LEGISLATURE.

Contest Mext Fall.

Present Status of the Two Houses, and their Probable Future Complexion-The Outgoing Senators and their Successors.

On the next Legislature will devolve the responsible duty of apportioning the State into Congressional, Senatorial, and Assembly districts. and it is of the utmost importance, therefore, that the Republicans maintain their ascendancy in both branches. Under the present congressional and Legislative apportionments, it is possible for the Democrats to carry the State on the popular vote, and yet lose the control of the General Assembly. In 1867 the Democrats elected Justice Sharswood by a popular majority of nearly 1000, and yet the Republicans held their supremacy in both the Senate and House.

The Outgoing Senators. The present Senate is divided politically into 18 Republicans and 15 Democrats. In the Republican list we class Mr. Lowry, who claims to be an independent, with decided Republican proclivities, and is in fact eminently eccentric in his political movements. The following Senators retire in October: -

3. Philadelphia-David A. Nagle, Dem. Chester, Delaware, and Montgomery-Charles

5. Chester, Delaware, and Montgomery-Charles
H. Stinson, Rep.
6. Bucks-R. J. Linderman, Dem.
7. Lehigh and Northumberland-R. S. Brown, Dem.
8. Berks-J. Depuy Davis, Dem.
9. Schuylkill-William M. Randall, Dem.
14. Lycoming, Union, and Snyder-John B. Beck,

Blair, Huntingdon, Centre, Millin, Juniata, and Perry—Charles J. T. McIntire, Dem., and John K. Robinson, Rep.
 Alleghany—Thomas Howard, Rep.
 Crawford and Erie—Merrow B. Lowry, Rep.

Of the retiring Senators, it will be seen that seven are Democrats and four Republicans, and three of the Republican Senators hall from districts so decidedly Republican that it is safe to count them as certain to return Senators of like faith next fall. The Fifth district has 3000 Republican majority on a full vote; the Twentyfifth has 6000; the Twenty-ninth has 3500; and the Twenty-first district, now represented by one Republican and one Democrat, has 500 Republican majority on an average vote. The Third District.

The Third district is composed of the Fifth, Sixth, Eleventh, Twelfth, Sixteenth, Seventeenth, and Eighteenth wards of this city, and voted as follows for Governor last year:-

Wards.	Geary.	Pucker.
Fifth	385	1581
Sixta		1267
Eleventh	847	1546
Twelfth		1389
Sixteenth	1596	1593
Seventeenth		1659
Eighteenth		1713
Mar. 2 2
Total	9217	11,048
Democratic majority, 1831.
- Property and the second of t	and the second second second second

The colored vote will add nearly 1000 to the Republican vote and make the district close, and political success may depend upon the relative strength of the candidates. The contest for the Democratic nomination will be between Nagle, present Senator, Daily, present member of the House, and Donnelly, formerly a member of the House. The Republican nomination is not warmly contested. The Fifth District.

In the Fifth district Mr. Stinson, of Montgomery county, late Speaker of the Senate, will be presented by his county for renomination, and Major Pomeroy, Colonel Pennypacker, and H. S. Evans, of the Record, of Chester, are contesting the nomination in that county. All are experienced legislators. Major Pomeroy has been two sessions in the House, Colonel Pennypacker has served three sessions, and Mr. Evans has served in both House and Senate. Delaware county will prebably be called upon to decide between Mr. Stinson and the nominee of Chester county. The nominee will of course be elected.

The Sixth District. In the Sixth district the Democrats will likely nominate a new man, and if the Republicans are prudent and vigilant they have nearly an even chance for success. The colored vote will be quite as large as the average Democratic majority, and with a full Republican vote the county could be carried, but we do not class it as Republican. Last year the vote stood 6505 for Geary, and 7061 for Packer-a Democratic majority of only 556.

The Seventh District. In the Seventh district Mr. Brown will be rotated out for a Lehigh county man, in accordance with inflexible usage in that section, and his successor will, of course, be a Democrat. The Eighth District.

In the Eighth district Mr. Davis has already been twice elected, once for the unexpired term of Mr. Clymer, and again for a full term. He is likely to be his own successor. We believe that the Republicans do not hope to carry Berks this year. The Ninth District.

In the Ninth district there will be a bitter contest for the Democratic nomination and an earnest fight for success at the election. Mr. Randall has been twice elected, and will pretty certainly be renominated. Colonel Cake, now M. C., is spoken of as the Republican candidate, and should he be nominated there will be an exhausting struggle, with the chances in favor of the Republicans. The vote for Gevernor in 1869 stood 7902 for Geary, and 8901 for Packera Democratic majority of 999.

The Fourteenth District. In the Fourteenth district the Republicans have twice thrown away the Senator by local feuds or bad nominations. In 1864 Judge Walls (Dem.) was elected over Mr. Shriver; and again in 1867 Mr. Beck (Dem.) was elected over Mr. Wingert. The vote of the district for Gevernor last fall was as follows:

BOOD THEFT MATERIAL PARTY MANAGEMENT
Countier,	Geary,	Packer.
Lycoming	4063	4587
Suyder		1315
Union		1207
	2777

Republican majority, 451. This district has now been represented for six consecutive years by a Democratic Senator, and unless the Republicans are wise in selecting their candidate they will lose the district again. The local divisions in the party are serious, mainly growing out of the defeat of legislative candidates because they did not answer the political and speculative purposes of Mr. Cameron. All the counties will present candidates. Colonel A. C. Simpson will be nominated by the Republicans of Snyder, with fair prospects of a nomination, and ex-Senator Johnson will be presented by Lycoming. The Democratic candidate will be either Mr. Beck, present Senator, or Mr. Dill, present member of the House.

The Twenty-first District. In the Twenty-first district both the Democratic candidates were returned as elected, but in a contest the celebrated "coffee-pot" fraudulent naturalization papers were developed, and Mr. Shugert (Dem.) was ejected and Captain Robinson (Rep.) given the seat. The vote for Governor in the district last fall was as fol-

Republican majority, 387. It will be seen by the above table that Huntingdon county fell far short of her usual majority last fall. They had an open disruption of the party on local offices, and nearly half the Republican majority was wasted. Had Huntingdon given her full Republican vote, Geary's majority in the district would have been fully 800. On a full vote, the Republicans could give 1000 majority. If the Republicans do not elect two Senators in this district, and thus gain one, it must be because they waste their power in factional warfare. General Beaver, of Centre; Mr. Woods, of Mifflin: Mr. McCrum, of Blair (editor of the Altoona Tribune), and several others are named for the Republican nomination. Mr. McIntire, present Democratic Senator, will not be renominated. The Twenty-fifth District.

In the Twenty-fifth district Mr. Heward was elected last fall to fill the vacancy made by the resignation of Mr. Errett, and he is a candidate again, with Mr. Anderson, and Mr. Humphreys, present member of the House, as competitors. Mr. Humphreys is the candidate pressed by the labor organizations. A triangular fight is barely possible but hardly probable, and the Republican nominee will be elected.

The Twenty-pinth District. In the Twenty-ninth district candidates are as thick as falling leaves in autumn, and among them is the irrepressible Lowry, who proposes to run against all conventions and party rules. Lowry has served nine years, and Crawford now naturally claims the candidate. Mr. George K. Anderson, well known in this city as a large oil producer, seems to be the most prominent candidate for the Republican nomination. Mr. Sturdevant, an old member of the House, and Mr. Delameter, another successful oil man, are Mr. Anderson's chief competitors. Lowry's present purpose is to unite the Democrats on himself as an independent candidate, and divide the Republicans sufficiently to succeed. In any event, however, we confidently count on the success of the Republican nominee.

The Prospects of the Republicans. If the Republicans should act with ordinary discretion, they must elect in all the districts now represented by Republicans, and gain two in the Fourteenth and Twenty-first districts. They have but to exercise their own available strength to make the next Senate stand as fol-

New Senators..... 6

Republican majority, 7. If, however, the Republicans should waste their power in the Fourteenth and Twenty-first districts, as they have done in the past, they would lose one Senator from their present strength, and the next Senate would stand

New Senators..... 3 16

Republican majority, 1. In the feregoing we present the best and the worst aspects the next election for the Republicans, and it will be seen that nothing short of a political whirlwind can lose them the control of the Senate.

The House of Representatives. The last House stood 60 Republicans to 40 Democrats, Republican majority 20. In this city the Republicans elected 13 of the 18 members, but it is not probable that more than 13 can be chosen next fall. Unless improved nominations are made there is danger that two or three districts may be lost. Looking over the State, we do not see where the Republicans can gain more than four members under the most favorable circumstances, viz: two in Franklin and Perry and two in Huntingdon, Mifflin, and Juniata. In these districts the Democrats have an even chance with the Republicans, and it is not safe to count on changes. In a bad tide it is possible for the Republicans to lose three in Indiana and Westmoreland, three in Lycoming, Union, and Snyder, two in Luzerne, and two in Bedford, Fulton, and Somerset-ten in all-which, counting the remainder of the State to elect as last year, would make the House a tie. In 1849 the House was a tie, but for thirty-one years one of the great parties has had a working majority in the popular branch of the Legislature. It is not probable, however, that the Republicans can mauage so badly as to throw away all the close districts, and it is reasonably safe to calculate that the next Legislature will have from 15 to 25 Republican majority on joint ballot. The State must give over 10,000 Democratic majority to carry the Legislature against the Republicans.

CHAMDERS! WRITING AND COPYING INC. Mersbants, | book keepers, and all others who have occasion to do much writing are constantly annoyed by the unraliable quality of many of the inks and writing fluids of the day and a good ink that will flow freely from the pen, that will not gum, that will be jet black, and that will copy readily, is certainly a desideratum. These important qualities are all combined in an eminent degree in Chambers' Writing and Copying Ink, which has given perfect satisfaction wherever it has been tried. It makes a beautiful manuscript, flowing with great freedom from the pen, and it will make a perfectly legible copy. Those who are autoyed by the unsatisfactory character of many of the inks in use enould at least give this a trial, and judge for themselves of its superiority. Evans, Stoddart & Co., No. 719 Sansom street, are the sole agents for Chambers' Writing and Copying Ink, and book-keepers and others who are interested will find it to their advantage to call on them. The prices are low, and a liberal discount to the trade will be

THE SOLACE OF AGE .- PLANTATION BITTERS is an agreeable compound of St. Croix Rum-the most nutrimental of all distilled liquors and a variety of tonic alterative and anti-bilious vegetable productions, among which is the most invaluable of invigorators, Calisaya back. The spiritnous basis is manufactured by the agents of the proprietors, from the sugar-cane, on their own lesschold plantations in the West Indies; and the Calisaya bark is gathered and prepared for exportation from South America by the employes of the firm. Both, therefore, can be guaranteed to be unadulterated, and of the finest quality.

For these reasons PLANTATION BITTERS is recommended as an unequaled invigorating cordial for aged persons, But it has a stronger recommendation than that of the proprietors, viz. the testimony of thousands in the decline of life who have tested its revivifying properties, The record covers a period of more than ten years, and includes both sexes and all ages, from fifty to four-score

Ogdenseure, June 3.—Tuily, conductor on the Rome, Watertown and Ogdensburg Railroad, publishes the following card:

To the Press of the Country:—Having seen a despatch to the press stating that the United States troops fired on Fenians during a riot at Williams-town, N. Y., on the first of June, I beg leave to give, in justice to the troops and their commander, Lieutenant George W. Deshier, 1st Artillery, a correct statement of the affair.

On the arrival of the train at Williamstown, a few New York roughs left the train, and got into a dispute at the hotel. The train starting before they got on beard, some of their party cut loose the cars, containing about two hundred Fenians and forty roughs. The Fenians demurred at this, and a riot commenced, the roughs drawing their revolvers and shooting in every direction.

shooting in every direction.

At this stage of affairs, having run back my train and considering the lives of my passengers in danger, I requested Licutenant Deshler to interfere and put a stop to it. He did so in a most galiant manner, having to lead his men some distance up a steep bank under a heavy fire before he could form them. Having formed with six men, he called upon the rioters to disperse, and charged in front of his party with fixed bayenets. Without firing a shot the disturbance was quelled, and the rioters were in the cars in less than five minutes after the charge was made.

Mr. Morton presented and had read by the Clerk a memorial and resolutions of Israelites of Indianapolis, calling attention to the massacre of Jews in Roumania, and requesting the interposition of the President of the United States in behalf of that persecuted and outraged people. Referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations.

Mr. Summer then offered a resolution calling upon the President, if in his opinion not incompatible with the public interests, for any information in the Department of State concerning a reported persecution and massacre of the Israelites in Roumania. He said the reports were so absolutely horrible that it was but natural to suppose them greatly exagerated. It was incumbent upon us, in the interest of humanity, to possess all the information concerning it that might be attainable.

Mr. Sprague attributed the cause of the massacre to the fact that the Jews had obtained possession of all the business, there was on the other hand an eager, money getting, trade-monepolizing population.

It was this condition of things that had brought about the spectacle which the world to-day centemplated. There was food for reflection in this for the Senate and for our own country.

was food for reflection in this for the Senate and for our own country.

Mr. Stewart remarked that if it was the intention of Senater Sprague to establish the rule that when a man got rich he ought to be killed, it might not inconvenience some Senators, but would bear very hard upon others, and among them the Senator from Rhode Island.

Mr. Summer's resolution was then agreed to.

A general discussion then took place as to the order of business, Mr. Trumbull endeavoring to get up the bill for the apportionment of representatives in Congress among the several States. He arged its importance in view of the late large increase of the voting population by the accession of the colored element, necessitating changes in representation in various States. The taking of the consus which was now proceeding, and the increase of population is the West, were additional reasons for these changes.
