NEWS SUMMARY.

City Affairs. -Last night, about midnight, "Spotted Tail," "Swift Bear," "Fast Bear," and "Yellow Hair," the Sioux Indians who have been on a visit to the President, reached the Continental Hotel. They were in charge of the Indian Agent and an interpreter, and, notwithstanding the lateness of the hour, quite a crowd gathered in the hotel to note their appearance. The chiefs were in Indian costume-the traditional blanket, leggings, and moccasins-but wore soft felt hats, and carried palm leaf fans, the mixture of the civilized and savage dress producing a peculiar effect. The Indians will remain to-day, and then leave for New York. -John Gaguer, admitted to the Penusylvania Hospital on the 20th ult., from injuries received while getting off the cars at School lane, died in that institution yesterday.

—John O'Dowd was admitted to the Hospital yesterday, seriously injured by falling from a scaffold on Market street. He resided at Broad and Catharine streets.

Domestic Affairs.

-Gold closed yesterday at 1131. -Secretary Boutwell has gone home for a short visit. -Judge Noah Davis' Naturalization bill has been killed. -A number of postal changes were made in this State yesterday.

-Senator Cragin has been renominated by the New Hampshire Republican Legislative caucus. -The Internal Revenue receipts this month have averaged over a million dollars a

-The next annual meeting of the National Photographers' Association will be held in Philadelphia in June, 1871.

-The discovery of a subterranean outlet to the Great Salt Lake is reported by the captain of the schooner Pieneer.

-A resolution was passed by the National Typographical Convention, at Cincinnati, yesterday, encouraging female compositors to co-operate with males whenever employed together.

-In their report on the indebtedness of Southern railroads, the House Judiciary Committee recommended the abandonment of the pending suits with a view to a compromise, as suggested by the debtors.

—A most gratifying increase in our ex-ports for the first three-quarters of the current fiscal year over the corresponding period of last year, is shown by the monthly statistical report just issued. Instead of a balance of nearly sixty millions against us, there is one of over two millions in our favor.

-In the United States Senate yesterday, after the close of our report, the Apportionment and Franking bills were discussed. In the House, Mr. Davis, of New York, reported his naturalization bill, and after discussion it was tabled by a vote of 102 to 62. Mr. Davis moved a reconsideration, he having voted affirmatively for that purpose. Mr. Judd then moved to lay the motion to reconsider on the table, pending which the House adjourned.

Foreign Affairs.

-The insurrection at Lucca was an insignificant affair and soon quelled. -Engenie has sent ten thousand francs to the sufferers by the Constantinople fire. -Pio Nono has written a letter in which he sustains, in positive terms, the dogma of infallibility.

-The brigands who recently captured a party of Englishmen near Gibraltar have been captured and made to disgorge a portion of the money paid as ransom for their captives.

PENNSYLVANIA MEDICAL SOCIETY. Yesterday Afternoon's Session.

The society met at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoou.

$1,790,646 97

The report of the Committee on Nominations was received. The names of the following gentlemen for officers of the society were presented by the committee:-President-Samuel D. Gross, M. D., of Philadelphia. Vice-Presidents-Joseph Parrish, M. D., Delaware county; William R. Dewitt, M. D., Dauphin county; Thomas R. Hull, M. D., Columbia and Montour counties; George D.

Bruce, M. D., Allegheny county. Corresponding Secretary-Lawrence Turnbull, M. D., Philadelphia. Permanent Secretary-William B. Atkinson, M. D., Philadelphia. Recording Secretary-J. M. McVickers, M. D., Lycoming county.

Treasurer-William Maybury, Philadelphia. The committee also recommend Williamsport, Pa., as the place, and the second Monday of June next as the time, for holding the next meeting. This report was accepted. Dr. Atlee's resolution on the subject of women's colleges, deferred from yesterday morning's session, was taken up and discussed. Speeches were made in favor of the resolution by Drs. Atlee, Parrish, John Atlee, Corson, and Haysham, and in opposition by Drs. Bell, Stetler, Maybury, Hamilton, and others. During the discussion, Dr. John Atlee alluded to the age of progress in which we live, declaring that we cannot deny to regular graduates of a regular institution their rights and privileges as physicians, whether they be male or female, white or black, provided they live according to the code of ethics. This daclaration gave rise to considerable applause, mingled with hisses.

Pending the discussion of the resolution, the society adjourned until this morning.

At a circus performance in Liberty, Mo., on Wednesday, Professor White entered the den of llons, and was quickly very glad to be hauled out again. One of the lions, it seems, had conceived a dislike to White, and at once made for him, crushed one of his arms, bit a piece out of his side, and altogether grieved him very much.

THE PENNSYLVANIA FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY.

Incorporated 1825—Charter Perpetual.

No. 510 WALNUT Street, opposite Independence Square. This Company, favorably known to the community for over forty years, continues to insure against loss or damage by fire on Public or Private Buildings, either permanently or for a limited time. Also on Furniture, Stocks of Goods, and Merchandise generally, on liberal terms. Their Capital, together with a large Surplus Fund, is invested in the most careful manner, which enables them to offer to the insured an undoubted security in the case of loss.

This spout has by a two years' trial proved to be a success, having put up some 500 stacks, every one of which has given entire satisfaction. It is a spiral coil, thus dispensing with the upright seam, which invariably breaks first in the spout. We guarantee it to be firm, more durable, to bear more freezing, and cost less than any other good spont. Roofing and Guttering at reasonable prices. Old Roofs Repaired and Painted. [5 21 Im
