An Immense Gathering-Ten Thousand People on the Field-Intense Excitement-A Close Contest-Score 27-25. The following is a full report of the great game between the Cincinnati and Athletic, which was published in our late editions of yesterday. The office of THE TELEGRAPH, during the receipt of the news by telegraph direct from the grounds, was surrounded by a large crowd, anxious to hear the result of each inning, and when the announcements were made on the bulletin the partisans of each nine gave vent to their feelings in out. bursts of applause:-

ATHLETIC BASE BALL GROUND, SEVEN-TEENTH AND COLUMBIA AVENUE, June 23 .-Never before in the history of base ball has there been manifested such an absorbing interest as is felt in the match that is about to take place between the renowned Red Stockings of Cincinpati and the famous Athletics of this citychampions of the United States.

The unparalleled career of the former and the superb play exhibited by the champions during the past season have heightened the interest to such a pitch that it seems to exceed all bounds. As early as 9 o'clock this morning the crowd began to assemble outside the ground, and when the gates were opened at noon two or three thousand rushed in to secure seats. At this hour (2 P. M.) there are over 9000 people within the enclosure, and probably half that number are congregated outside, covering housetops, fences, trees, and other points of elevation within a radius of a quarter of a mile.

The horse-cars running in the direction of the ground are crowded to excess, and thou-sands line the sidewalks on all the avenues leading to the grounds. The day opened clear and pleasant, with a glaring sun and a slight refreshing west wind. The grounds are in the best possible condition, and everything seems favorable for a fair and well-fought battle between the celebrated clubs.

The betting last night was one hundred in favor of the Red Stockings, but to-day even wagers find ready takers. An immense amount of money has been staked on the issue, and the friends of both clubs are so confident of success, they are disposed to risk their last dollar on their favorites. A great change in sentiment has taken place with regard to the strength of the Athletics within the past month, and it is now claimed and generally conceded that they have a "nine" of such material that is second to none in the country.

The Athletics, in addition to their regular club flag, fly a streamer to-day, on which is the word "Champion," and the immense crowd cheerfully endorse them in their claim, notwithstanding the absurd statement of the Atlantics. of Brooklyn, that the game of Monday last was merely a practice game.

2.25 P. M.—The Red Stockings party have just made their appearance on the field, and were greeted with tremendous cheers by the Both clubs commenced to pass the ball around, and the respective captains are looking

The following is the batting order of both Athletic-Reach, 2d base; McBride, pitcher;

FIFTEEN MINUTES PAST 3 .- The crowd has increased to thirteen or fourteen thousand in and around the grounds. There is a squabble about the umpire. The Athletics name Halbach, of the Keystone Club of this city, while the Red Stockings want Mr. Glover, of the Empire Club of New York. McBride offers to toss for it, but the Red Stockings decline

The Game Commenced. After a protracted dispute, John F. McMullen. formerly of the Athletic Club, and now of the Haymakers, of Troy, was chosen umpire. The Athletics won the toss, sending the Red Stockings to the bat, and at 3.35 the men took their positions. FIRST INNING.

George Wright was the first striker for the Red Stockings; one strike was called on him and then he hit a grounder over second base. Al Reach stumbled down. Gould followed with a grounder in same direction. George Wright went to the third, whilst Gould took his first. A wi'd pitched ball sent George Wright and Gould to the third base, where a wild thow of Malone to Pratt sent him home. Waterman struck out. Allison struck a ball to right field, which Schafer let pass, and Allison reached his 3d base. Harry Wright hit a high foul, which Malone let fall, the crowd bothering him. Harry was then badly missed on a foul fly by Pratt, and, striking one fairly to centre field, was superbly caught by Sensenderfer while running at full speed. Leonard closed the inning by putting a high ball, which Fisler took on the fly. Two runs being made in this inning. Reach was the first representative of the Philadelphia club and went to his first base on three called balls. McBride had two strikes called on him, when he hit one to centre field, where Leonard was, having changed off with Wright, and that fine fielder, strange to say, dropped the ball and Reach went to his third, while Dick McBride took up his position on the second. Malone went to his first on

There were three men on the bases when Fisler went to the bat, and by a tremendous hit to right field cleared the bases and made his 3d easily, sending Reach, McBride, and Malone home. Sensenderfer was caught prettily by Waterman on a foul fly. Schaffer made one base by a high hit to short left field, and sent to his 2d on a wild pitch, Fisler coming home. Radeliffe was put out at 1st base by the fielding of Waterman. Bechtel was the next striker, and after two balls had been called on, Brainard made a fine hit to centre field, taking his first and sending Schaeffer home. Pratt had one strike called on him, and then made a spleadid hit to centre field, sending Bechtel to the third, and making his first. Reach had two balls called, and then Pratt stole to the second. A pass ball sent Bechtel home and Pratt to third. Reach went to his first on called balls. Pratt then came home on a throw of Allison to Sweasy, to head off Reach, who succeeded in stealing his second.

McBride waited a long time for a ball to strike. He finally hit a bounder to third base and was put out at first base, Waterman finely throwing the ball. This closed the inning for seven runs, leaving Reach on the second base.

SECOND INNING.

Red Stockings—Leonard was brilliantly caught on a running foul fly by Malone. Sweasy was fortunate enough to make his 2d, the ball bounding over Reach's head at 2d base. A low throw by Malone allowed Swessy to make his 3d. McVey hit to Pratt on the 3d, who not only muffed it but also made a wild throw to 1st, letting Swessy come home while he made his 3d base.

George Wright was missed on a foul fly by Malone, and then hit a high ball to centre field. which Sensenderfer captured in beautiful style, McVey, however, coming home. Gould made lst base by a splendid grounder over second, Sensenderfer fielding the ball in fine style. Waterman hit to Tom Pratt, led to the retirement of Gould, who was forced off his base. Two Athletics-Conard and Harry Wright changed positions. At the commencement of this inning Malone was the first striker and was put out at the first base by Brainard making a neat stop Fisler had a strike called on him, and then struck wildly at another and missed it. He then made a safe hit to centre field and made his first base. Sensenderfer hit to Waterman, who fielded it to second to cut off Fisler, but Sweasy muffed the ball. Schaffer had two strikes called on him, when he hit one to Water-first.

There were now three men on the bases, when a wild pitch sent Fisler home, and Schaffer and Sensenderfer made a base. Radcliffe by a tremendous hit over Harry Wright's head made a clear home run, sending Sensenderfer and Schaffer home. Bechtel made two bases by a wild throw of George Wright. Fratt was put out at 1st base by Sweasy and Gould, and Reach closed the finning by hitting a high ball to right field, which McVey took on the fly, and Bechel was left. Four runs. was left. Four runs.

THIRD INNING. Red Stockings,—Waterman went to his first on three called balls. Allison was given a lift, as Radeliffe, after finely stopping the ball, made a wild throw. Harry Wright hit to Reach, who fielded the ball to Radeliffe on the second in time to cut off Allison. Leonard's fine grounder to right yielded him one base, while it sent Waterman home and Harry Wright to the second. A passed ball gave Harry Wright and Leonard each a base.

Brainard made his second by a fine hit to the centre field, and Leonard and Harry Wright came home. Sweasy was superbly caught on a tip by Malone. McVey made a clean home run by a splendid hit over Sensenderfer's head in among the crowd in the centre field, Brainard coming home. George Wright made two bases by a splendid hit along the foul ball line, and came home on Gould's fine grounder to right

Waterman then hit a ball, which bounded over the home-plate. Malone caught it on the fly while Waterman ran to first. A dispute here arose, and Waterman again took the bat and reached his second on a low throw of Pratt to Fisler, Gould coming home. Allison was put out at first base by Radeliffe and Fisler, Waterman being left on his third. Seven runs were scored, making the score even, eleven runs, uneven innings.

Athletics.—McBride led off, and Brainard commenced pitching rather wildly, and after two balls had been called Dick struck carelessly at high ball, and was caught on a fly foul by Allison. Malone was caught on a high fly by McVey at right field. Fisler made three bases by a splendid hit to centre field, and came home on Sensenderfer's five liner to left field. Henry making his second, Schaffer made a fine hit to left field, which Leonard caught on the fly at last. The umpire decided him, although the decision was very questionable. The inning closed for FOURTH INNING. Red Stockings-Harry Wright was finely caught on the fly by Bechtel, the ball being taken over his head. Leonard made one base by a high hit to left field. Schaffer and Pratt had changed positions at the commencement of this inning. Brainard hit a nigh foul, which Malone was hindered from taking by the crowd.

Brainard then hit to right field and made one base, and took his second on Pratt's failure to stop the ball. Sweasy hit a high ball to short right field, which Pratt fielded so lazily that both Leonard and Brainard came home, McVey and Sweasy to the second, and made his first by a high hit to short right field. George Wright made two bases by a fierce bounder past Radcliffe, and Sweasy came home. Gould was splendidly caught by Sensenderfer.

A wild pitch then sent George Wright home.

Waterman made his first by a heavy hit along foul ball line and was left, as Allison was caught on fly by Bechtel, five runs being scored in this

Athletics-Radcliffe made one base by high hit to short right field, which McVey tried very hard to capture, but failed. Bechtel's long hit to left field in among the crowd sent Radcliffe home, but Beehtel was put out at third base, George Wright sending the ball to Water-man. Reach made his first base by a fine grounder to right field.

McBride hit to Sweasy, who tried to head off Reach at second but did not succeed. Malone had one strike called on him, and hitting to Waterman had a lift given him. Three men bases when Fisler took the bat, and as he had in the first inning sent three men home, great things were expected of him. He hit a safe ball over Wright's head at short stop, brought in Reach and McBride while Malone went to the third Sensenderfer hit a high ball to right field, which McVey took on the fly, and Fisler was left on first base. Three runs scored. Total now standing 16 to 15 in favor of the Red Stockings.

FIFTH INNING.

Red Stockings-Schaffer and Pratt changed to their old positions. Harry Wright, after being missed on a foul fly by Malone, made his second by a fine hit to left, and was sent home by Leonard's long hit to centre field. on which two bases were made. Brainard made his first by a high hit to short centre field, and conard went to the third.

Sweasy forced Brainard out at second, Radcliffe fielding the ball. McVey made his first by a heavy hit over second and Sweasy went to third. George Wright sent Sweasy home by a lucky hit that bounded over Radeliffe's head. Gould was caught on fly foul by Malone. Waterman forced George Wright out at second by hitting to Radcliffe, who quickly fielded the ball to Reach. Three runs. .

Athletics-Schaffer was first at the bat, and after hitting several fouls out of reach, sent a high ball to Harry Wright, who took it on the fly. Radcliffe made his first by a high hit to the short left field, and went to second on a wildpitched ball. Bechtel was put out at first base by Sweasy and Gould, Radeliffe in the mean while making his third. Pratt sent Radcliffe home and reached his first base by a good hit to left field. Reach was put out at first base by Sweasy and Gould, and the inning closed for one run.

The score now stands-Red Stockings, 19; Athletics, 15. Great excitement. SIXTH INNING.

Red Stockings-Gould was the first striker, and struck out, and Malone fielded the ball to first, putting him out. Waterman then hit well for three bases, sending the ball over Bechtel's head at left field Allison then hit several fouls and finally hit a fair ball, that bounded over Radeliffe's head, and he made his first, Waterman coming home Harry Wright made the first by a good hit to right field, and want to his second on Schaffer's throw to third to head off Allison.

Leonard hit to Reach, who stopped it with his foot, and Allison came home, while Harry Wright went to the third. Brainard sent Harry Wright home, but was put out himself at first base by Reach and Fisler. Sweasy sent Leonard home by a good hit, and took his second on passed balls. McVey was caught on the fly by Sensenderfer, and the innings terminated for four runs. Athletics-McBride was caught on a fly foul by Allison. Malone made his first base by a mutt of Sweasy, and subsequently missed the ball fielded by Gould. Fisler hit to George Wright, and Malone was put out at 2d. Then, on a wild pitch, sent Fisler to the 2d. and he came home on Sensenderfer's fine grounder to centre field for one base. Fensenderfer stole his second and kept on to his third by a failure of Sweasy to hold the ball fielded to him by Allison. Schaffer was put out by the umpire on three called strikes. One The total score now standing 23 to 17 in avor of the Red Stockings.

SEVENTH INNING. Red Stockings-George Wright sent the ball over the fence at right field and made a clear home run. Gould was caught on a sharp tip bound by Malone. Waterman made one base by a bounding ball over Pratt's head at third base and went to the third on Bechtel's slow handling of the ball. Allison was put out at first base by Radcliffe and Fisier. Harry Wright was caught on fly foul by Malone. Two runs. Athletics—Radcliffe made his first base by a high hit to short centre field, but was put out running to third on Bechtel's fine grounder to right field by a fine throw of McVey to Water-man. Tom Pratt sent Bechtel home and made his third base by a long hit to left. Reach was caught on a fair fly by Allison. McBride sent Pratt home, and made one base on a splendid grounder to centre field. Malone made his second by a hit to short centre field.

man, who could not get it up in time, and each | Game now stands 21 to 25. Tremendous exciteman advanced a base while Schaffer took his | ment. Fisler's hit to left field was missed on the fly by Leonard, McBride and Malone coming home. Sensenderfer was caught on the fly by George Wright, and the inning closed for feur runs. Fearful excitement.

> EIGHTH INNING. Red Stockings-Leonard was put out at first base by Fisler. Brainard went out on called strikes. Sweasy got to his first on a fine hit to right field, but was forced out at second by McVey.

> The Cincinnati suffering the first whitewash of the game, cheer after cheer went up, and the Athletics went in for hard work.

> Harry Wright went to left field, and Leonard harry wright went to left field, and Leonard to centre field. Schaffer went ont on a tip bound. Radcliffe made one base by a hit to George Wright, who was fielding too far out to get him at first. Bechtel was caught on the fly by George Wright, Radcliffe having to return to Pratt sent Radcliffe to the second and made his first by a good hit to centre field.

Reach sent Radcliffe home by a fine hit over second, and Pratt had a close scratch at second McBride sent Pratt and Reach home and made a clean home run by the longest hit of the game between centre and left field. Malone was put out at first base by Sweasy and Gould, and the inning terminated for four runs. The score now standing a tie, 25 to 25.

NINTH INNING. Red Stockings.—Amidst the most intense ex-bitement McVey took the bat. Two balls were called, and he was then put out at 1st base by fine fielding of Radeliffe to Fisler. George Wright made one base and stole his second, going to the third by the carelessness of Reach. Gould hit a long ball to right field, and made his second, George Wright coming home, as Schaeffer dropped the catch. Waterman made two bases by a good hit to left.

Allison was missed on the fly by Bechtel; Harry Wright was caught on a foul bound by Malone; Leonard was put out at first base by Reach and Fisler: two runs. Athletec .- Three runs to win. Fisler made his second base by a bound ball over third base. Sensenderfer was put out at first base by George Wright and Gould. Schaffer struck out, and Radeliff was caught on an easy fly by George Wright. No runs
