OUR RELIGIOUS COLUMN.

COMPLETE IN CHRIST.

"One day," says Bunyan, "as I was passing into the field, and that too with some dashes on my conscience, fearing lest all was not right, suddenly this sentence fell upon my soul, 'Thy righteousness is in heaven;' and methought withal I saw, with the eyes of my soul, Jesus Christ at God's right hand. There, I say, was my rightcousness; so that wherever I was, or whatever I was doing, God could not say of me, 'He wants my righteousness,' for that was just before Him. I also saw, moreover, that it was not my good frame of heart that made my righteousness better, nor yet my bad frame that made my righteousness worse; for my righteousness was Jesus Christ Himself, 'the same yesterday, and to-day, and forever.' (Heb. xili, 8.)

"Now did my chains fall from me. Indeed, I was loosed from my afflictions and irons, my temptations also fied away; so that from that time those dreadful scriptures of God left off to trouble me. Now went I also home rejoicing for the grace and love of God; so when I came I looked to see if I could find that sentence. 'Thy righteonsness is in heaven:' but could not find such a saying. Wherefore my heart began to sink again, only that was brought to my remembrance, 'Who of God is made unto us wisdom and righteousness and sanctification and redemption.' (1 Cor. I, 30.) By this word I saw the other sentence true.

"For by this scripture I saw that the man Christ Jesus, as He is distinct from us as touching His bodily presence, so He is our righteousness and sanctification before God: here, therefore, I lived, for some time, very sweetly at peace with God through Christ. Oh! methought, Christ, Christ! there was nothing but Christ that was before my eyes. I was not now only for looking upon this and the other benefits of Christ apart, as of His blood, burial, or resurrection; but considered Him as a whole Christ; as He in whom all these and all His other virtues, relations, offices, and operations met together, and that as He sat on the right hand of God in Heaven.

"Twas glorious to see His exaltation, and the worth and prevalency of all His benefits. Now Christ was all: all my wisdom, all my righteousness, all my satisfaction, and all my redemption."

SUMMARY OF CHURCH NEWS.

EPISCOPAL.

-The house and grounds in Memphis, Ten-nessee, belonging to the heirs of the late Bishop Otey, have been purchased for an Episcopa residence, possession to be given in September, -In Kingston, Jamaica, recently, three children of Baptist parents, now grown up, wished, on joining St. Michael's Church, to be immersed. The rector, Mr. Pierce, consulted the bishop, who said "there could be no objection to it," and the immersion took place. —The opening of the south aisle of the Church of St. Nicholas, Great Yarmouth, England, which has been restored at an expense of £5000. was lately celebrated by a festival service. This is said to be the largest parish church in Eng-land, and will seat 5000 people.

-In the Convention of the Episcopal diocese of Ohio, a resolution was adopted, by a vote of 66 to 60, expressing sympathy with the Evan-gelical Alliance, which has been called to meet in New York. This is considered a triumph of the Low Churchmen over the High. —In Davenport, Iowa, one of the largest and most beautiful churches in the West, is in process of construction. The building is in cathedral style, situated upon one of the Griswold College parks, and when finished will have cost about $150,000. This amount has already been

-The edifice formerly occupied by the Park | Church, in Brooklyn, N. Y., has been given up to mechanical purposes. This church, it will be remembered, has been consolidated with the Figh Avenue Church. The Rev. Frank Rossell s the pastor, and the corner-stone has been laid for a new house of worship

-The deaconesses elected in Plymouth Church, Brooklyn, N. Y., did so good service, that at the last annual meeting three more were chosen. They think one deaconess worth about two deacons. The Rev. S. B. Halliday is now serving that great church in pastoral visitation, which Mr. Beecher has been compelled so largely to neglect.

-The whole attendance of students at Hartford Seminary during the year has been twentyfive, of whom five were regularly graduated at the anniversary last week, some three or four others of the class having left to enter (with others of the class having left to enter (with one exception) on fields of ministerial labor. —The Congregational Conference of New York and vicinity met in Orange Valley, last Thursday, with the church of which Rev. George B. Bacon is pastor. Mr. Beecher pre-sided over more than 300 representatives of 33 churches. A new church was reported in Mont-clair, N. J., beginning with 82 members, half of whom came from the Presbyterian Church. The discussion of the Relation of the Church Edifice to Church work gave Dr. R. S. Storrs a good opportunity to defend the very rich character of the adornings of the enlarged building of the Church of the Pilgrims. The discussion in the evening brought out the fact that the old Pres-byterian churches of New Jersey were nearly all of them originally Congregational, but about the end of the last century joined Presbyterian synods. The delegates from abroad were most handsomely entertained.

PRESBYTERIAN.

-The Seventh Church, Pittsburg, Pa., the Rev. W. H. Andrew, pastor, was cheered with the addition of twenty-two to its member-ship at the communion on Sabbath, the 23d of

May. — The Presbyterian Freedman's Committee had during last year under its care 29 ministers and 101 teachers ; 69 churches, which received 667 on profession ; 76 Sunday schools and 77 day schools.

-The General Assembly of 1869 took action looking to a withdrawal of the mission to China. The General Assembly of 1870 almost unanimously resolved to continue it, and support it liberally

-The Rev. H. P. McAdam, who has labored for several years successfully in the pastorate of the church in Troy, N. Y., has been appointed by the General Assembly to the missionary service, under the Board of Home Missions in Topeka, Kansas.

-A number of new versions of the Psalms were adopted by previous assemblies, and were printed for use, and have been used. The Gene-ral Assembly of 1870 struck out a number of these approved versions, thus undoing the deliberate work of presbyteries and former assemblies, and producing confusion in the churches. —The number of students in Union Theological Seminary is now thirty-five, of whom eight are in the Senior class. The library contains 8000 volumes, of which 158 have been added during the year, including a fac simile copy of Tischendorf's "Codex!Sinalticus." The Seminary will also receive, under the will of the Rev. Urias Powers, $3000 per annum for three years, to be expended in the purchase of books. The finances of the Seminary are re-ported to be in a healthy condition, and it is gratifying to learn that they are believed to be fully adequate to the payment of salaries and the support of the institution. The incomes of the scolarships have been promptly paid, and have been of great advantage to the Seminary.

At a meeting of the Presbytery of Chester, convened for the special purpose, on Thursday morning last, the petition of the Wayne Presbyterian Church was received, and a commission appointed to organize said Church, consisting of Professor Westcott, Rev. Messrs. Aiken and Hodgkin, and Elders Moore and Aiken. This was done on Friday afternoon of this week, at Wayne Hall, Radnor, Delaware county, and it was arranged that the installation in this new church enterprise of the Rev. Samuel Pollock Linn should take place on Tuesday, July 5. Howell Evans was elected and styled a ruling elder. This church is the first admission under the new reunion of the Presbyterian Church. Dr. Dale will be the Moderator at the installation. This is expected to be a most interesting event in the new progress of affairs at Wayne, Radnor. —The Presbyterians have thus mapped out an elaborate History of the Reunisn: Rev. Sam-nel Miller, D. D., of Mount Holly, New Jersey, is to furnish the first chapter, on "The Church (O. S.) since 1837;" Rev. J. F. Stearns, D. D., of Newark, the second, on "The Church (N. S.) since 1837;" Rev. W. B. Sprague, D. D., of Albany, the third, "Biographical Sketches (O. S.)"; Rev. Z. M. Humphrey, D. D., of Philadel-phia, the fourth, "Biographical Sketches (N. S);" Rev. William Adams, D. D., of New York, the fifth, "History of the Reunion Movement and of the Committees and their Work;" Rev. and of the Committees and their Work ;" Rev. and of the Committees and their Work;" Rev. Drs. Jacobus and Fowler the sixth, on "The Assemblies of 1869, at New York and Pittsburg, and the 'Reunion'; " Rev. G. Plam-ley, of Metuchin, N. J., the seventh, on "The Reconstruction," and Rev. John Hall, D. D., of New York, the eighth, on "The Future Church." The volume is to be fully illustrated, and the profits will be devoted to the Thank-Offering Fund. Fund. METHODIST.

tists and other Christians connected with this society as to the administration of the Christian ordinances

-The receipts for Baptist Home Missions last year were $190,651 75, and the expenditures $165,497 12, leaving a balance of $24,554 63. There were $24 missionaries in the field, 3840 were baptized, and 70 churches were organized. In the department for freedmen's preachers and teachers, nearly $88,000 in cash had been re-ceived, and pledges for $60,000 additional. In the church edifice work, over fifty houses of worship had been secured during the year, and pro-gress had been made in the collecting of the $500,000 proposed so be raised as a permanent fund. There are three corresponding secretaries, viz:-Rev. Jay S. Backus, of Northern and Western Department: Rev. James B. Simmons, of Education and Southern Department; Rev. E. E. L. Taylor, of Church Edifice Department.

-The American Moravians, at the decennial Moravian meeting held last year in Germany, pressed the immediate establishment of a Moravian mission in their ancestral home of Mo ravia and Bohemia. The German committee has done nothing about it, although instructed to do so; and now the American Province has voted to stir them up, and really find if Austria would allow religious toleration. CATHOLIC.

MORAVIAN.

-Rev. Edmund Foulkes, the restive Roman Catholic convert, whose pamphlet on "The Church's Creed" dissatisfied his Catholic friends, has been received back into the English Church.

-The following new Pater Noster is being handed about among the Americans in Rome:-"Our Father who art in the Vatican: Infallible be thy name: Thy Temporal Sovereignty come: Thy will be done in Europe and America as in Ireland. Give us this day our tithes and titles, and forgive us our trespasses as we give plenary indulgence to those who pay penitently unto us And lead us not into Ccumenical Councils, but deliver us from thinking: for thine is the crozier, the key, and the tiara, Rome without end. Amen.

THE JEWS.

-The Board of Delegates of American Israel-Ites has made arrangements with the Jewish Alliance at Paris to have the suffering Russian Jews sent on here not more than one hundred at a time. They will be sent West and South. SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

-The Trustees of the General Theological Semisary in New York city have accepted the proposition made by Mr. Andrew Wilson, Jr., for the gift of about fifty-five acres of land in Grand Park, Mamaromeck, as indicated in his letter to Dean Forbes, dated 19th May, 1870, provided that it be granted free from all liens and incumbrances. -Among the recent arrivals in New York is a Rev. Mr. Prescott, a leading clergyman of the dvanced Ritualistic school in Oxford, England. His mission, it is understood, is to look around and see what progress "Catholicism' is making among us here, with a view of alding that pro-among us here, with a view of alding that pro-gress should it be deemed necessary. He is much with "Father" Bradley, and both are fre-quenters of Christ Church, Fifth avenue. —A society styled "The Brotherhood of the Frotestant Episcopal Church, in the Diocese of Virginia." was recently formed. Its object is the assistance of the families of deceased elergy-men. Its members are made by the payment of men. Its members are made by the payment of an initiation fee of two dollars, and afterwards of two dollars and ten cents at the death of each clergyman who may have been a member-the ten cents being reserved as a fund for necessary expenses.

The new work of the Bishop of the diocese was begun last Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, in the commodious hall southwest corner of in the commodious hall southwest corner of Girard avenue and Sixth street. The congrega-tion was of goodly numbers, while the music was excellent, and the responses more general and hearty than we usually have them in old and established churches. The Rev. Mr. Fugett announced service every Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The sermon, from Isaiah xxxii, 2, on the offices and work of Christ, was listened to with marked attention. with marked attention.

with marked attention. —It appears that many of the young men at the General Theological Seminary in New York city have imbibed "Catholic" opinions. Some of the members of the graduating class recently went to Bridgeport, Conn., taking with them a father confessor, and forming what is called a "retreat." This they did without asking the consent of the Dean of the seminary. Shortly after, when they presented themselves for ordi-nation, they encountered a protest, submitted

-Much comment and indignation was arbused by the execution, last Sunday week, of an order to lock the the doors of Trinity Church. New York, immediately before the sermon till the end of the services. A number of persons wanted to get out, including several ladles, and some desired to enter. Various protests were made, and finally, when a gentleman con-nected with the press threatened to have were made, and many, when a gentleman con-nected with the press threatened to have the doorkeeper arrested, that functionary perspired freely, and compromised by letting the party out of a door over which he was not standing guard.

CONGREGATIONAL.

-Mr. C. H. Dickenson, who died recently at Fairport, N. Y., left $10,000 to Oberlin Theolo-

D., has been unani-mously chosen as President of the Congrega-tional Theological Seminary at Montreal, in place of the deceased Dr. Lillie. —The Congregationalist says the Methodist Church in Duxbury, Mass., "is moving to be-come Congregational. Rev. J. W. Haley, the Pastor, baptized two persons by immersion, June 5. and others are to come forward soon." —The Church of the Pilgrims, Brooklyn, are repairing their meeting-house at an expense of one hundred and thirty thousand dollars. What would they consider a moderate price for a new building?

-The "Iowa Band" of Congregational clergymen who came to Iowa twenty-seven years ago -nine in number-all met, with the exception of three deceased, at the General Assembly in Davenport lately.

-Chick Sien Hong is the first Chinese Methodist in San Francisco. He came from Fuh Chau, with a puzzling certificate in Chinese characters.

-Mr. Orange Judd has increased his donation to the Middletown College to $70,000, desiring, it is said, to complete the building in a manner unequalled by any college in the Eastern States. -The New England Methodist Conference sent Gilbert Haven and two other delegates to the late Conference of the African and the Zion Methodist Local Conferences. The matter of con-solidation with the Methodist Episcopal Church was supported, with no opposition, and the Zion Conference voted its approval. —The latest Methodist relic is the pulpit Bible used by the father of John and Semuel Wesley. During Philip Phillips' visit to England he pur-chased it for $250. The present owner has been offered $600 for it by a private gentleman; but it is reserved for a public institution. The pro-ceeds of the sale will be given to Mr. Boole's "Water Street Mission," New York.

The Southern Methodist College in California, -The Southern Methodist College in California, at Varnville, has suspended operations, on account of hopeless indebtedness. The Metho-dist "City Sunday-school and Missionary So-ciety" of New York was incorporated in 1866. It now holds real estate, consisting of chapels and lots, valued at $134,000, and maintains eleven organized churches, twelve Sunday-schools, and six missionaries. During the last year it expended upwards of $30,000.

BAPTIST.

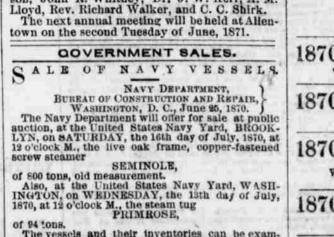

-The Rev. W. R. Williams, D. D., is to write a History of the Baptists, and the Harpers are to publish it. — Detroit, Michigan, with a population of from eighty to a hundred thousand, has until recently had but one Baptist church.

recently had but one Baptist church. —A Baptist minister in New Jersey has im-mersed his own son, knowing he intended to join a Pedo-Baptist church : whereupon the Cen-tral Conference has voted such a practice "irregular and unscriptural." —The Baptist Ministers' Conference of Boston has voted its desire that the Missionary Union inaugurate a mission to Madrid, under the charge of Professor Knapp. The general opinion, however, seems to be that he has forfelted his connection with the Baptist body. —The total receipts of the Baptist Missionary Union have been $200,953'86, an excess of $4056'23 over the previous year The whole ex-penditure has been $200,963'86, an excess of state the treasurer of $19,606'46. The com-mittee estimate that they will need $250,000 for the current year.

mittee estimate that they will need $250,000 for the current year. —The New York Baptist Pastors' Conference has unanimously resolved no longer to ald the New York City Mission since it has adopted the policy of establishing mission churches on the union basis. The reason given is that "there is a radical difference of opinion between the Bap-

of 94 tons. The vessels and their inventories can be exam-ined at any time, on application to the Command-ants of the respective yards. One-half of the whole amount of the purchase money of each vessel must be deposited at the time of adjudication, and the vessel must be removed from the Navy Yard within two (2) weeks from the day of sale. The Government reserves the right to withdraw the vessels from sale for any purchaser who will pay the appraised value, with an increase of ten (10) per centum thereto. 6 25 stuth 9t
