OBITUARY.

James Copland, M. D., F. R. S. The cable announces the death of this distinguished physician and medical author. Dr. Copland was born in the Orkney Islands in 1793. He graduated as M. D. at the University, of Edinburgh in 1815, and removed to London. He travelled for some time in Europe and Africa, and finally in 1821 settled for practice in London. Dr. Copland was connected with a number of medical institutions, and he was a frequent contributor on medical and scientific Subjects to the London Medical Repository, of which he was for a time editor, and to other journals. He also wrote a number of more elaborate works, the most important of which is his "Dictionary of Practical Medicine and Pathology," which is an established work of reference both in Europe and America. Dr. Copland was an honorary member of the Royal Academy of Science of Sweden and of Beveral other continental academies and societies. He was also for some time the President of the Royal Medical and Chirurgical Society. and of the Pathological Society of London.

COLORED TRAVELLERS.

Their Status on Maryland Steamboats. Some of the people of Cambridge have been fearfully exercised of late because some colored women secured a passage in a steamboat plying between that town and Baltimore. The local Democratic paper raised a howl, in respanse to which Edward E. Folyer, President of the steamboat company, makes a reply in which he states the following as the facts of the case:—

"The Massachusetts, Captain Burton, left Baltimore, Saturday evening, July 2d, and among her passengers were five females, who entered the ladies' cabin, and were supposed to be white, who applied for and received tickets to Cambridge white passengers. The next morning, the clerk of the boat saw a colored man aft, on the main deck, in conversation with them. He notified the man that he had no right there and must go forward. The man said if he went forward, the ladies should be made to go there also, as they were colored people;" and one of them was his wife. As we had been deceived into selling them tickets as whites, we had no right to force the females refered to to go forward on that trip, but the man and his other friends were sent there, and the 'ladies' notified that they would not again be permitted to occupy that portion of the steamer. The whole thing was probably arranged and performed to create trouble, and place the Maryland Steamboat Company in a false position. We provide good comfortable accommodations for colored people at half the rates charged white persons, but do not permit them-except when the boat is run exclusively for them-to occupy the portion of the boat or the accommodations set apart for the whites."

The Democrat and Herald still insists that the "blame" lies on the steamboat company and makes this admission:-

"No one here, that we have heard speak of the matter, blames the colored people for endeavoring to get first-class tickets. It is asserted indeed, that the accommodations on board the boats for this class of passengers are not what they ought to be—hence they wish for a better place. They publicly declare that they do not seek social equality in this steamboat or any other matter, but that they are determined to have their rights under the law.'

Truly this is a sad state of affairs, and the c mpany should secure ticket agents with such powerful visual organs that they could see through and through every applicant for a ticket and detect the slightest trace of African blood through six generations, if necessary.

THE SHOOTING OF M'COOLE.

A Painful Operation—His Fighting Days Over— A Mysterious Affair. The shooting of Mike McCoole in his own sa'oon on Monday night has created quite a sensation within the realm of the fancy, particularly owing to the mystery about the affair, and the probability that the Irish giant's fighting days are over. The scene at the office of Dr. Hodgen, where McCoole was brought to have his wound attended to, had an element of the pathetic in it that was realized by those present.

The stalwart form of the prize fighter tested a movable couch or chair to a degree it had never before done. He lay stretched out at full length, with his head reclining on his right arm, while his left arm, bare and gory, was being operated on by Dr. Hodgen. Tom Kelly held McCoole's left hand while Billy Carroll and John Powell walked about the surgery much exercised, and declaring they would sooner have a leg cut off than suffer the pain their friend was doing. When the doctor discovered the place where the ball had lodged he had to cut an opening on the opposite side of the arm to where the ball entered, and occasionally pieces of bone would be drawn out which had been shattered by the ball. Once McCoole remarked to Kelly that when the bones were caught it went through him, and Kelly responded that as he held his hand he felt every shock. An inquiry was made of Dr. Hodgen as to the extent of the injury, and he replied that McCoole would have a stiff arm. McCoole (anxiously)-Will it never be as good as it was before?

Dr. Hodgen-No. McCoole-Never?

Dr. Hodgen—Never as good as it was before. McCoole (with a sigh)—That settles it. Nothing more was said upon this matter, and McCoole lay deeply meditating. The conviction flashed across his mind that his fighting days were over, and the reality of his sadness could Dr. Hodgen had not had such an arm before him for many a long day, seen in the massive symmetry for which McCoole's limbs are remarkable: it shows very clearly his immense strength. Every now and then McCoole bit his lips, but bore the operation with wonderful coolness and conversed freely with those in the room. He was emphatic in his declarations that he knew nothing about the shooting affair, -St. Louis Republican, July 13.

THE LECTURE SEASON.

A Brilliant Report from Cleveland. We gave recently a summary of the Pittsburg lecture season, noticing some gratifying results. In Cincinnati, on the contrary, the lecture season was a financial failure, and the course was abandoned before its completion. In Rochester, N. Y., the net proceeds were $26, and in Buffalo, N. Y., the net proceeds were $90.63. The Cleveland season was particularly sad. The report of the committee thus sums up matters:-

Colonel Powell, single lecture: gross receipts, $216. Paid lecturer $100; rent, advertising, and other expenses, $125. Net loss, $9. Mr. DuChaillu, single lecture: gross receipts, $157:50. Paid lecturer, $100: rent, etc., $125.

Captain Hall, single lecture; gross receipts, $255.50. Paid lecturer $127.50; rent, etc., $125.

Miss Kate Field, single lecture; gross receipts, $262. Pald lecturer $150; rent, etc., $125. Net

Mrs. Smith and Professor Brown, concert and reading; gross receipts $55.50. Paid engagement $150; rent, etc., $125. Net loss $219.50.

Professor Richards, four lectures and matinee; gross receipts $750.75. Paid lecturer $450; rent, etc., $501.55. Net loss $192.80.

Mr. Du Chaillu, three matinee lectures; gross receipts $412.79. Paid lecturer $400; rent, etc.,

*300. Net loss $287.21.

Total receipts of thirteen lectures $2118.04.

Total expenses $2904.05. Net loss on season $786.91.

A negro woman, near Chillicothe, Ohio, on going out to visit a neighbor lately, left her child eleeping on the bed, and, by way of security, tied it to the bed-post by a string fastened around the body. On her return, the child was become the side of the bed, by the neck hanging over the side of the bed by the neck, Incidentals.

-Illinois has 6000 miles of railroads, which, with equipments, cost $120,000,000. -Boston Common is put to still another use this season. There is "liberal preaching" on the hill, near the old Elm, every Sunday

-They are boring away, night and day, in Terre Haute, Ind., at a depth of 1035 feet, in blue limestone, in the hope of striking a salt —A man in Albany bought an acre of land three years ago for $150, and during the present season has netted $1700 for strawberries raised —A venerable couple in Jennings county, Ind., after living together peaceably for forty years, got into a quarrel over the sale of a cow, and separated for the remnant of their days. -Plenty of huckleberries in Northern New York this season. They say they are brought by the wagon load from Shawangunk Mountains to Kingston and Rondout.

—The little town of Holyoke, Mass., by way of celebrating the Fourth of July, furnished to the country five new embryo citizens on that -A new paper called the News of the World has just commenced publication in San Francisco for circulation in Australia, New Zgaland, Tasmania, Honolulu, and the Polynesian Islands. -A marble quarry has just been opened near Williamsport, Pennsylvania, which affords a fine-grained stone as black as ebony, and capable of taking a very high polish. It is said that this quarry is the only one of the kind known to exist. -A noisy railroad meeting in Montreal, the other day, caused a regular stampede of the rats beneath the floor of the hall in which it was held. An army nearly as great as that led by the "pied piper of Hamelin" incontinently left the building to the monopolizing railroad men and betook themselves in all directions to the cellars of the citizens. -French thieves possess fertile invention. The other day a lady went into a haberdasher's shop. Rue Richelieu, and bought a pearl gray silk dress. The shopman had noticed a tolerably well-dressed man standing at the door after the arrival of the lady, and seeming to watch all her movements. Stepping up to the cashier's desk the lady drew a 200 franc note from her At that moment the man outside rushed into the shop, gave the lady a box on the ear, and tore the note out of her hand. "I had forbidden you to buy that dress," cried he; "but I watched you, and you shall not have it." With these words he hastened away, the lady fainted, and the persons employed in the shop, supposing the intruder to be an offended husband, made no remark and let him go. When the lady recovered the proprietor of the establishment expressed his regret at this violent scene, and pitted her for being dependent on so brutal a "My husband!" cried the lady. "Sir, that man is not my husband; do not know him and have never seen him. The pretended husband was a daring thief.

TEMPERANCE MEN ADMIT ITS UTILITY .- No attempt has ever been made, or ever will be made, to disguise the character of Plantation Bitters. It contains alcohol, and no Bitters that do not contain alcohol are worth a rush. Water will neither presorve the virtues of tonic vegetables nor render them active in the system. This is a chemical fact which no person competent to deliver an opinion on the subject will deny. Water tonics turn sour on the stomach, if they are not sour to begin with (which is frequently the case), and produce and promote indigestion, instead of curing it. Let it, therefore, be distinctly understood that PLANTATION BITTERS is an alcohol restorative. But mark this: it is strictly a medicine, not a beverage. It is to be taken in limited quantities and at stated times, like other remedies and antidotes, and therefore its use is in accordance with temperance law, as well as with that "higher law" which renders it incumbent upon every being gifted with reason to resort to the best possible means of accomplishing a salu-

HOVER'S

Celebrated Patent Sofa Bedstead Is now being made and sold in large numbers both in France and England. Can be had only at the manufactory. This piece of furniture is in the form of a handsome PARLOR SOFA, yet in one minute, without unscrewing or detaching in any way, it can be extended into a beautiful FRENCH BEDSTEAD, with Spring Hair Mattress complete, It has the convenience of a Bureau for holding, is easily managed, and it is impossible for it to get out of order. This Sofa Bedstead requires no props, hinges, feet, or ropes to support it when extended, as all other sofa beds and lounges have, which are all very unsafe and liable to get out of repair, but the Bedstead is formed by simply turning out the ends or closing them when the Sofa is wanted. The price is about the same as a lounge. An examination of this novel invention is solicited.
