CHE DALLY EVENING TELEGRAPH-PHILADELPHIA, TUBBAT, JULY 13, 1870. THE DALLY EVENING TELEGRAPH-PHILADELPHIA, TUESDAY, JULY 12, 1870.

MEWS SUMMARY.

City Affairs.

-A mass meeting of journeymen tailors favoring the formation of a new lodge of the Patriarchal Order of Adam was held last night, in the American Mechanics' Hall, on Sixth street, above Carpenter.

-The rectifying house of James Patten, No. 2124 Market street, has been seized by Revenue Officers Clark and Herr, on the allegation that the business was carried on in fraud of the revenue law. Besides the tube and apparatus used in the rectification of spirits, there were about two thousand gallons of whisky on hand.

-At a temperance convention held last evening it was resolved that a committee be appointed to wait upon the clergymen and officers of the various churches in our city for the purpose of soliciting the use of their churches for weekly temperance meetings, and also for procuring public halls for the same purpose, and that said committee report at a future meeting of this convention.

-The body of an unknown colored man was found drowned in the Delaware, above Riverton, New Jersey, on Sunday. From the appearance of the body, which evidently had been in the water for some time, it was supposed his death was caused by violence, and the jury, summoned by Justice Garby, of Riverside, rendered a verdict that the deceased had come to his death at the hands of some person to the jurors unknown. It is supposed that the deceased was a waiter or steward on board of some vessel. He had on an apron and his shirt sleaves were rolled up, as if at work at the time he met his death.

-The commencement of the Northeast Girls' Grammar School, Crown and Racestreets, took place last evening. -At a meeting of the Port Wardens yes, terday the following important resolution was adopted:-

Whereas, It has been reported to this board that pilots coming up the river in in-fected vessels are in the habit of leaving quarantine and coming up to the city of Philadelphia: therefore

Resolved, That any pilot leaving a vessel in quarantine and coming up to the city of Philadelphia without an order from the quarantine physician shall be deprived of his branch for six months.

-The family of Mr. Robert Spencer, No. 429 Dickerson street, First ward, were startled vesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock by hearing footsteps in the adjoining house, occu-pied by the family of Paymaster Deleur, United States Navy, who are at present absent from the city. Mr. Spencer set watch, and in about an hour saw two men coming out of the alley with bundles in their possession, and knowing all was not right, followed the men until he met Police Officer Elias P. Cope, near the Navy Yard, where the thieves took to their heels, running up Front and down Washington avenue. Officer Cope, after a scuffle, secured one. The other ran into a house No. 815 Bird's alley, closely followed by citizen Spencer, who arrested him. The prisoners gave the names of Oscar Wilkes and Byron Bettson. They were lodged in the Southwark Hall. They are well known to the police authorities as professional cracks-men. The real name of the former is Thornley. "Jimmies" were found on them. The house was most thoroughly ransacked, and every article of value bundled up for removal. The prisoners will have a hearing at the Central Station this afternoon at 2 o'clock.
