business still hope to accomplish their ends, through the bill now before the Senate Finance Committee, "revising the laws relative to the Mints, Assay Offices, and Coinage of the United States." This measure comprises 68 sections, some of which greatly modify not only the business of minting as now conducted, but also the administrative department of the Mint establishments. We learn that the United States Assay Office in this city possesses appliances for refining gold and sliver bullion to any extent demanded by trade, and that by the use of two valuable improvements, introduced by the present melter and refiner, which combine the sulphuric and nutric acid processes, the operations are phuric and nutric acid processes, the operations are performed satisfactorily to depositors and economi-cally to the Government.

cally to the Government.

Section 47 of the bill proposes, under certain terms and conditions, that "unparted buillion may be exchanged at any of the respective coinage mints for fine bars." This is anxiously desired by interested persons in San Francisco, who have labored for years to secure the necessary legislation. We recommend that the Assay Office mode of refining should be introduced into the Mint at San Francisco, and that the Government continue to enforce the large should be introduced into the Mint at San Francisco, and that the Government continue to enforce the law requiring refining to be done by its own officers, as a proper protection to miners and other owners of bullion on the Pacific coast, who protest against making this business conducive to the establishment of a monopoly. We find also, from section 25, that, with some exceptions, the coinage charge (amounting last year to $125,000) is to be discontinued. This would, of course, increase the amount of bullion seeking the refinery; but in what way, we may inquire, would it benefit the public? Gold, whether coined or uncoined, will obey the inexorable law of trade, and its exportation cannot be prevented by trade, and its exportation cannot be prevented by merely changing its form. We can see no reason why the coinage of gold by the Government should not be made to contribute its proper share towards meeting the onerous burdens which the debt of the country imposes upon us.

It is proposed also in the bill to abolish the office of Treasurer and transfer his duties to the Superintendent. This we regard as objectionable. The system of checks which the present law secures should be continued, and the only change needed in New York is to relieve the Assistant Treasurer of the York is to relieve the Assistant Treasurer of the United States from acting ex officio as Treasurer, by the appointment of a separate Treasurer for the Assay Office. The substitution of copper-nickel for bronze coins we consider unwise, because entailing a heavy expenditure upon the Mint for their manufacture. The intimation in the report accompanying the bill that the measure meets the approval of all the officers of the Mint, Assay Office, etc., we have reason to know is groundless. The general feeling of these gentlemen is decidedly adverse to the bill, and was so stated to the Department.

On Monday next Mr. Joseph Jefferson will commence an engagement, and will appear as "Rip Van Winkle." Mr. Jefferson's engagement will conclude the regular season. There will be a brief summer season, however, during which the company from Wallack's 'I heatre will appear in the drama of The Lancers, now being played with such success in New York. This piece will be produced with all the original scenery, and as the company is reputed to be a very fine one, the performance will undoubtedly attract much for this evening.

On Wednesday Mr. John T. Donnelly will have a benefit, when a great bill of attractions will be offered. Mr. Donnelly is one of the most deservedly popular men connected with the theatrical profession. As a business mana-ger and agent he is brought in contact with all sorts of people, and he has succeeded in gaining the warm regards of all who have any dealings with him. The entertainment on Wednesday evening will be a fine affair of itself, and it will offer Mr. Donnelly's numerous friends an opportunity to give him a substantial token of their esteem. We hope, therefore, that a crowded house will be in attendance, and the receipts be as great as are the deserts of the beneficiary.
AT THE CHESNUT a variety of entertaining features will be presented this evening. AT THE ELEVENTH STREET OPERA HOUSE the last week of the season is announced. A first-rate bill of entertainment will be offered this evening.

AT DUPREZ & BENEDICT'S OPERA HOUSE Allen & Pettingill's Minstrels will commence a season this evening. This troupe is reputed to be a very fine one, and a superior entertainment may be expected.

THE PANORAMA OF "THE PILGRIM" will be exhibited at Concert Hall this evening for the benefit of the Pennsylvania Hose Company. This entertainment will close on Wednesday. THE JEFFERSON GIRLS' GRAMMAR SCHOOL will give a grand musical entertainment at the Academy of Music on Wednesday evening next. An unusually attractive programme has been arranged, one of the features of which is a new operetta entitled Laila. The proceeds of the concert will be devoted to the purchase of a piano for the school.

A DIALOGUE IN WALL STREET.—It is a vulgar error to suppose that the habitues of Wall street converse about nothing but stocks and gold. Sometimes they talk about their health; and they all seem to have one trouble
