LEWISBURG.

Annual Commencement of the University a Lewisburg-The Exercises To-day-The In stitution and its Prospects.

Special to The Evening Telegraph. LEWISBURG, June 28.—The annual commence ment of the University located here was held to day.

Sketch of the Institution.

This institution is under Baptist patronage. It received a very liberal charter in 1846. It maintained a full Collegiate Establishment, a Preparatory Department, and a Young Ladies' Seminary. A Theological Department was maintained until two years ago, when it was discontinued in view of the founding of the Crozer Theological Seminary at Chester, Pa. The commencement exercises of this year were the twentieth of the college and the seventeenth of the Young Ladies' Seminary. From these two departments nearly four hundred graduates have already gone forth, and their record is one of which their Alma Mater has no reason to be ashamed. Rev. Justin R. Loomis, LL.D., now closes his twelfth year in the presidency of the institution. The corporation has buildings, apparatus, etc., valued at $160,000, and in investments bearing interest $120,000. For beauty of situation, salubrity, and accessibility, Lewisburg has few equals in our State.

Accompanying Services.

The graduates of the Female Institute, the Alumnæ, held their annual reunion on Saturday afternoon, their own members conducting the exercises. The Alumni met in the evening. Colonel W. H. Harrison, of Philadelphia, the orator of the occasion, discoursed spicily upon the workers in our world under the theme "Cavalry, Artillery, and Infantry." He likened life to a battle, and the classes of men to these arms of the service, deducing some useful lessons from the survey. The poem was from David M. Jones, Esq., of Wilkesbarre.

Sunday was a day of special religious services. In the morning the new edifice of the Baptist Church was dedicated. It is a substantial, neat, and commodious house. Its cost was about $50,000, on which about $30,000 had been paid. but the congregation rallied enthusiastically and soon pledged $10,000 for the payment of balance. Rev. J. H. Castle, D. D., of West PhiladelpLia, preached the dedicatory sermon. His text was Ecclesiastes vii, 10; his object being to demolish the popular idea that piety is degenerating. His discourse was certainly full of cheering considerations.

In the afternoon the annual sermon before the Society for Moral and Religious Inquiry was preached by Professor R. J. W. Buckland, D. D., f Rochester Theological Seminary, New York. His text was Romans viii, 19-23, whence he deduced the following propositions, viz.:-First. The lower creation had reference to man and his destiny. Man is the archetype of the animal creation. Second. Man's destiny is found in union with Christ. Christ is the archetype of humanity. Third. Mankind as redeemed and in the Church of Christ finds their destiny in the future life. Heaven is the archetype of the Church of Christ.

Under the first head the speaker discussed the scientific questions of the day: the divine intelligence and thought of God as seen in creation, the origin of the race, design in creation as or posed to Darwinism, the unity of the race, its finality in the series of creation and head of all God's works.

Secondly, he treated of man morally and spiritually as thus made for Christ, finding the end of his being only in union with Christ. The science of comparative religion, just opened in Max Muller's London lectures, was referred to as throwing new light on man's religious nature and destiny. The humanity and atonement of Christ were dwelt upon as meeting man's wants and consummating man's destiny, and God's design in Christ, the great archetype. Thirdly, the value and history of the Church were shown to point to Heaven as its archetypal end. The Lord formed the Church on this plan.

and Council of that colony for entrance into the Canadian Union. Canada is to assume the debts and liabilities of British Columbia. The annual grant for the support of the local Government and Legislature of British Columbia is to be $38,000. The Dominican Government will guarantee the con-struction, as early as practicable, of a railroad across the continent, with its western terminus at a port in British Columbia on the Pacific coast, connecting in the East with the railroad system of Canada. The Western Canada Railroad is estimated to cost in round numbers $10,000,000. Offers to build the road have been made to the Government on the basis of a grant of alternate sections of land on each side of the road one mile long and twelve miles deep, and a guarantee of six per cent. interest in and penitentiary, protection of fisheries, election of Senators, formal admission of the colony into the Union, defense of the colony, and aid to volunteer force, in all of which requirements delegates declare themselves to be perfectly satisfied.

FROM NEW YORK.

In former ages Baptists were reviled for seeking a Church free from sin, because they demanded a Church free from sin, because they demanded personal faith, regeneration, and a holy life, but all evangelical Christians now recognize these, and the archetypal idea of God is coming more and more clearly to view. Such a field of religious knowledge and Divine purpose is before these who are engaged in religious inquiry, and merits the enthusiastic devotion of every one who would learn of God, and of every one who would learn of cour and His Divine purposes and ways as unfolded in the great archetypal ideas of the Divine mind.
