NEW.YORKISMS.

rom Our Can Correspondent.

NEW YORK, June 18, 1970. The Indinus Agnin.

Red Cloud and his compatriots have made a great success here. Red Cloud's speech at Cooper Institute on Thursday afternoon is generally admitted to have been the most dramatic and picturesque revelation of the kind that has ever been beheld in this city. The speech of Red Dog, too, was full of the broad and biting areasm of the prairies. It was wonderful that hese two men, fresh from the unconventionalies of forest life, should have been able to ddress a crowded civilized audience in that reat subterranean semicircle known as Coopernstitute. The atmosphere was sickening, but every seat was taken. All the aisles were crowded. Each doorway was blocked up. The perspiration streamed in channels down the faces of the auditory. Handkerchiefs did a great deal of mon-work over inflamed visages. Flies buzzed, and the unfragrant steam of cooked humanity thickened the air of that vast apartment. How those wildwood warriors, seated upon that bare wooden platform, must have pined for one breath from the natural refrigerators of their native lakes and woods and monntains ! Yet in spite of these uppromising surroundings Red Cloud and Red Dog both spoke wonderfully well, Red Cloud being most remarkable for the stern majesty and profound pathos of his appeals, Red Dog for his uncouth yet bitter and pointed sarcasm, which , must have entered some hearts that heard it like a poisoned Indian arrow. Not even the slowness of the interpretation, sentence by sentence, appeared to lessen the interest of the auditory or to hinder the vehemence of its applause. The gestures of both these warriors, but of Red Cloud in particular. were singularly eloquent and noble. It was the perfection of natural pantomime, possessing the largeness and grandeur which no art can altogether affect. It has been proposed that this speech, which was prepared with the assistance of General Smith, shall be repeated in sll the principal cities of the Union. Certainly it would be a better advocate of Red Cloud's cause than any other that could be conceived of.

Step-Children.

By step-children-and more particularly the step-children of New York-I do not mean the shildren appertaining to a step-father or a stepmother. I mean those pests of society who beset door-steps after 6 o'clock at night and make night hideous with noise until long after the time when the children of sensible parents ought to be in bed. I know that New York affects to be a great metropolis, but it cherishes in its heart of hearts a provincialism of which Philadelphia would be ashamed. In no country town will you find half the nuisance arising from children around door-steps after nightfall that you encounter in this wretchedly pretentious Gotham. If you except the more aristocratic streets, such as Fifth avenue, Fourteenth street, Twenty-third, Thirty-fourth, and Fortysecond, you will not discover a neighborhood that is not, during the summer months, made intolerable with the boisterousness of the children. Talk of the nuisance of street cries! That nulsance is nothing to the screams and cries of the children. Rachel's children must have been born dumb, or she would never have wept for them-at least had she been of my way of thinking. If you will point out to me the propriety of allowing one's front-door steps to be made impassable by imps wearing the outward form of human children. all yelling "Shoo-Fly" at the top of their voices. I will endeavor to view that phenomenon in a favorable light. Until then, please regard me as in a state of opposition to street children bordering upon detestation and hatred. A babe in the house may be a well-spring of pleasure, but a babe on the door-step is a mainspring of disgust, and its parents ought to be made to suffer in the internal revenue tax. A Beautiful Billiard Club. Billiard clubs are comparatively new institutions in this city, although they are well known on the other side of the water. A handsome and convenient one is now flourishing on Broadway, near Twenty-ninth street. It is a hundred feet long, fifty feet wide, contains fourteen tables, and has three hundred members. It is supplied with all the periodicals of the day, domestic and foreign; is furnished with fifteen chess tables, a piano, and numerous paintings, engravings, statues, and articles of vertu. A pneumatic tube between it and the Coleman House has also been constructed, through which refreshments are supplied at a moment's notice. One of the features of the club is that the reading-room is kept open on Sundays-after the style of Philadelphia. This is where our Mercantile Library failed through the old fogyism of some of its members. In Philadelphia you have your likrary open, and there are some soothsayers there who connect that impious fact with the hailstorm that recently devastated you, though whether the hailstorm was to punish the people who used the reading-rooms of a Sabbath. or those who supported the drinking saloons upon that day, I will not take upon me to decide. In New York we cannot keep either the library or the liquor saloon open, or if we do sell liquor there we do it on the sly. We have not yet reached that Philadelphian point of spirituality in which food for the mind and stimulant for the body are supplied in simultaneous instalments. The nearest approach we have made is in this Billiard Club, where even on Sundays the pneumatically-despatched instalments from the Coleman House occasionally take a liquid form. and refresh the gentlemen in the reading-room.

OUR RELIGIOUS COLUMN.

SUMMARY OF CHURCH NEWS.

EPISCOPAL. - Rev. William Pinkney, the recently-elected Assistant Bishop of Maryland, was originally a Methodist

-Professor W. W. Niles, of Tribity College, Hartford, has been elected Bishop of New Hampshire

-The Episcopal Church in Lexington, Kentucky, has built a baptistery in connection with their house of worship, for the purpose of administering baptism by immersion.

The New Jersey Episcopal Convention is the first religious body in the country to introduce the reform of minority representation. Each voter can vote on his ballot for as many persons as are to be elected, or he may give the me number of votes for any one of the caudidates. A dissatified minority was the occasion of the change.

- An incident very strange in Jamaica and rare anywhere in the Fpiscopal Church, oc-curred lately in Kingston. Three children of Baptist parents, now grown up, wished, on joining St. Michael's Church, to be immersed, The rector, Mr. Pierce, consulted the bishop, abo said "there could be no objection to it," and the immersion took place.

-The Episcopal Convention of the diocese of Ohio was beld in Columbus last week. The report of Bishops Bedell and McIlvaine give the ollowing annual statistics:-109 visitations, 906 persons confirmed, 3 deacons ordained, 16 candidates for orders received, 1 church consecrated, and 4 new parishes organized. On the 10th instant the convention adopted a resolution, by a vote of 66 to 60, expressing sympathy with the Evangelical Alliance. This is considered a triumph of the Low Churchmen over the High.

-English laws forbid outdoor ecclesiastical processions, and the Prayer-book says that the pread and wine shall not be carried out of church; and yet a clergyman of the Church of England, Mr. Whitby, recently went in "full cucharistic vestment and biretta, carrying the Blessed Sacrament, covered with the pall and veil of linen and lace, the outer one of silk being over all, two acolytes following, with the burse, cruets, and books," to the bedside of a dying parishioner, reaching him just in time to save his soul by the ordinance: though it was necessary to pull his jaws apart, and pour the wine down his throat, that he might receive the 'chalice of the Viaticum." The Low Church party are aghast at this ritualism, especially as the Bishop of Winchester recently participated approvingly in a service in which this same Mr. Whitby took a prominent part, which was made as Catholic as possible, with its processions and nuns and candles, in defiance of the recent judgment of the Court of Arches.

CONGREGATIONAL.

-The Pacific Theological Seminary (Congrepational) has ended its first year of existence. At the anniversary the four students gave addresses and recited passages of Scripture in Greek, Hebrew, Latin, and Welsh. The institution has two professors and $50,000 of property, of which Dr. Stone collected $25,000 in Boston.

-The new edifice of the First Congregational Church of Chicago, has just been finished at a cost of $$180\ 000$. A peculiarity of this church is that the reading desk, or pulpit, is provided with a copper speaking-trumpet, which is connected with eleven pews, where, with rubber hose and cup attached, the deaf may enjoy a sermon as well as those not so unfortunate.

-Dr. Goodwin, of the First Congregational Church, Chicago, Ill., has returned from his foreign tour. The church of which he is pastor bas, during his absence, completed a large and attractive edifice. The best of all is the readi-ness and liberality with which the congregation have subscribed to pay the bills. Eighty-five thousand dollars were raised on a late Sunday -The veteran missionary, Rev. Titus Coan, comes to his native land for the first time after an absence of thirty-five years. There is probably not more than one Protestant minister

METHODIST. -The Methodist ministers in Connecticut have deelared against the propriety of licensing women to preach the Gospel. -The gain of the Southern Methodist Church in twenty-five years has been but about 76,099, while that of the Northern has been nearly 635,000, -The Rev. Henry M. Harman, D. D., of Baltimore, Maryland, has been elected Professor of Ancient Languages in Dickinson College, Carlisle, Penna.

-The Southern Methodist Church is rapidly losing its colored membership-at least, reports but 19,686 colored members against 32.085 last year.

-The Methodist bishops are united in their opinion that a loan fund of one million dollars is the least amount that will enable the Church to do her full work of church extension in the West. -The Rev. J. C. Keener, D. D., of New Orcans, was elected by the recent Southern Methodist Episcopal Conference to be an additional bishop in the Church.

-The hev. A. R. Kropman, who two years ago seceded from the kefermed Church, and went to Pella, Iowa, has been called to the church at High Prairie, Ill.

-The German brethren of the Ross Street Church in Pittsburg. Pa., are furnishing a missionary for the work in China. Their pastor, the Rev. F. Ohlinger, has offered his services to the Missionary Board, been accepted, and appointed to Foochow, China.

-By the will of the late Edward Y. Bright, of Sunbury, Pa., the Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church is made the resi-duary legatee of the estate. It is believed that under this provision the Missionary Society will receive in due time the sum of twenty thousand dollars or more.

-At the spring session of the Classis of Geneva, a communication was received from a number of Hollanders living in Marion, Wayne county, New York, praying for the organization of a church. They have already a beautiful church edifice located in the centre of the village, and it is nearly paid for.

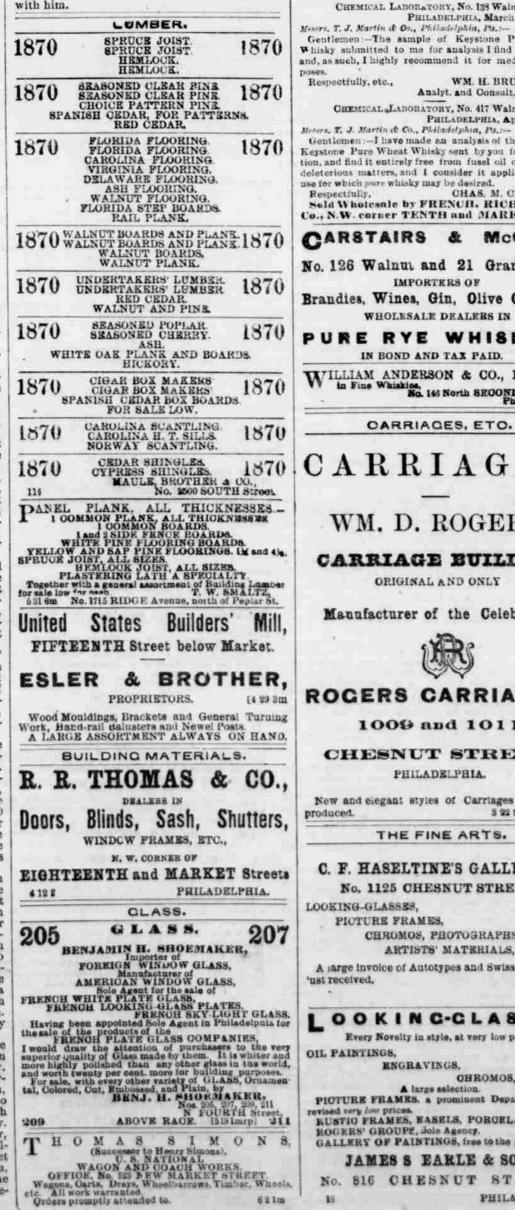

- The Boston Methodist Theological Seminary has been in that city three years. The first year there were 32 students: the second, 44: the third, 59; making it the largest in New England except Andover. The assets of the institution have increased from $15,000 to $200 000, of which $100,000 were given by Isanc Rich, Esq., $25,000 by Hon. Lee Claffin, $10,000 by Governor Claffin, and $5000 by Hos. Jacob Sleeper.

-The Rev. Bishop Simpson, with his wife and daughter, and the Rev. Dr. R. S. Foster, left New York on Wednesday, the 8th instant, in the steamer China, for Liverpool. The Church is already advised that the Bishop and Dr. Foster will probably visit the British and Irish Conferences, and will also visit the Conference of Germany and Switzerland. It is in the Bishon's purpose and plan of work to visit Denmark, Norway, and Sweden, and ordain the missionaries in these fields who have been elected to orders.

BAPTIST.

-The new meeting-house of the Pearl Street Baptiet Church, Albany, New York, will cost about $175,000, exclusive of the furnishing. The church is to be called the "Trinity Baptist Church.

-The Baptists now have three societies: the Missionary Union, for foreign work; the Home Missionary Society, for domestic church extension; and the Bible and Publication Society, formed by the amalgamation of the (Baptist) Bible Society and the Publication Society. The former must not be confounded with the Bible Union, which publishes the New England ver sion of Dr. Conant and other scholars associated with him.

To whom it may concerns-

All the leading medical authorities recognize the value of diffusive stimulants. Numerous eminent physiciaus and surgeons might be named who have advocated their employment in the treatment of a large class of disorders. No Dispensary is considered complete without them They are prescribed in all public and private hospitals, and administered by all bedside practitioners. But the difficulty has been to obtain Alcoholic Liquors Pure.

The pungent aroma of the fusel oil and biting acids pre-sent in all of them can be scented as the glass is raised to the lips. The nauseous flavor of these active poisons is perceptible to the palate, and a burning sensation in the stomach attests their existence when the noxious draught has gone down. Paratysis, idlocy, insanity and death are the pernicious fruits of such potations.

Medical science asks for a pure stimulant to use as a specific, which, while it diffuses itself through the system more rapidly than any other known agent, is brought into direct and active contact with the seat of disease. It is the property of the stimulant to diffuse, and by the aid of its peculiar nutritious component parts to invigorate, regulate, counteract and restore, and it is by the happy union of the principle of activity with the principle of in vigoration and restoration that enables a Satisfactorily Settled.

That wandering Christian and misled individual who intends to accomplish so much good and only succeeds in blundering into an infinite quantity of harm, has been surreptitiously feeling his way about the city at midnight and placarding every available point with such pertinent questions as "What shall I do to be saved?" "How can the soul find rest?" etc. In his pious zeal he has forgotten that humor and the habit of looking at the comic side of things are two of the great sweeteners of life and most genial characteristics of the American people. Accordingly, as if acting in concert, the billposters of the city seemed to have taken every opportunity of depriving the pious ploneer of the spiritual results which he had so fair a right to expect. At almost every point of the city where these questions are posted you will find some irrelevant answer in the shape of a quack advertisement. If the question is, "What shall I do to be saved ?" you will observe in an exactly parallel line the words, "Use Radway's Renovating Resolvent." Or if the appeal, "How shall the soul find rest?" be made, the solution is found in a subjoined placard, "Buy Helmbold's Extract of Buchu." The juxtaposition is unfavorable for the argument, but it affords amusement to the public, who appear to think that the questions are satisfactorily settled. ALI BABA.

living who has baptized more individuals than he has. More than 16,000 persons have received this ordinance at this hands. At one time, after a careful training of two or three years, 1700 converts were admitted to his church at the Sandwich Islands.

-Some one who has looked up New England Congregational statistics says that the riches congregation is the Centre Church, Hartford; estimated wealth, $12,000,000. The Park Street Church, Boston, and the Centre Church, New Haven, have the largest average congregations -from 1200 to 1400 each Sunday. The largest annual contributions are collected in the Shawmut Church, Boston, and the Centre Church, New Haven; average, $12,000.

PRESBYTERIAN.

-Mr. Donald G. Mitchell, of the Hearth and Home, has been commissioned to take charge of the arrangement and improvement of the College grounds at Princeton.

-On a late Sabbath there were thirty-five additions to the Second Presbyterian Church, Richmond, Va., the Rev. Dr. Hoge's, twentythree on profession of faith, many of whom were heads of families.

-The Board of Education of the Reformed Presbyterian Synoa report that thirteen colored students from Mississippi, Georgia, Missouri, Pennsylvania, and Ohio were being educated at Northwood, Ohio, ten being supported by the Church.

-The Independent says that J. C. Baldwin. Esq., of Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church. New York, gave $669,000 to various benevolent objects during the last fourteen years of his life; and by his will gives $72,000 to various benevolent societies, and makes Williams, Wabash, Middlebury, and Hamilton Colleges residuary legatees.

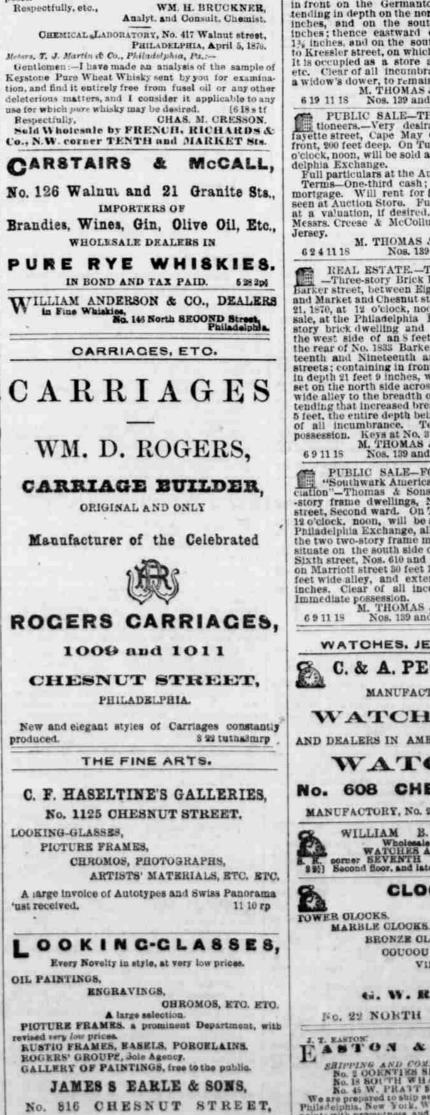

-The Reformed Presbyterians are divided into two bodies, Old-side and New-side. The statistics show that the Old branch is about twice the number of the New, as follows :-- Congregations, 86: ministers, 84: communicants, $204: increase for the year about 700. The Newside now number about 30 ministers, and about the same number of churches.

-In the "Narrative of the State of Religion," presented by Dr. Cuyler to the Presbyterian Assembly, Dr. Cuyler mentioned that several churches had tried with satisfaction the plan of making the eldership rotary rather than permanent. As this is an innovation of a few churches, mainly New School, the Assembly voted to expurge the paragraph.

We hear nothing definite in reference to the progress made by the Presbyterians in collectng their proposed five million reunion fund. The first movement in reference to the Congregational Jubilee Fund comes from California, where it is found that the church debts are $20,000, which will be just the amount of $10 for each member, which it will be necessary for each member to pay in order to raise the entire amount. They have issued a letter to the churches urging them to cancel all these debts as their contribution to the jubilee fund. -The opposition to Presbyterian union in Scotland has been mainly on the part of the Free Church. The General Assembly of that Scotland has Church has just voted, 879 to 144, to send down to the presbyters the consideration of the matter for their opinion, though not for a final deci-sion. This is a decided stop in advance, though the majority is the same as about two years ago on a kindred motion. The United Presbyterian Church makes no opposition, and even the Established Church of Scotland discussed in a favorable spirit the possibility of ultimate union of all the branches of Scotch Presbyterianism. But this cannot take place before the not very distant disestablishment. -The Rev. W. U. Murkland, called to the pastorship of the Franklin Street Presbyterian Church, Baltimore, was installed lately, Rev. E. H. Crumston presided. The installation sermon was preached by the Rev. Dr. Leyburn, and the Rev. J. A. Lefevre gave the charge to the pastor, and the Rev. D. Wilson, of South Carolina, the charge to the people. The Rev. Mr. Murkland is a young, unmarried minister, and had for some time been assisting Dr Bul-lock, the late pastor of the Franklin Street Church. His salary is fixed at $3000 per annum, and the parsonage, a fine building adjoining the church, on the corner of Hamiliton and Cathedral streets.
