The Alumni Association, which contains, or if all names entitled to member-bership were secured might contain, about three bership were secured might contain, about three hundred members, took the occasion for a regather-ing, and a delightful time they made of it on last Tuesday, the day preceding the annual commence-ment. There was a paternal and loving address of welcome, full also of words of wisdom on the practical relations and duties of womanhood, by the

The Salutatory was by the graduate Miss Ella T. Robertson, of Pittston, Pa. Enough might be said for the neatness of language in which beautiful thoughts were enclosed, but more for what was said of her own sex in connection with home. The nucleus of this part of the paper was woman as the maker of the home, and making the home to be-come what she makes herself to be. Rev. Dr. Breed, of this city, made the closing address. The banner musical performance was a "Welcome Chorus," words by Miss A. G. Halsey and Music by Professor O'Nell—both for the occasion. The greetings were tender and hearty. The whole thing was glad-

The commencement proper was on Wednesday. Rev. J. H. Symmes read the report of the commit-tee which examined the candidates for diplomas. It spoke of the result of an examination continued through three days. The points revealed were thoroughness of knowledge of the principles as well as the letter of the sciences, as well the rugged as the pleasant branches, and the committee's careful observation of the paternal care of Dr. and Mrs. Raiston over their pupils. Dr. Raiston, with an address of congratulation and counsel, made a graceful pre-sentation of the diplomas; and some others, upon call, made brief remarks. The music, with Professor Bower as director, fully sustained both his own reputation and that of the Institute,

In the afternoon there was a more general re-union in the First Presbyterian Church. The staple of the entertainment was a historical sketch of Oakland Femnie Institute, prepared and read by Rev. Thomas Murphy, of Frankford, Rev. Dr. Read of this city, made an address on "The Demands of the Age for a more Thorough Education of Females," which was both spicy and good.

We must not forget to mention that sandwiched between the literary doings of Taesday and Wednesday was the commencement party given by Dr. and Mrs. Raiston. It was a scene of rational festivity, enjoyed by some four hundred guests, the Philadelphia element being largely represented.

THE ANIMALS.—The S. P. C. A. calls attention to and recommends to drivers, during the present season, the wet sponge upon the heads of horses, and asks that a little drinking water be furnished as often as practicable, when not overheated, and at the same time to cool the mouth and face; and, as a further means of refreshing the animal, to throw water upon the legs and such parts as are liable to chafe by perspiration or otherwise; to drive slowly, and lessen the load usually imposed in cooler loosen the check rein, or, better, dis pense with it altogether. Slow driving is also recommended to passenger railroad lines. Attention should be given to these important suggestions of this worthy society.

Highway Robbery.—About 12:10 this morning a Delawarian named Thomas F. Maloney, who had missed the train on the Philadelphia and Wilmington Railroad, was attacked by a negro named John Nixon, at Eighth and Pine streets, and robbed of his shoes and other valuables, to the amount of $3. Nixon blackjacked his victim freely. Maloney, on recovering, informed a policeman, who, from the description of the man, arrested Nixon in a tayern at Seventh and St. Mary streets, where the stolen shoes were obtained. Alderman Kerr committed the negro to answer at court.

MULISH .- Last night a lumber boat ran into the pier at Popiar street, and, springing a leak, soon went down. On the deck of the vessel were two mules, which animals barely managed to keep their heads above the water. A boat's crew of the Harbor Police immediately went to their assistance, and them. When placed on the dock, the animals, in return for the kindness of the officers, kicked two of them overboard. Fortunately the officers sustained no other injuries than a wetting.
