MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC.

The Ulty Amusements. THE RICHINGS ENGLISH OPERA TROUPE will commence a season of five nights and one matinee at the Academy of Music, on Monday next. The opening opera will be Adam's Pos-tilion of Lonjumeau, which has not been given in this city for many years. On Tuesday even-ing Mr. S. Behrens will have a benefit, on which occasion Meyerbeer's great opera of The Hugnenots will be performed. The Bohemian tiril is announced for Wednesday, for the benefit of Mr. A. S. Pennoyer, and Wallace's Lurline for Friday, for the benefit of Mrs. Bernard.
The Richings troupe, when it appeared here in the early part of the season, had just been organized, and the singers were not accustomed to each other. The result was that the performances did not prove as attractive as the management perhaps desired. Since then, however, some of the inefficient members have been get rid of and more control of the single got rid of, and more competent singers secured in their places; and, by frequent repetitions, the troupe is able to give the various works in their repertoire with the best possible effect. During their recent tour in the West and South they achieved an unusual success, and were warmly praised by the critics of all the cities visited. During the brief season at the Academy of Music which is announced for next week, a number of interesting novelties will be produced, which will doubtless deserve and receive the liberal patronage of the public.

AT THE CHESKUT a variety entertainment will be given this evening which will present a number of new and interesting features.

AT THE WALNUT Mr. Joseph Jefferson will appear this evening as "Rip Van Winkle." This performance is so highly appreciated by the public that Mr. Jefferson is scarcely permitted to do anything else, and it has almost passed into a tradition of the stage that he was lang syne one of the best comedians of the day, with a more extensive repertoire than almost any other actor in his line of business. We could almost wish that our playgoers would cease crowding the theatre when Rip Van Winkle is performed, in order to give Mr. Jefferson encouragement to try something else, if only for the sake of

AT THE ARCH Mr. John Brougham will commence an engagement this evening with his highly spiced drama of The Red Light, in which he will appear as "Ned Macdermot.

Superintendent of Soldlers' Orphans.

In the Pittsburg Commercial we find a communication signed "Boy in Blue," in reference to the vacant superintendency of the Soldiers' Orphans' Schools, as follows:-

As the Senate refused to confirm the appointment of Colonel McFarland to the position of Superintendent of Soldiers' Orphans' Schools, the Governor has signified his intention of appointing some honorably discharged soldier, who is qualified, to the office made vacant. We conceive that some person who has stood high in the estimation of the "Boys in Blue," and who is thoroughly conversant with the duties of the office, should receive that responsible position. During the session of the last Legisposition. During the session of the last Legislature over two-thirds of both houses, including the Speakers, united in a petition asking the Governor to appoint James L. Paul. Not only was he backed up by the members of both houses, but scores of letters from the prominent soldiers of the State were received by the Governor, asking him to confer the appointment upon Mr. Paul, who had served faithfully for four years in Pennsylvania regiments, and who, at the close of the war, was appointed by Secretary Stanton to a first-class clerkship in the War Office, which position he held until the fall of 1866, when he was removed for refusing to support the Johnson administration. He returned to his home in Westmoreland tration. He returned to his home in Westmoreland county, where he engaged in mercantile pursuits until 1868, when he was appointed by Governor Geary Chief Clerk in the Department of Soldiers' Orphans' Schools, which position he has held ever since. As a strong evidence of his fitness for the office of Superintendent, the principals of the schools were the first to name him as a candidate. We have known him since he entered Company A, 63d Regiment, in which company he fought under the gallant Hays, and upon that regiment being mustered out of the service, he re-enlisted and entered the 105th Pennsylania Volunteers, in which regiment he continued until the end of the war. He is a Western man, and his qualifications peculiarly fit him for the position, and we know of no man whose appointment would better satisfy the public, or who would do more good in the cause of the soldlers' orphans. His appointment will be a soldlers' orphans. pointment will reflect credit on the judgment of Governor Geary, and we trust it will not be long until we see his appointment announced.

SPREAD THE FAMILY BOARD WITH LUXURIES .- We might cite the amhorities by the dozen, to show that Irish Moss or Carrageon (from which the celebrated SEA Moss FARINE is made) has long been considered a valuable species of nourishment for the sick-light, digestible, anti-febrile, restorative, and fattening. This is what eminent men have said of Irish Moss as it was-only half purified, and comparatively unconcentrated. The new article (Sea Moss Farine)—which, by the magic of science, has suddenly sprung, pure and perfected, from an old matrix, like Minerva from the bed of Jove-takes a far wider range. To us it is to reduce the expense of living. to spread the family board with luxuries costing less than common fare, and largely to increase that variety in food which is said to be essential to health. It is quickly prepared (ten minutes sufficing to produce a custard or pud-ding), and we think no one who has once become acquainted with its properties will be likely to ever abandon t as an article of diet.

FROM WASHINGTON.

The Ceremonies at Arlington. Despatch to the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, May 30.—After the conclusion of General Logan's oration at Arlington, the choral "Sleepers, Wake," by Mendelssohn, was sung by the grand chorus, accompanied by the Marine Band. The assemblage next proceeded to the tomb of the unknown soldiers, where Rev. Benjamin Swallow, Chaplain of the Department of the Potomac, offered a prayer. "The Children of the Fallen Brave," by J. William Pope, was sung by the chorus, and the ceremony at the tomb of the unknown was performed by the orphans from the National Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home, under charge of the officers and lady managers of the home. The chorus and Marine Band then rendered the "American Hymn," by Keller. The ceremony of decorating the graves throughout the cemetery by the entire assemblage next took place. and soon every grassy mound was covered with beautiful flowers arranged in wreaths, bouquets, Important News-Capture of a Son of Cespedes, and the General Trying to Escape to the United States-The Revolutoin Nearly Over. HAVANA, May 30 .- Captain-General De Rodas has received official information that Colonel Benegasi captured Oscar Cespedes, son of President Cespedes, five leagues from Guaimara. Aquillera and Rubalcabo escaped during the surprise of Cespedes' forces, near the abovementioned place.

An American colonel, John Glancey, has been killed. General Cavada has ordered the destruction of plantations in the Camaguey district, and a number of the largest have already been burned. Among the prisoners recently captured were the party who killed seven woodcutters on the outskirts of Puerto Principe. Captain-General De Rodas picked out seven of the band and had them executed in retaliation for the deaths of the woodcutters.

A telegram from Puerto Principe to the Voz de Cuba says it is positively known that President Cespedes is trying to escape to the United States, but is prevented accomplishing his purpose by his partisans. Insurrectionists continue to present themselves in large numbers to the Government forces, and ask for pardon. The steamships Borussia, from New York, and George Cromwell, from New Orleans, arrived this morning.

BASE BALL. Athletic vs. Atlantic of Brooklyn.

Special Despatch to The Evening Telegraph.

ATHLETIC BASE BALL GROUND, SEVEN-TEENTH AND COLUMBIA AVENUE, May 30 .- AB immense throng of spectators is present to witness the match between the Atlantic of Brooklyn and the Athletic of this city. At this hour -3 P. M.-there are five thousand people in and around the grounds, and thousands more arriving from all directions.

The excitement surpasses any exhibited at any previous game this season, and the betting is considered in favor of the Atlantics. The grounds are in tolerably good condition considering the unfavorable weather of the last few days. A slight drizzling rain is now prevailing, the players are passing the ball around, and the game will begin in a few minutes.

The Gordon Hemicide. Court of Oyer and Terminer-Judges Allison and Paxson.

This morning the Court took up the case of Susan Green, charged with the murder of Ann Gordon. On Saturday David Gordon, nusband of the deceased, was tried upon this charge, but on the fall-ure of the evidence to prove that death resulted from the violence inflicted by him, he was acquitted. It appeared that Mrs. Green and her husband were It appeared that Mrs. Green and her husband were tenants of Gordon, and the families lived in the same house, 1326 Mott street. On Saturday evening. April 23, a dispute and fight occurred between the men, which was taken up and warmly engaged in by the wives. The prosecution allege that in this fight Mrs. Green forced Mrs. Gordon's head against a rough brick wall and struck her several blows upon the face, causing bruises which grew worse and worse until she was taken to her bed. While suffering from these wounds she gave birth to a still-born child, and on the 29th of the month she died of congestion of the brain, caused by this violence to the head, and superinduced by the condition of the woman's system. ## LIONS ATTACKING AN ACTRESS.

A Terrific Scene at the Bowery Theatre—A Tragdy not Down on the Bills.

A frightful scene more exciting in its details than the very strongest blood and thunder tragedy that a Bowery audience ever witnessed, occurred at the Bowery Theatre on Saturday night. The performance of the strongest of t ances were drawing to a close, expectation was on tiptoe to witness the brave and daring acts of Miss Minnie Wells with the Puma lions. That young lady entered upon the stage, made her courtesy to the audience, and immediately went into the cage containing the lions—the crowded audience meantime watching the exhibition with breathless interest. Suddeply, while the young actress was going through her performance with the animals, piercing screams broke the awe-struck silence of the theatre, and the audience were horrifled at the sight of a huge I'on seizing the young lady by the throat and lacerating her in such a frightful manner that the blood poured in streams upon her dress. The actors and attend-ants upon the stage rushed forward and struck at ants upon the stage rushed forward and struck at the enraged brute, and finall' succeeded in causing him to relinquish his hold upon Miss Wells, who was dragged from the cage in a fainting condition. She was carried home by her parents and received prompt surgical atten-dance. The scene among the audience battles de-scription. Several women fainted, and men shouted with agony at witnessing a danger which they were powerless to prevent. Information of the event was brought to the Franklin street police-station, and Captain Kennedy, of the Sixth precinct, with a large force of police, was promptly on hand, and succeeded in restoring order, so that the theatre was cleared without further accident.—New York
