AT THE SEASIDE.

THE N. Y. "SEVENTH" AT CAPE MAY. Their Beings Vesterday-The Grand Hall at the Stockton House Last Evening. From Our Own Correspondent.

CAPE MAY CITY, N. J., July 16. The 7th Regiment arrived here yesterday moraing, at about 2 o'clock, having left Camden at ten minutes past eleven on Thursday evening. They were received in the most cordial manner, and were assigned quarters at the various hotels, the Stockton House taking the majority. At 11 o'clock on Friday morning they were formally received by General H. H. Bingham and the Committee of Reception, speeches being made on both sides. A review was held in the afternoon, which was witnessed by a large crowd.

Last evening the grand ball took place at the Stockton House. Major Joseph F. Tobias, Mr. J. Travis Quigg, General Henry H. Bingham. and Mr. D. C. Wharton Smith were the principal persons having charge of the affair, and to their exertions is due in a great measure the success of the whole enterprise. The following are the names of the officers and of the members of the several committees:-

Chairman—J. Truvis Quigg. Vice-Chairman—George A. Bernard. Secretary—Clarence A. Robers. Treasurer—William H. Chandler.

In each succeeding file of four there were two officers of the regiment, flanked right and left by a member of the committee. After these had passed into the ball-room there followed General George G. Meade, Daniel M. Fox (Mayor of Philadelphia), Major J. F. Tobias, and then the officers of the committee, Messrs, George A. Bernard, William H. Chandler, and others. Following these were the invited guests in plans of four, then the floor managers, and then the New York 7th Regiment. The ball-room was the immense dining-room of the house, and this was completely filled with the large crowd in attendance. Besides the participants, a great number of guests on the island were drawn to the scene from curiosity, and witnessed the display from the porch windows on either side of the house.

A list of the notabilities present would be sufficiently long to fill all the available space in these columns. It is sufficient, however, to say that about every other man upon the floor was a notable of some sort. Philadelphia's favorite, General Meade, was present in full uniform, and did the agreeable to the ladies generally. Colonel James Fisk, a notable of another stripe, but not so much of a favorite, was undoubtedly the lion of the evening. He bore himself becomingly in a well-padded uniform, and conducted himself with the utmost propriety from behind a huge diamond pin which surmounted his bosom, the stone of which was about the size of a regulation army coat button. The metabers of the New York Old Guard showed magnificent uniforms of white and gold, in imitation of the Austrian Major-General's uniform. The ladies ladelphia, and several from New York. In the company of Major Tobias, the prime mover of the whole concern, we noticed Mrs. Knickerbocker and Mrs. Cambles, two New York ladies, remarkable for their beauty and for their becoming dress. The decorations of the ball were gotten up in fine style. Red, white, and blue bunting was draped around the room, and between each window the coats-of-arms of the various States were placed. These were also grouped over the outside of the entrance door, which was also otherwise ornamented. The shield directly over the doorway, under which every married and unmarried person present had to pass, bore the coat-of-arms of the State of Utab, which singular arrangement produced some startling thoughts to the ladies and gedtlemen who viewed it.

There were numerous fine dresses in attendance. The ladies wearing them are nameless, for various reasons, as are also the different styles of costume, from inability to furnish them with a name. There was one costume which consisted mostly of an almighty train tapering beautifully down to a fine point at a remote distance from the wearer, and cut a la peacock generally. Ruffles, flounces, and furbelows formed the body and substance of the dress, which was constructed of some light material, and of a feather's weight.

Another costame included a scarlet silken train as heavy in substance as the other was light. The effect of its bright coloring was something startling, and its length was inexpressible. The distance in lineal measurement covered by this arrangement at any one given time was stopped off and found to be in the neighborhood of thirty feet, as near as it could be estimated. This costume was noticed going around the room in eccentric circles at various times, pro-ducing a paculiar phenomenon.

Various other trains of great length-excursion trains they may be called-were noticed. but their beauties were not displayed to the public eye in such profusion. When dancing they were generally draped in graceful folds over the arm of the partner, and when standing or sitting were deposited in heaps on one side of the wearer, so as to give the unwary wayfarer a chance to pass in safety. Like a certain ornamental fowl before mentioned, the ornamental portion was only displayed when the wearer had some special reason for so doing.

But the majority of the dresses were remarkble only for their propriety and unostentations elegance. The ladies certainly displayed the greatest of taste, and the gentlemen certainly thanked them for it, in look if not in word.

During the evening considerable trouble was experienced with the gaslight, which grew dimmer and dimmer as the evening wore on. The gas of this hotel is farnished, not from a private apparatus, but from the town works, which are not in a flourishing condition, and which sometimes run short at very inopportune moments. To help remedy the defect in the ball-room, the residents of the Island and the proprietors of the various hotels turned off their own gas jets, except where they were absolutely necessary, in order that there might be enough to make a fair show where it was most needed. But the precautions were all of no avail. At about half-past eleven o'clock, after several death flickers, the light went entirely out, and but for a few caudles which were on the music platform the room would have been in total darkness. As it was, the effect was to send many of the guests home. In a few minutes, various individuals facetiously called the light brigade made their appearance with lighted candles in each hand, and thus the room was made inhabitable until a sufficient quantity of gas had collected in the reservoirs to allow the jets to be relighted. A goodly number of participants remained to enjoy the festivities until their conclusion.

At tweive o'clock the banquet was served, which was a fine affair and gave great satisfaction. The dancing was continued until nearly four o'clock, up to which time various parties of the 7th and others were heard, by those who desired to sleep peacefully after the fatigues of the day, proceeding noisily to their homes, making the early morning hideous with their superabundant good humor, which every one, however, was ready to pardon.

The regiment leave the island this morning for New York at nine o'clock, taking with them the best feelings for all who have taken part in the reception, and the best wishes and congratulations of their friends.

INSANE .- About 8 o'clock this morning the residents in the neighborhood of Thirty-ninth and Market streets were somewhat astonished by the cry of "stop thief." An examination disclosed the fact that three men had escaped from the Insane Asylum, the keeper of which was almost frantic over the loss of his patients.

IN AND OUT .- William Coody tumbled into the Schuylkill, at Spruce street wharf, about 8 o'clock this morning. Fortunately the Harbor were near by, and succeeded in rescuing He was then removed to his home, Twenty-second and Chesnut streets.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.-Last midnight, Charles Stevenson, aged twenty-six years, attempted to commit suicide by jumping into the Delaware at Arch street wharf. Officers Doran and Maghean, of the Delaware Harbor Police, frustrated his foolish perpose and removed him to the GRAVE AND GHASTLY.

Tampering With the Dead-Removal of Corpses Without Authority-Imperfect Burlais-Tuck-ing Dend People Just Under the Surface-A Cemetery Superintendent la Trouble. The attention of the Board of Health was called a few days ago to a case in which William McCay, the Superintendent of the Franklin Cemetery, was charged with violating the health laws, in disinterring bodies without a permit. and, second. in placing bodies only 7, 8, 12, and 18 inches beneath the surface. The matter 18 inches beneath the surface. The matter was referred to the Committee on Burial Grounds and Registration for investigation. The committee visited the cemetery, which is located between Frankford road and the Fifth and Sixth Street Passenger Railway, and below Allegheny avenue, and found that the neighbors were complaining of the peculiar efflavia which had pervaded the surrounding atmosphere for a long time. They then proceeded to an inspec-tion of the grounds, and the result of that will be found in the annexed report was accepted by the Board Health at its meeting this afternoon.

The Burial Ground and Registration Committee, to whom was referred the report charging the Superintendent of the Franklin Cemetery with sundry violations of the health laws, respectfully report that they have visited the cemeter; and find the charges fully sustained.

The committee find that disinterments in these grounds are of frequent eccurrence and in large numbers, without notice to or permits from the Board of Health; the bodies thus removed, on some occasions, being in such a condition as to cause the effluvium therefrem to pervade the neighborhood.

tion as to cause the effluvium therefrem to pervade the neighborhood.

The committee also examined a number of newly made graves, and found that the coffins in some instances are deposited at a distance of not more than twelve to eighteen inches below the surface of the ground, and in others not more than from seven to eight inches.

The committee are of the opinion that these violations of the Health laws are of so serious a character and so violative of every decent regard of the feelings of survivors as to demand that the Superintendent of the Comstery should be made to feel the weight of the law, which he has so grossly and knowingly outraged. Therefore,

Resolved. That the HealthO fficer be directed to cause a prosecution at law to be at once instituted against William McCay, Sucerintendent of Franklin Cemetery, for violation of sections 4 and 6 of the regulations of the Board of Health, and that he report his action to this board.

Health Officer John E. Addicks intends taking

Health Officer John E. Addicks intends taking immediate steps towards the punishment of Mr.

McCay.
Section 4 of the Regulations provides that no disinterment or removal of a body from one grave or vault to another, in the same cemetery or burial grounds, or from one cemetery or bu rial ground to another, shall be allowed without a permit from the Health Officer.

Section 6 provides that no body shall be in terred in any burial ground within the thickly populated portion of the city, at a less depth than eight feet from the surface, or in the rural portion of the city at a less depth than six feet from the surface.

THE COAL TRADE.

The Eight-hour Strike—The Lebigh and Schuyl-kill Regions—Quotations, Etc. The 15th of July, the day appointed for the general strike on the nominal ground of the eight-hour regulation, has passed and no general strike has occurred. Nor is it likely that any will occur. The pretext is not so popular as to lead the men to further their Schuvikill brethren's wishes to so great a degree, to their own discomfort. The following is the vote of the delegates to the Grand Council on the resolution making eight hours a full day's work:-

Yeas-Luzerne county, 1: Carbon county, 2: Northumberland county, 2: Schuylkill county, 4: Columbia county, 2: Total 11.

Nass-Luzerne county, 4: Carbon county, 1: Schuylkill county, 1. Total 6. The men of Luzerne and Carbon countles are strongly opposed to the movement.

This same resolution, somewhat varied, has since been sent to the different sections for approval, but it is believed that it will have no effect in the work-ing regions. Portions of the resolutions as now changed are still kept secret.

In the Lehigh region the troubles at Hazleton on a question of leases has been satisfactorily adjusted, and the men have resumed work. The stand-still continues at Summit Hill and Nesquehoning.

In Schoylkill it is said that the action of the Reading Company in raising the tolls has greatly surprised the miners. At Mauch Chunk there were transported last week over both railroads and canal, 79,568 15 tons against 196,557 16 tons the week previous—a decrease of 46,989 01 tons and a decrease from the corresponding week last year of 1550 11 tons.

Quotations of prices at Port Richmone are again omitted on account of the unsettled state of trade.

The following are the current rates of freights from Port Richmond for the week ending July 15:-Bangor, $2; Hallowell, $2; Portsmouth, $2:15; Boston, $1,75@2; Dorchesier, $2; Dighton, $1:75; Fall River, $1:55; Lynn and dis. $2; Provincetown, $2:25; Salem, $2; Weymouth, $2; Bristol, $1:75; Newport, $1:75; Providence, $1:75; Pawtucket and tow, $1:75; Pawtucket and t Allen's Point, $1.75; Greenport, $1.50; New York, $1.20@1.30. Thermometrical Vagaries During the Past Week-Ranging Among the Minettes Again. During the past week the thermometer has been endeavoring to resume the high and dignified stand which it took in the last days of June, and its success has been altogether flattering. seven days of 80.18 degrees, as compared with 78.63 degrees for the first eight days, the average of the mean temperature of the month of July during the past eighty years being but 75.76 degrees. At 9 o'clock this morning the thermometer stood at 88 degrees, the highest since July 1, when the same figures were attained at that hour. On the 16th of July, year, the thermometer at 9 A. M. marked 87 degrees, rising later in the day to 97.5 degrees, the highest point reached during that month. We hope that to-day will prove the hottest of the present month.

THE MORTALITY OF THE CITY .- The number of deaths in the city for the week ending at noon to-day was 349, being a increase of 9 from those of last week, and a decrease of 48 over the corresponding period of last year. Of these, 130 were adults; 219 were minors; 281 were born in the United States; 63 were foreign; 23 were people of color; and 6 were from the country. Of this number, 35 died of consumption of the lungs; 9 of disease of the heart; 20 of marasmus; 10 of old age; 11 of typhoid fever; 16 of convulsions; 12 of scarlet fever; 3 of inflammation of the lungs; and 5 of relapsing fever.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.-Michael Lakely had one of his legs fractured this morning, at Callownill street wharf, Delaware, by a lot of iron falling on it. He was removed to the Hospital.

N. Y. MONEY MARKET YESTERDAY.

From the N. Y. Herald. "The important events now transpiring in Europe have had a further interesting reflection in the course of values in Wall street to-day, illustrating the close sympathy which exists between the great fastions of modern times. Although remote from the scene of the crisis which evertasing Europe Wall street was aimest as despit interested as London, Paris, or Frankfort in the deve lopment of the drama in which France and Prussia are playing the principal roles.

"Of the immediate effect of the formal declaration of war between the two countries the advance of gold to day from 1 4 to 116% is the index of the change wrought is the financial situation on this side of the Atlantic. The laster point was not reached without many intermediate fluctuations. The news that war had been actually declared was not made known until far in the day, and even the n was discredited for the reason that a Paris telegram approunced, truthfully or otherwise, a sudden recovery in rentes. It remains to be seen, however, whether the existence of a state of war such as we may look for in the immediate future will continue to advance the premium on gold. The fact has been already discounted in Wall street, for the carrying rate to day shows that the speculators who have bought in anticipation of war comprise almost all the dealers in the precious metals. The Gold Room is new composed of a harmonious community of 'bulls,' who are no longer desirous of buying but of selling. The danger of bolding gold in such a situation is only too evident. The estensible re-son for the advance is that our national securities abroad may be sent home. The Gevernment market here has declined not through any depreciation of the intrinsic value of our bonds, but because the market price is forced down by the sudden effort to realize upon them. Instead of our bonds having depreciated, they are really more valuable new that French rentes and Praysan funds are depressed by the war. The reaction at no distant day is inevitable."

FROM THE WEST.

Fire at New Albany, Ind. Indianapolis, July 16 .- The main portion of the Depaw House, in New Albany, Ind., was destroyed by fire early this morning. The building was owned by W. C. Depaw. Loss, $6000. No insurance. The furniture was owned by J. C. Bentley. Loss, $4000. No insurance. A lady jumped from the third-story window, struck the bannister, and was severely but not seriously injured. The boarders got off safely, mainly through the exertions of young Bentley, who bravely stood smoke and fire until he had piloted all out.

The journals this morning publish the following statement:-Eight days ago Bismarck sent by special messenger to Baron von Werther, Ambassador of the German Confederation, an order to make no concessions to the French Government. "Do not be too much impressed." Bismarck continues in his despatch. "We are ready to prolong the situation, if possible, to the 20th of July." The journals argue from this that Prussia meant war from the beginning, and sought only to gain time.

Napoleon Off for the Seat of War. The Emperor will leave Paris to-day for the seat of war.

The Prince Imperial will accompany him to the field. The Emperor desired this, and the Empress does not object. The military attendants of the Prince are in readiness.

Hartford and Eric Railroad Injunction Case. Boston, July 16.—A hearing upon the injunc-tion against the Boston, Hartford and Eric Railroad Company came up before Judge Walls, of the Supreme Judicial Court this morning.

J. D. Bull, counsel for the petitioners for the injunction, stated that in the interview with the President and Secretary of the corporation, it was admitted that the meeting held yesterday and upon which the injunction was served, was illegally notified, and that another meeting, to be held on Friday morning next, was called in a legal manner, and on that account he proposed an adjournment of the hearing until Wednesday, when, if it proved that a legal meet-ing was only to be held, no further proceedings

Judge Wells stated that it would be inconvenient to be present on that day, and under the circumstances and statement he would take the responsibility of making a decision at this time. The Court decided that the injunction, so far as it related to the meeting held on Friday, or any meeting to be held under that call, should be made perpetual.

The New French Minister, Prevost-Paradol, was presented to the President to-day at noon. In delivering his credentials he made the usual speech, which was responded to by the President. There was no allusion whatever on either side to the disturbances in

Members and Senators.

Quite a number of members and Senators are still here settling up department business for their constituents. During the last days of the session this had fallen much behind. About the middle of next week nearly all the Congressmen will have left. Senator Wilson, chairman of the Republican National Campaign Committee, will remain here for some time to put the machinery of the committee in order.

tirculation of Documents. An effort will be made to raise $100,000 for the circulation of documents in the South and through Democratic districts that are close. The National Committee will co-operate with all the local committees in their efforts to carry the districts where the Democratic majority is less than a thousand. Among those upon which an assault is to be made is Voorhees' district in General Schenck. It is said that in case General Schenck does not succeed in getting the nomination for Congress in his district, the President will appoint him Minister to Prussia, in place of Bancroft, who is to be recalled. The war which has arisen there makes the recall of Bancroft more necessary, inasmuch as it will require a younger and more active man to represent American interests at

The Reception of M. Paradol.

Despatch to the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, July 16.—M. Prevost Paradol, accompanied by M. Berthemy and the Secretary of state, proceeded to the Executive Mansion, and the party were there received by the President. The new Minister was in full court dress, which was elatorately trimmed with gold lace. He carried his chapeau, which was similarly adorned, in his hand. After the usual ceremonies of presentation by he Secretary, M. Berthemy delivered his letter of recall.

M. Paradol then addressed the President as follows:-Mr. Paradol's Speech. "Mr. President—I have the honor to place in your hands the letters whereby his Majesty the Emperor of the French has been pleased to accredit me in the quality of knyoy Extra rdinary and Minister Pleni-potentiary to the Republic of the United States. I particularly congratulate myself on having been selected for this high mission at a time when the traditional friendship of France and the United States is darkened by no cloud.

"This happy state of good feeling, which is, so to speak, the natural and necessary situation of these two great nations, and which has always seemed to me to accord as much with their true interest as with the traditions of their history, renders my task near you an easy and at the same time, a pleasant one—to cherish, and thereby to enlarge, between France and the United States those industrial and commercial relations which sustain and strengthen political sympathy, such must now be the main object of my efforts, and if I shall be able to contribute thereto I shall have faithfully fulfilled the intentions of my The President replied :-

The President's Speech. "Mr. Minister:—It gives me great pleasure to re-ceive as the representative of the Government of his Majesty the Emperor of the French a gentleman so well known and distinguished as yourself. I can assure you that I shall give a cordial support to every effort which you may make to increase the commercial and industrial ties between the people of the United States and of France, and to of the United States and of France, and to strengthen and perpetuate the amicable and historical relations between the two Governments." After a few minutes of pleasant conversation, MM. Paradel and Berthemy withdrew. They had not been gone long before the Prussian Minister paid an official visit to the President. Mrs Grant Stek. Mrs. Grant was so sick yesterday and to-day as to require the attendance of a physician.

FROM THE STATE. The Misers' Eight-hour Strike. Special Despatch to The Evening Tolograph.

SCHANTON, Pa., July 16 .- It is now probable that the operators will unanimously accept the eight hour demand of the miners. rators will not lose anything, while the men will be much benefited. The consumer will be the sufferer. Nearly all the collieries in the Wilkesbarre region have commenced working under the new arrangement. In this region, as far as heard from, the men are all working on the old plan, nor have they asked for the eight-hour A few collieries at Plymouth are out, but will probably commence again in a day or two. Speculators pretead to fear a general strike of three or four weeks, but this is improbable. The news of resumption of the Philadelphia Coal Company in the Schuylkill region creates great astonishment here. It appears that the company not only acceded to the old basis, which caused the present protracted strike, but also agreed to the eight-hour demand of the men. The other operators in that region are much incomed, and feer that this may be the means of coloring the strike for an interface. prolonging the strike for an indefinite period.
