UNPARALLELED TIME.

Extraordinary Mississippi Travelling—An Exciting Narrative with a Certain Amount of Pathos.

The St. Louis Democrat of June 23 has the following: The arrival of the Natchez, only 3 days, 23 hours, and 16 minutes out from New Orleans, a distance of 2000 miles, has revived the interest in fast river steamers.

The time made by the J. M. White for twenty-six years had remained unsurpassed by any steambot on the Western river, and her fastness had made the attempt, but failure was written on all their efforts. It had become a settled conviction in the minds of a great majority of our steamboatmen that her time could never be exceeded.

The time of the Natchez from New Orleans to Natchez was 24 hours and 11 minutes. It is not necessary to give the details of the "run." Suffice it to say that the arrival of the steamer Natchez, Captain Thomas P. Leathers in command on yesterday evening, only 3 days, 23 hours, and 16 minutes out from New Orleans, surprises the time of the J. M. White 1 hour and 11 minutes.

A Foolish Indian Scare—Letter from General Hancock to Governor Austin.
