FOURTH DAY'S SESSION.

This Morning's Proceedings of the Presbyte-rian General Assembly-General Business— The Consideration of the Reconstruction Committee's Report—The Theological Semi-naries—The Domestic Missionary Work.

The reunited Presbyterian Assembly convened this morning at 9 o'clock, the Moderator, Rev. J. Trumbull Backus, presiding.

D., of Madison, Indiana; Rev. F. De Ward, of New York, and Rev. R. B. Goodall, of Iowa.

The Moderator announced that to-morrow the committee sent by the Assembly to the brethren now in session in Louisville will make their report. He thought it would be well to remember the object of this report in the private and public devotional exercises.

Resolutions on the Order of Proceedings. The following resolutions were then offered and approved:— Overture to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church.

Is it proper for those who have formed or expressed an opinion in a judicial case to sit as judges in said case? Yours, etc. Fisk Harmon. Swede Point, Iowa, April 19, 1870.

Answer—Recommends the dismissal of the overture, as it requests the decision of a case in thesi. Overture to the Presbytery of Peoria; Romans xil, "Knowing the Time."

The memorial of G. H. McIlvaine, William Rey-nolds, and John M. Wilson, Ruling Elders in the Presbyterian Church in the United States, humbly moids, and John M. Wilson, Ruling Elders in the Presbyterian Church in the United States, humbly showeth, that whereas being now the nineteenth century of our Lord, "It is high time for the Church to awake out of sleep," and to exert its dormant energes for the conversion of the world lying in wickedness, and in order to supply the "lack of service" by the regular churches, mission stations are being erected for teaching and preaching the Gospel in destitute localities and to the poor who are averse to enter our more expensive and fashionable churches. And whereas, at some of the stations, it is not always convenient or possible to have ministers present to admit the converts to the scaling ordinances of the Church, therefore

The object of this memorial is to lay the matter before you, and ask your counsel and advice as to whether in absence of a college-bred minister, an ordaned elder (known in our ecclesiastical nomenclature as a "Ruling Elder," and in Bible language as "Bishop," "Elder," or "Presbyter") may admit new converts in such places and circumstances into the visible Church by baptizing them and presiding at the family feast (the Lord's Supper).

Do you know any Scripture that renders it unlawful for the "Ruling Elder" (as he is called in our Church parlance) ministering to the wants and edification of the Church when called on? or Can any man forbid water that these should be baptized? Acts x, 47.

Answer—Reference to our standards which we accept as interpolations of Scripture. See chap. 7, sec. 1, chap. 8 throughout.

The special order of the day was the considera-tion of the report of the Reconstruction Committee. The question of the boundaries of synods was taken up item by item. This subject is treated in the first part of the report. The Long Island Synod.

The Long Island Synod.

An amendment to the first item, concerning the Synod of Long Island, was effered by Dr. Samuel Speer, of Brooklyn, that this item be stricken out and that the churches comprising that proposed synod be joined with those composing that proposed synod be joined with those composing the Synod of New York. Dr. Speer spoke upon the subject, saying that the churches of Brooklyn, and especially his own church, did not want to be disconnected with the churches of New York.

The Discussion. Rev. J. A. Hopkins, of Long Island, took the opposite ground, saying that Long Island now contained sixty-five churches and the third city in the Union. The island was considered of sufficient importance in the Episcopal Church to constitute it a separate diorese.

Rev. Dr. Fowler said it seemed to him the Assembly was hardly prepared to pass on the question of boundaries. No synod shall overlap two States. They must be within one State. I move, therefore, that so much of the report of the Committee on Reconstruction as relates to the boundaries of the synods be docketed, with a view of allowing an opportunity to the commissioners from the different States to hold conventions to consider the bounds of synods.

Considerable discussion ensued in regard to this Dr. Fowler's resolution was considered out of

Dr. Fowless resolution was considered out of order.

Dr. Musgrave said that he thought the motion was out of order unless the former motion commanding the report to be taken up and considered be reconsidered. No motion being offered, the original question on the motion to strike out came up. It was moved that the question of this Synod of Long Island and the Synod of New York be postponed until the other matters in the report should be considered. Withdrawn.

Rev. C. W. Adams, of Connecticut, said the question is the extension of the Church. He understood Long Island well. He thought the extension was going on rapidly there. He thought a separate synod should be formed. They need money and the spirit of enterprise, which the gentlemen from Brooklyn have. The inducate of the Synod of New York is comparatively nothing upon them.

A Memorial.

The following overture from the Presbytery of Long Island, addressed to the General Assembly, was read:- Whereas, It is, in the judgment of the Presbytery of Long Island, highly important for the general interests of evangelical religion, and especially for the Frestyterian Church on Long Island, that the next General Assembly should form a synod of Long Island. Therefore, and Recolved, That this Fresbytery overture the General Assembly to erect such a synod, order that the Stated Clerk forward the foregoing preamble and resolution to the General Assembly as the expression of the sentiments of the Presbytery unanimously adopted on the subject.

The foregoing is an extract from the proceedings of the Presbytery of Long Island, in session at Culchange on the 19th of April, 1870.

Dr. Speer's motion was then put to the vote and lost, and the original suggestion of the committee that the new synod be formed was carried.

Governor Pollock moved that all the items in the report pertaining to this matter be adopted together.

Decided out of order.

A motion of reconsideration was made that Governor Pollock's motion might be in order. Laid on the table.

the table.

The Committee on Correspondence here reported that several delegates from bodies of other denominations were present, and recommended that their names be entered on the roll and that they be received on next Wednesday evening, the time set apart for that purpose. The report was accepted.

The Synod of New York. The second item on the Synod of New York was then considered.

Rev. Mr. Dunn, of Beston, spoke against this item.

Rev. Mr. Dunn, of Beston, spoke against this item. kev. Mr. Dunn, of Beston, spoke against this item because it included the New England churches. If a separate synod was formed he thought he could promise four or five new churches around Boston alone within a year.
A motion was made that the item be amended so as not to include the New England States. Lost.
The second item was then adopted as read.

The synod of Albany, which it is proposed shall include north of the New York Synod and east of the western line of the counties of Delaware, Schoharle, Montgomery, Fulton, Hamilton, and Franklin, with New England north and east of Jonnecticut. Mr. Richards, of Delaware, said he had no motion to make. The western boundary of the Synod of Albany passes through the county of Susquehanna We wish to go together. We are divided now. We wish some measure proposed by which we can talk the matter over.

the matter over.

It was moved and seconded that the third item then be postponed. Lost.

A motion was then made that it be referred to a committee for action. Withdrawn.

Mr. Richards, of Delaware, offered an amendment, so that the western boundary of the Synod of Albany shall be the western boundary of the county of Greene instead of Delaware.

Rev. Dr. Wisner desired that this matter should be postponed, so that it could come up before the members on the ground. The Adjournment.

Pending the question a motion was made by Rev. D. R. Love to adjourn until 3% P.M. in order to give the commissioners of the different States time to con-sult together and agree on the course to be pursue in their own particular cases, and thus greatly expedite the business of the Assembly. The Assembly then adjourned at 12 o'clock M. with prayer by Dr.

Among the printed documents submitted to the Assembly on Saturday was the sixty-eighth annual report of the Board of Domestic Missions of the late "Old School" branch, of which Rev. George W. Musgrave, D. D., of this city, is Corrasponding Secretary. The report shows the operations of the board during the year ending March 1, 1870. We present the following abstract of it:—

The whole number of missionaries in commission

during the year was 613, which is 67 more than the year preceding. They were located in the following states and Territories: 1 in Arizona. 18 in New Jersey, 2 in New Mexico, 27 in New York, 11 in North Carolina, 49 in Ohio, 3 in Delaware, 4 in Oregon, 71 in Pennsylvania, 8 in South Carolina, Indiana 81 in Iowa, 98 in Kansas. 7 in Tennessee, 3 in Texas,

1 in Missouri,
The number of churches and missionary statio wholly or in part supplied, as far as reported, by the missionaries, is 705. The number of newly organ-ized churches is 62. The number of admissions on ized churches is 62. The number of admissions on examinations on examination is 3107, and on certificate, 2229; making a total admission of 5336. The number in communion with churches connected with the Board is 28,839. The number of Sabbath Schools is 510; of teachers 4543; and of scholars 24,810. The number of baptisms is 2943. Of the 613 missionaries who have been in commission during the year, 139 have sent in no special report for the Assembly, more than one-fifth of the whole number:

consequently we must increase all the returns one fifth to make them correct.

The receipts during the present year were less by nearly $30,000, as compared with the year immediately preceding; but they were more by nearly $15,000, as compared with those of 1867-8, and more by $30,000 than those of 1866-7. The falling off the present year as compared with the year immediately preceding was doubtless owing to the extraordinary effort that was made in 1868-9 to extricate the board from its then financial embarrassment.

The payments during the year were $123,406-88; leaving a balance in the treasury on March 1, 1870, of $65,037-59.

The appropriations made to the missionaries from March 1, 1869, to March 1, 1870, were $143,820, which is $30,071 more than the year preceding.

The total amount of receipts from all sources, from March 1, 1869, to March 1, 1870, was $127,727.76.

To which add balance on hand March 1, 1869, $60,716.71; making the available resources of the Board during the year, $188,444.47.

In another place the report says:—

"As the work of consolidation and reconstruction is soon to be effected, it may be proper to state for the information of the General Assembly what is the present pecuniary capital in the possession of The Mission House, owned and occupied by the board, is valued at $35,000. Perma-nent funds, the interest alone of which can be used, $17,000. Lands bequeathed in several States, valued at $0000; and legacies in process of collection, $10,000. Total amount, $132,000."

The missions of the Church were carried on from 1706 to 1716 by the original Presbytery of Philadelphia; from 1717 to 1721 by the Synod of Philadelphia; from 1742 to 1758 by the Synod of Philadelphia; from 1742 to 1758 by the Synod of New York and Philadelphia; and from 1759 to 1802 by the General Assembly. RUN OVER.—About a quarter of twelve o'clock this morning, Christians Brown, aged 5 years, was run over by a truck at Front and atmond streets, and bably injured. She was removed to her parents' residence, No. 718 South Front street. The driver of

"A CHRISTENING."

Miniature Dennybrook Fair-More of the Evil Effects of Rum-A Man Beaten to Death -Probable Death of Another One. Some days ago one James Smith, residing on Wyalusing avenue, near Fifty-fourth street, West Philadelphia, was presented by his wife with a fine boy. Of course, James was happy, and, fixing upon a name, set down yesterday afternoon as the time for the christening of the new son and heir. The child was taken to church and named, and the parties returned to the house of Smith, where the affair was duly celebrated by eating, drinking, and merriment.

Among the friends assembled were Thomas
Golder, Hugh Golder, Pat Golder, Peter McCue, Redmond McManus, and James McCaulley. All of these parties like the "craythur," and there of these parties like the "craythur," and there being "lashings" of it to be had, they indulged rather freely, so freely, in fact, that by the hour of 9 o'clock their animal got the better of their moral nature, and a genuine Irish row followed, the result of which has been the death of one of the participants and the probable death of another. The Golders and McCue all live in one house, on Westminster avenue, near Fifty-fourth street. Thomas is the father of six children; thuch and Peter are unmarried. Thomas for Hugh and Peter are unmarried. Thomas, for economy, says he keeps a cow, and pastures her upon a lot in the neighborhood, which he rents for that purpose. McCaulley also keeps a cow. Two years ago Thomas rented the lot, of which he is now lesses, and held it for the season, much to the disgust of McCaulley. Last season. he being absent, McCaulley secured the use of it, but this season Thomas applied for it in advance of McCaulley, and secured it. It was ever this lot that the row originated. All hands becoming thoroughly intoxicated, true to their Irish nature, they began quarrelling, and soon a miniature Donnybrook Fair was enacted. Thomas, who states that he had twelve or fourteen whiskies, can scarcely remember any more of the occurrence than having received a 'whack from a shillalah," in the hands of McCaulley, over the head. The rest know nothing further about the fight than having participated therein. The battle was kept up for the space of about half an hour, at the end of which time McCaulley and McManus were carried into their residences near by in a dying condition. After the brawl had ended the remainder of the party returned to the house of Smith, and renewing their carousal, kept it up until midnight. They then returned to their homes. A physician having been summoned to attend to the cases of McCaulley and McManus, he announced that the patient could not possibly recover, where-upon a warrant was issued for the arrest of Thomas and Hugh Golden and Peter McCue, and they were taken from their beds at 1 o'clock

A. M., and locked up in the Sixteenth district McCaulley lingered in great agony until 11 o'clock this morning, when death ended his sufferings. Besides being badly beaten about the head, he had sustained internal injuries of a fatal nature. McManus is lying very low, and the chances are that before night he will furnish subject for the Coroner.

The parties are all hod carriers, and come from the counties of Cavan and Fermagh. prisoners look upon the brawl as a natural ap-pendix of "a christening," but deny any intent of attempting to kill their victims. McCaulley leaves a wife, but no chiliren.

The whole affair is another example of the evil caused by the demon rum. PRIZE FIGHTERS ARRESTED .- On Saturday evening Lieutenant Smith, of the Eighteenth district, noticed a crowd of men proceeding down Allegheny avenue towards the Delaware. From the behavior of the party he imagined that a fight was to take place. Summoning a squad of policemen, he proceeded after the crowd, and on nearing the river found a ring pitched and the principals stripped for the fight. He then directed his men to secure the principals, which was done without much difficulty. The rest of the crowd succeeded in escaping. "fightists" were taken to the station, where dricks and Patrick Carroll. They were given a hearing before Alderman McDonald, who held them in $500 each to keep the peace.

WIFE BEATERS .- Two weeks ago John Rogers, residing at No. 628 Andrew street, was sent to prison for wife beating. A few days since he was released, and last evening he again repeated his offense upon his wife. He was re-turned to the County Prison by Alderman Frank Heilig, living at St. John and Brown streets, was committed by Alderman Becker for assaulting his wife in a way other than an affectionate one.

PROFESSOR SILLIMAN'S LECTURE TO-NIGHT. —We have no doubt the Academy of Music to-night will be crowded with a brilliant and in-telligent audience to hear Professor Silliman's interesting lecture on the Yo Semite, and to see the exquisite illustrations which by the aid of the stereopticon he will present us. This won-derful instrument magnifies the glass photo-graphs to a picture twenty-five feet in diameter, with stereoscopic rotundity and clearness.

HIGHWAYMEN .- At a late hour on Saturday night a gentleman was knocked down at Fourth and Locust streets by three fellows who proceeded to riffe his clothing. While engaged in this operation a policeman came along and ceptured one of the party, who gave the name of David Clancy. The prisoner was sent below for trial

The same offense was preferred against Isaac Lewis, who attempted to commit a highway robbery on a gentleman at Second and Race streets, last evening. He was also committed.

CORONER'S INQUEST.—Coroner Taylor this merning held an inquest in the case of the young man Schock, who was killed at Market street wharf on Saturday morning. The jury rendered the following verdict, "That the said John Schock came to his death by being accidentally jammed between a crate and the partition of the office of the West Jersey R. R. Co., at Market street wharf. May 21, 1870. While attaching no blame to the driver of the truck, the jury are of the opinion that if proper accommodations were furnished by the West Jersey R. R. Co. for the handling of freight such accidents could not occur."

A SNEAK THIEF .- During the heavy storm on Saturday night Thomas Edgeley entered Volk's lager-beer saloon, at Second and John streets, and ascended to the upper floors. He was proceeding to ransack the place, when he was in-terrupted by Mr. Volk, who handed him over to a policeman. On his person were found two chisels, a box of matches, and a candle. He was taken before Alderman Lutz and committed

Alderman Massey subsequently accommodated him with quarters in the County

A TERMAGANT.-Yesterday Sarah Griffiths, an occupant of a house at Mayland and Mulberry streets, assaulted a male boarder of the place first with her tongue, and then battered him with her fists. A policeman took her in charge and locked her up. This morning Alderman Godbou held her in $500 to answer.

POLICEMAN BRATEN. - Policeman Reed, o. the Seventeenth district, last evening arrested one Michael Sullivan for disorderly conduct. While on the way to the station Michael turned on his captor and beat him pretty severely. He did not succeed in escaping, but was marched before Alderman Bonsall, who committed him.

FATAL CASUALTY.—Hugh Ergan, aged seven-teen years, employed in the coach painting factory No. 206 S. Eleventh etreet, while pulling wagon across the third story of the bu fell through the hatchway to the first floor. He was killed instantly. His parents reside at Bur-

PILES CAN BE CURED!

DR. GALLAGHER'S CELEBRATED VEGETABLE PILE CURE

Is a quick, safe, sure, and effectual Remedy for BLEED-ING, BLIND, OR ITCHING PILES, PRO-LAPSUS ANI OR FALLING OF THE RECTUM, CONSTIPATION OF THE BOWELS, ETC.

The application and use of this remedy, as well as its effects, are quite different from all others heretofore pre-scribed for the above-named diseases. Its principal vir tues are derived from its internal use, regulating the Liver and Kidneys, and imparting health and vigor to the whole alimentary canal. It is specific in its action, com olotely controlling the circulation of the blood in the homorrhoidal vessels.

CAUSES OF THE DISEASE.

The causes of these complaints are numerous, and are undoubtedly in many instances hereditary; but a sedentary and studious habit, luxurious living, high sea-soned and stimulating food, the intemperate use of spiritous dranks, the very free use of strong coffee and tea, mental depression, sorrow, and grief; in short, whatever tends to weaken the digestive organs, may be sonsidered the most active general causes.

The afflicted can rely with the utmost confidence in this medicine, because the great success that it has met with since its introduction is a sure indication of its real value. For inward and outward applications, if used as directed, it cannot fail to give the fullest estisfaction.
