The Great National Methodist Camp Meeting Near Boston-Sermons, Scenes and Incl-

dents. From Our Own Correspondent. ASBURY GROVE, Mass., June 24, 1870, There is a thing or two which I forgot to mention in my last, and as a few incidents have since transpired, the world, the great outlaying wicked world, not so highly favored as myself, shall not lose any news of the Hub and the Hubbub if in my power to prevent. The storm which raged on Monday night ended in a reproduction of the hail of Philadelphia in Boston, playing smash generally, and accompa-nied by thunder and lightning, which struck the house on Milk street noted as the birth-place of Benjamin Franklin. Bottled and chained electricity was caught by his kite long ago. But alas, he is now no more, and

"While the cat's away The mice will play. But a truce to the storm, for a more beautiful, glorious June day, for camp or other open-air meetngs, than was enjoyed in this grove on Wednesday, need not be prayed for, as it would be a service of supercrogation. Though unusually cool for the season, the attendance of warm-hearted Methodists and other fervent Christians was increased by thousands, and the spirit of the services made more enthusiastic. The morning services were introduced with a conference meeting conducted by the chairman of the association, and participated in by a large number of earnest Christian men and women, evidently firm believers in the doctrine of sanctification, as understood and taught by the Methodist Episcopal Church. At 10 o'clock A. M. a sermon was delivered by the Rev. B. M. Adams, D. D., of Brooklyn, from Genesis xvii, 1, "I am the Almighty God. Walk before me, and be thou perfect." Subject-"God's Ideal Man."

deal Man. The Doctor said:-"We grant there is no such thing as absolute perfection, except in God and in God's works. The idea in the text is not absolute perfection, but fidelity to convictions. God demands perfect consecration, a perfect faith, and a perfect love of all mankind. He loves us perfectly, and commands us to do the same towards Himself, and we can do it. Towards fellow-men there should be perfect truth, perfect honesty, and perfect magna nimity. God calls upon all to measure to the full stature of this ideal man, and He is able and ready to bring us through faith up to it. To be a perfect Christian is to live fully up to the light of the focal blaze of scientific suggestion and Gospel truth in this century of our civilization."

Perspicuity, power, and fervid eloquence held the audience deeply interested, and they knelt with the clergy in prayer for holiness of heart. After dinner, which, by the way, like all the other meals at the excellent boarding department for the accommodation of twenty-two hundred at one sitting, is frugal and wholesome, Rev. Mr. King, of Maine, selected Thessalonians v, 23, "And the very God of peace sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Carist." The gentleman was followed by a strenuous advocate of his own views from New Jersey, whose exhortation exceeded the sermon in prolixity. This was succeeded by a prayer-meeting of louder amens and shouting than usual.

THE ORDER IN AND ABOUT THE CAMP was remarked to be excellent by visitors, who are convinced that Methodists continue to believe that order is Heaven's first law, and should be observed in leafy temples where devout persons assemble to worship God.

The committee of arrangements were encouraged by the increase to expect a still larger attendance. It is the custom of some not to be present at camp meetings until the last day, a mistake that should be avoided by those not desiring the dust of the crowded circle. The best wine is not here reserved until the close of the feast, but may be bought without money and without price at the first; at any rate, I came carly, and am bound to see the thing

The order of public services was announced to be :- Prayer meetings at 5 and 8 o'clock A. M., preaching at 10 A. M., 21/2 and 71/2 P. M.; also, a inisterial meeting at 6 P. M person producing any medicine, Internal, External, Vegetable or Mineral, that can bring forward as many living, genuine, permanent cures as DR. FITLER'S VEGE-TABLE RHEUMATIC REMEDY, the pre-scription of one of Philadelphia's oldest regular physicians and professors. It is positively the only standard specific before the public, being composed of pure and harmless vegetabeing composed of pure and harmless vegeta-ble ingredients solely, containing no minerals, poisonous vegetables, or injurious drugs. It is warranted, under oath, to have permanently cured ninety-five in every hundred cases treated in the past four years, a result un-paralleled in the annals of medicine. To protect sufferers against imposition, deception, quacks, and injurious nostrums prepared by unskilful, uneducated, and unscientific hands, a printed legal form of guarantee, containing name of patient and exact stated quantity to cure, properly signed and sealed, will be given to every patient desiring it, without extra charge, and in case of failure to cure the money refunded. All sufferers should examine the plan of guarantee, which insures a positive cure, or costs nothing for the trial. The safety of this offer, made by Dr. Fitler, is insured to him only by the merit and in-fallible curative power of this remedy. Names and references of incurable cases, where the money paid has been refunded in full, given at Dr. Fitler's office, where the diploma of Dr. Fitler, received from the University of Pennsylvania A. D. 1833, is subject to public inspection, with the diploma from the Medical Institute, 1833, and the additional vouch-ers of his professional skill as a Physician and Professor of Chemistry, together with letters and testimonials of leading physicians, cler-gymen, judges, senators, bankers, merchants, · 法官任职规则 /任 /任

one hundred and sixty feet in length and ninety in width, owned by the National Association, costing $2000, took place, and was immediately paid for. Camp-meeting John came in, responding "Amen," without a peer or successful rival in the sharp and peculiar utterance of that significant word of proverbially frequent use in old-line Methodist meetings. We noticed prominent upon the platform the editor of the Methodist Home Journal, who by actions sjoke out, "A chiel's amang ye takin' notes, an faith he'll prent 'em." A Baptist clergyman joined in the simple-hearted story of experience of perfect love, and all the people responded "Amen" to a minister's "God bless you, brothers, and give you fire as well as water."

The morning sermon was discoursed by

REV. WILLIAM L. GREY, OF PHILADELPHIA, who authenticated Acts i, 8: -"But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghest is come upon you."

He would not define this power. "The secret of the Lord is with them that fear Him;" the secret of success at Pentacost, upon Medes, and Persians, and Parthians, and representatives of every tribe, clothed in cloven tongues of fire at Jerusalem, on the last great day of the feast. However, God does not always do His greatest works in tornado, earthquake, burning comet, but largely through silent influences. "The Kingdom of God cometh not with observation." At the conclusion the congregation sang, kneeling, "Nearer, my God, to Thee, nearer to Thee."

REV. CHARLES MUNGER, OF MAINE, in the afternoon, proclaimed Hebrews III, 7:-"Today if ye will."

Said the speaker, among other things, "God's time is an eternal now, "Christ comes, holding in his hand, extended, a clean heart and a right spirit. He has not enfolded the pearl in a napkin hidden near thy sepulchre, but nigh thee, even in his heart, large enough to take in the world. Let the human will come up to meet Ged's. Let Him have Ilis way, the King's highway of holiness. Fix the eye upon the cloud," he continued. "Fire is in that cloud; and 'a fourth,' like unto the Son of Man, is in the fire." Hearts gladdeded during the day by the arrival of

REV. WILLIAM MORLEY PUNSHON. the great English preacher, were doomed to disappointment of his performance by his sudden departure to do duty in Canada.

LAVING ALL UFON THE ALTAR

is the phrase expressing entire consecration to many. Not a few, not knowing its meaning, reported that they had complied, one saying he had even 1 ain his tobacco there. Mr. Inskip knew of no altar but Christ, and was sure He did not want the tobacco, but man's soul.

bacco, but man's soul. "Shocks from the battery" were felt from Rev. Mr. Pomerov, who, like Hector, hails from Troy. According to him, the first national camp meeting was the Feast of Tabernacles of the Jewish nation. Be it so. If the Jews had as good a time as I am having, they made a great mistake in not following my example in telegraphing it to others. More abou. J. H. H.
