THE DAILY EVENING TELEGRAPH -PHILADELPHIA, THURSDAY, AUGUST 11, 1870.

NEWS SUMMARY.

City Affairs.

-A meeting composed of delegates from the various fire companies was held at the house of the Northern Liberty Hose Company, No. 714 New Market street, for the purpose of arranging an escort for the recep-tion of steamer No. 4, and the McQuade Association of Albany, who will visit this city on Tuesday, August 30. Mr. Thomas R. Ried, of the Northern Liberty Hose Company, was elected President; Mr. Adolph Fernandez, of the Vigilant Fire Company, Secretary, and John Moulder, of the Resolution Hose Company, Treasurer. A Committee of Arrange-ments was appointed, consisting of the fol-lowing:—Samuel J. Yarger, Empire Hook and Ladder Company, chairman; John Me-Gough, Perseverance Hose Company; H. C. Coogan, Schuylkill Hose Company; George McEwen, Mechanic Engine Company, and Alexander Slater, Union Fire Company. The meeting then adjourned to meet next Wednesday evening at the Humane Hose House, Wood street, below Third.

-A monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of City Trusts was held yesterday afternoon. The contract for altering three dwelling houses on Chesnut street, below Twelfth, was ratified. The Committee on City Property was authorized to widen the street running from Eleventh to Twelfth, between Chesnut and Girard streets. The President of the College reported that the recent excursion made by the pupils had had a very favorable influence on the discipline of the institution. The physician reported the health of the boys in the College as good, and that no case of serious sickness had occurred. A legacy of $800 had been received from the estate of Sarah Phipps, to aid in extending the usefulness of the Wills Hospital. Dr. L. M. Adler was appointed surgeon, in place of Dr. Livezy, resigned. The increased income of the Wills Hospital has enabled the committee charged with its management to procure additional comforts for its inmates.

THE WAR.

bury spoke in terms of approval of the action of the government, as did Lords Redesdale and Cleveland.

At two o'clock the royal commission, the Lord Chancellor, Earl Kimberly, Viscount Hallfax, Viscount Sydney and Marquis of Normandy brought in the Queen's speech.

The Commons were summoned and soon appeared, with Speaker Gladstone and others at their head. The speech was then read by the Lord Chancellor, as follows:

My Lords and Gentlemen: The state of public business enables me to release your attendance upon Parliament. I continue to receive from all foreign Powers assurances of their good will and friendship; but I have witnessed with great pain and grief, on both domestic and foreign grounds, the recent outbreak of war between two powerful nations allied to this country. My best exertions have been used to avert this great calamity.

I shall now direct constant and anxious attention to a strict observance of the duties and rights of neutrality. I have cheerfully assented to the measures matured by your wisdom to enlarge the powers of the executive, not only for the discharge of international duties, but for the prevention of acts injurious to the interests of this country. I shall make every fitting endeavor to check the operation of causes leading to the enlargement of the area of the conflict, and shall contribute, if opportunity offer, to the restoration of an early and honorable peace.

I have tendered to the belligerent Powers treaties identical in form, which will give additional security to Belgium against the hazards of war on her frontier. The treaty has been signed by Count Bernstoff, for the North German Confederation, and the French envoy has signified that he has authority to sign a corresponding instrument on receipt of full power therefor. Other Powers, parties to the treaty of 1839, have been invited, and they are likely to accede to the engagement.

The shocking murders in Greece have produced painful impressions in Europe, and have drawn attention to serious evils existing in that country. My unremitting efforts will be directed to secure a complete and searching inquiry into the facts. Gentlemen of the House of Commons: I thank you for the liberal provisions made by you for the ordinary services of the year, and for additional supplies of men and money voted in view of the altered circumstances of the Continent. The revenue gives promise to meet the new changes thus created without revising the proper balance of revenue and expenditure. The act for the repression of agrarian crime and to maintain order in Ireland has answered its purpose thus far. From the act regulating the occupation of land I anticipate the restoration of peaceful relations between landlord and tenant, and of confidence and benevolence. Legislation duly protecting life and property I hope is now more easy, and I rely on the loyalty and affection of my Irish subjects.

I have been pleased to concur in the bill for national education in England as a new guarantee for the moral and social well being of the nation, its prosperity and power. The naturalization act, and that for the extradition of criminals, tend to strengthen our friendly relations with other Powers. The act regulating enlistments for short terms I hope will increase the efficiency of the forces, promote the welfare of the soldiers, and provide for the nation a service well trained in arms and ready on emergency to return to their standards.

LAST NIGHT'S DESPATCHES.

THE FRENCH CRISIS-A DICTATORSHIP ANTICI-PATED-NAPOLEON INVITED TO RETURN TO PARIS-THE PRINCE IMPERIAL IN LONDON-THE NEW MINISTRY-SPEECH OF QUEEN VIC-TORIA ON THE SITUATION. .

PARIS, August 10, via LONDON .- A dictatorship is anticipated, with General Trochee as supreme head.

The Emperor has been invited to return to Paris, and await a reconstruction of the government. His refusal is considered certain. Houses, trees, and all obstructions within five thousand yards of the fortifications of the formation of a new ministry, and read the list of names, as follows:

Count Palikao, Minister of War; De la Tour d'Auvergne, Foreign Affairs; Henri Chevreau, Interior: Grand Perret, Justice; De Genouilldi. Marine: Pierre Magne, Finance; Jerome David. Works; Jules Brame, Instruction; Clement Duvernois, Commerce; Busson Billault, President of Council of State.

A recess was taken for a quarter of an hour. On resuming, the Chamber desired to pass immediately to the discussion of the project of law on the Garde Nationale.

M. Buffet requested a delay of two hours, as the report was not quite ready.

The Minister of Marine demanded adjourn ment. He explained that Count Palikao was now in the Senate, and would not assist at the proceedings, in which his advice was needed.

M. Gambetti insisted that the debate should proceed. ' France wanted arms. The soil of the country was invaded. Necessity for instant action was imperative. The government should have made up its mind. (Great sensation.)-

Minister Jerome David requested that the ministry have a few hours for reflection.

La Liberte says all the members of the staff of Marshal McMahon were either killed or wounded in the battle of Froschweiller.

STRASBURG, August 10, 9.30 P. M .- All is quiet here. Defensive measures are continued. The Honse of Lords was thinly attended today. During the session Lord Cairns inquired as to the progress made in the negotiations for the preservation of the neutrality of Belgium. He said the statement that the government adhered to the treaty of 1889 was satisfactory. The neutrality of Belgium was of serious importance, and he approved the determination of the government to maintain

Earl Granville said he was gratified by the friendly tone of the various members, including the noble lord who preceded him, and, in reply, said the government had secured the et alluded to, and also the warmest approval and support of Austria and Russia. It was impossible to doubt the personal honor of the Emperor Napoleon or King William, or that nations so forgot their obligations as to make war on the public opinion of the world. He thought the treaty would not require the action of Parliament, the aim desired having been otherwise achieved. The treaty was then read and loudly cheered.

Lords Stratford de Redcliffe and Shaftesearnest prayer that when again summoned I may rejoice with you on the re-establishment of peace in Europe. LONDON, Aug. 10 .- The Prince Imperial of France has arrived in London, and is now at the British Legation, in charge of W.F. Smith, the Emperor's confidential agent. Mr. Smith also brought with him the Empress Eugenie's jewels and valuables, and the famous diamonds of the Duke of Brunswick.
