

OUR RELIGIOUS COLUMN.

MISSIONARY WORK IN INDIA.

But few persons at home have any adequate conception of the real nature of missionary work in foreign fields. They know that the Lord has commanded the Church to go into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature; but of the difficulties to be overcome in obeying this great command, they know but very little.

A new and difficult language, with idioms wholly different from anything to which the missionary is accustomed; must be mastered, requiring long and patient study. A native teacher must be employed, whose pronunciation of sounds and breathings and gutturals must be imitated with painful efforts, which will be pronounced failures until there is a strong temptation to fear that all efforts will be failures. The slightest variations, intonations, or inflections, inappreciable to the unpractised ear, must be dwelt upon with all but everlasting repetition.

Such variations, while not important to a knowledge of written language, are all important to him who speaks it. Differences in sound that can hardly be detected at first will give wholly opposite meanings, and on this account many vexatious and mortifying mistakes occur with beginners. Thus, years must be spent in this patient, anxious toil before one can feel confidence in addressing an audience in a strange language. It is said that, in some of the Eastern languages, quite a number of different meanings may be given by the different intonations of the same word. We have something of this in the English language, but less than in some others; and yet we know with what difficulty foreigners acquire a perfect mastery of the English. Indeed, it is never done except when formed before the middle period of life.

Hence the necessity of missionaries entering on their work when they are young. A good ear and great flexibility of vocal organs are necessary. A man in middle life begins to be stereotyped in all respects, and any change becomes much more difficult. As a general rule, good singers most readily acquire a spoken language, for reasons that are obvious from what has been already stated. It is greatly desirable that the children of the missionaries should in turn become missionaries, for to them the foreign language is their vernacular. They acquire without effort what by others is obtained only by long and exhausting labor. Only a proper zeal for the salvation of men, joined with much patience and faith, with the proper natural endowments, will overcome these difficulties. But they have all been nobly overcome by our missionaries, male and female, both in India and China.—Christian Advocate.

SUMMARY OF CHURCH NEWS.

PRESBYTERIAN.

The Southern Presbyterian General Assembly voted Unitarian, "Popish," and "Campbellite" baptisms invalid.

Rev. A. E. Kittredge, of New York, has taken the pastoral charge of the Third Presbyterian Church, Chicago, at a salary of $200.

Professor Martin, of the Greek Chair in Hampden Sydney College, has been recently elected President of King's College, at Bristol, Tennessee.

AT THE LAMMENCEMENT OF HAMPDEN SYDNEY COLLEGE.

The Rev. F. M. Mully is pastor of the church in Columbia, Ky. This church, organized only a few months ago, now numbers a hundred members, and is in a flourishing condition. It is one of the new enterprises on the frontiers of the Southern Presbyterian Church.

The results of the Presbyterian Church lacks but fifty-one of having doubled the number of its ministers since the disruption in 1838, and but ten thousand of having doubled its membership. This is exclusive of the Southern Presbyterians, who have 857 ministers and 79,861 church members, and who have separated from the great body since its disruption.

Salim Church, near Pinson Station, in West Tennessee, which has long been vacant, and had well-nigh ceased to exist, was reorganized on the third Sabbath in May. The Rev. H. C. Brown, the evangelist of the Synod, first visited all the families of the old organization. Then, on Saturday morning and Sabbath, divine services were conducted by himself and the Rev. E. McHair, and the church was reorganized with twenty-seven members.

A correspondent of the Presbyterian, who has carefully read the reports of the doings of the late General Assembly, gives the following items, which are interesting and curious: Of the 400 members of the Assembly, only 149 are reported as having spoken at all, leaving 451 silent members, except that a few are reported without name, as "A member said," etc. The 149 speakers were as follows:

Table listing names of speakers and their respective churches or affiliations, such as Dr. Magrawe, Dr. Beatty, Dr. Crosby, etc.

METHODIST.

The members of all the Methodist churches in the world number about three and a half millions; ministers, 120,000; local preachers, 57,934; Sunday-school teachers, nearly four millions.

The recent General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South seized all the colored members and preachers into a separate general conference, with full and equal power to elect bishops, and observe all the functions of a church of Christ.

Recently, while Dr. Kryst, Corresponding Secretary of the Church Extension Society, was making an address at a conference anniversary, a gentleman present formed the resolution to contribute five thousand dollars to the loan fund. He announced his purpose at the close of the meeting, and is to pay the entire amount in July. At least ten new churches will be erected through this one gift before winter, and ten new Sabbath schools organized.

Connecticut has furnished twenty bishops to the Episcopal Church, of whom about half have come from Hartford.

The Episcopal Church in Lexington, Kentucky, has built a baptistry in connection with its house of worship, for the purpose of administering baptism by immersion.

CONGREGATIONAL.

An effort is being made to secure the Rev. Mr. Paine, of Farmington, for a professorship in the Hartford Theological Seminary.

Of the two hundred and forty-nine Congregational churches in the State of Connecticut, one hundred and forty receive charitable aid.

Park Street Church, Boston, and the Centre Church, New Haven, have the largest average congregations in New England, from 1300 to 1400 each Sunday.

PROPOSALS FOR CLOTHING AND CLOTHING MATERIALS.

NAVY DEPARTMENT. BUREAU OF PROVISIONS AND CLOTHING, July 1, 1870. Sealed Proposals, endorsed "Proposals for Clothing," will be received at this Bureau, on the 21st day of July, 1870, for the supply of the following articles, viz.:

- 10,000 pairs Dark Blue Flannel, 10,000 yards Blue Nankin, 50,000 yards Barley Sheeting, 25,000 pairs Woolen Socks, 4,000 pairs Kip Shoes.

The above-mentioned articles must be delivered at the Navy Yard, New York, within ninety days from the date of contract, and must conform to navy standard, and be equal in all respects to the samples at the several Navy Yards, and must pass the usual inspection of the Navy Department.

The Flannel must be all wool, twilled, and wool-dyed with pure indigo, and must be in pieces of about fifty yards in length, twenty-seven inches wide, weighing five and one-half ounces per yard, and to have a list on each edge of four white woolen threads woven in the whole length of the piece, the pieces to be rolled separately without cloth bars, and no piece to have a less average weight than five and four-tenths ounces per yard. The quality and color of the flannel to be equal to the samples at the several inspections.

The Nankin must also be pure indigo-dyed. The Sheeting must be in pieces of about eighty inches in width, weighing two ounces and thirty-one one-hundredths per yard, texture 4 by 4 to 1-16 inch.

The Shoes must be delivered in boxes made of seasoned white pine, planed and tongued and grooved; soles, top, and bottom five-eighths inch thick, and each sole to be secured by not less than ten one and three-fourth inch screws, one screw at each end of the sole, and one screw sunk one quarter inch by one and one-quarter inch in diameter.

The size of the Soles and Shoes must conform to the schedule to be supplied by the Inspector at New York.

Proposals, with approved security, will be required in one-quarter the estimated amount of the contract, and twenty per cent, in addition will be withheld from the amount of each payment as collateral security for the performance of the contract, which reservation will not be paid until the contract is fully completed.

Every contract to be accompanied by a written guarantee, signed by one or more responsible parties, that the bidder or bidders will, if his or their bid be accepted, enter into an obligation within five days, to execute and fulfill the contract, to furnish the articles proposed.

No proposals will be considered unless accompanied by such guarantee, nor from any parties who are not bona fide manufacturers of or regular dealers in the articles they offer to furnish, in conformity with the regulations of the joint resolution approved March 3, 1869.

The Department reserves the right to reject any proposal unless the responsibility of the guarantors is certified to by the Inspector at New York, for the district in which they reside; and unless the license required by act of Congress is furnished with the proposal, and is in full force, and is not considered advantageous to the Government.

By order of the Committee on Property, H. W. HALLIWELL, Secretary.
