FROM EUROPE.

Paris Virtually Besieged. Special to the Courrier des Etats-Unis. PARIS, Aug. 22.—Preparations are being made for a combat all along the line. Paris is virtually in a state of siege, and every one accepts this part of the situation.

No Fear of Revolution. As for a diversion in their favor among the faubourgs, they need not count upon it, for at this time it would be difficult to restrain the summary vengeance of the people upon any individual convicted of treason.

The Fortifications of the City. I visited this morning the line of fortifications between Neuilly and Autant. An army of workmen, aided by Gardes Mobiles and men of all military classes, were at work cutting down trees in the Bois de Boulogne as far as the lakes.

Poor Paris! On the side of that city toward Passy and Autant a large number of houses have been demolished. In short, this part of Paris, once so beautiful, is entirely unrecognizable.

On the Vincennes Side (East). I am told the work of defense is pushed with still greater energy. An entrenched camp has been established in the plain of St. Maurice, which commands the passage of the Marne.

200,000 Troops About the City. As for the really effective force of troops to whom our defense is committed, I estimate it upon authentic data in the neighborhood of 200,000 men, of whom 15,000 are soldiers of the regular army, 5000 municipal guards and gendarmes, 10,000 sailors and marines, 70,000 Gardes Mobiles of the reserves and battalions de depot, and about 100,000 National guards, firemen, etc.

Secrecy of Army News. The news from the army of the Moselle is always scarce. What I am permitted to send you is in substance this:— Bazaine Preserves Intact his communications with Paris by the western route.

The Prussians at Metz. The enemy's army around Metz has always been superior in numbers, but, decimated by the late battles, is incapable, for the present at least, of resisting a violent attack. The reinforcements which it has received are composed of landwehr and levies from the Southern States, hastily gathered for the invasion of our country.

His Reinforcements. He can doubtless by the same route receive reinforcements, and I have reason to believe that part of the forces lately assembled at Chalons set out for that destination yesterday morning.

Business Paralyzed. ANTWERP, Aug. 23.—The war has paralyzed business here, but no failures have yet been announced, nor are any anticipated. Here, as everywhere, the only hopes of resumption of commercial activity is based on the speedy triumph of the Prussians.

First Court-martial of a Captured Spy. PARIS, Aug. 22.—I have just returned from a most painful spectacle—the first trial by court-martial here of the Prussian spy recently arrested. M. Simonnet, the Imperial Advocate, prosecuted.

The Prussian Secret Service. Prussia seems to have provoked a war unworthy of two nations, but by the instinct of self-preservation forced upon the weaker party, she has inundated our country with her spies, and we have been compelled as a measure of safety to expel all suspected Germans at the risk of expelling some innocent persons. French Guerilla War. In Alsace and Lorraine the necessities of the Prussians by the exorbitant demands of their commissaries have exasperated the unhappy people, who, plundered, harassed, and abused, have inaugurated a guerilla war against their invaders. Moreover King William has launched a proclamation declaring that every individual not belonging to the French army and taken in open hostility to the Prussian army shall be shot. A rising of the people en masse will bring a day of justice for all these insults and injuries.

Important Statements Near Metz. LONDON, Aug. 23.—Bazaine has forced a passage by way of Autun and Longwyon, reaching Montmedy. It is reported that the armies of the Prince Royal and Prince Frederick Charles have formed a junction to the westward of Metz.

Secretly Intervention Certain. LONDON, Aug. 23.—It is almost certain that an interposition of the great powers of Europe in the Franco-Prussian question will take place within a few days.

Paris Journals Continue to Urge a Levy en Masse to exterminate the invaders. "Keep Cool!" This morning's Opinion Nationale, under the caption of "Keep Cool," predicts the defeat of the Prussians as the result of the pending combinations.

Bismarck's Sons. Herbert Bismarck, one of the sons of the Prussian Prime Minister, was wounded in the foot, and his brother William had his horse killed under him.

Defense of Paris. The Standard's correspondent is confident that Paris will be defended even if a bombardment takes place.

That Letter of Queen Victoria's. The Post is authorized to deny the letter published yesterday, said to have been written by Queen Victoria to the Empress.

The Prize Promised by the Prussian Government to the captor of the first French gun has been awarded to a sergeant of the Prussian 5th Grenadier Rifles.

Poisoning Wells. A letter from Baden published here to-day says the French peasants are so fanatical as to poison the wells in Alsace.

French Villages Destroyed. A correspondent of the Daily News says in the battle of the 18th the French were flung back on St. Quentin, Vionville, Flavigny, Rezonville and Gravelotte. The villages in the neighborhood of Metz where the battles of the past ten days have occurred have been nearly destroyed.

The Bombardment of Toul has been commenced. The Camp at Chalons has been raised. The Emperor's Headquarters are now at Rheims.

MacMahon's Headquarters are now at Ceruvelles. Bazaine Reinforced and to Take the Offensive. LONDON, Aug. 23.—A special Paris despatch says the armies of King William and Stenmetz are reported to be too severely crippled to assume the offensive, and it is given out on high authority that Bazaine was reinforced from Chalons on Sunday for the purpose of giving battle to the enemy near Metz.

Rumor of a French Victory. A report has reached London of a French victory. Another special despatch from Paris says:— "Bazaine was yesterday at Metz. He has his north and centre ground entirely open to him, either for retreat or to receive reinforcements."

The Appalling Prussian Losses have sent a thrill of horror throughout Germany, and recruits are only to be had from among the country people and working men, nearly all of whom are raw. Bazaine professes to be master of the situation.

Business Paralyzed. ANTWERP, Aug. 23.—The war has paralyzed business here, but no failures have yet been announced, nor are any anticipated. Here, as everywhere, the only hopes of resumption of commercial activity is based on the speedy triumph of the Prussians.

First Court-martial of a Captured Spy. PARIS, Aug. 22.—I have just returned from a most painful spectacle—the first trial by court-martial here of the Prussian spy recently arrested. M. Simonnet, the Imperial Advocate, prosecuted.

The Prussian Secret Service. Prussia seems to have provoked a war unworthy of two nations, but by the instinct of self-preservation forced upon the weaker party, she has inundated our country with her spies, and we have been compelled as a measure of safety to expel all suspected Germans at the risk of expelling some innocent persons. After ten minutes' deliberation the tribunal agreed unanimously on the prisoner's culpability, and adjourned until to-morrow with the punishment of death. The trial was over in less than two hours, and the prisoner will probably be shot on Wednesday.
