THE WITNESS OF THE SPIRIT. "The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit that we are the children of God.'

We might feel that we were the children of God apart from the Word, but that is, as has been proved again and again, an insecure basis. The devil and our own hearts bear their false witness to this lie. We do not want to make faith our resting-place any more than feelings. but Christ himself. Thanks be to God, He has not left us to the precarious foundation of our heart's testimony, or to the evanescence of our feelings. Still He treats us as reasonable beings, and does not ask us to accept His testimony about ourelves in direct opposition to our senses; and He works by His Spirit, though I should think never apart from His word, on our hearts, in given evidence in such a passage as the following .- "We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the trethren' (1 John iii, 14). Here is the Spirit bearing witness with our spirit, through the written Word, In the evidence of the love which we feel glowing within our hearts, to all those who love the Lord. It is the bringing home of the Word with power to our hearts, which is the only reliable ground of feeling: for "My love is ofttimes low, My joy still ebbs and flows: But peace with Him remains the same, No change Jehovah knows. "I change: He changes not; The Christ can never die: His love, not mine, the resting-place, His truth, not mine, the tie."

Again we must remember that passage in 1 John v, 10:-"He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in himself."

The witness of God within us is that with which the Spirit of God bears witness. God's Spirit has no dealings in communion with our old nature, and it is only "he that believeth," a believer, who hath faith, and not merely feeling, who hath the inward witness; and it is a present and continuous thing, for it says, "hath the witness," an abiding possession of that which God has wrought within us, with which He brings us into living communion with Himself.

There is no doubt a divinely-given and direct spiritual consciousness by the Holy Ghost of our being the children of God. "That which is born of the Spirit is spirit." That is "our spirit" (Rom. vili, 16). The Holy Ghost dwells in this "new man," and "testifies to our spirit that we are children of God." Alford writes, "All have agreed: and indeed, this verse is decisive, for it shows that it is something separate from and higher than all subjective inferences and conclusions. But, on the other hand, it does not consist in mere indefinite feeling, but in a certitude of the Spirit's presence and work continually asserted within us." Olshausen calls it "direct testimony of the Holy Ghost." He surely testifies directly, and we are conscious of it; it is a fact, not a feeling, although happy feeling always flows from His gracious witness.

SUMMARY OF CHURCH NEWS.

EPISCOPAL.

-The Rev. William Pinkney, the recently elected Assistant Bishop of Maryland was, originally a Methodist.

The Rev. Christopher I. Prindar, late Romish priest, has applied to the Bishop of the Diocese of Ohio for admission to the Episcopal communion.

-From the Episcopal Convention reports we learn that the past year the Bishop of Pittsburg Bish of Central New York, 1066; and Bishop Mcllvaine, of Ohio, 906. -The ridiculous story which has been in circulation recently to the effect that the Episcopal Diocesan Council of Wisconsin had dopted a canon excommunicating all members who married outside of the Church hardly merits a serious contradiction. -An Episcopal missionary in Minnesota reports that he has nine stations under his care, holds three services each Sunday, and five during the week, travels every ten days fifty miles by rail, sixty by wagon, sixty afoot, and has a salary, all told, of $519 60. -The Diocese of Kansas has received the noble gift of $30,000, made by generous Eastern friends, to the Diocesan Female Seminary in Topeka. This munificent donation will enable the diocese to crect, during the coming summer, commodious and handsome buildings for the use of the institution. -The recent Convention of the Diocese of New Jersey adopted a provision requiring lay delegates to that body to be church "communicants." The new Constitution for the Diocese of Albany, which is to be acted on finally at the next Convention in September, contains the same provision. In the Diocese of Ohio it has been so for a number of years, and it is now the rule in quite a number of dioceses. -A ritualistic wedding in St. John's Church, East Hartford, Connecticut, makes some small The Eucharist was administered; the wedding-ring blessed, and the sign of the cross made over it and over the elements when administered: a procession was headed by a crucifer with a silver cross; lighted candles were employed, and white satin crosses and embroidery decked the ushers and rector. -At last we are informed why some of the students of the Episcopal Theological Seminary of New York were refused ordination. They were so regardless of the rules of discipline, and "so lax in the performance of their duties," especially in withdrawing from the institution without permission, "for the purpose of religious exercises under the guidance of authority not known to the bishops of the church or the faculty of the seminary," that it was necessary to administer this rebuke.

-Henry Wilkes, D. D., LL. D., of Montreal, was inaugurated, June 11, as Theological Professor in the Congregational College of British North America.

-The Rev. George Mooar, D. D., has resigned the pastoral charge of the First Congregational Church of Oakland. This step was taken with a view to an acceptance of the professorship of the Pacific Theological Seminary, to which Dr. car was recently elected.

-The pews of the new First Church in Chicago have been rented for the year for over $12,600, and no competition was allowed for those on the lower floor renting for fifty dollars or less, and those in the gallery for thirty dollars According to the Advance, the congreor less. gation has trebled since removing to the new bouse, which cost $180,000.

-At Braintree, Mass., on the 3d inst., the venerable Dr. Storrs preached upon the occasion of the fifty-ninth anniversary of his settlement, from Prov. iv. 10: "Hear, O my son, and receive my sayings; and the years of thy life shall be After a characteristic and touching sermon, he referred to the fact that not one now survives of those who took part in his ordination service, and but few who took a boyish interest therein. He closed by reading, with much feeling, a few words addressed to the young of the society, by Mrs. Storrs, as to the importance of sustaining religious ordinances, urging each one to do all in his power to that METHODIST.

-The General Conference of the Methodist Church South, which met recently in Memphis, Tennessee, passed a resolution recommending an amendment to the Book of Discipline, prohibiting ministers from performing the marriage ceremony for any divorced party whose husband or wife is living. -The Central Christian Advocate, in an article on "Church Extension," thinks St. Louis has done more for the past ten years than any other city of the same Methodist strength, for this cause. Union Church gave the largest collection on the continent for the treasury. Two new churches are in process of building. expending already $27,000, requiring $25,000 more to complete them. - The Chicago Advocate says: - Stephen Griffith, of Danville, Ill., an old-time Methodist, now aged eighty-four, is giving away all his property, and giving his closing business days to so adjusting his temporal concerns that they will be far beyond the reach of probate and chancery. Among his gifts is a donation of $10,000 to the Methodist Episcopal Church Extension Society.

-In Cincinnati, during the last thirty years. the population has increased nearly four times as rapidly as the English-speaking Methodist Episcopal Church membership. In 1840 the Methodists had one in 12.37 of the English-speaking population. In 1869 they had one in 18 15. A correspondent of the Cincinnati Advocate, who has been figuring the matter up, says .- "When it is considered that in the last twenty years the population of this city has more than doubled, while we report an increase of but 11.30 per cent., and that in the last eleven years we have scarcely increased at all, it is very plain that it is high time we were all awake.

CATHOLIC.

-The Austrian Government has promoted Bishop Strossmayer to be Archbishop of Agram. The Papal Nuncio at Vienna has given notice that the Vatican will not accept the appointment, and Von Beust has replied that it will make no difference. -Bishop Borawski, of Poland, who quite recently addressed the Pope on the subject of the condition of the Church in Poland, is detained by the Russian Government as a prisoner in his own house, no one being allowed by the soldiers, who patrol around it, to go in or out.

-The Hungarian Government is credited with having advertised the Pope that it will sanction no suspension of the bishops who vote against infallibility, while those who vote for it are threatened with the loss of their temporalities if they attempt to promulgate in their sees a dogma which interferes with the supremacy of the local government. -The Paris correspondent of the London Guardian says that at the meeting between Dr. Dollinger and Pere Hyacinthe, who spent three weeks visiting at the former's house, there was much discussion of the position to be taken if the Council should decree infallibifity: and that the decision was not voluntarily to quit the Church but to make no secret of their repudiation of some of its doctrines, and await the issue of tolerance or excommunication. -An extraordinary sale has just taken place at Saragossa, in Spain. The Roman Catholic Archbishop of that city having been anxious to restore the celebrated Cathedral of "Our Eady of the Pillar," and being short of funds for that purpose, hit upon the expedient of selling by auction a portion of the votive offerings of the pilgrims to the Cathedral during the past century. Among the lots offered was a beautiful pendant by Cellini, which, after severe competition between an English and a French gentleman, was knocked down to a native for a sum of about $5000. An enamelled watch presented by Philippe IV, diamond pins by Marie Chris-tine de Bourbon, and some splendid specimens of cinque cento work, secured high prices. It was the first public sale ever held in the south of Spa n. LUTHERAN.

amount to over $100,000, of which the alumni have contributed $35,000, and R. H. Pruyn, of Albany, $10,000.

UNITARIAN.

-Miss Crocker, the only lady elected on the executive committee of the American Unitarian Association, has declined the office, and a gen-tleman has been elected in har place. The association has received a contribution of $2264 from the Arlington Street Society, Boston. UNIVERSALIST.

-At the "children's service" in the Universal 'de , "nted" eighteen children on a late Sabbath, after proceeding a sermon explaining the object of this new observance. WHISKY, WINE, ETC. KEYSTONE PURE WHEAT WHISKY. Distilled from the Grain

All the leading medical authorities recognize the value of diffusive stimulants. Numerous eminent physicians and surgeons might be named who have advocated their aployment in the treatment of a large class of disor lors. No Dispensary is considered complete without them. They are prescribed in all public and private hospitals, and administered by all bedside practitioners. But the difficulty has been to obtain Alcoholic Liquors Fure.

The pungent aroma of the fusel oil and biting acids preent in all of them can be scented as the glass is raised to the lips. The nauseons flavor of these active poisons is perceptible to the palate, and a burning sensation in the stomach attests their existence when the nozious draught has cone down. Paralysis, idiocy, insanity and death are the pernicious fruits of such potations.

Medical science asks for a pure stimulant to use as a specific, which, while it diffuses itself through the system more rapidly than any other known agent, is brought into direct and active contact with the seat of disease. It is the property of the stimulant to diffuse, and by the aid or ts peculiar nutritious component parts to invigorate, regulate, counteract and restore, and it is by the happy union of the principle of activity with the principle of in vigoration and restoration that enables PRESBYTERIAN.

-Rev. Dr. Ellinwood, of the Evangelist, has relinquished editorial work to become Secretary of the Five-Million Presbyterian Fund Committee

-Rev. Dr. Cyrus Dickson has resigned his charge of the Westminster Church, in Baltimore, to accept the Secretaryship of the Board of Missions of the Presbyterian Church, at New York.

-The Interior has a table giving the strength of the Presbyterians in various States. Over one-half of the churches (2671) are found in the four States of New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Illinois. New York has 730, Pennsylvania 712, Ohio 580, Illinois 446, Indiana 310, Iowa 286, New Jersey 214, Missouri 158, and Michigan 150; making, with smaller amounts, a total of 4100. Of the cities, Philadelphia has 63, New York 39, Brooklyn 23, Chicago 16, Newark 15, Cincinnati 16, Baltimore and San Francisco 11 each, and Washington and Pittsburg 10 each. —The Congregationalist says:—"The Assem-bly (Presbyterian) Church, of Washington, having lost the Rev. Mr. Hart, have made an arrangement with Rev. Dr. Boynton to preach for them, and to bring his church with him. Objection being made in Presbytery, on the ground that Dr. Boynton was a Congregationalist, while the title-deeds of this church secured it forever to Presbyterian preaching, R.v. Dr. Smith stated that Dr. Boynton now was, and for many years had been, a member of a Presbyte-rian body, and that, before their uext meeting, his letters would be received transferring him to this Presbytery. Whereupon it was voted that the session of Assembly Church be granted leave to supply their pulpit until the next stated meeting of the Presbytery."

CONGREGATIONAL.

-The Congregational churches of Vermont during the past year have received 1774 new

-The Ohio Congregational Conference re-fused admission to women as delegates by a vote of 88 to 65.

- A great Lutheran assembly met in Leipsic the first part of June. It pronounced strongly in favor of unity of doctrine, and insisted on the right of the disciplining those who entered upon marriage without a religious ceremony. At the same time, they allowed the real force of civil marriages.

-The Augustana Swedish Lutheran Synod has met in Andover, Ill. The Andover Church is the oldest in the country, having been organized in 1850, through the munificent aid of Jenny Lind. It then had 10 communicants including the pastor's family, and now has 999. There are now not far from 50 Swedish Lutheran pastors in the country, and 33 new churches aplied for recognition to the synod. The single Swedish Episcopal church in Chicago is even older than the Lutheran one in Andover: and, like that, owes its existence to the liberality of Jenny Lind. It remains but one, and has been able to continue in existence only by adopting the Lutheran Prayer-Book. At this meeting the Norwegians separated from the Swedes, as had been arranged two years ago, forming the Norwegian Augustana Synod. The final separation was an affecting one.

BAPTIST.

The first Baptist church in the country, that of Providence, Rhode Island, was founded two hundred and thirty-one years ago.

-The Rev. H. B. Hackett, D. D., has accepted the Professorship of New Testament Literature and Interpretation in Rochester Theological Seminary.

-The Rev. C. H. Malcom, of Rhode Island, has sent out a circular inviting Baptists to sign its declaration of faith in the general Baptist doc.rines, but allowing "entire freedom to each church to fix its own terms of communion.' He says that some thirty ministers, nearly all Baptists, including one or two college presidents and four doctors of divinity, have signed this paper.

THE MOHAMMEDANS.

- Rev. H. H. Jessup, of Beirut, says that the Mohammedans in Syria are coming more under Christian influence. He has several Moslems in his Bible-class. The Governor-General of Syria was recently telegraphed to from Jerusalem, to know whether a Damascus Moslem, then in Jerusalem, who had become a Christian, should be imprisoned. He telegraphed back, giving orders to set the man at liberty, as the conscience is tree in the Turkish empire. A Moslem woman became a Christian lately in Jebail, twenty-five miles north of Beirut, with the approbation of the Governor of Lebanon, and the city authori-ties, who comprise Moslems, Greeks, and Maronites.

REFORMED.

-At the last communion, Sunday, June 19, twenty-eight united themselves to the Lee Avenue Reformed Church, Brooklyn, N. Y. During the sacramental year Dr. Carroll received one hundred and firty-three persons into his church. -The centennial offerings to Rutgers College

CITY ORDINANCES.

COMMON COUNCIL OF PHILADELPHIA. CLERK'S OFFICE,

PHILADELPHIA, July 8, 1870. In accordance with a resolution adopted the Common Council of the city of Philadelphia on Thursday, the 7th day of July, 1870, the annexed bill, entitled "An Ordinance to Create a Lean for a House of Correction," is hereby published for public information.

JOHN ECKSTEIN. Clerk of Common Council.

A To Create a Loan for a House of Correction. Section 1. The Select and Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia do ordain, That the Mayor of Philadelphia be and he is hereby authorized to borrow, at not less than par, on he credit of the city, from time to time, for a House of Correction, five hundred thousand dollars, for which interest, not to exceed the rate of six per cent. per annum, shall be paid half yearly on the first days of January and July, at the office of the City Treasurer. The principal of said loan shall be payable and paid at the expiration of thirty years from the date of the same, and not before, without the consent of the holders thereof; and the certificates therefor, in the usual form of the certificates of city loan, shall be issued in such amounts as the lenders may require, but not for any fractional part of one hundred dollars, or, if required, in amounts of five hundred or one thousand dollars; and it shall be expressed in said certificates that the loan therein mentioned and the interest thereof are payable free from all taxes. section 2. Whenever any ioan shall be made y virtue thereof, there shall be, by force of this ordinance, annually appropriated out of the income of the corporate estates and from the sum raised by taxation a sum sufficient to the interest on said certificates; and the further sum of three-tenths of one per centum on the par value of such certificates so issued, shall be appropriated quarterly out of said income and taxes to a sinking fund, which fund and its accumulations are hereby especially pledged for the redemption and payment of said certificates. RESOLUTION TO PUBLISH A LOAN BILL.

Resolved, That the Clerk of Common Council be authorized to publish in two daily newspapers of this city daily for four weeks, the ordinance presented to the Common Council on Thursday, July 7, 1870, entitled "An ordi-nance to create a loan for a House of Correction;" and the said Clerk, at the stated meeting of Councils after the expiration of four weeks from the first day of said publication, shall present to this Council one of each of said newspapers for every day in which the same shall
